Harold Z. (Hal) Steinbrenner

Managing General Partner / Co-Chairperson

Hal Steinbrenner begins his 24th season with the New York Yankees organization in 2014 and his sixth as Managing General Partner / Co-Chairperson. On November 20, 2008, Major League Baseball formalized Mr. Steinbrenner's role as the New York Yankees' managing partner.

Under Mr. Steinbrenner's leadership, the Yankees have retained and enhanced their global popularity while continuing to field championship-caliber teams. Since 2009, the Yankees' .586 combined winning percentage (475-335) is the best in all of baseball. In 2013, the Yankees led the American League in home attendance for the 11th consecutive year (3,279,589) and their combined draw of 5,970,203 fans at home and on the road paced the AL for the 15th consecutive year.

The 45-year-old son of George Steinbrenner was elected General Partner by the New York Yankees Partnership in 1996, and he held that title for 13 seasons. In 2007, Mr. Steinbrenner was also named Chairman of Yankee Global Enterprises, LLC. In his first full year as Managing General Partner in 2009, the Yankees capped their historic inaugural season in Yankee Stadium with their 27th World Championship.

Along with General Partner / Co-Chairperson Hank Steinbrenner, his responsibilities include overseeing all areas of the club's business and baseball operations, and directing financial aspects of the New York Yankees, Yankee Global Enterprises and affiliates. He has also overseen the dynamic growth of Yankee Stadium as a marquee all-season entertainment venue for concerts, college football, hockey, soccer and other non-baseball events.

Mr. Steinbrenner serves on the Board of Directors for Legends Hospitality, LLC, a concession and merchandising company developed with the Dallas Cowboys, which operates at the Yankees' and Cowboys' new stadiums. Additionally, he is Chairman and CEO of Steinbrenner Hotel Properties and holds a seat on both the Board of Directors of the Boys & Girls Club of Tampa Bay and the Special Operations Warrior Foundation.

Mr. Steinbrenner attended Culver Military Academy and graduated from Williams College in 1991 with a Bachelor of Arts degree. He earned a Master's degree in Business Administration from the University of Florida in 1994. Mr. Steinbrenner and his wife, Christina, currently reside in Tampa, Fla.

Henry G. (Hank) Steinbrenner

General Partner / Co-Chairperson

Henry G. (Hank) Steinbrenner begins his seventh season as General Partner and sixth season as Co-Chairperson of the New York Yankees. Along with Managing General Partner / Co-Chairperson Hal Steinbrenner, Hank, the oldest son of the late George Steinbrenner, is responsible for overseeing all areas of the club's business and baseball operations.

Mr. Steinbrenner is directly involved in player negotiations, setting long-term player recruitment goals and overall club strategy.

Mr. Steinbrenner has served as Chairman and Director of Minch Transit Company, Vice President and Director of Bay Farms Corporation, Vice President and Director of Mid-Florida Hotels Corporation, and has been a member of the board of the Ocala Breeders Sales Company. He has also been involved in numerous not-for-profit causes and a number of children's charities in New York and Tampa Bay.

Mr. Steinbrenner is the founding sponsor of "Hank's Yanks," an 18-and-under summer league baseball team comprised of teenagers from a variety of socioeconomic backgrounds in the New York metropolitan area. Since the team's formation in 2010, Hank's Yanks have won three championships in Yaphank, Long Island's "Baseball Heaven" league and have been victorious in three editions of the "Boss' Cup" youth baseball exhibition, two of which were played at Yankee Stadium.

The "Hank's Yanks" program has grown to include seven teams in multiple locations, including the Bronx, Brooklyn, Long Island, Westchester, Connecticut and Florida. Over 20 players have gone on to receive college scholarships, while nine players have either been signed or drafted by Major League teams, including the Yankees' fourth-round selection in 2011 (Matt Duran). In 2012, Mr. Steinbrenner was recognized for his commitment to Bronx-area youth, receiving The Bronx Chamber of Commerce Humanitarian Award.

Mr. Steinbrenner attended Culver Military Academy and Central Methodist College. He is the father of four children and resides in Tampa, Fla.

The Yankees drew an AL-high 3,279,589 fans to Yankee Stadium in 2013…also led the AL with an average of 40,489 fans at home…marked the 11th consecutive season the Yankees led the AL in attendance…the organization also led the AL in road attendance (2,690,614)…the Yankees' combined draw of 5,970,203 fans topped the AL for the 15th consecutive season.

The Yankees hold the all-time mark of 7,325,051 combined (home/road) fans in 2006…in addition, the Yankees are the only Major League franchise to reach the four-million mark in home attendance in four straight seasons, accomplishing the feat from 2005-08.

Jennifer Steinbrenner Swindal

General Partner / Vice Chairperson

Jennifer Steinbrenner Swindal begins her sixth full season in the role of General Partner / Vice Chairperson of the New York Yankees in 2014. In 2008, Ms. Steinbrenner held the title of Senior Vice President of New Stadium Public Affairs. The elder daughter of George Steinbrenner previously served in the Yankees Public Affairs Department in 1984-85 prior to spending 23 years actively participating in the philanthropic community.

Her present responsibilities include the implementation and integration of various community programs relating to Yankee Stadium. In addition, she serves as the President for the New York Yankees and Tampa Yankees Foundations, overseeing numerous local, regional and national outreach efforts.

Ms. Steinbrenner has a distinguished record of contributing to community projects and initiatives, including current commitments with the Florida State Fair Authority (Executive Committee, Agricultural Committee, and Chairwoman of the Marketing Committee), Board of Directors of Mary Lee's House (a child protection and advocacy center in Tampa), Board of Directors of the Boys & Girls Club of Tampa Bay, Board of Directors/Advisory Committee for the Tampa Salvation Army, and Tiffany Circle of the Red Cross.

Ms. Steinbrenner also serves on the Executive Committee for the Gold Shield Foundation, which was founded in 1981 by her father. The Foundation, which currently covers seven counties in the Tampa Bay area, works to ensure that the families and dependent children of fallen police officers and firefighters receive early financial assistance and are guaranteed funds towards a college education.

Ms. Steinbrenner has also held prior board positions with the Children's Cancer Center of Tampa, H.B. Plant Museum at the University of Tampa, New York Pops, Florida Orchestra, Red Cross Angels of Tampa and Culver Academies.

A Morehead Scholar and 1981 graduate of the University of North Carolina with a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration, Ms. Steinbrenner has previously served on the UNC Board of Visitors and the Parents Council. Her daughter, Haley, also a Morehead Scholar, received her undergraduate degree from UNC in 2008. Her son, Stephen, graduated from UNC in 2011 and currently works with the Yankees in their Baseball Operations Department.

Ms. Steinbrenner was born in Cleveland, Ohio, and makes her home in Tampa, Fla.

Jessica Steinbrenner

General Partner / Vice Chairperson

Jessica Steinbrenner begins her sixth full season as General Partner / Vice Chairperson for the New York Yankees. The younger daughter of George M. Steinbrenner previously served in the role of Senior Vice President for the team in 2008.

Mrs. Steinbrenner currently holds the position of Chief Executive Officer of Bay Farms Corporation. She is also serving as a director on the board of the Florida Thoroughbred Breeders' and Owners' Association. Mrs. Steinbrenner is also actively involved in the aftercare of retired thoroughbreds. In addition, she has authored two children's books: My Sleepy Room and My Messy Room.

Mrs. Steinbrenner attended Culver Girls Academy and graduated from Sweet Briar College in Virginia. She has four children and currently resides in Tampa, Fla., with her husband, Felix.

Joan Z. Steinbrenner

Vice Chairperson

Joan Steinbrenner holds the position of Vice Chairperson of the New York Yankees. Mrs. Steinbrenner was married to Principal Owner George M. Steinbrenner from 1956 until his passing in 2010.

Mrs. Steinbrenner has participated in many community projects and supported numerous philanthropic organizations. Among her many dignified community roles, she was named State Chairperson for the Florida Special Olympics in 1981 and 1982, and for two years was on the Board of Directors of the National Society to Prevent Blindness. She was also a charter member of Town and Gown, established in 1977 in an effort to form a bond between community supporters in the downtown Tampa area and the University of South Florida.

In addition, Mrs. Steinbrenner was a longtime board member for Children's Home, Inc., and was one of the original members of the H.B. Plant Museum Society. From 1991 to 2000 she served on the Development Council of St. Joseph's Hospital Foundation Board. She currently is a member of the Junior League of Tampa, the Chiselers, and sits on the Board of Directors for the Florida Orchestra.

A graduate of Upper Arlington High School in Columbus, Ohio, and Ohio State University, Mrs. Steinbrenner earned a degree in dental hygiene. She has four children, 14 grandchildren and one great granddaughter, and currently resides in Tampa, Fla.

Randy Levine

President

Randy Levine begins his 15th season as President of the New York Yankees in 2014. He was named to his position in January 2000, becoming the first person to hold the post with the club since 1986.

Under his supervision and guidance, the franchise constructed the state-of-the-art Yankee Stadium, completing the facility on time for the beginning of the 2009 season, which culminated in the franchise's 27th World Championship. Mr. Levine was a principal founder of the YES Network, which has been the most-watched regional sports network in the United States. He was also one of the lead negotiators in the recent sale of 80 percent of the network to News Corp. In 2008, Mr. Levine was instrumental in creating Legends Hospitality, LLC, with the Dallas Cowboys which currently operates at the Yankees' and Cowboys' stadiums, as well as many other world famous venues. In 2004, he helped organize Yankees-Steiner, a leading sports memorabilia company.

Mr. Levine has also played a prominent role in the Yankees' international brand expansion, including a transformational partnership in 2013 with Manchester City Football Club to acquire Major League Soccer's 20th expansion team. The new team will be named New York City Football Club (NYCFC) and is slated to begin play in 2015. In 2010, Mr. Levine led a Yankees delegation that visited Tokyo, Beijing and Hong Kong with the 2009 World Series Trophy, marking the first-ever time that the Yankees have brought one of their World Series trophies to Asia. In addition, Mr. Levine helped develop the joint venture agreement in Japan between the Yankees and Yomiuri Shimbun, which is the parent company of the Yomiuri Giants.

In 2007 alone, the Yankees became the first Major League organization to sign players from the Israel Baseball League, embarked on their first-ever large-scale outreach into Taiwan by holding a clinic for high school players and coaches in Taipei, Taiwan, and established a first-of-its-kind working relationship with the Chinese Baseball Association. Mr. Levine is also the Yankees' principal liaison to Major League Baseball and contributes to player negotiations and contract issues.

Mr. Levine has been at the forefront of bringing a diverse array of entertainment and special events to Yankee Stadium, transforming the venue into a year-round destination for a variety of college football, hockey, soccer, music, boxing and corporate events. Highlights have included the January 2014 Coors Light NHL Stadium Series featuring the New York Rangers, New York Islanders and New Jersey Devils; international soccer matches showcasing the likes of Manchester City, Real Madrid, AC Milan, Paris Saint-Germain and Chelsea; concerts by Paul McCartney, Madonna, JAY-Z, Justin Timberlake and Eminem; as well as renewing the tradition of college football at the home of the Yankees with games featuring iconic institutions such as Notre Dame, Army, Syracuse and ascendant powers such as Rutgers, Iowa State, West Virginia and Kansas State.

The Yankees president has also been the driving force behind the creation, organization and implementation of the New Era Pinstripe Bowl. The nationally broadcast contest—which in 2013 set a record with a sellout crowd of 47,122—provides the schools, their alumni and traveling supporters the unparalleled and thoroughly unique opportunity to enjoy a full week of bowl festivities in New York City during Christmas week.

Mr. Levine's baseball and business vision has also led to record numbers at Yankee Stadium turnstiles. In 2013, the Yankees topped the American League in home attendance for the 11th consecutive season (2003-13), leading Baseball in home attendance seven times over that same stretch (2003-08, '10). The Yankees also combined to draw 5,970,203 fans at home and on the road, topping the AL for the 15th consecutive season. In 2008, his direction helped the club establish the all-time AL single-season attendance record of 4,298,543 to become the only Major League franchise to exceed the 4 million mark at home in four consecutive seasons (2005-08).

Before joining the Yankees, Mr. Levine served as New York City's Deputy Mayor for Economic Development, Planning and Administration. He also served as New York City's Labor Commissioner.

From 1995 through 1997, Mr. Levine was Chief Negotiator for Major League Baseball. In 1996, he negotiated the labor agreement that for the first time included revenue sharing, luxury taxes and Interleague play. Prior to that, Mr. Levine served as Principal Associate Deputy Attorney General and Principal Deputy Attorney General at the United States Department of Justice. He has also served as a special delegate to the United States Department of Labor and was a board member for Hudson River Park. Mr. Levine presently serves on the boards of George Washington University, the Yogi Berra Museum and The Taylor Hooton Foundation.

Mr. Levine has served on the Board of Directors of the New Jersey Nets and New Jersey Devils and is a member of the Board of Directors of the YES Network and Legends Hospitality, LLC, and NYCFC. He is also an officer of Yankee Global Enterprises, LLC. Additionally, Mr. Levine serves on the International, Diversity and Labor Policy Committees of Major League Baseball.

Mr. Levine has been a partner in the New York law firm of Proskauer Rose Goetz & Mendelson and is presently Counsel at the law firm of Jackson Lewis P.C.

Born on February 22, 1955, in Brooklyn, N.Y., Mr. Levine received a Bachelor of Arts degree from George Washington University in 1977, and in 2011 was named as Chair of the school's athletic committee. He received his J.D. from Hofstra University School of Law in 1980. Mr. Levine and his wife, Mindy, reside in Manhattan.

Felix M. Lopez, Jr.

Executive Vice President/Chief International Officer

Felix M. Lopez, Jr. begins his fifth season as Executive Vice President/Chief International Officer in 2014. From 2005-09, he served as Yankees Senior Vice President. His current responsibilities include overseeing the daily operations of George M. Steinbrenner Field, the Himes Player Development Complex and the Single-A Tampa Yankees. He is also involved with the Yankees' Latin Baseball Academy in Boca Chica, Dominican Republic, as well as player development in Latin America.

Under Mr. Lopez's supervision, the Yankees' spring training home in Tampa, Fla., has undergone a number of structural enhancements and renovations in recent years, including the expansion of field box seating and the redesign of the Yankees' clubhouse facilities.

Fan-friendly amenities have been at the forefront of Mr. Lopez's operational strategy. The most recent advancement is a newly constructed outfield video scoreboard—nearly three times the size of the outgoing structure—set to debut in 2014 and featuring a 15mm high definition video display. In addition, Mr. Lopez was instrumental in the design of the Brighthouse Networks Dugout Club, located underneath the field box seats behind home plate. In 2011, under Mr. Lopez's guidance, the Yankees Pavilion underwent a complete structural renovation, transforming into a year-round, all-weather multi-purpose event facility. Mr. Lopez also directed the implementation of the Walgreens Deck—located beyond the right field wall—that was unveiled in 2008. The unique and intimate structure features picnic-style seating for 500 people, private concessions and a full bar.

In January 2010, Mr. Lopez headed a Yankees delegation that took the club's 2009 World Series trophy to the Dominican Republic. The visit included stops at the Presidential Palace, U.S. Embassy, National Police Headquarters and Santo Domingo's Quisqueya Stadium for a Dominican Winter League playoff game.

Mr. Lopez also serves on the boards of Yankee Global Enterprises, LLC, and Legends Hospitality, LLC.

Before joining the Yankees, Mr. Lopez was the president and owner of Architecture Design Construction, Inc., a company specializing in commercial construction in the southeastern United States. Born on April 1, 1954, in Havana, Cuba, Mr. Lopez moved to Tampa, Fla., in 1969 and later graduated from Cam Tech School of Construction. He is a member of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of Florida and the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine of North America. He also serves on the board of the Gold Shield Foundation and contributes to the efforts of the Police Athletic League (PAL).

Mr. Lopez and his wife, Jessica, reside in Tampa, Fla.

Lonn A. Trost Chief Operating Officer

Lonn A. Trost begins his 15th season as Chief Operating Officer of the New York Yankees in 2014. He was named to the position on January 10, 2000, after serving as the club's Executive Vice President from 1997-99. This year also marks Mr. Trost's 18th season as Yankees General Counsel, a position he has held since 1997.

Mr. Trost is responsible for the overall day-to-day functioning of the Yankees' operations. Under his direction, the Yankees have seen tremendous growth in brand recognition and sponsorship opportunities, while also establishing single-season home attendance records nine times (1998-99; 2002-08). In 2013, the club led the American League in home attendance for the 11th consecutive season, drawing in excess of 10,000 more fans per home game than the combined average of the 29 other Major League teams. The Yankees have also led the Majors in home attendance seven times in the last 11 seasons (2003-08, '10).

Additionally, Mr. Trost, along with Hal Steinbrenner and Randy Levine, spearheaded the most complex undertaking in New York Yankees history—construction and development of Yankee Stadium, which is the largest privately funded building project in the history of the Bronx. While remaining true to the architectural grandeur of the 1923 original, the current facility is one of the most technologically advanced sports venues in the world.

Mr. Trost has played a significant role in Yankee Stadium becoming a year-round multi-purpose home to special events. Since 2010, Yankee Stadium has played host to an array of landmark activities that transcend baseball, including the 2014 Coors Light NHL Stadium Series featuring the New York Rangers, New York Islanders and New Jersey Devils; concerts by Paul McCartney, Madonna, JAY-Z, Justin Timberlake and Eminem; a world championship boxing match between Miguel Cotto and Yuri Foreman; as well as renewing the tradition of college football at the home of the Yankees with games featuring iconic institutions such as Notre Dame, Army and Syracuse. In addition, Mr. Trost has been an integral figure in the development and growth of the New Era Pinstripe Bowl—held annually for the last four years during Christmas week. The 2013 contest between Rutgers and Notre Dame drew a record sellout crowd of 47,122 to Yankee Stadium.

Mr. Trost was also responsible for reintroducing a long-dormant Yankees tradition of hosting marquee professional soccer at Yankee Stadium. Four of the most high profile soccer teams in the world—Chelsea and Paris Saint-Germain, along with Real Madrid and AC Milan—played a pair of summertime matches in 2012 in front of almost 90,000 combined fans. In 2013, the Yankees established a partnership with Manchester City Football Club and jointly acquired Major League Soccer's 20th expansion team. The new team will be named New York City Football Club (NYCFC) and is slated to begin play in 2015.

Before joining the Yankees, Mr. Trost was a partner and member of the Executive Committee of the law firm of Shea and Gould from 1972 to 1994. He was also a partner at the New York law firm of Herrick, Feinstein from 1994 through 1997. While with these firms, he served as outside general counsel for numerous sports franchises, institutions and agents. Among his clients were the New York Yankees and Mets, the New Jersey Nets and Devils, the National Baseball Hall of Fame, Little League Baseball and TCI Cable.

Mr. Trost was instrumental in the creation of the YES Network and is a member of its Board of Directors. In addition, he serves as an officer and on the Board of Directors for Yankee Global Enterprises and is on the Board of Directors for Legends Hospitality, LLC, both of which he participated in founding. While he maintains his responsibilities with the New York Yankees Partnership and the Yankees' other affiliates, he is also actively involved with the Tourette Syndrome Association, with whom he is a member of the Corporate and Professional Council.

Born on May 8, 1945, Mr. Trost began his legal career in 1971 with the U.S. Justice Department, Office of Chief Counsel (Treasury Department). A 1968 graduate of Hunter College in the Bronx, Mr. Trost received his J.D. from Brooklyn Law School in 1971. It's interesting to note that Mr. Trost's initial employment with the Yankees was as a grandstand vendor in the mid-1960s in the original Yankee Stadium. He resides in Monroe Township, N.J., with his wife, Carol. They have two children, Evan and Audra, and three grandchildren, Ariella, Alexander and Bryn.

Brian Cashman

Senior Vice President, General Manager

Brian McGuire Cashman has literally grown up in the Yankees family. He joined the organization in 1986 as a 19-year-old intern in the Minor League and Scouting Department and now commands one of the most demanding jobs in sports as Yankees Senior Vice President and General Manager.

Over the course of his 28 seasons with the team, he has earned five World Series rings, including four as General Manager, becoming the first GM to win four World Series titles since the Dodgers' Buzzie Bavasi in the 1950s and '60s. Notably, he has won his titles with two different managers — Joe Torre in 1998, 1999 and 2000, and Joe Girardi in 2009.

Mr. Cashman assumed his current post on February 3, 1998. At age 30, he became the second-youngest General Manager in Baseball history. In his first season, he became the youngest-ever GM to win a World Series, and with championships in 1999 and 2000, he became the only GM in Baseball history to win world titles in each of his first three seasons. A pennant in 2001 gave him four straight League Championships, placing him alongside Hall of Fame Yankees General Managers Ed Barrow (1936-39, four) and George Weiss (1949-53, five) as the only GMs in Baseball history to win four-or-more straight league titles at any point in their careers.

Among his peers, Mr. Cashman has achieved unparalleled success while carrying on the winning tradition of the Yankees. His lifetime winning percentage of .599 (1,549-1,039-2) is the highest of any General Manager with at least five seasons of experience whose career began in 1950 or later and marks the best team winning percentage in the Major Leagues during that same stretch. Now in his 17th season, Mr. Cashman has the third-longest tenure among all general managers in baseball (trailing San Francisco's Brian Sabean and Oakland's Billy Beane) and is the longest-serving Yankees GM since Barrow led the team from October 28, 1920, to February 20, 1945.

In all, his clubs have claimed 12 Division titles and six AL championships to go along with four World Series titles. His feat of reaching the playoffs in each of his first 10 seasons (1998-2007) remains unmatched in Baseball history.

In his present role, Mr. Cashman has been involved in dozens of high-profile Major League free-agent signings, including those of Carlos Beltran, A.J. Burnett, Johnny Damon, Jacoby Ellsbury, Orlando Hernandez, Hiroki Kuroda, Hideki Matsui, Brian McCann, Mike Mussina, CC Sabathia, Alfonso Soriano, Masahiro Tanaka, and Mark Teixeira. Mr. Cashman has also executed more than 90 trades involving over 225 players, bringing the talents of Bobby Abreu, Aaron Boone, Roger Clemens, Curtis Granderson, Chuck Knoblauch, David Justice, Michael Pineda, Alex Rodriguez, Alfonso Soriano and Nick Swisher to the Bronx.

There have been three women in Major League history to hold the position of Assistant General Manager, and Mr. Cashman has hired two of them: Jean Afterman, the Yankees' current Senior Vice President and Assistant General Manager; and Kim Ng, who worked for the Yankees from 1998-2001 and currently holds the position of Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations for Major League Baseball.

Various groups have honored the achievements of the Yankees and Mr. Cashman. With the club's most recent World Series title, the Yankees were named "2009 Male Team of the Year" by the United States Sports Academy and were nominated as "Team of the Year" in the Laureus World Sports Awards competition. In both 1998 and 2000, the Yankees earned ESPY Awards — presented by ESPN — as "Outstanding Team of the Year," and were named "Organization of the Year" by Baseball America in 1998 and by USA Today in 1999.

Mr. Cashman has been honored as "Executive of the Year" four times: by the Boston Chapter of the BBWAA in 2000 and 2009; and in 1999 and 2003 by the New Jersey Sportswriters' Association. In 2001, he received his third consecutive "40 Under 40" Award presented by Street & Smith's Sports Business Journal to recognize the top 40 people under the age of 40 who have made the greatest impact in the sports business industry. He has since been inducted into the publication's "40 Under 40" Hall of Fame. In 2003, Mr. Cashman was honored by the Latino Sports Writers and Broadcasters Association with their annual "Latino Achievement Award" for his contributions to the Latino media.

Philanthropy and community involvement play equally important roles in Mr. Cashman's scope of work. For the past four years he has served on the Board of Directors of Covenant House, which provides services for homeless youth. He was honored by the organization with their Beacon of Hope Award in 2011, having participated in the group's CEO Solidarity Sleepout by sleeping on the streets of Manhattan to draw attention to its cause.

In each of the last four offseasons, Mr. Cashman has rappelled down the 22-story Landmark Building in Stamford, Conn., as part of the Christmas-themed Heights and Lights Program, promoting activity in the city's downtown business district. He also traveled to Vermont in November 2011 to join fellow GMs Theo Epstein and Neal Huntington at an event organized by ESPN's Buster Olney to support farm relief in the wake of Tropical Storm Irene.

For his efforts at work and in the community, Mr. Cashman was recognized by the Catholic Youth Organization of New York with the 2011 John C. Mara Sportsman of the Year Award and the 2005 Ossie Davis Award for Inspirational Leadership for promoting diversity in the workplace.

His career as a full-time Yankees employee began following his graduation from Catholic University in 1989, when Mr. Cashman became a full-time Assistant in Baseball Operations. He was later promoted and transferred to Tampa, Fla., where he served as Assistant Farm Director from 1990 to 1992. He returned to New York and became Assistant General Manager, Baseball Administration in November 1992.

Born on July 3, 1967, in Rockville Center, N.Y., Mr. Cashman grew up in Lexington, Ky. He attended Georgetown Prep in Rockville, Md., before attending Catholic University in Washington, D.C., where he majored in history and played intercollegiate baseball. His love for baseball developed when former Brooklyn Dodger Ralph Branca and his wife, Ann, arranged for him to serve as a bat boy for the Los Angeles Dodgers in spring training in 1982.

Mark Newman

Senior Vice President, Baseball Operations

Mark Newman begins his 15th season as the Yankees' Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations and his 26th season with the Yankees. Prior to being named to his current position in 2000, Mr. Newman served as the club's Vice President of Player Development and Scouting from 1997-99.

During his tenure, the Yankees player development system has been recognized for producing homegrown talent, including All-Stars Derek Jeter, Mariano Rivera, Andy Pettitte, Jorge Posada, Robinson Cano, Phil Hughes and David Robertson. Under Mr. Newman's supervision, the Yankees have drafted and guided prospects that have contributed to five World Series titles (1996, 1998-2000, '09) and seven World Series appearances (also 2001 and '03).

In addition to the Yankees participating in Major League postseason play in 17 of the last 19 years (1995-2007, '09-12), the club's minor league affiliates combined to post winning records in 23 consecutive seasons from 1990-2012. The Yankees were selected as the "Organization of the Year" by Baseball America in 1998 and earned the same honor from USA Today in 1999. Over the last eight years (2006-13), Yankees farm teams have captured 12 league championships.

Mr. Newman began his career in the Yankees organization in 1989 as Coordinator of Instruction and served in that position until his promotion to Director of Player Development and Scouting in 1996. He was named Vice President of Player Development and Scouting in 1997. In his first role with the club, he oversaw all managers and coaches in the farm system and planned both Major and Minor League spring training.

In 1972, Mr. Newman began his baseball coaching career at 22 years old as the pitching coach for Southern Illinois University. After spending nine successful seasons there—during which he earned his law degree with honors—he was named Head Baseball Coach at Old Dominion University in 1981. Mr. Newman's impressive 321-167-3 record in nine seasons was recognized with his induction into the ODU Hall of Fame in 1997. He was inducted into the SIU Hall of Fame in 2000.

Jean Afterman

Senior Vice President, Assistant General Manager

Jean Afterman enters her 13th season as the Yankees' Assistant General Manager and third as Senior Vice President in 2014. She became only the third female to hold the position of Assistant General Manager in Major League Baseball history, and is currently the only woman to hold the title.

Ms. Afterman has been an integral part of the Yankees' efforts and operations in Asia. In her first year with the Yankees, she was instrumental in developing the club's relationship with the Yomiuri Giants of the Japan Central League and signing three-time MVP Hideki Matsui. In 2007, she joined team President Randy Levine and General Manager Brian Cashman on a week-long trip to Asia that concluded with a working agreement with the Chinese Baseball Association. She once again joined Levine and Cashman in 2010, when the Yankees brought the 2009 World Series trophy to Tokyo, Beijing and Hong Kong. While in Hong Kong, Ms. Afterman was given the honor of throwing out one of the ceremonial first pitches at the 2010 Phoenix Cup, an annual international women's baseball tournament.

Ms. Afterman's contributions and leadership have been repeatedly recognized. In 2010, she was named by WISE (Women in Sports and Events) as one of the "Women of the Year," and was tabbed by New York Moves magazine as a "Power Woman." Ms. Afterman was named one of the 2004 "Power 100" by the Sporting News, and was selected as one of the "50 Most Powerful Women in New York" by the New York Post in 2003 and 2007. Also in 2007, Ms. Afterman was profiled as one of Crain's New York Business' "100 Most Influential Women in New York Business." In 2008, she was profiled by Forbes as one of the top female executives in Baseball and last year, she was once again profiled on the front page of her hometown newspaper, The San Francisco Chronicle.

Ms. Afterman joined the Yankees with a diverse business and legal background, focusing on international sports and licensing with an emphasis on US-Japan matters. Prior to joining the Yankees, Ms. Afterman managed her own practice, providing athletic representation and management with a specialization in arbitration proceedings. From 1994-99, she was General Counsel at KDN Sports, Inc., and handled business and legal affairs for international baseball clients, including Hideo Nomo, Hideki Irabu, Masato Yoshii, Alfonso Soriano and more than 30 Major and Minor League players. In 1996, Ms. Afterman was appointed by the U.S. Secretary of Agriculture to a federal advisory committee, the National Organic Standards Board.

Ms. Afterman graduated from the University of California at Berkeley in 1979 and was the recipient of the Rosalynn Schneider Eisner Prize and the Mark Goodson Scholarship Grant. She received her J.D. from the University of San Francisco School of Law in 1991. In 2009, she was named "Alumni of the Year" by the Katherine Delmar Burke School in San Francisco.

Ms. Afterman maintains an active role in the Bronx community, working closely with P.S. 35, an elementary school within walking distance from Yankee Stadium. Over the last five years, she has organized Yankees-sponsored Read-A-Thons and directed a mentoring program which matches Yankees employees with fourth and fifth grade students. Additionally, she has reached out to high school-aged students through New York City's Explorers program, which engages young people through career-orientation programs. She received the 2009 "Exploring Leadership Award" for her work with the group. In 2012 and 2013, she served on the Board of Trustees of the Women's Sports Foundation.

Billy Eppler

Assistant General Manager / Pro Personnel

Billy Eppler begins his third season as Assistant General Manager/Pro Personnel with the Yankees, assisting General Manager Brian Cashman in all areas of Major League Operations including player acquisitions, roster composition and management, staffing and personnel decisions, and player contract negotiations. In addition, he oversees all phases and personnel in the Yankees' Major League and professional scouting departments both domestically and internationally.

The 2014 season marks his 10th with the Yankees organization, having been hired by the club as Assistant Director of Baseball Operations on November 1, 2004. He served as Director of Professional Scouting from 2006-09 and Senior Director of Professional Personnel from 2010-11.

Prior to his tenure with the Yankees, Eppler worked for five years in the Colorado Rockies organization where he was hired in January 2000. He was appointed as Area Scouting Supervisor in September of 2000 for the Southern California area. He then joined the front office as Assistant Director of Pro Scouting and Player Development from 2003-04.

A native of San Diego, Eppler graduated cum laude from the University of Connecticut with a Finance degree in 1998, and began his sports career as an intern in the Washington Redskins scouting department. He resides in New York City.

Commitment to Community

The New York Yankees organization takes as much pride in its charitable endeavors as it does in the baseball played on the field. The Yankees' community efforts reach far beyond the Bronx and the tri-state area, encompassing programs and donations throughout the United States and even spanning into Latin America and Asia.

The Yankees strive to create partnerships with programs that support children's initiatives, education enhancement and health awareness. The club's donations, grants, tickets, promotional items and other contributions to such programs exceeded $7.0 million in 2013. Throughout the season, Yankees players and front office personnel make numerous visits to various local hospitals, schools and youth groups, and the club makes every effort to recognize community excellence through outreach and during pregame ceremonies.

ANNUAL FOOD DRIVES

The New York Yankees worked in conjunction with members of the Bronx clergy to host the 20th Annual Holiday Food Drive at Yankee Stadium on Dec. 18, 2013, presented by White Rose Foods. White Rose kicked off the food drive with a donation of more than 15,000 lbs. of food contributing to the day's total of 35,000 lbs, which was distributed to those in need throughout the Bronx. Fans donating 30 lbs. of nonperishable goods received a voucher valid for two tickets to one of 19 designated Yankees games in 2014.

In another holiday tradition, the Yankees and White Rose partnered to hold the Annual Thanksgiving Food Voucher Giveaway at Yankee Stadium on Nov. 21. During the event, Bronx residents were provided with a voucher that could be redeemed at local Met Food or Pioneer Supermarkets to assist with the expenses related to preparing a Thanksgiving meal. Approximately 2,600 food vouchers were allocated.

HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH

As part of the Yankees' annual Hispanic Heritage Month celebration, the organization once again distributed its Community Achievement Awards to recognize those who proudly serve the residents of the Bronx in the areas of arts, athletics, business and education.

The sixth annual ceremony was held on the field on Sept. 4, prior to the Yankees-Rays game. The Yankees honored the accomplishments of El Diario, La Prensa, Rolando Paulino Little League, the Grand Slam Foundation and P.S. 55.

SHARPENING THEIR PENCILS

In 2009, Yankees front office staff members began working with students at P.S. 35 in the Bronx. Under the leadership of Yankees Assistant GM Jean Afterman, mentors from various Yankees front office departments have worked in small groups with students on career awareness and job-readiness projects, such as designing mock advertisements, proposing new product ideas and evaluating player statistics. Additionally, the Yankees have held "Read-A-Thons" to emphasize the importance of reading.

IMMUNIZATION & HEALTH FAIR

Prior to the start of the 2013-14 school year, the Yankees and Lincoln Medical & Mental Health Center partnered to host immunization fairs for Bronx youth (ages 4-18), giving the children the opportunity to receive their required vaccinations and influenza vaccines at no cost.

On Aug. 28, 2013, the Seventh Annual Back-to-School Immunization Fair at Yankee Stadium took place. Families in attendance received information on healthy lifestyle initiatives, food, entertainment, promotional giveaways and tickets to attend a 2013 Yankees home game. During the campaign, the immunization records of approximately 200 Bronx youth were updated to ensure they were ready to start school on time.

YANKEES SPREAD SOME PINSTRIPED CHEER

In association with the New Era Pinstripe Bowl, the Yankees and the Public School Athletic League (PSAL) partnered to host the 2013 PSAL Varsity City Championship Football game at Yankee Stadium on Dec. 10, featuring the Abraham Lincoln H.S. of Brooklyn and Tottenville H.S. of Staten Island. Close to 3,500 people were in attendance to witness Lincoln's 28-27 win.

Additionally, the Yankees honored the best scholar-athletes in New York City on Dec. 17 at Yankee Stadium during the MVP Scholar Athlete Awards Ceremony. The occasion brought together a group of 55 male and female student-athletes—11 from each of New York City's five boroughs—who have led by example in the community, classroom and in their respective sports. In addition, each of the MVPs was invited to attend the 2013 New Era Pinstripe Bowl with family and friends and was recognized on field during the game.

HEALTHY HOME PLATE PROGRAM

Over the last several years, the Yankees and Legends Hospitality have partnered to implement/host healthy lifestyle initiatives at Yankee Stadium. The Healthy Home Plate Program provides area youth (ages 12-15) with the opportunity to participate in a program focused on the importance of preparing healthy, affordable meals and incorporating those meals into their everyday lifestyle. Legends Hospitality opens the doors of various kitchen outlets, where sous chefs engage the youth in attendance with hands-on cooking demonstrations. During the interactive lessons, nutritionists educate students about the nutritional value of the ingredients in the recipes prepared. In recognition of the students' participation/completion of the Program, their efforts are showcased during an on-field pregame ceremony at Yankee Stadium. In addition, each participant receives a personalized chef's jacket, certificate, cookbook for healthy recipes and tickets to attend a game.

USO BIG APPLE PACKS

On Nov. 7, 2013, Yankee Stadium's Great Hall hosted approximately 150 volunteers to help assemble approximately 5,000 USO Big Apple Packs for active servicemen and servicewomen in the third annual edition of this event. Yankees front office employees, service members and veterans were present to help prepare care packages for those serving in our Armed Forces.

On hand to lend support to the cause were Yankees Manager Joe Girardi, former Yankee David Cone and current YES Network broadcaster Michael Kay, who helped assemble packs with various items, including Yankees memorabilia. The USO distributed the packs to troops serving in remote units in Afghanistan during the 2013 holiday season.

Former Yankee David Cone [L] and YES broadcaster Michael Kay helped assemble gift packs for service personnel at the third annual USO Big Apple Packs initiative on Nov. 7, 2013.

MULLALY COMMUNITY CENTER PROJECT

The Yankees teamed up with Publicolor and the Supportive Children's Advocacy Network-NY (SCAN-NY) to transform the Mullaly Community Center with color over the 2013 summer. Publicolor engages disconnected youth in their education through a continuum of design-based programs and academic support, and SCAN-NY provides local youth with positive educational, recreational and social outlets. The objective of this team project was to leave behind a beautiful new environment that is warm, welcoming and student-centric. Employees of the Yankees volunteered their time to paint the facility alongside area youth—while the students "taught" Yankees staff members how to paint, the employees "mentored" the students. The students' efforts were recognized during an on-field pregame ceremony at Yankee Stadium on Aug. 21, 2013. In addition, all of those involved in executing the project were invited to attend the game and treated to a ballpark meal.

HIGH SCHOOL BLOOD DONOR CHAMPIONSHIP

The Yankees and the N.Y. Blood Center established a partnership to address the issue of the declining blood donor population. As a result, the Yankees High School Blood Donor Championship was created. High schools based in the metropolitan area are provided with incentives (tickets, promotional items, etc.) to motivate staff and students 16 years or older to donate blood at their school blood drives. At the conclusion of the academic year, the total number of donations collected at each competing school is tallied, and the top schools are honored with an on-field pregame ceremony. Since the program's inception in 1996, more than 775,000 donations have been made, providing patients in N.Y., N.J. and Conn.-based hospitals with approximately 2.25 million life-saving blood products.

MILITARY APPRECIATION DAY

The Yankees are proud to pay tribute to members of the United States military and, in particular, to the U.S. Special Operations Command. In the past, ceremonies have included demonstrations by the U.S. Army Golden Knights parachute team and the formal presentation of colors.

In addition, the Special Operations Warrior Foundation (SOWF) is recognized annually with a home plate ceremony. The SOWF supports the families of fallen Special Operations personnel by providing full college scholarships to their children. Most recently in 2013, the SOWF received a total of $125,000 in donations from partners of the Yankees.

ALZHEIMER'S AWARENESS MONTH

On Sept. 1, 2013, the Yankees helped the Alzheimer's Association launch Worldwide Alzheimer's Awareness Month, hosting a pregame ceremony that included former University of Tennessee Women's Basketball Coach Pat Summitt and her son, Tyler Summitt. The pair received the 2012 Sargent and Eunice Shriver Profiles in Dignity Award from the Alzheimer's Association for their courage and work with the Pat Summitt Foundation.

Hall of Fame basketball coach Pat Summitt and son, Tyler, were at Yankee Stadium on Sept. 1, 2013, to launch Alzheimer's Awareness Month.

Approximately 5 million Americans live with Alzheimer's and more than 15 million people provide care for those who have it. Throughout the entire month of September at Yankee Stadium, a public service announcement featuring Yankees Manager Joe Girardi, first baseman Mark Teixeira and relief pitcher David Robertson aired during every home game to promote awareness.

WALKING IN A WINTER WONDERLAND

Yankee Stadium transformed into the North Pole on Dec. 13, when the Yankees hosted the 2013 Winter Wonderland event in conjunction with the Bronx Borough President's Office and Legends Hospitality. Approximately 3,500 local youth were treated to a holiday extravaganza in Yankee Stadium's Great Hall, complete with holiday decorations, food, hot chocolate and festive music, including caroling by Harlem RBI's DREAM Chorus. As a result of the commitment of the New York Yankees Foundation, Bronx Borough President's Office and Neil and Amanda Friedman, every child in attendance was presented with a holiday gift.

Yankee Stadium's Great Hall has been transformed into the North Pole each year since 2010 as part of the Winter Wonderland event.

NEW YORK POPS MUSICAL MENTORS

For more than 15 years, the Yankees and the New York Pops have partnered to captivate the attention of area youth with the sound of music. The New York Pops serves educators, schoolchildren and families with musical educational programming throughout the five boroughs of New York City. Their flagship program, Musical Mentors, provides children from underserved communities with the opportunity to learn music through a constructive and inspiring means. Together, the Yankees and the New York Pops have implemented various Musical Mentors Programs within various Bronx Public Schools.

BRONX BOROUGH PRESIDENT'S CUP

The Yankees partnered with the Bronx Borough President's Office to host the Bronx Borough President's Cup Championship baseball game at Yankee Stadium on August 17, 2013. The teams were made up of Bronx Little Leaguers who excelled on the baseball diamond and in the classroom. Approximately 1,250 fans were in attendance to recognize the achievements of the participating student athletes.

GIRL SCOUT DAY AT YANKEE STADIUM

On May 18, 2013, the Yankees welcomed Girl Scouts from nine troops across the Bronx – representing Wakefield, Riverdale, Van Cortlandt Park, Williamsbridge, City Island, Castle Hill, Parkchester, Highbridge and Hunts Point. The Yankees joined in celebrating 100 years of Girl Scouting and the organization's continuing work to transform today's girls into tomorrow's leaders. More than 650 girl scouts were in attendance to celebrate this milestone.

Special honorees included Rose Littlejohn, Board President of GSGNY; Dian Chambers, a Girl Scout Leader from the Bronx; Jasmine Rudolfo, the top cookie seller in the Bronx, who sold more than 1,000 boxes of cookies this year; and Junior Girl Scout, Hailey Ascencio.

Additionally, the New York Yankees Foundation has supported Girl Scouts with grants to fund programs such as the Girl Scout Career Exploration Program, which is designed to broaden the career horizons of disadvantaged girls in five under-resourced schools in the South Bronx.

ROBERTSON NOMINATED FOR 2013 ROBERTO CLEMENTE AWARD

Yankees relief pitcher David Robertson was named the team's 2013 nominee for the Roberto Clemente Award, which recognizes a Major League Baseball player who best represents the game of baseball through positive contributions on and off the field, including sportsmanship and community involvement.

David, along with his wife, Erin, founded High Socks for Hope (a 501c3 nonprofit organization) after tornadoes devastated his hometown of Tuscaloosa, Ala. in 2011. High Socks for Hope's mission is to lend support to charities and organizations helping those affected by tragedies and to provide humanitarian services for individuals in need.

In addition to helping residents of Tuscaloosa, High Socks for Hope has provided aid to those affected by the May 20, 2013, tornado in Moore, Okla., as well as individuals in New York who were affected by Hurricane Sandy. To help raise money for those in Tuscaloosa, Robertson donated $100 for every strikeout he recorded throughout the 2011-13 seasons, racking up 258 strikeouts over the stretch. Robertson continued the pledge in 2013 for the residents of Moore.

In June 2013, David and Erin Robertson welcomed home families displaced by Hurricane Sandy.

In June 2013, the Robertsons teamed up with volunteers from NBTY Helping Hands to help welcome home families displaced by Hurricane Sandy. The Robertsons delivered and unloaded new furniture for four families in Far Rockaway, N.Y., and made an additional donation to help furnish homes for six other families in the Far Rockaway area.

Yankees HOPE Week 2013

The 2013 season marked the Yankees' fifth annual HOPE Week (Helping Others Persevere & Excel) – an initiative rooted in the belief that acts of goodwill provide hope and encouragement to more than just the recipient of the gesture.

Each day during HOPE Week, the Yankees reached out to an individual, family or organization worthy of recognition and support. Whenever possible, the Yankees attempted to personally connect with individuals in the settings of their greatest successes at locations that honor the spirit of their noble endeavors. All outreach in the community ultimately culminates with recognition at Yankee Stadium during a Yankees game.

HOPE Week is about people helping people. By involving every one of our players and coaches, along with Manager Joe Girardi, General Manager Brian Cashman, our minor league affiliates and front office staff, we are sending the message that everyone can give of themselves to make their community a better place. Equally significant during HOPE Week is garnering publicity for the highlighted causes and organizations. The greatest challenge facing many not-for-profits is generating interest, awareness and funding for their missions.

Additionally, nonprofit 501(c)3 organizations related to the 2013 honorees each received a $10,000 gift from the Yankees Foundation to assist and encourage them to continue their good works.

MONDAY, JULY 8

The New York Yankees kicked off HOPE Week 2013 by celebrating Rockaway Special Athletes (RSA), the group's founder, Joe Featherston, along with St. Camillus/St. Virgilius Parish (the group's original home) and St. Rose of Lima School (which took the group in after Hurricane Sandy destroyed the St. Camillus gymnasium). Yankees players Ivan Nova, Zoilo Almonte, Adam Warren, David Adams, Preston Claiborne and Alberto Gonzalez joined in one of their get-togethers at St. Rose of Lima School in Rockaway Beach. The Yankees and RSA participants played games such as kickball, Wiffle ball and basketball in the school gym. RSA participants and their families visited Yankee Stadium for the 7:05 p.m. game vs. Kansas City. The athletes watched batting practice from the field and were part of pregame on-field ceremonies.

TUESDAY, JULY 9

The Yankees celebrated 10-year-old Autumn Blinn and her dedication to those in need through her "Pillows of Love" initiative. Yankees Manager Joe Girardi and players Robinson Cano, David Robertson, Vernon Wells and Eduardo Nunez surprised Autumn and assisted her in handing out homemade pillows to sick children at the Ronald McDonald House on the Upper East Side of Manhattan. The players, Autumn, and her family spent time with the children, playing games in the playroom of the facility and having a pizza party. Autumn and her family were the Yankees' guests that night for the game vs. Kansas City, watching batting practice from the field and being honored in pregame on-field ceremonies.

Organizational Initiative

The Yankees are proud that in 2013, each of their six U.S.-based affiliates held their own HOPE Weeks, truly making the initiative one that the entire organization stands behind in words and in action.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 10

The Yankees held the third day of HOPE Week 2013 by celebrating the New Beginning Animal Rescue (NBAR), located in an industrial part of the East Bronx. NBAR takes in unwanted, abandoned, abused or stray pets and attempts to find suitable homes for each of them. Some of the volunteers are local high school students who gain a sense of pride and purpose in caring for the animals. Yankees players Ichiro Suzuki, Brett Gardner and Shawn Kelley surprised NBAR founder Pedro Rosario and his staff, which includes local youth who are getting the chance to gain valuable animal-care skills at a young age. The players took a tour of the facility in the morning and helped with some of the shelters' daily chores. Later that evening, Rosario hosted a booth at Yankee Stadium, where he talked about adoption with fans.

THURSDAY, JULY 11

On the fourth day of HOPE Week, the Yankees celebrated the non-profit group Birthday Wishes and its founder, Lisa Vasiloff. Founded in 2002, Birthday Wishes provides birthday parties for children living in homeless shelters. The group believes that every child, regardless of their living situation, should have their birthday recognized and celebrated. The organization has found that something as simple and "normal" as a birthday party has the power to provide validation to these children and improve their self-esteem. Birthday Wishes currently serves more than 175 shelters and transitional living facilities in Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Long Island. For the HOPE Week event, homeless families with children celebrating birthdays in July were the Yankees' special guests at Yankee Stadium. The group arrived at the Gate 2 lobby before entering the field through the centerfield fence. They walked around the warning track to the Yankees dugout, where they met Yankees manager Joe Girardi. They then were brought to a suite where Yankees players Mariano Rivera, CC Sabathia, Mark Teixeira, Hiroki Kuroda, Phil Hughes, David Phelps and bullpen coach Mike Harkey surprised them with a birthday party, including live music, games, food and cake.

FRIDAY, JULY 12

The Yankees recognized the efforts of Kirk and Laura Smalley and Stand for the Silent. In 2010, the Smalleys' 11-year-old son, Ty, committed suicide as a result of relentless bullying. In the wake of his death, a group of Oklahoma high schoolers founded the organization to raise awareness about the dangers of bullying. In just three years, Stand for the Silent (now led by Kirk and Laura) has spoken to almost 700,000 students, parents and teachers in the U.S. and abroad. As part of the HOPE Week event, the Yankees joined Kirk and Laura in the Great Hall at Yankee Stadium for a presentation of Stand for the Silent. Kirk, along with Yankees players and coaches, spoke to several hundred students, parents and administrators from local school and community groups about the importance of respecting others. They were also joined in support by WWE's The Big Show.

President's Volunteer Service Award

At the conclusion of each of the last four HOPE Weeks (2010-13), the Yankees were honored with the President's Volunteer Service Award, given "in recognition and appreciation of commitment to strengthening the Nation and for making a difference through volunteer service." The award was bestowed by the President's Council on Service and Civic Participation in conjunction with the Corporation for National and Community Service. Additionally, all HOPE Week honorees have also received the award.

- Re-signed to a four-year contract on October 9, 2013, extending through the 2017 season…was named the 32nd manager in club history on October 30, 2007, becoming the 17th Yankees manager to have played for the club and fourth former Yankees catcher to skipper the team (also Bill Dickey, Ralph Houk and Yogi Berra)…was re-signed to a three-year contract on October 29, 2010, that concluded following the 2013 season.

AT THE HELM IN 2013

- Guided the Yankees to an 85-77 (.525) finish, tied with Baltimore for the third-best record in the AL East behind Boston (97-65, .599) and Tampa Bay (92-71, .564).
- Earned his 557th win as Yankees manager on 9/11 at Baltimore, surpassing Billy Martin (556) for sole possession of sixth place on the club's all-time managerial wins list.
- Earned his 600th managerial win on 7/1 at Minnesota…won his 500th game as Yankees manager on 5/10 at Kansas City, reaching the mark in 844 games and becoming the fifth-fastest in club history to reach the milestone behind Casey Stengel (790 games), Joe McCarthy (796 games), Joe Torre (833 games) and Miller Huggins (833 games).
- Managed his 1,000th career game on 5/3 vs. Oakland (2-0 loss)…his .566 (642-492) career managerial winning percentage is the highest by any skipper with at least 1,000 games managed since Hall of Famer Earl Weaver tallied a 1,480-1,060 (.583) mark over a 17-year managerial career (1968-82 and '85-86).
- Was ejected twice (8/18 win at Boston by Brian O'Nora and 5/31 win vs. Boston by Vic Carapazza)…has been ejected 23 times in his career during the regular season, 20 times as a manager (18 as Yankees manager) and 19 times as a Yankee (also 8/6/99 as a player)…was also ejected in 2012 ALCS Game 2 vs. Detroit by 2B Umpire Jeff Nelson.
- At 48 years old, was the fifth-youngest manager in the Majors in 2013, behind Houston's Bo Porter (41), St. Louis' Mike Matheny (43), Seattle's Eric Wedge (45) and Chicago-AL's Robin Ventura (46).

IN THE WIN COLUMN

Owns a 642-492 (.566) career managerial record, trailing only Sparky Anderson (683), Frank Chance (662), Al Lopez (660) and Joe McCarthy (643) for the most wins by any manager in his first seven years at the helm (credit: Elias).

Has 564 wins as the manager of the Yankees, fourth-most in franchise history through a manager's first six seasons with the team behind Casey Stengel (590), Joe Torre (582) and Joe McCarthy (577)-credit: Elias.

MANAGERIAL/COACHING CAREER

- Enters his seventh season as Yankees manager in 2014 with a 564-408 (.580) record, the Majors' best mark since 2008.
- Since taking over in 2008, the Yankees lead the Majors with a .986 fielding percentage.
- Ranks sixth on the Yankees' all-time managerial wins list (564), trailing Joe McCarthy (1,460), Joe Torre (1,173), Casey Stengel (1,149), Miller Huggins (1,067) and Ralph Houk (944).
- Was the only manager to take his team to the postseason each year from 2009-12.
- Joins Joe McCarthy, Casey Stengel and Joe Torre as the only Yankees skippers to lead the club to at least four consecutive postseasons.

- Appeared in 39 career postseason games as a player, most among all current American League managers...among Major League managers who concluded the 2013 season with their respective teams, only Cincinnati's Dusty Baker (40) appeared in more postseason games as a player.
- Is one of only four Yankees managers to record at least 95 wins in four-or-more consecutive seasons (2009-12), along with Joe McCarthy (1936-39), Casey Stengel (1949-57) and Joe Torre (2001-06)...only five other Major League managers have accomplished the feat: Sparky Anderson (1972-76 w/ Cincinnati), Frank Chance (1906-10 w/ Chicago-NL), Bobby Cox (1996-2000 w/ Atlanta), Connie Mack (1928-31 w/ Philadelphia) and Billy Southworth (1941-45 w/ St. Louis).
- Guided the 2012 Yankees to an AL-best 95-67 (.586) finish, the third-best record in the Majors behind Washington (98-64, .605) and Cincinnati (97-65, .599).
- Earned his 500th career win as manager on 6/15/12 at Washington...earned his 420th win as Yankees manager on 6/12/12 at Atlanta, surpassing Clark Griffith (419) for sole possession of seventh place on the Yankees' all-time managerial wins list...reached 400 wins as Yankees manager on 5/8/12 vs. Tampa Bay.
- Guided the 2011 Yankees to the best record in the AL (97-65, .599), owning at least a share of first place in the AL East for 98 days, including each of the final 26.
- Managed his 500th game with the Yankees in 4/17/11 win vs. Texas, becoming the ninth manager in franchise history to reach the plateau (also Clark Griffith, Ralph Houk, Miller Huggins, Billy Martin, Joe McCarthy, Buck Showalter, Casey Stengel and Joe Torre)...only Houk, McCarthy and Stengel had a better record than Girardi (296-204) through their first 500 games as Yankees manager—credit: Elias.
- The 2011 squad became the fourth team in Baseball history to record at least 220HR and 140SB, joining Colorado (1996), Toronto (1998) and Texas (2009).
- Guided the 2010 Yankees to the second-best record in the AL (95-67) and back to the postseason, falling to Texas in the ALCS...the club led the Majors with 48 come-from-behind wins...did not lose more than four straight games and was the last team in the Majors to be swept in a series of at least three games (9/10-12 at Texas).
- Led the Yankees to their 27th World Championship in 2009 in his second season, becoming the ninth Yankees manager to win a World Series...was his postseason managerial debut...joined Ralph Houk and Billy Martin as the only three Yankees to play for and manage a Yankees World Championship team...joined Houk, Bob Lemon and Casey Stengel as the only four Yankees managers to win a World Series in their first postseason as a manager.
- Led the club to a Major League-best 103-59 regular season record in 2009, their most wins since 2002 (103-58)...became the eighth Yankees manager to collect at least 100 wins in a full season, joining Miller Huggins, Joe McCarthy, Casey Stengel, Ralph Houk, Billy Martin, Dick Howser and Joe Torre...joined McCarthy, Houk, Martin and Howser as the only five Yankees skippers to accomplish the feat within their first two full seasons with the team...finished third in AL Manager of the Year voting with 34 total points, including four first-place votes.
- The Yankees' 114 total wins in 2009 (including postseason) tied their second-most ever in a single year behind the 125 victories of the 1998 squad (also 114 wins in 1927)...was a member of the 1998 Yankees (114-48), becoming the only active Major League manager at the time to both play for and manage teams that won at least 100 games in a season and won a World Series, according to Elias...became the only Major League manager in the 2000s to lead a team to 100-or-more regular season wins and a World Series title.
- Earned his 200th career managerial win on 6/7/09 vs. Tampa Bay...earned his 100th win as Yankees manager on 4/29/09 at Detroit.
- Led the Yankees to an 89-73 record in 2008 in his first season as the club's skipper...was one of only two managers (also the Angels' Mike Scioscia) whose team did not lose more than four consecutive games during that season...won his Yankees managerial debut on 4/1/08 vs. Toronto.
- Earned his 100th career managerial win on 5/22/08 vs. Baltimore...was ejected by HP umpire Chris Guccione in the bottom of the ninth inning.
- Was named the 2006 NL "Manager of the Year" by the BBWAA and the Sporting News...guided the Florida Marlins to a 78-84 record in his first season as a Major League manager...since the award was established in 1983, became one of only three men in either league to win the honor in their managerial debuts: also Houston Astros' Hal Lanier (1986) and the San Francisco Giants' Dusty Baker (1993)...at the age of 41, became the youngest manager in Marlins history (previously 47-year-old John Boles in 1996)...was named Marlins manager just two seasons after retiring as a player prior to the 2004 campaign, marking the shortest time between being an active player (2003) and making a managerial debut (2006) since 1987, when both John Wathan (Kansas City) and Larry Bowa (San Diego) became managers after last playing during the 1985 season.

ACTIVE MANAGERS TO WIN WORLD SERIES IN FIRST POSTSEASON

WISE BEYOND HIS YEARS

In 2009, Joe Girardi became the youngest manager in Yankees history to win a World Series. He remains the fourth-youngest World Series-winning manager over the last 34 years (1977-2010) behind Minnesota's Tom Kelly (1987 and '91), the White Sox's Ozzie Guillen (2005) and the Mets' Davey Johnson (1986).

- Became the first manager in the Modern Era (since 1900) to improve his club's record above .500 after falling at least 20 games below the .500 mark during the same season...the Marlins were a season-low 20 games under .500 on 5/21 (11-31), but then went 62-41 through 9/12 to improve to 73-72...the only other Major League team to return to the .500 mark after falling 20 or more games below was the 1899 Louisville Colonels (managed by Fred Clarke), who were 22 games under at 16-38 and improved to 72-72-3 before finishing with a record of 75-77-3.
- Managed Anibal Sanchez's no-hitter on 9/6/06 vs. Arizona...was the fourth no-hitter in Marlins history and the fourth no-hitter that Girardi has been a part of, having caught two (Dwight Gooden's on 5/14/96 and David Cone's perfect game on 7/18/99) and been a teammate in one (David Wells' perfect game on 5/17/98)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, Girardi became the first person since Jeff Torborg to both catch and manage a no-hitter...Torborg managed Wilson Alvarez's no-hitter on 9/11/91 with the White Sox after catching no-hitters by Sandy Koufax (perfect game, 9/9/65), Bill Singer (7/20/70) and Nolan Ryan (5/15/73).
- Made his coaching debut in 2005, as bench coach and catching instructor on Joe Torre's Yankees staff...assisted in guiding the Yankees to a 95-67 (.586) record and the American League East title.

PLAYING CAREER

- Played parts of 15 seasons as a catcher in the Major Leagues with the Chicago Cubs (1989-92 and 2000-02), Colorado Rockies (1993-95), New York Yankees (1996-99) and St. Louis Cardinals (2003)...was a member of three World Series Championship teams in New York (1996, 1998-99) and played in a total of six postseasons with the Cubs (1989), Rockies (1995) and Yankees (1996-99).
- In 1,277 career Major League games, batted .267 (1,100-for-4,127) with 454 runs, 186 doubles, 36HR and 422RBI, finishing with a .991 career fielding percentage while throwing out 27.6% of potential base stealers...batted .184 (21-for-114) with 2 triples and 1RBI in 39 career postseason games.
- Saw his first Major League action in 1989 as the Cubs' Opening Day catcher...was the first rookie catcher to start a season opener for the Cubs since Randy Hundley in 1966...was selected to Baseball Digest's All-Rookie Team...played in four games of the 1989 NL Championship Series against San Francisco, recording one hit.
- Played his first full big league season in 1990...stole eight bases, the most by a Cubs catcher since Gabby Hartnett's 10 in 1924...ranked second among NL catchers in assists (61) and threw out 33.3% of baserunners attempting to steal (38-of-114).
- On 8/7/91, in his first game back after missing nearly four months with a strained lower back, suffered a broken nose in a home plate collision with the Phillies' John Kruk.
- Was selected by the Colorado Rockies with the 19th pick in the Expansion Draft from the Cubs...established career highs with 8HR, 55RBI and 63R in 1995 with the Rockies.
- Was acquired by the Yankees on 11/3/95 from the Rockies in exchange for LHP Mike DeJean...hit a career-high .294 with 2HR and 45RBI for the 1996 World Series Champions...stole 13 bases, marking the highest total among big league catchers and a record for a Yankees catcher...stole home on the front end of a double steal on 4/11 vs. Kansas City, becoming the first Yankees catcher to steal home since Jake Gibbs on 7/13/68...had two triples during the 1996 postseason, including a run-scoring three-base hit off Greg Maddux in Game 6 of the World Series at Yankee Stadium.
- Was the catcher for Dwight Gooden's no-hitter on 5/14/96 vs. Seattle...in his final season as a player with the Yankees, caught David Cone's perfect game on 7/18/99 vs. Montreal...had a career-high 7RBI on 8/23/99 in a 21-3 victory at Texas, going 4-for-6 with 2 doubles and 1 triple.
- Rejoined the Cubs organization in 2000 and earned his first and only trip to an All-Star Game that season in Atlanta as a replacement for the injured Mike Piazza (did not play)...when he homered on 5/2/00 vs. Houston off Jose Lima, it was his first Cubs home run since 5/8/92...only one player, Billy Jurges (nine years, 1938-47), had a longer span between homers with the Cubs.
- Recorded his 1,000th Major League hit on 5/27/01 vs. Milwaukee off Jimmy Haynes - a seventh-inning, game-winning, two-run double.
- Was one of the Cubs' co-captains in 2001 and 2002.
- Played his final career game on 9/28/03 at Arizona with the St. Louis Cardinals...his single in the ninth inning off the Diamondbacks' Edgar Gonzalez gave him 1,100 career hits.

DID YOU KNOW??? Joe Girardi and Yogi Berra are the only Yankees catchers to be behind the plate for two regular season no-hitters. Girardi was the catcher for Dwight Gooden's no-hitter on 5/14/96 vs. Seattle and David Cone's perfect game on 7/18/99 vs. Montreal. Berra caught both of Allie Reynolds' no-hitters in 1951.

From the Bronx with Care

In each of the last three Novembers (2011-13), the Yankees have partnered with the USO to assemble a total of 15,000 Big Apple Packs of snacks, books, games and Yankees memorabilia for active servicemen and servicewomen serving in Afghanistan during the holiday season. Assisting in the efforts have been Yankees front office employees, volunteers from PepsiCo, FedEx, ESPN and Disney, as well as service members and veterans. The program is part of the USO's Veterans Day "Day of Service."

Also on hand to lend support to the cause have been Yankees Manager Joe Girardi and former Yankees pitcher and current YES Network broadcaster David Cone. Girardi also assisted at a similar event sponsored by Bank of America at their downtown Manhattan office in 2010.

Joe Girardi and David Cone [far L] and have teamed up with the USO in all three years (2011-13) of the Big Apple Pack event.

MANAGERIAL/COACHING CAREER

- Enters his sixth season as Yankees bench coach in 2014…is his ninth season on the Yankees' Major League staff, serving as first base coach from 2006-08 and catching instructor over the entire span…since joining the staff, Yankees catchers have caught 279 potential base stealers, tied with San Francisco for most in the Majors over the stretch.
- Managed the 2013 World Baseball Classic-champion Dominican Republic team and became the first WBC manager to lead his team to an undefeated record (8-0).
- Previously spent parts of four seasons managing the Kansas City Royals from 2002-05.
- In his first full season as manager in 2003, led the Royals to an 83-79 record, the sixth-best turnaround in Major League history following a 100-loss season…the 2003 season marked Kansas City's first winning season since 1993, when they went 84-78.
- Was selected as the 2003 American League "Manager of the Year" by the Baseball Writers' Association of America, becoming the fourth manager since 1983 to win the award in his first full, non-abbreviated season as a Major League skipper (also Houston's Hal Lanier, 1986; San Francisco's Dusty Baker, 1993; and San Diego's Bruce Bochy, 1996)… also named the 2003 AL "Manager of the Year" by both Sporting News and Sports Illustrated.
- Became only the third Dominican-born manager in Major League history, joining Felipe Alou and Luis Pujols.
- Began his Major League coaching career in 2002 as the bench coach for the Houston Astros…was named Royals manager on 5/15/02.
- Also served as manager of Triple-A New Orleans from 1999-2001…began his coaching career as Chicago-AL's Coordinator of Dominican Operations in 1998 and led the Aguilas Dominican team to the Caribbean Series title.

PLAYING CAREER

- A five-time National League All-Star catcher, Pena posted a .260 career batting average over an 18-year Major League career, appearing in 1,988 games for the Pittsburgh Pirates (1980-86), St. Louis Cardinals (1987-88), Boston Red Sox (1990-93), Cleveland Indians (1994-96), Chicago White Sox (1997) and Houston Astros (1997).
- Ranks sixth all time among ML catchers with 1,950 games behind the plate, trailing Ivan Rodriguez (2,427), Carlton Fisk (2,226), Bob Boone (2,225), Gary Carter (2,056) and Jason Kendall (2,025).
- Won four Gold Glove Awards (1983-85, 1991) and recorded a .338 career postseason batting average…was named Topps' Rookie All-Star catcher in 1981 and was selected to the UPI Rookie All-Star Team…originally signed as a non-drafted free agent by the Pittsburgh Pirates on 7/22/75 and made his Major League debut on 9/1/80.

PERSONAL

- Married (Amaris) with two sons: Tony, Jr. (a member of the White Sox organization) and Francisco Antonio (a catcher in the Kansas City Royals system)…also has a daughter, Jennifer Amaris, who won the Miss Dominican Republic-U.S.A. beauty pageant in 2007…his brother, Ramon, pitched with the Detroit Tigers organization.
- Was elected into the Latino Baseball Hall of Fame on 2/11/12 at the Altos de Chavón amphitheater located in the Casa de Campo resort in La Romana, D.R.
- Did not play high school baseball…credits his mother, who was an outstanding softball player, with teaching him how to play the game.
- Took part in the Yankees' hurricane relief donation of $35,000 in cash and food to the Dominican Republic in October 2007.
- Joined the Yankees delegation and the 2009 World Series trophy on 1/7/10 to meet Dominican Republic President Dr. Leonel Fernandez at the National Palace in Santo Domingo.

COACHING CAREER

- Begins his 25th season as a member of the Yankees organization in 2014, seventh on the Yankees Major League coaching staff and sixth as third base coach…served as the club's bench coach for the 2008 season.
- Also oversees Yankees outfielders, who combined for a .993 fielding pct. (1,119TC, 8E) in 2013, the second-best mark in the Majors behind Baltimore (.995).
- Stood in for manager Joe Girardi for three games in 2008, going 1-2 (games count in Girardi's official total)…is believed to be the first Canadian to manage or stand in to manage a Major League game since George (Mooney) Gibson with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1934…was 0-2 from 4/4-5/08 vs. Tampa Bay when Joe Girardi missed two games with an upper respiratory infection…won on 5/23 vs. Baltimore while Girardi served a one-game suspension…also guided the Yankees to a "walk-off" victory on 5/22 vs. Baltimore when Joe Girardi was ejected in the sixth inning (went in the books as Girardi's 100th career managerial victory)…again took over following a Girardi ejection on 7/5/08 vs. Boston, with the Yankees recording a "walk-off" win.
- Served as the Yankees' Major League field coordinator in 2007 after spending the previous three seasons (2004-06) as a special assignment instructor…was named to the Yankees' Major League coaching staff on 11/4/03.
- Joined the Yankees organization in 1990 as a third base coach for Single-A Ft. Lauderdale.
- Coached in the Yankees system for five years before taking over as manager of Single-A Oneonta of the NY-Penn League in 1995.
- Served as the third base coach at Triple-A Columbus in 1996 and 1997 before moving to the Yankees front office as a field coordinator in 1998.
- Was promoted to director of player development in 2000 and named vice president of minor league development prior to the 2003 season.

PLAYING CAREER

- Attended the University of Kansas and was selected in the 32nd round of the 1985 First-Year Player Draft by the Detroit Tigers.
- Was a catcher and a third baseman in the Tigers system from 1985-88 before joining the Tigers' minor league coaching staff in 1988.

PERSONAL

- He and his wife, Michele, have two daughters, Jacqueline and Christina.

STATUS

- Signed by the Yankees as a non-drafted free agent on July 2, 2005...signed through the 2014 season.

2013

- Saw his first Major League action, batting .236 (25-for-106) with 9R, 4 doubles, 1HR and 9RBI in 34 games (24 starts in LF and three in RF) with the Yankees.
- Was recalled from Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 6/18.
- Made his Major League debut in 6/19 Game 2 loss vs. the Dodgers, pinch-hitting for Austin Romine in the ninth and grounding out.
- Recorded his first Major League hit with a pinch-hit single off of Kyle Farnsworth in the ninth inning of 6/20 loss vs. Tampa Bay.
- Hit solo HR—the first of his Major League career—and was 3-for-4 in 6/21 win vs. Tampa Bay, making his first career start in LF...also recorded his first career RBI and multi-hit game...according to YES Research, became just the second Yankee since 1916 to record at least 3H and 1HR in a single game within his first three Major League games, joining Oscar Azocar (7/18/90 vs. Kansas City in his second game)...became the first Yankee with at least 3H in one of his first three Major League games since D'Angelo Jimenez (4H on 9/19/99 at Cleveland in his third game).

Home Sweet Home

The Yankees went 46-35 (.568) at Yankee Stadium in 2013. It marked the Yankees' 22nd consecutive winning season at home (since 1992)…according to Elias, it is the longest current streak of any team in the Majors and the longest such streak by any team since a Major League-record 47-year streak for the Yankees from 1918-64.

The Yankees collected at least 50 wins at home in each of their first four seasons at the current Yankee Stadium (2009-12)…in 2012, Yankee Stadium became the second ballpark to host the postseason in each of the first four years of its existence, joining Atlanta's Turner Field (first six)—credit: Elias.

The Yankees own the top two highest single-season home winning percentages all time: .805 (62-15) in 1932 and .802 (65-16) in 1961.

Thurman Munson Award

Each summer, the Cape Cod League presents the Thurman Munson Award to the player with the highest batting average in the league. The award is presented in memory of the great New York Yankee catcher and captain, whose life ended on August 2, 1979, when the private jet he was piloting crashed near his hometown of Canton, Ohio. Munson starred for the 1967 Chatham A's, for whom he batted .420. The following spring, the Yankees made him their first-round draft choice.

STATUS

- Selected by the Yankees in the 17th round of the 2010 First-Year Player Draft...signed through the 2014 season.

- Was 0-2 with a 4.11 ERA (50.1IP, 23ER) in 44 relief appearances over four stints (5/3-8/16, 8/20, 8/22-25 and 9/2-29) with the Yankees...opponents batted .260 (51-for-196, 7HR); LH .323 (30-for-93, 2HR), RH .204 (21-for-103, 5HR)...retired 31-of-44 first batters faced (70.5%)...stranded 26 of his 32 (81.3%) inherited runners...appeared in consecutive games seven times and three straight games once.
- Was signed to a Major League contract and selected to the Yankees' 25-man roster from Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 5/3.
- Threw 19.1 consecutive innings to start his Major League career before issuing his first walk on 6/12 at Oakland...marked the second-longest streak of its kind for any Yankee pitcher to begin his Major League career (John Frill broke into the Majors with a streak of 20.2IP without a walk for the Highlanders in 1910)...was the longest such streak to begin any pitcher's big league career since Edward Mujica had a 21.1-inning streak for Cleveland, spanning the 2006 and '07 seasons (credit: Elias)...did not allow a walk in 14 consecutive games to begin his Major League career, tying the best such streak in the Majors since 1900 (also Dave Veres for the 1994 Astros and Jose Arredondo for the 2008 Angels).
- Made his Major League debut in 5/5 loss vs. Oakland, tossing 2.0 perfect IP...became the first player from the Yankees' 2010 draft class to appear in the Majors.
- Recorded his first Major League strikeout in 5/8 win at Colorado, retiring Todd Helton swinging to end a perfect seventh inning (1.0IP, 1K).
- Made his third appearance in as many games on 6/13 at Oakland, allowing 2H and 1ER in 1.1IP (1K) to suffer his first Major League loss in the 18-inning contest.
- Allowed a career-high 4ER in 1.0IP (4H, 1BB, 2K) in 8/10 loss vs. Detroit...had allowed just 9ER in the first 38.0IP of his career entering the game.
- Was optioned to Scranton/WB on 8/16, but recalled for the Yankees' doubleheader sweep vs. Toronto on 8/20, serving as the club's "26th Man" on the roster...was optioned back to Scranton/WB following the game since the recall occurred within 10 days after being optioned to the minors...was again recalled on 8/22 when Jayson Nix was placed on the 15-day disabled list.
- Was optioned to Single-A Tampa on 8/25 to make room on the 25-man roster for Derek Jeter, who returned from the 15-day D.L. on 8/26...made one relief appearance with Tampa, tossing 1.0 scoreless inning (1BB, 1K) before being recalled on 9/2.
- Began the season with Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre, recording three saves (in three chances) over eight relief outings, allowing 4ER in 10.1IP (3.48 ERA, 14H, 1BB, 10K).
- Attended spring training with the Yankees as a non-roster invitee, going 1-0 with a 0.84 ERA (10.2IP, 1ER) in 10 relief appearances, striking out 10 batters.

- Ranked fourth in the AL with a .328 (120-for-366) average vs. RHP...hit .323 (64-for-198) with runners on base, including a .500 (6-for-12) mark with the bases loaded.
- Batted .375 (30-for-80) in 19 Interleague games, hitting safely in 17 of those contests.
- Set a Red Sox club record with 11SB in April, breaking his own record of 10SB in April 2009.
- Scored the "walk-off" run in the 10th inning on 4/13 vs. Tampa Bay...singled, stole second base, advanced to third on an error and scored on Shane Victorino's infield single.
- Stole the 200th base of his career on 4/26 vs. Houston, becoming the third Red Sox player to reach the mark, along with Harry Hooper (300) and Tris Speaker (267), and the first to do so in the Live Ball Era (since 1920)...reached the mark in his 604th career game, fewest in Red Sox history.
- Recorded his fourth career "walk-off" hit with a ninth-inning, two-run double on 5/26 vs. Cleveland, marking his third "walk-off" hit vs. Cleveland (also 8/2/11 and 8/3/11) and second off Joe Smith.
- Scored at least one run in a career-high 10 straight games from 5/27-6/12 (12R total)...was the longest such streak by a Red Sox player since Kevin Youkilis did so in 11 consecutive games from 5/16-28/06...had both a hit and walk in all 10 games, becoming Boston's first player to accomplish the feat since Johnny Damon did so in 11 consecutive games from 8/24-9/8/04.
- Set a career high and Red Sox franchise record with 5SB on 5/30 at Philadelphia...the previous mark of 4SB was set by Jerry Remy on 6/14/80 at California and matched by Ellsbury on 8/9/10 at New York-AL...marked the most stolen bases in a game by any Major Leaguer since Tampa Bay's Carl Crawford had 6SB on 5/3/09 vs. Boston...also tied a career high by reaching base five times in the game (fifth time, first since 9/13/11 vs. Toronto).
- Missed five games from 5/31-6/5 with tightness in his left groin.
- Recorded a stolen base in six consecutive games from 6/8 (Game 1)-6/13 (9SB total)...according to Elias, was the longest streak by a Red Sox player since Tris Speaker's eight straight games with a steal from 5/19-30/1913.
- From 6/8-12, became just the second Red Sox player since 1922 to have a streak of five straight starts with at least 1R, 1H and 1SB, joining Tommy Harper from 6/1-8/74.
- Hit safely in an AL-season-high 19 straight games from 6/19-7/11, batting .413 (33-for-80) over the stretch...was the second-longest hitting streak of his career behind a 22-game streak from 5/2-27/09.
- Matched his career highs on 8/6 at Houston with 2HR (fourth time, first since 9/25/11-Game 1 at New York-AL) and 4R (third time, first since 9/13/11 vs. Toronto).
- Over his final 12 games of the season (8/27-9/29), hit .353 (18-for-51) with 13R, 3 doubles, 2HR, 6RBI and 5SB.

STATUS

- Selected by the Yankees in the third round of the 2005 First-Year Player Draft...signed through the 2014 season.

CAREER NOTES

- Has stolen 161 bases in 199 career attempts...his 80.9% success rate is tied for fifth among active players in the American League with at least 120 career stolen base attempts.
- Ranks ninth on the Yankees all-time stolen base list (161)...surpassed Roger Peckinpaugh (143), Alex Rodriguez (145), Bert Daniels (146), Tony Lazzeri (147), Bernie Williams (147), Phil Rizzuto (149), Horace Clarke (151), Roberto Kelly (151) and Mickey Mantle (153) in 2013.
- Collected 103SB within his first three years in the Majors (6/30/08-6/29/11)...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, were the most SB by a Yankee within three years of his debut since Ben Chapman, who stole 113 bases from 4/16/30-4/15/33.
- Stole his 100th career base on 6/14/11...came in his 364th game and 124th career attempt...according to Elias, during the Live Ball Era (since 1920, the same year caught stealing became an official stat in the AL), only Rickey Henderson (162 games) and Ben Chapman (313) reached 100SB for the Yankees in fewer games...Elias also notes his 24CS at the time of his 100th stolen base were the fewest among players who made their Major League debut with the Yankees in the Live Ball Era...broke the previous record held by Mickey Mantle, who had 27CS at the time of his 100th stolen base in 1960...overall, became the third Yankee since 1920 with as few as 24CS at the time of his 100th stolen base with the club, joining Rickey Henderson and Alex Rodriguez.
- Recorded his 50th stolen base in his 171st game, the first Yankee to reach the plateau in as few games from the start of his career since Fritz Maisel on 6/21/1914 (102 games)—credit: Elias Sports Bureau.
- Is one of three Yankees all-time with at least 45SB in back-to-back seasons (2010-11), joining Fritz Maisel (1914-15) and Rickey Henderson (1985-86).
- Collected 23 triples over his first four Major League seasons (2008-11), becoming the second Yankee in the Expansion Era (since 1961) to collect at least 20 triples over his first four seasons in the Majors (all with the Yankees), joining Derek Jeter (22, 1995-98).
- Has hit 23 home runs in his career, with the Yankees going 20-3 in those contests...eight of his 23HR have tied the game or given the Yankees the lead.
- In his career, has batted .354 (17-for-48) with 1 double, 2 triples, 1HR, 40RBI and 5BB with the bases loaded.
- Has made five career Opening Day rosters for the Yankees (2009-13).

- Hit .273 (147-for-539) with 81R, 33 doubles, 10 triples, 8HR, 52RBI and 24SB in 145 games (130 starts in CF, one at DH) with the Yankees...led the AL in triples, the first Yankee to do so since Hank Bauer and Gil McDougald each had an AL-leading nine triples in 1957.
- Was the first Yankee since Snuffy Stirnweiss in 1945 to collect at least 30 doubles, 10 triples and 20SB in a single season.
- Set single-season career highs in hits, doubles and home runs...reached 20SB in a season for the fourth time in his career (also 2009-11).
- Went 4-for-5 in 4/9 win at Cleveland, batting in the leadoff position...with Robinson Cano going 4-for-6 in the No. 2 spot in the lineup, became the Yankees' first No. 1 and No. 2 batters each to record at least 4H in the same game since CF Bernie Williams (4-for-6) and 3B Wade Boggs (4-for-5) did so in a 12-3 Yankees win on 7/22/94 at the Angels.
- Had 2SH in 4/12 win vs. Baltimore, becoming the first Yankees position player (non-pitcher) with multiple sacrifice hits in the same game since doing so himself on 3/31/11 vs. Detroit.
- Played in his 500th career game in 4/29 loss vs. Houston.
- Scored a run in six straight games from 5/24-30, tying the second-longest such streak of his career (also 9/25-10/3/10) behind an eight-game span from 4/30-5/8/10.
- Hit a two-out, two-strike, game-tying RBI single in the ninth inning on 5/25 at Tampa Bay...was the first two-out, two-strike hit by a Yankee in the ninth inning that tied the game or gave the Yankees the lead in a road game since Alex Rodriguez's go-ahead three-run HR in the ninth inning on 9/17/10 at Baltimore (off Koji Uehara).
- Hit three-run HR and was 2-for-3 with 1SH in 6/5 win vs. Cleveland...was the second time in 2013—and his career—that he homered and had sacrifice hit in the same game (also 4/26 vs. Toronto)...joined Houston's Robbie Grossman as the only Major Leaguers with more than one such game in 2013.
- Was named AL "Player of the Week" for the period ending on 6/9, batting .520 (13-for-25) with 5R, 5 doubles, 1HR and 6RBI during the stretch...was his first career "Player of the Week" award and the first by a Yankee in 2013.
- Had a career-high 9H over a three-game span from 6/8-11 (3H on 6/8 at Seattle, 4H on 6/9 at Seattle and 2H on 6/11 at Oakland).
- Struck out at least once in a franchise-record 16 straight games from 6/21-7/8—credit: Elias.
- Was ejected by HP Umpire Mike Everitt in the fifth inning of 7/19 loss at Boston for arguing balls and strikes...was his second career ejection (also 7/21/10 vs. Los Angeles-AL by Paul Emmel, also arguing balls and strikes).
- With his 10th-inning "walk-off" single in 8/9 win vs. Detroit and ninth-inning "walk-off" HR in 8/11 win vs. Detroit, became the first Yankee with two "walk-off" hits in a span of three-days-or-less since Claudell Washington in 1988 (credit: Elias)...the single was his first "walk-off" hit since 6/16/11 vs. Texas...the solo HR was his first career "walk-off" HR and fifth "walk-off" hit.
- Collected his 500th career hit with a fifth-inning single in 8/26 loss at Toronto.
- Of his final 17 hits of the season (from 8/27), 10 went for extra bases (8 doubles and 2 triples).
- Did not play in the Yankees' final 15 games of the season (9/13-29) with a left oblique strain...left 9/12 win at Baltimore after the top of the first inning with the injury, which was suffered on a checked-swing.

- Was limited to 16 games (8GS in LF) with the Yankees, batting .323 (10-for-31) with 7R, 2 doubles and 3RBI.
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 4/19 (retroactive to 4/18) with a right elbow strain...was transferred to the 60-day D.L. on 6/26 and reinstated on 9/25, missing 142 team games...was scratched from the lineup prior to 4/18 loss vs. Minnesota with the injury that occurred during the game the night before, making a diving catch to end the third inning.
- Began a rehab assignment with Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 5/8...played in two rehab games, combining to go 3-for-5 with 1R, 1 triple and 2BB in 2GS in LF...was returned from rehab on 5/10 after experiencing soreness and swelling.
- Played in an additional rehab game on 6/8 with Single-A Charleston, playing five innings in LF and going 1-for-3 with 1R and 1SB...was again returned from rehab after experiencing stiffness in his right elbow.
- Met with Dr. Timothy Kremchek on 6/14, who agreed with the Yankees' previous diagnosis of an elbow muscle strain, bone bruise and joint inflammation which had not fully healed...underwent arthroscopic surgery on the elbow on 7/24, performed by Dr. Christopher Ahmad at NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital.
- Made his first appearance since 4/17 in 9/26 win at Minnesota, entering as a ninth-inning defensive replacement in LF...his pinch-hit at-bat in 10/1 win vs. Boston and pinch-hit single in 10/3 win vs. Boston were his first plate appearance and hit since 4/17 vs. Minnesota.

- Appeared in five postseason games for the Yankees, going 0-for-8 with 2SB…started ALCS Game 3 (in LF) and Game 4 (in CF), both at Detroit.

- Hit .259 (132-for-510) with 87R, 19 doubles, 7HR, 36RBI and 60BB in 159 games (124 starts in LF and 10 in CF) with the Yankees…tied for the AL lead and tied for second in the Majors with 49 stolen bases (in 62 attempts)…along with Coco Crisp, was the co-recipient of the Negro Leagues Baseball Museum's James "Cool Papa" Bell Award given annually to the AL and NL leaders in stolen bases.
- Was successful in 44 of his last 51 stolen base attempts (86.3%) beginning on 5/20 after having just 5SB in his first 11 tries of the season.
- Hit in seven different spots in the lineup during the 2011 season…No. 1: 57G, .230 (53-for-230); No. 3: 1G, .000 (0-for-0, 1BB); No. 5: 3G, .667 (2-for-3); No. 6: 7G, .000 (0-for-7, 1BB); No. 7: 17G, .371 (13-for-35); No. 8: 25G, .397 (29-for-73); No. 9: 49G, .217 (35-for-161).
- Was 0-for-2 with 2SH in 3/31 Opening Day win vs. Detroit, becoming the first Yankees outfielder with 2SH in a single game since Roberto Kelly on 4/22/88 vs. Toronto.
- Hit three home runs in a six-game stretch from 4/23-28…hit solo HR and was 1-for-3 in 4/26 loss vs. Chicago-AL, marking the first time the Yankees lost a game in which he homered (had been 9-0 in such games).
- Hit game-winning "walk-off" single in the 12th inning and was 2-for-2 on 6/16 vs. Texas, entering the game in the ninth inning as a defensive replacement in LF…was his third career "walk-off" hit—all coming in extra innings.
- Hit his first career leadoff HR—and the Yankees' only leadoff HR in 2011—in 6/19 win at Chicago-NL.
- Successfully stole a base in 22 straight attempts from 6/25-8/9…according to Elias, was the longest such streak by a Yankee since Derek Jeter's 22 in-a-row from 7/20/01-6/2/02…Elias also notes it was the longest single-season streak by a Yankee since Rickey Henderson's franchise record of 28 straight stolen bases without being caught in 1988.
- Recorded 13SB in July, tied with Rajai Davis for most in the AL for the month…was the first Yankee since 1920 (when the AL began tracking caught stealing) with 13-or-more SB in a calendar month without being caught…his total was the highest for a Yankee in a calendar month since Tony Womack stole 14 bases in May 2005.
- Stole at least one base in a career-long five straight games from 7/16-20, marking the longest such streak for a Yankee since Alfonso Soriano in 2002 (credit: Elias).
- Went a career-high 48PA without a strikeout from 8/10-21 (previous career high was 35PA in 2009)…struck out looking in the first inning of 8/23 loss vs. Oakland to snap the stretch…had been the longest active streak without a strikeout in the Majors—credit: Elias Sports Bureau.
- Hit .412 (7-for-17) with 3R, 1 double, 5RBI in the ALDS loss vs. the Tigers…tied for team lead in hits for the series.

- Hit .277 (132-for-477) with 97R, 20 doubles, 7 triples, 5HR, 47RBI and 47SB in 150 games (96 starts in LF, 38 in CF) with the Yankees…stole 47 bases in 56 attempts (83.9%), tied for the fourth-most SB in the Majors.
- Led all Major Leaguers with 4.61 pitches seen per plate appearance…swung at only 7.6% of first pitches, the lowest such mark in the Majors…had 75H with two strikes, tied for seventh-most in the Majors.
- Became the seventh Yankee in the last 70 years to reach the 40-steal plateau in a season (also Rickey Henderson, Roberto Kelly, Mickey Rivers, Steve Sax, Alfonso Soriano and Snuffy Stirnweiss)…marked the most steals by a Yankee in a single season since Rickey Henderson in 1988 (93SB)…recorded 45.6% of the Yankees' 103SB in 2010, the highest percentage by a Yankee since Henderson in 1988 (63.7%, 93-of-147)—credit: Elias.
- Ranked by Baseball America as the AL's third-fastest and third-best baserunner.
- Tied for second in the Majors with 12 outfield assists…his nine assists as a leftfielder trailed only Minnesota's Delmon Young (12) for most in the Majors.
- Stole home on the back end of a double steal in the fourth inning of 4/4 Opening Day loss at Boston…became the first Yankee to steal home since Alex Rodriguez on 7/31/04 vs. Baltimore (also part of a double steal) and the first Major Leaguer to steal home on Opening Day since Oakland's Mike Bordick on 4/6/92 vs. Kansas City (credit: Elias).

- Hit .323 (21-for-65) with 14R and 10SB in April, marking the most SB by a Yankee in March/April since Chuck Knoblauch's AL-high 11SB in 2001...Rickey Henderson is the only other Yankee with double-digit steals in March/April (3x: 1988-20; 1986-15; 1989-14).
- Was removed from 6/8 win at Baltimore for PH (Thames) in the eighth with a sore left thumb and missed the next two games...underwent X-rays on 6/9 (results were negative).
- Was hit by a pitch in 6/27 loss at Los Angeles-NL, leaving in the top of the fourth with a bruised right forearm...was diagnosed with a right wrist contusion after X-rays were negative...missed 6/29-7/1 series at Seattle...hit .233 (56-for-240) over the remainder of the season.
- Was ejected for the first time in his career during his seventh-inning AB in 7/21 win vs. Los Angeles-AL (arguing balls/strikes).

- Was signed to a Major League contract and selected to the 25-man active roster from Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 6/30, making his Major League debut that night in a loss vs. Texas and going 0-for-3 with 1SB as the leadoff hitter...according to Elias, was the first Yankee to make his Major League debut in the leadoff spot since Roberto Kelly on 7/29/87 vs. Kansas City.
- Was 8-for-8 in stolen base attempts before being caught for the first time in 9/15 win vs. Chicago-AL...according to Elias, was the first Yankee to begin his Major League career with eight straight successful stolen base attempts since Andy Fox went 8-for-8 in 1996.
- Recorded his first Major League hit—a seventh-inning single off Warner Madrigal—and was 1-for-4 with 2R, 1RBI, 1BB and 1SB in 7/2 win vs. Texas, also recording his first run and RBI.
- Notched his first career "walk-off" hit in 7/6 win vs. Boston, going 2-for-5 with 1R, 1RBI and 1SB...singled home Robinson Cano from second base in the 10th inning (off Jonathan Papelbon)...became the first Yankee to record a "walk-off" hit in his sixth career game or earlier since Alfonso Soriano (also in his sixth game) in 1999—credit: Elias...Elias also notes he was the first Yankees rookie to provide a "walk-off" hit vs. Boston since Derek Jeter hit a 10th-inning single off Joe Hudson in a 12-11 Yankees victory on 9/21/96.
- Also had "walk-off" RBI single on 8/16 vs. Kansas City, becoming the first Yankees rookie with two "walk-off" hits in one season since Hideki Matsui in 2003 (credit: Elias)...Elias also noted that he became the first Major Leaguer to record two game-ending RBI within his first 20 career games since Ted Simmons had two in his first seven Major League games spanning from 1968-69.
- In 94 games with Scranton/WB, hit .296 (101-for-341) with 68R, 12 doubles, 11 triples, 3HR, 32RBI, 70BB, 11SH and 37SB, while recording 27 multi-hit games...led all Yankees farmhands in SB and tied for fourth in average.
- Hit the first "walk-off" HR in Scranton/WB Yankees history on 4/23 vs. Buffalo, a solo HR in the bottom of the ninth.
- Was tabbed as having the IL's "Best Strike Zone Judgment" and being the IL's "Best Baserunner" by Baseball America following the season...was also named to the publication's Triple-A All-Star team...entered the season ranked by Baseball America as the eighth-best prospect in the organization and as the "Fastest Baserunner."

- Hit .281 (108-for-384) with 18 doubles, 8 triples, 1HR, 35RBI and 39SB in 99 combined games with Double-A Trenton and Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre...led all Yankees minor leaguers in stolen bases and tied for the Thunder team lead with five triples.
- Began the year at Trenton, batting .300 (61-for-203) with 18SB in 54 games.
- Was promoted to Scranton/WB on 7/13, where he hit .260 (47-for-181) and successfully stole a base in 21-of-24 attempts...hit his first professional home run on 8/21 vs. Rochester, leading off the game in a 3-1 loss.
- Following the season, played with the Peoria Javelinas, hitting safely in 24-of-26 contests and leading the Arizona Fall League in stolen bases (16) and runs scored (27) while ranking second in hits (37), tying for third in walks (17), and placing fourth in on-base percentage (.433) and fifth in batting average (.343)...was named to the 2007 Arizona Fall League Top Prospects Team.
- Entered the season ranked as the Yankees' 10th-best prospect by Baseball America.

- Hit .298 (134-for-449) with 16 doubles, 8 triples, 35RBI and 58SB in 118 combined games with Single-A Tampa and Double-A Trenton...batted .336 (38-for-113) off left-handed pitchers.

Bobby Murcer Recognized

Oklahoma Christian University dedicated the new Bobby Murcer Indoor Training Facility on September 23, 2011.

OCU officials and members of Bobby Murcer's family were on hand to celebrate the opening of the $503,000 facility, named after the Oklahoma City native and New York Yankees player and broadcaster, who died in July 2008 at age 62 after battling brain cancer.

Although he never attended Oklahoma Christian, Murcer—who attended Southeast High School in Oklahoma City and was one of the state's most famous baseball players before being drafted by the Yankees—had strong ties with many people associated with the university, as he and his wife, Kay, attended Memorial Road Church of Christ, which is located immediately southwest of the OCU campus.

The Bobby Murcer Indoor Training Facility is located on the northwest corner of the Oklahoma Christian campus, next to Dobson Field, where the Eagles' baseball team plays its home games. The 12,800-square-foot facility includes 8,000 square feet of workout space, including batting cages. The facility also includes a clubhouse with showers, an athletic training area, a weight training area and laundry facilities.

The lobby of the facility includes photos from Murcer's playing and broadcasting careers, special wallpaper depicting various scenes from OCU's baseball history and plaques honoring the 10 Oklahoma Christian players who have received NAIA All-America honors through the years.

STATUS

- Selected in the first round (sixth pick overall) of the 1992 First-Year Player Draft...re-signed to a three-year contract on December 7, 2010...contract extended through the 2013 season with a one-year player option for 2014...signed a one-year contract on November 1, 2013.

CAREER NOTES

- Has played for the Yankees in 19 different seasons (1995-2013), surpassing Yogi Berra and Mickey Mantle and tying Mariano Rivera (also 1995-2013) for the most seasons played with the club in franchise history.
- Leads all active Major Leaguers with a franchise-record 3,316 career hits...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, is the first Yankee to be the Major League's active hits leader since Johnny Mize in 1952...owns the most hits by a shortstop in Major League history.
- His 3,316 career hits rank ninth on Baseball's all-time hits list...in 2013, surpassed Hall of Famer Eddie Collins (3,313) on 9/3...among the eight players currently ahead of him on the all-time hits list, two played at least one career game at shortstop (Paul Molitor and Honus Wagner).
- Reached the 3,300-hits mark at 38 years, 96 days old on 9/30/12...among the 10 players to reach that milestone, only Ty Cobb (age 36 in 1923) did so at a younger age.
- Is one of only six players in Baseball history to compile at least 3,000H in his first 17 seasons, along with Pete Rose-3,372, Stan Musial-3,116, Hank Aaron-3,110, Ty Cobb-3,053 and Paul Waner-3,042.
- Joins Willie Mays as the only players to record at least 3,000H, 250HR, 300SB and 1,200RBI in their careers.
- Has earned five career Gold Glove Awards at SS (2004-06, '09-10), tied for the fifth-most such awards at SS by any player in Baseball history...is one of six shortstops since 1958 (when Gold Glove Awards were first awarded in each league) to win the honor at least five times (2004-06, '09-10)...is one of five Yankees to accomplish the feat: also Don Mattingly (nine-time winner), Dave Winfield (five), Ron Guidry (five) and Bobby Richardson (five).
- Had his streak of recording 150H in 17 consecutive seasons (1996-2012) snapped in 2013...according to Elias, is one of only two players all time along with Hank Aaron (also 17 in-a-row from 1955-71) to compile such a streak.
- Has reached the 200-hit plateau eight times in his career, tying Lou Gehrig's club record and marking the most 200H seasons ever by a shortstop in Baseball history...also owns 11 seasons with at least 190 hits, surpassing Stan Musial (10) for the third-most 190H seasons behind Pete Rose (13) and Ty Cobb (12)—credit: Elias.
- Owns the most hits in Major League history from the shortstop position, surpassing Luis Aparicio (2,673) on 8/16/09 at Seattle...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, is one of four players all time to record 1,500R and 1,500 games played at shortstop (also Bill Dahlen, Honus Wagner and Cal Ripken, Jr.).

- Led the Majors with 216H...also led the Majors in hits in 1999 (219H), becoming the first player in franchise history to finish a season as the outright Major League leader in hits multiple times...is just the fourth player to record a 200-hit season 14-or-more years after his first one, joining Ty Cobb, Pete Rose and Paul Molitor...only one other player as old as Jeter (age 38) finished a season as the Major League leader in hits (Pete Rose – 140H for the Reds in the strike-shortened 1981 season at age 40)—credit: Elias...his 200th hit came in his 145th game of the season, matching his fewest games needed to reach 200H (also 145 games in 1999 and 2009).
- Became the fifth player to record a 200-hit season at age 38 or older, joining Paul Molitor (age 40 in 1996), Sam Rice (twice, age 40 in 1930 and age 38 in 1928), Jake Daubert (age 38 in 1922) and Pete Rose (age 38 in 1979)—credit: Elias...only Molitor (225H) had more hits.
- Ranked among AL leaders in at-bats (first), average (fifth) and runs (ninth)...tied Miguel Cabrera for the most multi-hit games (64) in the Majors...also led the AL in road average (.347) and average vs. LHP (.364).
- According to Elias, his 216H were the most in a season by a player who entered the year with 3,000-or-more career hits, surpassing Ty Cobb's previous mark of 211H in 1922 and '24.
- From the time he returned from the D.L. on 7/4/11 through the end of the 2012 season, hit .321 (310-for-967) with 144R, 47 doubles, 19HR and 99RBI in 228 regular season games...led the Majors in hits over the stretch...batted .372 (110-for-296) off left-handed pitching over the span.
- Led the Majors in hits in both April (37) and August (43)...according to Elias, prior to 2012 had held the outright Major League lead in hits during a calendar month twice in his career – 44H in May 1998 and 50H in August 1998.
- Hit five leadoff HR in 2012 (8/21 at Chicago-AL, 6/20 vs. Atlanta, 6/3 at Detroit, 4/16 vs. Minnesota and 4/10 at Baltimore), tying his most in a single season (also 2005).
- At age 38, became the oldest player ever to hit at least 10HR in a season from the shortstop position, surpassing Pee Wee Reese who did so in 1955 at age 37 (credit: Elias)...surpassed Honus Wagner (181H at age 38 in 1912) for most hits by a shortstop in his age-38 season or older.
- Made just 10E in 506TC (.980 fielding pct.), tied for third-fewest errors among all Major League shortstops.

In a Letter to Derek Jeter on March 3, 2009

"[You are] Major League Baseball's foremost champion and ambassador. You embody all the best of Major League Baseball…you have represented the sport magnificently throughout your Hall of Fame career. On and off the field, you are a man of great integrity, and you have my admiration."

—Commissioner Bud Selig

- Along with Robinson Cano (204H), became just the fifth pair of Yankees teammates (sixth time) to each collect at least 200H in the same season…also Lou Gehrig and Earle Combs (1927), Gehrig and Joe DiMaggio (1936, '37), Bernie Williams and Jeter (1999) and Alfonso Soriano and Williams (2002)…also joined Cano as the first pair of teammates in Baseball history to reach 200H in a season at the shortstop and second base position (credit: Elias).
- Marked his third season with at least 200H and 30SB, the most such seasons for any SS.
- Was the AL's top overall All-Star vote-getter for the first time in his career, garnering 4,851,889 fan votes to earn his 10th career All-Star selection and sixth as the AL's starting shortstop…went 0-for-2 with 2R and 1HBP in the 4-3 American League win in St. Louis on 7/14, playing five innings as the AL's starting SS.
- Recorded the first unofficial hit by a Yankee at the current Yankee Stadium with a first-inning double on 4/3 vs. the Cubs in an exhibition game…played for Team USA in the World Baseball Classic, batting .276 (8-for-29) with 2 doubles in eight games (four starts at SS, three at DH).
- Recorded the first at-bat by a Yankee in Yankee Stadium in 4/16 loss vs. Cleveland…prior to his first-inning plate appearance, the bat used by Babe Ruth to hit the first home run in the first game at the original Yankee Stadium on 4/18/1923 was placed across the plate in a symbolic nod to the original Stadium.
- Scored his 1,500th career run in 6/2 win vs. Texas…became the fourth Yankee (also Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig and Mickey Mantle) to reach the plateau…reached the milestone in his 2,035th career game…only Rickey Henderson (1,891), Alex Rodriguez (1,903), Mickey Mantle (1,949) and Willie Mays (2,009) did so in fewer games than Jeter in the Expansion Era (since 1961)—credit: Elias.
- His third-inning RBI double on 8/16 at Seattle was his 2,674th career hit as a shortstop (also has 13 hits as a DH), surpassing Luis Aparicio (2,673) for the most hits in Major League history from the shortstop position (credit: Elias).
- Batted .344 (22-for-64) with 14R, 5 doubles, 3HR and 6RBI in 15 postseason games, leading the team in hits…reached base safely in all 15 contests, trailing only Barry Bonds (17 straight in 2002) and Gary Sheffield (16 straight in 1997) for the longest streak of reaching base in a single postseason…collected his third career postseason leadoff HR in the ALCS Game 3 loss at Los Angeles-AL, the first leadoff HR by a Yankee in ALCS history…batted .407 (11-for-27) in the World Series, hitting safely in all six games and marking his most hits in any postseason series…became the oldest starting shortstop on a World Series-winning team since Pee Wee Reese in 1955…donated his bat from Game 6 of the World Series to the Baseball Hall of Fame.

HIT MACHINE

According to Elias, prior to Jeter setting the all-time franchise hits record on 9/11/09, Lou Gehrig had held the mark since 9/6/37, when he surpassed Babe Ruth (2,518H)…Willie Keeler led the Highlanders in hits in 1903, their first season in New York, and he remained the all-time leader for New York until Hal Chase passed him in August 1911…Chase led the franchise until Sept. 1922, when he was followed by Wally Pipp (1922–1929), then Ruth (1929–1937).

- Hit .300 (179-for-596) with 88R, 25 doubles, 3 triples, 11HR and 69RBI in 150 games with the Yankees (147 starts at SS, two at DH).
- Committed 12 errors…was the second-fewest errors among AL shortstops with at least 100 games played at the position, trailing only Texas' Michael Young (10).
- Was selected to his ninth All-Star Game…finished second in the AL with 3,737,437 votes (behind teammate Alex Rodriguez)…was 1-for-3 (first-inning infield single) with 1SB in the All-Star Game on 7/15 at Yankee Stadium…following the season, was named to the 2008 Sporting News AL All-Star team, which was selected by a panel of 41 general managers and assistant general managers from both leagues…also earned his third consecutive Silver Slugger Award.
- Missed six games from 4/8-13 with a strained left quadriceps…was the longest stretch of consecutive DNPs in his career, not counting times he's been on the D.L. (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).
- Hit his first home run of the season and was 2-for-5 with 2R in 5/10 win at Detroit, snapping a 128AB homerless stretch, the longest streak to begin a season of his career (credit: Elias).
- Went hitless in five straight games (0-for-18), his longest such streak since going hitless in seven straight from 4/21-28/04…was picked off second base in the top of the sixth inning by Dennis Sarfate in 5/27 loss at Baltimore…was the first time he was picked off any base since 9/2/98–credit: Elias.
- Turned 34 years old on 6/26…his 2,438 career hits were the most by a Yankee before turning 34 years old (17 more than Lou Gehrig when he turned 34)…was the most among all active players prior to their 34th birthday…in AL history, only Ty Cobb and Robin Yount accumulated more hits than Jeter before turning 34.
- In 7/12 win at Toronto, hit his 200th home run as a Yankee…Elias notes that with Jason Giambi (8/9) and Alex Rodriguez (8/12) also hitting their 200th Yankees homers in 2008, became the first teammates on any club to reach the 200HR plateau together in the same season.

- Became the 88th player all time—and the sixth then-active Major Leaguer—to reach the 2,500-hit plateau with his first-inning single in 8/22 win vs. Baltimore…also became the third player in Yankees franchise history to tally 2,500 hits with the club, joining Lou Gehrig (2,721) and Babe Ruth (2,518)…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, only two players in the last 65 years were younger than Jeter (34 years, 57 days) at the time of their 2,500th hit (Hank Aaron in 1967 and Robin Yount in 1989).
- In 9/7 loss at Seattle, hit solo HR to mark his 1,000th career RBI…had a third-inning single to tie Babe Ruth (2,518) for second place on the all-time Yankees hit list…collected his 2,519th career hit with a first-inning single off the Angels' Ervin Santana on 9/9 at Los Angeles, surpassing Ruth…marked the first time since 6/22/33 that someone other than Ruth or Gehrig occupied first or second place on the Yankees' all-time hits list (credit: Elias).
- Went 6-for-7 in 9/13 doubleheader vs. Tampa Bay, going 3-for-4 in Game 1 loss and 3-for-3 in Game 2 win…according to Elias, became the first Yankee to record 3H in each game of a doubleheader in remodeled Yankee Stadium (since 1976) and only the sixth Yankee over the last 40 years to accomplish the feat at any park (Johnny Damon in 2006, Willie Randolph in 1987, Dave Winfield in 1983, Matty Alou in 1973 and Roy White in 1972)…also recorded 3H in the series finale on 9/14, finishing the series 9-for-11 and reaching base in 11 of his 13 plate appearances (1BB, 1HBP)…became the fifth player (and second Yankee) to record at least three hits in every game of a series of three games or more at Yankee Stadium, joining Boston's Edgar Renteria (2005), the Yankees' Ken Griffey Sr. (1982), Oakland's Reggie Jackson (1973) and Boston's Dom DiMaggio (1949)–credit: Elias.
- With a first-inning single off Gavin Floyd in 9/16 loss vs. Chicago-AL, passed Lou Gehrig (1,269) in all-time hits at the original Yankee Stadium…in the same at-bat, gained sole possession of second place on the Yankees' all-time at-bats list, passing Gehrig (8,001AB)…following the game, his spikes were sent to the National Baseball Hall of Fame.
- Was 0-for-5 in the final game at the original Yankee Stadium on 9/21 vs. Baltimore, making the last Yankees out on a groundout (third base to first base)…gave a speech to the Stadium crowd following the game…the bat he used during the final homestand was sent to the National Baseball Hall of Fame…his final game speech was voted by fans as the MLB.com "Moment of the Year."

DEREK JETER'S FAREWELL SPEECH FOLLOWING FINAL GAME AT THE ORIGINAL YANKEE STADIUM

September 21, 2008

"For all of us up here, it's a huge honor to put this uniform on every day and come out here and play. Every member of this organization, past and present, has been calling this place home for 85 years. There's a lot of tradition, a lot of history, and a lot of memories. Now, the great thing about memories, is you're able to pass [them] along from generation to generation. And although things are going to change next year – we're going to move across the street – there are a few things with the New York Yankees that never change. That's pride, it's tradition, and most of all, we have the greatest fans in the world.

"We're relying on you to take the memories from this Stadium, add them to the new memories that come at the new Yankee Stadium and continue to pass them on from generation to generation. So, on behalf of the entire organization, we just want to take this moment to salute you, the greatest fans in the world."

- Hit .322 (206-for-639) with 102R, 39 doubles, 12HR, 73RBI and 15SB in 156 games (153 starts at SS)…ranked third in the AL with 206H…was elected to the AL All-Star team, the eighth All-Star selection of his career…also earned his second straight Silver Slugger Award.
- Fashioned 17-game, 19-game and 20-game hit streaks in the first 72 games of the season…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the first player since 1950 to record three separate hitting streaks of at least 17 games in the same season and the only player to record three hitting streaks of at least 15 games in his team's first 70 games of a season…collected four separate hitting streaks of at least 15 games in 2007, becoming the first Major Leaguer since 1941 to accomplish the feat (credit: Elias Sports Bureau).
- Hit safely in 20 straight games from 4/8-5/3 and 23 of his 24 games played with an official at-bat to begin the season…including the final 37 games of 2006, hit safely in 59 of 61 regular season games (since 8/20/06)…also reached base safely in each of his 25 games played to begin 2007 and 66-of-67 games dating back to the previous season (since 8/17/06)…became only the third player in Yankees history to have at least two separate single-season hitting streaks of 20 or more games (also 25 games, 8/20-9/16/06)…Joe DiMaggio had four of them (streaks of 21 and 22 in 1937, 23 in 1940 and 56 in 1941); Don Mattingly had a pair (20 games in 1985 and 24 in 1986).
- Reached his 33rd birthday on 6/26 with 2,250 career hits, the most since Robin Yount had 2,391 at that juncture of his career (credit: Elias)…was 83 more hits than Pete Rose (2,167)—Baseball's all-time hits leader—had at the time of his 33rd birthday.
- Hit safely in the final 15 games of the regular season…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, it was the longest hitting streak by a Yankee to close out a season since Bobby Murcer in 1971 (also 15 games).
- Batted .176 (3-for-17) with 1RBI in four Division Series games vs. Cleveland.

- Finished second in American League Most Valuable Player voting while earning his first Silver Slugger Award and third consecutive Gold Glove Award…hit .343 (214-for-623) with 118R, 39 doubles, 14HR, 97RBI and a career-high 34SB in 154 games (149 starts at SS, five starts at DH)…became just the third player to reach those totals in average, runs, HR, RBI and stolen bases in a single season, joining Kiki Cuyler with Pittsburgh in 1925 and George Sisler with St. Louis in 1920…received the AL's Hank Aaron Award, recognizing the most outstanding offensive performer.
- Ranked second in the AL in batting average, runs, average with runners in scoring position (.381) and average vs. left-handed pitchers (.390) and tied for third with 214H.
- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, became only the fifth player since 1932 to hit .340-or-higher, drive in at least 90 runs and steal 30-or-more bases in the same season, joining Larry Walker (1997), Ellis Burks (1996), Willie Mays (1958) and Jackie Robinson (1949)…was elected to the 2006 AL All-Star team, the seventh All-Star selection of his career…started at SS and was 0-for-3 in the AL's 3-2 win on 7/11 at Pittsburgh's PNC Park.
- Became the eighth Yankee to reach the 2,000-hit plateau with a fourth-inning infield single in 5/26 loss vs. Kansas City, joining Lou Gehrig (2,721), Babe Ruth (2,518), Mickey Mantle (2,415), Bernie Williams (2,336), Joe DiMaggio (2,214), Don Mattingly (2,153) and Yogi Berra (2,148)…according to Elias, only one of the seven other Yankees with 2,000 hits reached the milestone in fewer games than Jeter's 1,571 (DiMaggio in 1,537 games)…in the Expansion Era (since 1961), only four players reached the 2,000-hit mark in fewer games than Jeter: Wade Boggs (in 1,515 games), Kirby Puckett (1,542), Tony Gwynn (1,560) and Rod Carew (1,562).

DID YOU KNOW??? Derek Jeter hit safely in 92 of 100 games from 7/21/06-5/16/07 (G1), becoming the first player in modern Major League history (since 1900) to hit safely in that many contests over a 100-game stretch…according to the Society for American Baseball Research, the last player prior to Jeter to accomplish the feat was Wee Willie Keeler, who hit in 93 of 100 games over a stretch from 1898 to 1899.

- Played in the 1,648th game of his career at shortstop on 9/4 at Kansas City, surpassing Phil Rizzuto (1,647) for the most games played at shortstop in franchise history.
- Hit in a career-high 25 straight games from 8/20-9/16, batting .377 (40-for-106) with 21R, 3HR and 21RBI during the streak…was the longest hitting streak by a Yankee since Joe Gordon hit in 29 straight games in 1942…also reached base safely in 30 consecutive games, the longest such streak by a Yankee in 2006…was 3-for-3 with 3R, 1BB and 1SB in 9/30 loss vs. Toronto…recorded his 2,149th career hit, surpassing Yogi Berra (2,148) for seventh place on the club's all-time list.
- Batted .500 (8-for-16) in four Division Series games vs. Detroit, leading the team with 4R and 4 doubles…tied the Major League record for hits in a single postseason game with five in Game 1 of the ALDS (sixth time, including Hideki Matsui in Game 3 of the 2004 ALCS at Boston), but became only the second player to go 5-for-5 (Atlanta's Marquis Grissom went 5-for-5 in Game 4 of the 1995 NLDS vs. Colorado).

- Hit .309 (202-for-654) with 122R, 19HR, 70RBI and 14SB in 159 games (158 starts at SS), while earning his second consecutive Gold Glove Award…led the American League with a .354 home batting average, ranked second with 122 runs and 62 multi-hit games and third with 202H.
- Played in the 1,400th game of his career on 5/10 vs. Seattle and had 1,775 career hits, the most by any player through 1,400 games since Kirby Puckett had 1,830.
- Hit grand slam (off Joe Borowski) and solo HR and was 2-for-5 in 6/18 win vs. Chicago-NL…was his first career grand slam in his 136th career at-bat with the bases loaded…had 156 career home runs before the grand slam, the most homers by any then-active player without a grand slam as well as the most by any player in Yankee history…was his first multi-HR game of the season and the seventh of his career (last hit 2HR in a game on 6/27/04 vs. Mets)…the 5RBI tied his career high (third time)…was 5-for-6 with 5R, 1 double and a solo HR in 6/21 win vs. Tampa Bay…established a career high with his five runs and tied a career high with 5H (second time, also on 5/23/01 vs. Boston).
- Played in the 1,500th game of his career on 9/6 vs. Tampa Bay…over that span, amassed 1,906H and 1,140R…marked the most hits and runs by a Major Leaguer in his first 1,500 games since Joe DiMaggio (1,965H and 1,211R).
- Batted .333 (7-for-21) with 2HR and 5RBI in four ALDS games vs. the Angels…reached base safely in a Division Series-record 21 straight games (dating back to Game 4 of the 2000 ALDS vs. Oakland) before going 0-for-5 in Game 2.

- Emerged from an early-season slump to hit .292 (188-for-643) with a career-high 44 doubles, 23HR, 78RBI and 23SB in 154 games (154 starts at SS)…committed only 13 errors and earned his first career Gold Glove…was elected to the 2004 American League All-Star team, the sixth All-Star selection of his career, becoming the first Yankees shortstop to be elected to start the All-Star Game since Bucky Dent in 1981…started at SS in the 7/13 AL win, going 3-for-3 with 1R.
- Was batting .189 as of 5/25, going 36-for-190 in his first 43G of the season with 17R, 8 doubles, 3HR and 17RBI…in his final 111G, beginning on 5/26, hit .336 (152-for-453) with 94R, 36 doubles, 20HR and 61RBI.
- Hit the 12th lead-off home run of his career in 4/29 win vs. Oakland—and first since 8/5/03 vs. Texas—to snap an 0-for-32 stretch (longest such stretch of his career)…drove in at least one run in nine straight games from 5/23-6/2…was the longest RBI streak by a Yankee since Don Mattingly drove in at least one run in nine straight games in 1987.
- Had his 21-game hitting streak at Camden Yards snapped on 6/23, going 0-for-4 (batted .351, 34-for-97, during that span which began on 4/4/02)…hit .396 in 23 games in June (36-for-91) with 24R, 9HR and 17RBI…set a calendar-month career high with 9HR and his .396 average was his highest monthly average since he hit .425 in July 2003.

- Was 1-for-4 with 1HBP in 7/1 win vs. Boston before being removed from the game in the bottom of the 12th inning after suffering a laceration of the chin, a bruised right cheek and a bruised right shoulder…suffered the injuries after catching a fly ball by Trot Nixon and diving into the stands to end the top of the 12th…was taken to Columbia Presbyterian where precautionary X-rays of his right cheek were negative…started at SS the following night.
- Reached the 1,000-run plateau with a solo HR on 8/24 at Cleveland in his 1,331st game, becoming only the fifth player in the expansion era (since 1961) to accomplish the feat in fewer than 1,400 games…according to the Elias Sports Bureau, he joined Rickey Henderson (1,252 games), Alex Rodriguez (1,261), Kenny Lofton (1,305) and Chuck Knoblauch (1,379).
- Scored at least one run in 11 straight games from 9/5-15, the longest such streak of his career and the longest such streak by a Yankee since Bernie Williams scored in a career-high 13 straight in 2000…was named AL "Player of the Week" for the week of 9/6-12…was his second career weekly award (also 8/5/01).
- In 11 postseason games, batted .245 (12-for-49) with 1HR and 9RBI…hit solo HR to lead off the bottom of the first inning of ALDS Game 2 vs. Minnesota and became the 19th player to homer into the black batters-eye section of the remodeled Yankee Stadium, the third in postseason play (also Reggie Jackson in Game 6 of the 1977 World Series and Seattle's Jay Buhner in Game 3 of the 2001 ALCS)…was his second career leadoff home run in postseason play (also 10/25/00 in Game 4 of the World Series at the New York Mets).

Core Four

According to Elias, Derek Jeter, Mariano Rivera and Jorge Posada became the first trio of teammates in MLB, NBA, NFL and NHL history to appear in at least one game together in each of 17 consecutive seasons from 1995-2011…the second-longest trios in Yankees franchise history played 13 years together (Bill Dickey, Lefty Gomez and Red Ruffing from 1930-42; and Whitey Ford, Elston Howard and Mickey Mantle from 1955-67).

Jeter and Posada appeared in 1,693 regular season games together for the Yankees, surpassing Lou Gehrig and Tony Lazzeri (1,659 games) for the most games played together by any pair of teammates in franchise history.

Elias also notes that, in 2013, Rivera and Jeter each played in their 19th season with the Yankees, becoming the first pair of players to be teammates in 19 or more consecutive seasons since Alan Trammell and Lou Whitaker with Detroit, who were also together 19 straight seasons from 1977-95.

The first game in which Derek Jeter and Mariano Rivera appeared together was Sept. 28, 1996 at Fenway Park. Jeter started and went 0-for-4. LHP Andy Pettitte also appeared in his first career game with the duo that day, starting and going 2.0IP. Ramiro Mendoza picked up the win, Rivera pitched 1.0IP and earned the hold, and John Wetteland earned his 43rd save. Posada also pinch-hit in the contest, striking out. The Yankees won, 4-2, and the losing pitcher was Roger Clemens.

STATUS

- Signed by the Yankees to a one-year contract on December 6, 2013...signed through the 2014 season.

CAREER NOTES

- Since 2010, his 79HR rank fourth among Major League second basemen (min. 50% of games played at 2B), trailing only Robinson Cano (117), Dan Uggla (110) and Rickie Weeks (80).
- Has hit at least 16HR in each of the last four seasons (2010-13).
- Is a career .339 (19-for-56) batter with 7 doubles, 4HR, 57RBI and 5BB with the bases loaded.

- Batted .235 (86-for-366) with 41R, 12 doubles, 16HR and 52RBI in 118 games with Tampa Bay...started at four different defensive positions (50 starts in LF, 14 at 2B, 12 at 3B and two at 1B), as well as 18 starts at DH...marked his first action at any position other than second base since his 2005 rookie season when he played in 79 games in LF.
- Hit all 16 home runs off right-handed pitchers, the only AL player to hit as many homers vs. righties without hitting one against a left-hander.
- Hit .291 (25-for-86, 0HR) against left-handed pitching and .218 (61-for-280, 16HR) off righties.
- Batted in seven different spots in the starting lineup (second, third, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth)...was the Rays' Opening Day DH after starting each of his previous six season openers at 2B.
- Started eight games at second base with Yunel Escobar at shortstop, making the Rays the third different Major League team to feature the duo as a double play combination...they started 191 games together for the Braves from 2007-09 and 131 games together for the Blue Jays in 2011-12...according to Elias, the last duo to start together at 2B and SS for three different teams was 2B Jeff Kent and SS Jose Vizcaino (with the Mets, Indians, Giants and Astros).
- Broke up Clay Buchholz's no-hit bid with a broken-bat single to right to lead off the eighth inning on 4/14 at Boston.
- Batted .330 (30-for-91) with 7HR and 26RBI in May...the 26RBI represented half of his season total (52) and marked his most ever for any calendar month in his career...tied with Toronto's Edwin Encarnacion for the second-most RBI in the Majors in May, trailing only Detroit's Miguel Cabrera (33).
- Hit a pair of three-run home runs on 5/27 vs. Miami, going 4-for-5 with 2R, 1 double, 2HR, 6RBI and 1SB...tied his career highs in home runs and RBI...became the first Rays player to drive in at least six runs in a game since Ben Zobrist on 4/28/11 at Minnesota (Game 1)...became the first player in Rays franchise history to hit 2HR—each of at least three runs—in the same game.

Steinbrenner High School

Named for the late Yankees Principal Owner, George M. Steinbrenner High School opened in August 2009 on Lutz Lake Fern Road just north of Tampa.

"Over the years, Mr. Steinbrenner has been deeply involved in the community, particularly with the schools and the school system," said Steven Ayers, director of community relations for Hillsborough County public schools. "He has been very involved and very philanthropic. He has probably donated tens of millions over the length of time. He's had a significant amount of money and significant amount of involvement in the community."

In addition to regular classroom curriculum, the school also offers classes for students preparing for a career in sports with sports marketing, sports medicine and the business of sports (BOSS). The school's teams are named the Warriors, featuring navy and gold coloring.

STATUS

- Signed as a free agent to a one-year contract on December 7, 2013…contract extends through the 2014 season.

CAREER NOTES

- Has made at least 30 starts and tossed at least 180.0 innings in five of his six Major League campaigns (all but his injury-shortened season in 2009).
- Has defeated 29 of the 30 current Major League franchises in regular season play (all but Detroit).
- According to Elias, Kuroda is one of only seven current Major League pitchers to have recorded 1,000.0IP in their careers without ever having allowed a grand slam (also Matt Cain, Zach Duke, Freddy Garcia, Clayton Kershaw, Tim Lincecum and Ervin Santana).
- Has tossed at least 7.0 innings without allowing a run in 14 of his 65 starts since joining the Yankees in 2012, tied for the most such starts among all Major League pitchers during the span (also Clayton Kershaw).
- Is 18-9 with a 2.57 ERA (220.1IP, 63ER) in 33 starts at Yankee Stadium since joining the Yankees, marking the most wins at the venue over the past two seasons (2012-13).
- Last made an error on 7/7/10 (w/ Los Angeles-NL) vs. Florida…has an active streak of 111 consecutive errorless games (144 chances).
- Among all Japan-born pitchers with at least 450.0IP in the Majors, owns the lowest all-time career ERA (3.40)…his 840K and 68 wins each rank second only to Hideo Nomo's 1,918K and 123 wins.
- Was the fourth Japan-born player and third such pitcher to appear in a Major League game for the Yankees…joined Hideki Matsui (2003-09), Kei Igawa (2007-08), and Hideki Irabu (1997-99) as the only players to do so up to that point.
- Spent 11 seasons (1997-2007) pitching for the Hiroshima Toyo Carp of the Japanese Central League, going 103-89 with a 3.69 ERA (1,700.1IP, 697ER) in 271 appearances (244 starts).

- Was charged with an earned run when David Robertson relieved him and allowed an inherited runner to score (Colby Rasmus) in the eighth inning of his start on 4/20 vs. Toronto...marked an end to a 20.1-inning scoreless streak dating back to 4/8 at Cleveland.
- Surpassed the 1,000.0IP mark on 6/13 at Oakland (1,006.0IP), becoming just the third Japanese-born pitcher in Major League history to record 1,000IP or more in his career - also Hideo Nomo (1,976.1IP) and Tomo Ohka (1,070.0IP).
- Had a 21.2-inning scoreless streak at Yankee Stadium snapped in the first inning of his start on 8/3 vs. the White Sox...according to Elias, marked the third-longest streak of consecutive scoreless innings for any pitcher at the current Yankee Stadium, trailing only a 23.2-inning scoreless streak by CC Sabathia in 2011 and a 22.0-inning stretch by Kuroda earlier in the season from 4/25-6/2.
- Gave up a home run to the Rays' Jose Lobaton in the second inning of his start on 8/23 at Tampa Bay, snapping a single-season, career-best stretch of 58.1IP (since 6/30) without allowing a homer (credit: Elias).
- Went winless over his last eight starts of the season from 8/17-9/24, going 0-6 with a 6.56 ERA (46.2IP, 34ER)...tied the longest winless stretch of his career (also 4/9-5/16/08 with Los Angeles-NL).

- Went 16-11 with a 3.32 ERA (219.2IP, 81ER) in 33 starts with the Yankees...established career highs in wins, starts, innings pitched and strikeouts (167)...tied for tops on the staff in wins and led in starts and innings pitched...among AL pitchers, ranked fourth in innings pitched, tied for sixth in wins and ranked eighth in ERA.
- Also recorded three complete games and two shutouts, the first Yankee with multiple shutouts in a single season since Mike Mussina in 2005.
- Faced the Rangers' Yu Darvish (on 4/24 at Texas) and the Red Sox's Daisuke Matsuzaka (on 10/3 vs. Boston), marking the seventh and eighth times, respectively, in Major League history that two Japan-born starters faced off against each other.
- Went 13-5 with a 2.92 ERA over his last 24 starts from 5/27 through the end of the season, after opening the year 3-6 with a 4.56 ERA (53.1IP, 27ER) in his first nine outings...among AL hurlers, marked the fourth-lowest ERA over the stretch, and only David Price and Jered Weaver (14 each) had more wins during the span.

- Exactly half of his starts (16 of 32) were against teams with winning records at the time that he faced them, with Kuroda going 8-5 with a 3.95 ERA (107.0IP, 47ER) in those starts...beginning on 6/8, lost just two of his final 12 starts against ballclubs with a .500-or-better record, going 7-2 with a 3.87 ERA (76.2IP, 33ER) in those contests.
- Tossed at least 7.0 innings in 18 of his starts, six of which he held his opponent scoreless...only Seattle's Felix Hernandez (seven) had more among Major League hurlers.
- Did not allow a first-inning run in 17 of his final 19 starts after combining to surrender 12R in the opening frame over his first nine outings.
- Handled 42 chances without committing an error, the most flawless chances by an AL pitcher in 2012.
- Tossed 8.0 scoreless innings in his second start of the season on 4/13 vs. Los Angeles-NL in the Yankees' home opener, becoming the first Yankees starter to toss at least 8.0 scoreless innings in a home opener since Rick Rhoden on 4/5/88 vs. Minnesota (9.0IP)...also became the first Yankees starter with at least 8.0 scoreless innings in his first start at Yankee Stadium (original or current) since Bob Shirley on 4/27/83 vs. Kansas City (9.0IP) - credit: Elias.
- Over his final seven starts of the year vs. AL East foes beginning on 7/18, went 6-1 with a 3.18 ERA (62.0IP, 20ER)...prior to that, had been 1-2 with a 6.94 ERA (23.1IP, 18ER) in four starts vs. division rivals to begin the season.
- Recorded his fourth career CG (all shutouts) and second of the year on 8/14 vs. Texas...was the first 9.0-inning shutout by a Yankee, while allowing 2H or less, since 7/28/06 vs. Tampa Bay (Chien-Ming Wang, 2H)...became the first Yankee to toss a complete-game SHO against the Rangers since David Wells on 8/21/98 at Rangers Ballpark.
- Threw 99 pitches on 8/31 vs. Baltimore, snapping a streak of 12 consecutive games in which he threw at least 100 pitches beginning on 6/25...had been the longest such streak of his career and the second-longest by a Yankees pitcher in 2012 (CC Sabathia - 15 games, 4/6-6/24).
- Went 0-1 with a 2.81 ERA (16.0IP, 5ER) in two postseason starts (ALDS Game 3 vs. Baltimore and ALCS Game 2 vs. Detroit) with the Yankees.
- Did not allow a baserunner over the first 5.0 innings of ALCS Game 2 loss vs. Detroit, becoming the first Yankees starter to carry a perfect game through the first five innings of a postseason game since Mike Mussina on 10/12/04 in ALCS Game 1 win vs. Boston (retired first 19 batters)...was his first career start–regular or postseason–on short rest...struck out 11 batters, matching his single-game career high (third time, first in postseason play)...became the fifth pitcher in franchise history to strike out at least 11 batters in a postseason game–first since Orlando Hernandez in Game 3 of the 2000 World Series at the Mets...also didn't walk a batter, becoming the fifth pitcher in postseason history to fan at least 11 batters without issuing a walk (also Cliff Lee in 2010 ALDS; Sterling Hitchcock in 1998 NLDS; Tom Seaver in 1973 NLCS; and Don Newcombe in 1949 World Series).

- Went 13-16 with a 3.07 ERA (202.0IP, 69ER) in 32 starts with Los Angeles-NL, establishing a career best in ERA...recorded the third-lowest single-season ERA among Japan-born pitchers who qualified for an ERA title in the Majors, behind only Hideo Nomo (2.54 in 1995) and Daisuke Matsuzaka (2.90 in 2008).
- Ranked fifth in the NL with a 2.85 road ERA (94.2IP, 30ER), posting a 7-7 record in 15 starts away from Dodger Stadium.
- Went 1-10 with a 3.38 ERA (72.0IP, 27ER) in 12 starts from 5/22-7/27...posted a career-high-tying six-game losing streak over a seven-start span from 5/22-6/25...received just 2.25 runs of support (18R) over the stretch.
- Won a career-high four straight starts from 8/14-30, recording a 3.12 ERA (26.0IP, 9ER) with an average of 11.08 runs of support per start over the span...earned a win in seven of his last 10 decisions overall from 8/2-9/27, going 7-3 with a 3.00 ERA (69.0IP, 23ER) in 11 games.
- Allowed a career-high-tying 4HR in 9/5 loss at Washington, with all 5ER coming via the HR (6.0IP, 8H, 0BB, 9K).

- Went 11-13 with a 3.39 ERA (196.1IP, 74ER) in 31 starts with the Dodgers...ranked eighth among NL qualifiers in ERA...tossed at least 7.0 innings in 15 of his starts and a season-high 8.0 innings five times.
- Recorded a 3.31K/BB ratio (159K, 48BB), the eighth-best mark in the NL...averaged 2.20BB/9.0IP (48BB, 196.1IP), tied for the fifth-lowest mark in the NL.
- Posted a 2.13 ERA (76.0IP, 18ER) in his 11 wins, holding opponents to a .211 (58-for-275) batting average in those starts.
- Recorded a 2.87 ERA (94.0IP, 30ER) in 14 starts following the All-Star break...opponents hit .204 (69-for-338) in those starts, tied with Houston's Wandy Rodriguez for the fifth-lowest mark among NL starters during the stretch.
- Took a no-hit bid into the eighth inning and earned the win on 8/30 vs. Philadelphia, allowing 1H in 7.2IP (2BB, 1HP, 7K)...recorded his first hit of the season with a seventh-inning single off the Phillies' Roy Halladay, snapping an 0-for-45 stretch to begin the year.

- Was 8-7 with a 3.76 ERA (117.1IP, 49ER) in 21 appearances (20 starts) for the Dodgers.
- Was the Dodgers' Opening Day starter, earning the win after allowing 4H and 1ER in 5.2IP (1BB, 2K) on 4/6 at San Diego...became just the third Japan-born pitcher to make an Opening Day start in the Majors.
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 4/11 (retroactive to 4/7) with a left oblique strain and was reinstated on 6/1...did not record a decision in two rehab starts with Single-A Inland Empire, posting a 5.19 ERA (8.2IP, 5ER).
- Tossed 30.1 consecutive innings without walking a batter from 6/6-7/3, the second-longest such streak in the Majors in 2009, trailing only the Cardinals' Joel Pineiro (34.0IP).
- Made his only career relief appearance in the Majors in 7/12 win at Milwaukee, allowing 2H and 3ER in 1.1IP (1BB).
- Sustained a concussion on 8/15 at Arizona when he took a comebacker off the right side of his head...the ball came off the bat of Rusty Ryal in the sixth inning of the Dodgers' 4-3 loss, hit Kuroda's head and bounced all the way back toward the Diamondbacks' on-deck circle and into the seats...he never lost consciousness and was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center in Phoenix for a CAT Scan, the results of which were negative...remained in the hospital overnight for observation and was discharged the following morning after he was cleared to fly with the team back to Los Angeles following that afternoon's game in Arizona...was placed on the 15-day disabled list from 8/19 (retroactive to 8/16)-9/6 with a concussion...made one rehab start with Inland Empire, allowing 5H in 5.0IP (1R, 0ER).
- Went 3-2 with a 2.79 ERA (29.0IP, 9ER) in five starts following his second D.L. stint...won three straight starts for the first time in his Major League career from 9/11-22, with wins over San Francisco, Pittsburgh and Washington...allowed just 3ER in 20.0IP (1.35 ERA) during the streak.
- Missed his final regular season start due to a sore neck caused by a small herniation in his cervical spine...was not placed on the Division Series roster against St. Louis...started NLCS Game 3 at Philadelphia on 10/18, allowing 6H and 6ER in 1.1IP to record the loss in his only playoff appearance.

- Saw his first Major League action, going 9-10 with a 3.73 ERA (183.1IP, 76ER) in 31 starts with the Dodgers...tied for eighth in the NL with a 2.06BB/9.0IP (42BB, 183.1IP) ratio, allowing 2BB or less in 26 of his 31 starts.
- Made his Major League debut—and earned his first Major League win—on 4/4 at San Diego, allowing 1ER in 7.0IP (3H, 0BB, 4K, 1HR)...became the seventh Japan-born player to appear in a game for the Dodgers, joining Hideo Nomo (1995-98, 2002-04), Kazuhisa Ishii (2002-04), Masao Kida (2003-04), Norihiro Nakamura (2005), Dave Roberts (2002-04) and Takashi Saito (2006-07).
- Tossed his first career complete game and shutout on 6/6/08 vs. Chicago-NL, retiring 16 of his final 17 batters faced (9.0IP, 4H, 11K)...had a one-hit SHO (9.0IP, 6K) on 7/7/08 vs. Atlanta, tossing 7.0 perfect innings before allowing a leadoff double to Mark Teixeira in the eighth...became the third rookie since 1969 to carry a perfect game into the eighth inning (also Bob Owchinko-1977 and Orel Hershiser-1984)...was the first pitcher since Cleveland's Billy Traber (7/8/03 vs. New York-AL) to toss a complete-game one-hitter without issuing a walk...became the first Dodgers pitcher with two complete-game shutouts in a season since Jeff Weaver and Derek Lowe in 2005.
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list from 6/13-7/2 with right shoulder tendinitis, missing 17 team games.
- Made his postseason debut, going 2-0 with a 1.46 ERA (12.1IP, 2ER) in two starts...won the series-clinching game in NLDS Game 3 vs. Chicago-NL, holding the Cubs to 6H in 6.1 scoreless IP (2BB, 4K)...also earned the win in NLCS Game 3 vs. Philadelphia, holding the eventual World Series champions to 5H and 2ER in 6.0IP (1BB, 3K).

- Spent his entire Japanese career with the Hiroshima Toyo Carp...led all Central League pitchers with 56 combined complete games from 1999-2005...won at least 10 games in six of his last seven seasons in Japan (2001-03, '05-07)...was named to the Central League All-Star team from 2005-07.
- Made his professional debut in 1997 with the Carp, going 6-9 with a 4.40 ERA (135.0IP, 66ER) in 23 games (19 starts).
- Combined to go 37-36 with a 4.26 ERA (631.0IP, 299ER) in 118 games (63 starts) with Hiroshima from 1998-2002.
- Made his first career Opening Day start for Hiroshima in 2003, going 13-9 with a 3.11 ERA (205.2IP, 71ER) in 20 games (20 starts) that season.
- In 2004, went 7-9 with a 4.65 ERA (147.0IP, 76ER) in 21 appearances (14 starts) with the Carp.
- Led the Central League in wins in 2005, going 15-12 with a 3.17 ERA (212.2IP, 75ER) en route to being named the League's "Most Valuable Pitcher"...also earned the Best Nine Award and the Japanese Golden Glove Award.
- In 26 games (18 starts) in 2006, went 13-6 with a Central League-best 1.85 ERA (189.1IP, 39ER)...became the first Japanese starting pitcher to finish the season with an ERA below 2.00 since Masaki Saito in 1989...earned his first career save on 10/16 vs. the Chunichi Dragons...was named to Team Japan for the inaugural World Baseball Classic, but was injured during a practice game and had to withdraw from the competition...following the season, underwent surgery to remove bone chips, performed by Dr. Lewis Yocum.
- In 2007—his final season with the Carp—was 12-8 with a 3.56 ERA (179.2IP, 71ER) in 26 starts...made his fifth straight Opening Day start...earned his 100th professional win on 7/14 at the Yomiuri Giants at the Tokyo Dome.

- Collected his first Major League RBI with a 14th-inning run-scoring single in 9/29 win at Houston...caught all 14.0 innings of the game.
- Began the year with Double-A Trenton, batting .268 (49-for-183) with 34R, 10 doubles, 6HR and 25RBI in 49 games.
- Was promoted to Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 6/13 and hit .270 (62-for-230) with 26R, 19 doubles, 6HR and 21RBI in 59 games.
- Attended spring training with the Yankees as a non-roster invitee, batting .364 (4-for-11) with 1R, 3 doubles, 1HR and 4RBI in eight games.
- Following the season, was tabbed by Baseball America as the Yankees' fourth-best prospect and as the organization's "Best Defensive Catcher."

- Combined at Single-A Tampa and Double-A Trenton to bat .248 (102-for-412) with 26 doubles, 2 triples, 9HR and 44RBI in 110 games.
- Began the year with Tampa, hitting .257 (68-for-265) with 14 doubles, 1 triple, 5HR and 28RBI, earning a spot on the FSL midseason All-Star team.
- Was promoted to Trenton on 7/3 and finished the season with the Thunder, batting .231 (34-for-147) with 4HR and 16RBI in 43 games...started all eight Trenton postseason games at catcher and tied a team high with 2HR (.231, 6-for-26, 4RBI).

- Combined at Single-A Charleston and Single-A Tampa to hit .287 (98-for-341) with 39R, 29 doubles, 7HR and 46RBI in 86 games...threw out 23-of-72 (31.9%) potential base stealers.
- Started the season with Charleston, batting .297 (76-for-256) with 23 doubles, 6HR and 32RBI in 63 games.
- Was transferred to Tampa for the remainder of the season on 6/23, where he hit .259 (22-for-85) with 6 doubles, 1HR and 14RBI in 23 games.

- Appeared in 87 games with Single-A Charleston (53 starts at C), batting .255 (84-for-330) with 46R, 15 doubles, 2 triples, 7HR and 54RBI...caught 20-of-88 (22.7%) potential base stealers.
- Went 3-for-6 with a grand slam, a three-run HR and 9RBI in 8/13 win at Hickory, marking his first career multi-HR game and falling 1RBI shy of the SAL single-game record.

- Made his professional debut with the GCL Yankees, batting .333 (11-for-33) with 4R, 2 doubles, 1HR and 7RBI in nine games...hit safely in eight of those contests.
- Following the season, was selected as the Yankees' eighth-best prospect by Baseball America and their best "pure hitter" from that season's draft...was also tabbed as the organization's sixth-best prospect by Baseball Digest.

PERSONAL

- Attended the Pendleton Academy in Bradenton, Fla...was rated by Baseball America as the fifth-best catcher among the 2009 draft class and as having the second-best "strike-zone judgment" among high school players.

STATUS

- Signed by the Yankees as a non-drafted free agent on July 15, 2004…signed through the 2014 season.

CAREER NOTES

- Nova's career winning percentage as a starter (.673, 37-18) is the third-highest for any current Major League pitcher with at least 50 career starts behind Kris Medlen (.698, 30-13) and Lance Lynn (.673, 33-16).
- Went 35-16 (.686) with a 4.21 ERA (453.2IP, 212ER) in his first 75 career starts…according to Elias, Nova's 16 losses were the fewest for any pitcher over his first 75 starts for the Yankees since David Cone went 44-14 (.759) over his first 75 starts in pinstripes (7/29/95-8/7/98).
- Elias notes that Nova's .708 (17-7) winning percentage over his first 35 career starts away from Yankee Stadium (8/23/10-7/22/13) was the highest for any Yankees pitcher drafted or signed as a non-drafted free agent by the club since Whitey Ford posted an .880 (22-3) such percentage over his first 35 road starts…his .850 winning percentage (17-3) over his first 30 career starts on the road (8/23/10-8/11/12) was the fourth-highest mark all-time for any Major League pitcher, behind Whitey Ford (.909, 20-2), Chris Young (.867, 13-2) and Storm Davis (.864, 19-3).
- His 26-7 (.788) record through his first 50 Major League starts (8/23/10-7/3/12) was the second-highest such winning percentage among Major League pitchers who debuted in 1900 or later behind the .795 (31-8) mark posted by Roy Oswalt (credit: Elias).
- Won 16 of his first 20 career decisions…was one of three active pitchers at the time—also Tim Hudson and Roy Oswalt (both 16-4)—to go 16-4 or better over their first 20 career decisions…the last Yankee was Whitey Ford, who won 18 of his first 20 decisions.
- His 38 career wins are the most ever by a Dominican-born pitcher with the Yankees, surpassing Melido Perez (33).

- Was 9-6 with a 3.10 ERA (139.1IP, 48ER) in 23G/20GS in two stints with the Yankees (4/1-5/31 and 6/23-9/29)…opponents batted .258 (135-for-523, 9HR); LH .264 (74-for-280, 3HR), RH .251 (61-for-243, 6HR)…allowed just 29 extra-base hits (20 doubles, 9HR) after allowing 87 extra-base hits (52 doubles, 7 triples, 28HR) in 2012.
- His 0.56HR/9.0IP ratio was the second-lowest among American League starters, behind Detroit's Anibal Sanchez (0.45)…allowed just one unearned run all season, with the Yankees making just two errors behind him.
- In his first stint with the Yankees (4/1-5/31), went 2-1 with a 5.16 ERA (22.2IP, 13ER) in six games (four starts)…in his second stint (6/23-9/29), was 7-5 with a 2.70 ERA (116.2IP, 35ER) in 17 appearances (16 starts).
- Was named by MLB on 9/4 as the AL "Pitcher of the Month" for August…went undefeated in six starts during the month, going 4-0 with a 2.08 ERA (43.1IP, 10ER)…among AL leaders during the time span, finished first in ERA (min. 27.0IP), was tied for first in wins and starts, and tied for third in innings pitched…his four wins were his second-highest total ever for a calendar month (5-0 in August of 2011).

- Was optioned to Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 5/31, going 2-0 with a 2.04 ERA (17.2IP, 4ER) and 17K in three starts...tossed at least 6.0 innings and allowed no more than 1ER in two of those outings...held opponents to a .234 (15-for-64) batting average with only four extra-base hits (3 doubles, 1HR), with all three doubles coming in the same start (6/11 vs. Buffalo)...was recalled on 6/23.
- Notched the 50th perfect inning in Major League history, striking out Ike Davis, Mike Baxter and Ruben Tejada—all on three pitches each—in the eighth inning of his relief appearance on 5/29 vs. New York-NL...became the first Yankees pitcher to accomplish the feat since A.J. Burnett did so on 6/20/09 at Florida (third inning - struck out Josh Johnson, Chris Coghlan and Emilio Bonifacio).

- Registered his first career complete game on 7/5 vs. Baltimore (W, 9.0IP, 3H, 1BB, 11K, 1HR, 1HP)...struck out 11 batters, one shy of his career high (12K on 5/19/12 vs. Cincinnati)...became the first Yankee to throw a complete game while striking out at least 11 batters and allowing three-or-fewer hits since Mike Mussina on 9/24/02 vs. Tampa Bay (9.0IP, 2H, 12K in a 6-0 Yankees victory).
- Tossed at least 7.0 innings and allowed 3ER-or-fewer in seven consecutive starts from 7/5-8/14, becoming the first Yankee to accomplish the feat since CC Sabathia did so in eight straight starts from 6/25-8/1/11 and the first Yankees right-hander to do so since David Cone from 6/24-7/28/98 (also seven consecutive starts).
- Tossed 48.0 consecutive homerless innings from 7/22-8/25 prior to a sixth-inning Evan Longoria home run on 8/25 at Tampa Bay.
- Tossed his first career complete-game shutout on 8/31 vs. Baltimore (9.0IP, 3H, 1BB, 5K, 2HP) in a 2-0 Yankees win.
- Recorded a no-decision in the Yankees' 9-8 loss on 9/5 vs. Boston (4.0IP, 5H, 3ER, 1HR, 2BB, 3K)...marked his shortest start since 4/26/13 vs. Toronto, when he lasted 2.0IP and left with right elbow pain...was his shortest non-injury affected start since 9/22/12 vs. Oakland (2.1IP, 5H, 3ER)...threw 47 pitches in the third inning, facing eight batters and allowing 2ER (on 2 singles, 1 double, 2BB).
- Earned the win in the Yankees' 6-0 victory vs. San Francisco on 9/21 (9.0IP, 6H, 1BB, 7K), tossing his third career complete game (also 8/31/13 and 7/5/13, both vs. Baltimore) and second complete-game shutout...joined Hiroki Kuroda (two in 2012) and Mike Mussina (two in 2005, two in '02 and three in '01) as the only Yankees with multiple complete-game shutouts in a single season since the start of 1999.

- Was 12-8 with a 5.02 ERA (170.1IP, 95ER) in 28 starts for the Yankees...became just the third Yankees pitcher over the last 80 years to win at least 12 games in a season with an ERA above 5.00, joining Randy Johnson (17-11, 5.00 ERA in 2006) and Richard Dotson (12-9, 5.00 ERA in 1988).
- Held opposing batters to a .169 (11-for-65) batting average with runners in scoring position and two outs...marked the second-lowest such average among AL pitchers who made at least 25 starts, behind the Angels' Jered Weaver (.152).
- Allowed 87 extra-base hits (52 doubles, 7 triples, 28HR), tied with Arizona's Ian Kennedy for most among all Major League hurlers and the most ever surrendered in a season by a Yankees pitcher.
- Allowed 2HR in 4/15 win vs. Los Angeles-AL, including a fifth-inning, two-run homer to Chris Iannetta...snapped a streak of 196.2 consecutive innings pitched without allowing a homer with a runner on base that dated back to September 2010.

- Suffered his first loss of the season on 5/2 at Baltimore, snapping his 15-game winning streak dating back to 6/10/11...was the second-longest winning streak by a Yankee in franchise history, trailing only Roger Clemens (16 straight wins from 5/26-9/19/01).
- Struck out a career-high 12 batters in 5/19 loss vs. Cincinnati, including each of his first seven outs...became the first Yankees pitcher in exactly 79 years to allow at least five runs while fanning at least a dozen batters (also Don Brennan, who surrendered five runs while striking out 12 St. Louis Browns at the original Yankee Stadium on 5/19/33)...also became the fourth Yankee in the Live Ball Era (since 1920) with at least 12K in 6.0IP or less (also A.J. Burnett and Joba Chamberlain in 2009 and Scott Sanderson in 1991).
- Had his 12-game road winning streak snapped on 7/3 at Tampa Bay...was undefeated in his previous 16 road starts (6/20/11-6/23/12), going 12-0 with a 3.17 ERA (105.0IP, 37ER) over the span.

*tied with four others

- Went 2-5 with a 7.05 ERA (60.0IP, 47ER) following the All-Star break.
- Lost three straight decisions over five starts from 7/15-8/6...marked the first time in his career he lost consecutive decisions as a starter (in 55GS)...according to Elias, only David Cone (81 starts) and Whitey Ford (53 starts) went at least 50 starts into their Yankees careers before losing two straight decisions as a starter.
- Allowed a career-high 9ER on 7/31 vs. Baltimore (5.0IP, 10H, 1HR, 1BB, 5K, 1WP), becoming the first Yankees pitcher to allow at least 9R and 10H in a start since Sergio Mitre on 9/6/09 at Toronto (11H, 11R) and the first Yankee to allow at least 9R in a start at the current Yankee Stadium...allowed 7R in a 32-pitch second inning.
- Missed 14 team games on the 15-day disabled list from 8/23-9/14 with inflammation in his right rotator cuff.

- Was 16-4 with a 3.70 ERA (165.1IP, 68ER) in 28 games (27 starts) in his rookie season with the Yankees...among qualifying Major League rookie starters (starts only), ranked first in wins (16), second in ERA (3.66), third in innings pitched (164.2) and fourth in opponents' batting average (.256) and strikeouts (98).
- His 16 wins marked the most wins by a Yankees rookie since Stan Bahnsen in 1968 (17-12)...since 2000, only three Major League rookies compiled more wins in a season: CC Sabathia in 2001 (17 w/ Cleveland), Justin Verlander in 2006 (17 w/ Detroit) and Jason Jennings in 2002 (16 w/ Colorado).
- Won 16 of his 20 decisions of the season...only four other rookies won at least 16 of their first 20 decisions in a season: Bob Grim (1954), Jack Sanford (1957), Wally Bunker (1964) and Tom Gordon (1989)—credit: Elias.
- According to Elias, the Yankees' 19-8 (.703) mark in games started by Nova was the second-best for any AL team in starts by one pitcher (min: 20GS), behind only Detroit's Justin Verlander (25-9 , .735).
- Went 15-3 (.833) through his first 25 starts of the season, marking the second-highest such winning percentage for a rookie since 1910...according to Elias, only Boston's Mike Nagy (.846, 11-2 in 1969) had a higher mark over his first 25 starts of a season during the span.
- Made five spring training starts, going 2-0 with a 1.80 ERA (20.0IP, 4ER), earning a spot in the starting rotation...led all Yankees starters in ERA.
- With his win on 4/4 vs. Minnesota, became the first Yankees rookie to win a start within a season's first four games since 22-year-old Al Leiter beat the Brewers, 4-1, in the fourth game of the 1988 season—credit: Elias.
- Started three of the Yankees' first 12 games, the first Yankees rookie to do so since Bill Piercy in 1921...became the seventh Yankees rookie to start four games in April, joining Bill Burbach (1969), Doc Medich (1973), Bob Tewksbury (1986), Al Leiter (1988), Kei Igawa (2007) and Ian Kennedy (2008).
- Held the Rangers to one unearned run and just 2H in 7.1IP to earn the win on 5/6 at Texas...became just the second Yankees rookie since 1986 to earn a win while limiting his opponent to just 2H in at least 7.1 scoreless IP in a road start (also Mariano Rivera, 7/4/95 at Chicago-AL).
- Went undefeated in his last 16 starts (12-0 with a 3.25 ERA)...according to Elias, tied the Yankees' all-time record for longest winning streak as a starting pitcher in a single season by a rookie, set by Russ Ford in 1910 and matched by Atley Donald in 1939...was the longest for any Major League rookie since Cincinnati's Tom Browning went undefeated in 14 consecutive starts in 1985...won eight consecutive starts from 7/1-9/2, becoming the first Yankees rookie with such a streak since Marius Russo won eight straight in 1939—credit: Elias.
- The Yankees won 12 consecutive starts with Nova on the mound from 6/10-9/2/11, their longest such streak since they won 20 straight games started by Roger Clemens in 2001.
- Was optioned to Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 7/3, following Bartolo Colon's return from the D.L...made three starts for Scranton/WB, going 1-2 with a 3.38 ERA (16.0IP, 6ER, 18K, 2BB).

- Was recalled from Scranton/WB prior to his start on 7/30 in Game 2 of a DH vs. Baltimore…went 8-0 with a 3.18 ERA (73.2IP, 26ER) over the rest of the regular season, holding opponents to 3ER or less in nine of his 11 starts.
- Went 1-1 with a 4.32 ERA in two ALDS appearances (one start) vs. Detroit…made his postseason debut in relief in Game 1, which was halted due to rain on 9/30 in the bottom of the second inning with the score tied, 1-1…the game was resumed the following day with Nova on the mound for the Yankees…held the Tigers to 2ER in 6.1IP (4H, 4BB, 5K) to earn the win, becoming the first Yankees rookie to earn a win in his postseason debut since Orlando Hernandez on 10/10/98 in Game 4 of the ALCS at Cleveland.
- Made his first career postseason start in the deciding Game 5, allowing 2ER in 2.0IP (3H, 0BB, 3K, 2HR) before exiting with a tight right forearm and suffering the loss…was the first Yankees rookie to start a winner-take-all postseason game since Mel Stottlemyre in the 1964 WS at St. Louis, and became only the second rookie pitcher all time to make his first postseason start in a winner-take-all game, joining the Phillies' Marty Bystrom in the 1980 NLCS Game 5 at Houston, according to Elias.

- Was 1-2 with a 4.50 ERA in 10 games (seven starts) with the Yankees in his first Major League action…went 0-1 with a 1.69 ERA (5.1IP, 1ER) in his three relief outings…posted a 1-1 record with a 4.91 ERA in his seven starts.
- Was recalled from Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 5/10…made his Major League debut in 5/13 loss at Detroit, tossing 2.0 scoreless innings (2H, 1K) of relief…made one additional relief appearance (5/16 vs. Minnesota) before being optioned back to Scranton/WB on 5/17 when Chan Ho Park was reinstated from the 15-day D.L.
- Was recalled a second time on 8/22 and made his first career start at Toronto on 8/23, allowing 2ER in 5.1IP in the no-decision (6H, 1BB, 3K, 1HR).
- Earned his first Major League win on 8/29 at Chicago-AL, allowing 1ER in 5.2IP (5H, 1BB, 7K)…became the first Yankees rookie to earn a win as a starter since Alfredo Aceves on 9/9/08 (credit: Elias).
- Went undefeated in his first six Major League starts (8/23-9/20), becoming the second Yankee since 1980 to go undefeated in his first six career starts, joining Joba Chamberlain (first 7GS in 2008)—credit: Elias.
- Went 12-3 with a 2.86 ERA in 23 starts at Triple-A Scranton/WB (145.0IP, 135H, 50R, 46ER, 48BB, 115K, 10HR)…led the staff in wins, ERA, innings pitched and strikeouts…ranked second in the International League in ERA, trailing only Baseball America "Player of the Year" Jeremy Hellickson…tied for first in winning percentage and ranked third in wins…among Yankees farmhands, tied for third in wins and ranked fifth in ERA.
- Made 17 "quality starts" (at least 6.0IP, 3ER or fewer) with Scranton/WB, tossing at least 7.0 innings seven times…went 10-1 with a 2.19 ERA (94.2IP, 23ER) over his final 14 starts with Scranton/WB from 6/5-8/18.

- Made 24 combined starts with Double-A Trenton and Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre, going 6-8 with a 3.68 ERA (139.1IP, 57ER)…held opponents to 2ER or less in 10 of his 12 starts with Trenton, including each of his final seven outings…left-handers hit just .188 (25-for-133, 1HR) against him at the Double-A level.
- Tossed 5.2 scoreless innings and allowed just 1H in his Triple-A debut on 6/29 vs. Rochester, earning the win in a 5-0 Scranton/WB victory (3BB, 5K)…was credited with his first career complete game on 7/30 vs. Durham, throwing all 7.0 innings and recording the loss in Game 1 of a doubleheader (6H, 6R, 5ER, 3BB, 2K, 1HR).
- Made two postseason starts for Scranton/WB, going 1-0 with a 1.93 ERA (14.0IP, 3ER, 10K).
- Following the season, appeared in five games (four starts) with Escogido in the Dominican Winter League, going 1-0 with a 1.05 ERA (25.2IP, 17H, 3ER, 4BB, 17K).
- Was selected by San Diego in the second round of the 2008 Rule 5 Draft…attended spring training with the Padres, allowing 11R (8ER) on 13H in 8.2IP over eight appearances…was returned to the Yankees on 3/29/09.

2008

- Made 26 appearances (24 starts) with Single-A Tampa, going 8-13 with a 4.36 ERA and striking out 109 batters…ranked second among Florida State League pitchers with 148.2IP…led the team in starts, tied for most wins and ranked second in strikeouts.

2007
- Was 6-8 with a 4.98 ERA in 21 starts with Single-A Charleston…made one relief appearance for Leones del Escogido of the Dominican Winter League, throwing 1.2 scoreless innings and earning the win (1BB, 1K).

2006
- Posted a 3-0 record with a 2.72 ERA in 10 games (five starts) with the Gulf Coast League Yankees.

2005
- Made professional debut with the Yankees' DSL squad, going 0-1 with a 2.29 ERA in 11 games (seven starts).

Yankees Donate Firefighting and Medical Equipment

In a ceremony which took place on October 9, 2013, the Yankees donated a fire truck and ambulance, along with firefighting and medical equipment, to the city of Boca Chica in the Dominican Republic. The city is home to the Yankees Latin Béisbol Academy.

STATUS

- Signed by the Yankees as a non-drafted free agent on February 25, 2004…signed through the 2014 season.

2013

- Hit .260 (79-for-304) with 38R, 17 doubles, 4 triples, 3HR and 28RBI in 90 games (69 starts at SS, 14 at 3B, one at 2B) with the Yankees…became the first player other than Derek Jeter to lead the team in starts at SS since Tony Fernandez in 1995 (101GS at SS).
- Made his third career Opening Day roster (2011-13).
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 5/12 (retroactive to 5/6) with a left oblique strain…was transferred to the 60-day D.L. on 6/14…was returned from rehab and reinstated from the 60-day D.L. on 7/6 (missed 56 team games).
- In six combined rehab games (two with Single-A Tampa, two with Single-A Charleston and two with Double-A Trenton), hit .375 (6-for-16), starting at SS in five games and DH in one.
- Recorded consecutive three-hit games on 7/20 and 7/21 at Boston, combining to go 6-for-10 with 3R, 2 doubles and 2SB.
- Did not strike out over a stretch of 30 straight plate appearances from 7/23-8/4.
- Reached base safely a career-high five times, hitting a solo HR in the fourth and going 3-for-4 with 1 double, 2BB and 1SB in 8/7 loss at Chicago-AL…was his first home run since 9/15/12 vs. Tampa Bay, snapping a stretch of 187AB without a homer.
- Had a career-high-tying 4RBI in 8/13 win vs. Los Angeles-AL (also 8/28/10 at Chicago-AL), going 2-for-6 with 2R…batted leadoff in the starting lineup for the fourth time in his career and first since 9/27/11 at Tampa Bay.
- Left 8/27 win at Toronto in the ninth inning with a sore right knee…did not play in three games from 8/28-31…underwent an MRI on his right knee at NewYork-Presbyterian Hospital on 8/29, the results of which were negative.
- Hit game-winning, two-run double in the eighth inning of 9/3 win vs. Chicago-AL…according to Elias, became the first Yankees shortstop other than Derek Jeter to record a game-winning RBI in the eighth inning or later since Randy Velarde on 9/21/95 vs. Toronto (RBI-single).
- Hit a two-run HR in 9/21 win vs. San Francisco, snapping a 108AB homerless stretch (from 8/7)…was his first home run at Yankee Stadium since 9/15/12 vs. Tampa Bay.
- Hit safely in a season-high seven straight games from 9/18-26, batting .333 (9-for-27) with 2HR and 3RBI over the stretch.
- Following the season, played in five games for Toros del Este of the Dominican Baseball League, batting .150 (3-for-20) and appearing in two games at 3B, two at DH and one at shortstop.

- Hit .272 (26-for-89) with 14R, 4 doubles, 1HR and 11RBI in 38 games (13 starts at SS, five at 3B, three in LF, three at DH and one at 2B) over two stints with the Yankees (4/6-5/11 and 9/1-10/3).
- Appeared at 2B, 3B, SS, LF, RF and DH (starting at all but RF)...was one of only eight Major Leaguers to appear in at least one game at each of those six positions in 2012.
- Had his career-high eight-game hitting streak dating back to 9/26/11 snapped in 4/18 loss vs. Minnesota.
- Was optioned to Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 5/11...was recalled as a September call-up on 9/1.
- Hit solo HR—his first HR of the year and the second of back-to-back HRs with Granderson—in 9/15 win vs. Tampa Bay off James Shields...was his first HR in nearly one year (last on 9/21/11 Game 1 vs. Tampa Bay, also off Shields).
- Stole a career-high three bases in 9/16 win vs. Tampa Bay, the most by a Yankee since Brett Gardner swiped three bases on 10/2/10 in Game 2 of a DH at Boston...went 0-for-3 in the game with 1BB and scored twice, becoming the first Yankee to collect at least 3SB and 2R in a game without a hit since Willie Randolph (0-for-2, 2R, 3SB, 4BB) on 6/11/80 in an 11-inning win at the Angels...was the first Yankee to do so in a nine-inning game since Bob Meusel (0-for-2, 2R, 3SB, 3BB) on 5/28/25 in Game 2 of a doubleheader vs. Boston.
- In 38 games with Scranton/WB, batted .227 (37-for-163) with 18R, 2HR and 16RBI...was placed on the D.L. (5/20-7/23) with right thumb inflammation...played in six rehab games with the GCL Yankees and Single-A Tampa, going 4-for-17 with 1HR.
- Following the season, appeared in 12 games with Toros del Este in the Dominican Winter League, batting .275 (14-for-51).

- Hit .265 (82-for-309) with 38R, 18 doubles, 2 triples, 5HR, 30RBI, 22BB and 22SB in 112 games (50 games at SS, 40 at 3B, 16 at 2B, three in RF and one in LF) with the Yankees.
- Tied for second among AL rookies (with Oakland's Jemile Weeks) and tied for fourth among all Major League rookies with 22SB...marked the third-most SB by a Yankees rookie over the last 35 years (since 1977), trailing Alfonso Soriano (43, 2001) and Brett Gardner (26, 2009).
- Of his 30RBI, 14 either tied the game or gave the Yankees the lead (46.6%).
- Committed a team-high 20E (14 at SS, six at 3B), fourth-most in the AL...marked the most errors by a Yankee since 2006 (Alex Rodriguez-24E)...made 13 miscues over his first 149 total chances (through 7/20), then just 7E over his final 130 chances of the season.
- Appeared in the outfield for the first time in his professional career in 4/25 loss vs. Chicago-AL, entering the game as a pinch-runner in the eighth inning and remaining in the game in LF.
- Committed two errors on 4/28 vs. Chicago-AL and again in his next start on 5/5 at Detroit, starting at SS in both contests...according to Elias, since 1920, the only other Yankees shortstops to make at least two errors in consecutive games played were Frank Crosetti (twice, 1936 and '45) and Mark Koenig (twice, 1927 and '28).
- Made 17 consecutive starts at SS from 6/14-7/2 while Derek Jeter was on the 15-day disabled list, batting .339 (20-for-59) with 5R, 5 doubles, 2HR, 7RBI and 4BB during the stretch, with the Yankees going 14-3.
- Hit solo HR and was 2-for-4 with 1BB and 2SB in 6/15 win vs. Texas on his 24th birthday...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, since Yogi Berra homered on his 22nd birthday in 1947, the only other Yankee younger than Nunez to hit a birthday homer was Rusty Torres on his 23rd birthday in 1971.
- Set a career high in hits in 7/1 win at the Mets, going 4-for-4 with 1 double and 1RBI...joined Brett Gardner (5-for-6 on 6/26/09 at the Mets) as the only Yankees since 2007 to record at least four hits in a game as a rookie.
- Went 7-for-8 in the first two games of the series at Citi Field on 7/1 and 7/2, becoming the first Yankee ever to collect 7H over a two-game span in the same series against the Mets—credit: Elias...Elias also notes he became the fourth Yankees rookie shortstop to have at least three hits in back-to-back games in the Expansion Era (since 1961), joining Frank Baker (1970), Andy Stankiewicz (1992) and Derek Jeter (1996).
- Batted .261 (29-for-111) with 16R, 5 doubles, 1 triple, 1HR and 12RBI in 35 games from 7/9-8/20 while Alex Rodriguez was on the 15-day disabled list, making 23 starts at 3B during the stretch.
- Hit in the leadoff position in the batting order for the first time in his career in 9/7 loss vs. Baltimore, going 0-for-4 with 1SH before being removed for PH (Chavez) in the 11th.
- Appeared in one ALDS game vs. Detroit as a pinch runner, stealing a base in the Game 3 loss at Comerica Park.

- Hit .280 (14-for-50) with 12R, 1 double, 1HR and 7RBI in 30 games (10 starts at 3B and three at SS) with the Yankees...stole five bases without being caught...struck out just twice in 53 plate appearances.
- Was recalled from Triple-A Scranton/WB on 8/19 when Lance Berkman went on the 15-day D.L...made his Major League debut in that night's win vs. Detroit, entering the game defensively in the seventh at SS and going 0-for-1.
- Made his first Major League start (at 3B) in 8/21 win vs. Seattle, going 1-for-3 with 1R and 1RBI...collected his first hit with a go-ahead RBI-single off Jason Vargas in the seventh inning.

- Made 11 starts from 8/21-9/4 (nine at 3B and two at SS) while Alex Rodriguez was on the disabled list...hit .293 (12-for-41) over the stretch, committing just one error in 27 chances.
- Hit two-run HR—the first of his Major League career—and was 3-for-4 with 2R, 4RBI, 1BB and 1SB in 8/29 win at Chicago-AL...marked the most RBI in a game by a Yankees rookie since Brett Gardner on 9/26/08 at Boston (also 4RBI)...became the first Yankee to drive in at least four runs in a game within his first 10 Major League contests since Shelley Duncan in 2007 (4RBI vs. Tampa Bay) and just the fifth to do so in the last 44 years (since 1967), joining Andy Phillips (4RBI on 4/24/05 vs. Texas), Hideki Matsui (4RBI on 4/8/03 vs. Minnesota) and Brian Dayett (4RBI on 9/18/83 Game 2 at Cleveland)...according to Elias, became just the fifth Yankee in franchise history to hit his first Major League HR and steal his first base in the same game, joining Willie Randolph (1976), Roy White (1966), Gil McDougald (1951) and Wally Pipp (1915).
- Began the season with Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre, batting .289 (134-for-464) with 55R, 25 doubles, 3 triples, 4HR, 50RBI and 23SB in 118 games...recorded the third-highest average among all Yankees farmhands and led all Scranton/WB batters in hits, doubles and stolen bases...at the time of his recall, was leading the International League in hits...was named to the International League postseason All-Star team as the league's top shortstop...was also selected to the IL midseason All-Star team, starting at SS and going 0-for-2 in the IL's 2-1 victory.
- Following the season, was named by Baseball America as the Yankees' eighth-best prospect...was also selected by the publication as the "Best Defensive Infielder" and as having the "Best Infield Arm" in the organization.
- Batted .348 (8-for-23) with 2RBI in seven games with the Toros del Este in the Dominican Winter League following the season...missed time after a ball he bunted ricocheted off his face.

- Batted .322 (160-for-497) with 9HR, 55RBI and 19SB in 123 games with Double-A Trenton in 2009, making 120 starts at SS...set career highs in hits, doubles and home runs in his first season at the Double-A level...ranked second in the Eastern League in hits and third in batting average...committed 33 errors, most among EL players.
- Was named the top shortstop in the EL, earning a spot on the postseason All-Star team...was also the starting shortstop for the North Division in the Eastern League midseason All-Star Game.
- Compiled five hitting streaks of eight-or-more games, including an 11-game hitting streak from 4/30-5/11, during which he batted .378 (17-for-45) over the stretch with just 5K.
- Appeared in four games with Toros del Este in the Dominican Winter League, going 2-for-10 (.200).

- Spent the entire season with Single-A Tampa, batting .271 with 18 doubles, 6HR and 42RBI in 94 games...appeared in 92 games at SS...hit .269 (28-for-104, 1HR) against left-handed pitchers and .271 (73-for-269, 5HR) off righties.

2007
- Combined to hit .251 with 15 doubles, 2HR and 41RBI in 121 games with Single-A Charleston and Tampa.
- Began the season with the RiverDogs and was named the starting SS for the North Division in the South Atlantic League All-Star Game...was promoted to Tampa on 7/30, recording multiple hits in 13 of his 30 games there.

2006
- Combined to hit .214 in 127 games with Tampa and Charleston, seeing time at 2B, 3B and SS...began the season with Tampa and batted .184 in 37 games before being transferred to Charleston on 5/18...in 90 games with the RiverDogs, hit .227 with 16SB.

2005
- Batted .313 with 11 doubles, 3HR and 46RBI in 73 games with short-season Single-A Staten Island...was selected to participate in the NY-Penn League All-Star Game, going 1-for-3 with 1R and 1RBI...ranked third in the NYPL in hits (88), tied for third in triples (6), fourth in games played (73), fourth in at-bats (281) and ninth in average (.313)...following the season, was named the sixth-best prospect in the Yankees organization by Baseball America.

2004
- Played in 63 games with the DSL Yankees 1, batting .249 with 7 doubles and 33RBI.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- 2010

STATUS

- Selected by the Yankees in the 14th round of the 2008 First-Year Player Draft...signed through the 2014 season.

2013

- Appeared in 22 games (12 starts) with the Yankees, going 6-5 with a 4.98 ERA (86.2IP, 48ER)...as a starter, went 5-4 with a 4.93 ERA (65.2IP, 36ER)...went 1-1 with a 5.14 ERA (21.0IP, 12ER) in 10 relief appearances...missed 62 games with a right forearm strain (7/6-9/14).
- Picked off three baserunners, tied for the fourth-highest total in the American League.
- Earned the win in the Yankees' 6-4 victory on 4/26 vs. Toronto, allowing 1ER on 2H in 4.0IP in relief (2BB, 9K, 1HR)...became the first Yankees pitcher in the Live Ball Era (starter or reliever) to strike out at least nine batters in a game in which he pitched 4.0-or-fewer innings...his 9K marked a career high and were the most by a Yankee in relief since Jay Howell on 4/6/83 at Seattle (4.2IP, 9K).
- Hit the Astros' Chris Carter and Fernando Martinez in back-to-back at-bats in the fourth inning of his start on 5/1 vs. Houston, becoming the first Yankees pitcher to hit consecutive batters since Javier Vazquez on 9/23/10 vs. Tampa Bay (hit Willie Aybar and Kelly Shoppach in the seventh inning).
- Recorded the loss in the Yankees' 9-4 defeat on 5/29 vs. the Mets (0.1IP, 4H, 5R/4ER, 2BB, 1K)...became the first Yankees starter to exit having recorded only one out in a non-injury situation since Alex Graman on 7/19/04 at Tampa Bay (0.1IP, 5ER), and the first to do so at home since Mike Witt allowed 4ER in 0.1IP on 6/1/93 vs. Cleveland...was the second Yankees starter to exit in the first inning of a Subway Series game, joining Darrell Rasner on 5/19/07 at Shea Stadium (left after two batters after being hit in the hand with a comebacker).
- Earned the win in the Yankees' 4-3 victory on 6/4 vs. Cleveland (6.0IP, 1H, 0R, 4BB, 7K)...marked his longest career outing without allowing a run...became the first Yankee to toss at least 6.0 innings and allow only 1H since Hiroki Kuroda on 6/8/12 vs. the Mets (7.0IP, 1H)...was the first Yankee to toss at least 6.0 scoreless innings in a start immediately following a start in which he recorded one out or fewer since Catfish Hunter in 1978–credit: Elias.
- Gave up a home run to the Angels' Erick Aybar in the second inning of his start on 6/15 at Los Angeles-AL, snapping a career-long streak of 34.1IP in which he had not allowed a homer...also allowed a stolen base to Mike Trout in the third inning of the same game, snapping a streak of 105.2IP (starter and reliever combined) in which he did not allow a stolen base (dating from 8/8/12).
- Allowed a career-high 9ER on a career-high-tying 9H in the Yankees' 11-3 loss on 6/29 at Baltimore, becoming just the seventh Yankees pitcher since 2000 to yield at least 9ER and at least 9H in a start...was the first Yankees starter to do so since Ivan Nova gave up 10H and 9ER on 7/31/12 at Yankee Stadium, also vs. the Orioles.

No Hits For You

Former Yankee Allie Reynolds (pictured) is one of only four pitchers to record two regular-season no-hitters in the same season, accomplishing the feat in 1951…prior to Reynolds, Cincinnati's Johnny Vander Meer was the first pitcher to hurl two no-hitters in the same season, doing so in back-to-back starts in June 1938…Detroit's Virgil Trucks (1952) and California's Nolan Ryan (1973) are the only other pitchers to match the record.

Reynolds' first no-hitter of the 1951 season came on July 12 vs. Cleveland…his second no-hitter, took place in Game 1 of a doubleheader on September 28 vs. Boston in an 8-0 win…notably with the Yankees' subsequent victory in Game 2, they clinched the American League pennant.

- Missed the entire season on the disabled list...opened the year on the 15-day disabled list...underwent season-ending surgery on 5/1 at the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York to repair an anterior labral tear in his right shoulder...the procedure was performed by Dr. David Altchek with assistance from Yankees team physician Dr. Christopher Ahmad...was transferred to the 60-day D.L. on 5/4.
- Made six official spring training starts with the Yankees, going 1-0 with a 5.68 ERA (19.0IP, 12ER) before being sidelined with an original diagnosis of right shoulder tendinitis...had his one extended spring training start on 4/21 cut short.

- Went 9-10 with a 3.74 ERA (171.0IP, 71ER) in 28 starts with the Mariners in his first Major League action...opponents batted .211 (133-for-629, 18HR); LH .237 (77-for-325, 8HR), RH .184 (56-for-304, 10HR)...his .184 opponent average vs. right-handers was a Major League low (min. 225 batters faced).
- Finished fifth in American League "Rookie of the Year" Award voting, leading all AL rookies in strikeouts (173) and K/9.0IP (9.11), ranking second in innings pitched, opponents' batting average (.211) and quality starts (19), tying for second in starts and ranking fourth in wins...finished second among all AL pitchers in K/9.0IP in 2011, trailing only Toronto's Brandon Morrow (10.19).
- At the time, his 173K were fifth-most by any pitcher at age 22 or younger since 1969, trailing only Dwight Gooden (276K in 1984), Kerry Wood (233K in 1998), Tom Griffin (200K in 1969) and Bobby Witt (174K in 1986)...at the time, marked the sixth-most strikeouts by an American League rookie over the last 30 years and remain second-most all time by a Mariners rookie behind Mark Langston's 204K in 1984.

- Was named to the American League All-Star team as a replacement for Detroit's Justin Verlander after posting an 8-6 record with a 3.03 ERA (113.0IP, 38ER) in 18 starts in the first half...became the second rookie pitcher in Mariners history to be named to the All-Star team (also Matt Young in 1983)...tossed a scoreless third inning with 2K in the game, becoming the first rookie AL All-Star with at least 2K since Don Schwall in 1961.
- Opened the season in the Mariners' starting rotation and—at 22 years, 72 days (as of March 31)—was the third-youngest AL player on a 2011 Opening Day roster, behind Kansas City LHP Tim Collins (21 years, 222 days) and Chicago-AL LHP Chris Sale (22 years, 1 day)...became the first Mariners rookie pitcher to make the club's Opening Day starting rotation since Freddy Garcia in 1999.
- Made his Major League debut on 4/5 at Texas, allowing 5H and 3ER in 6.0IP (1BB, 4K) while recording the loss...struck out his first batter faced (Ian Kinsler) on three pitches...was the first Seattle rookie pitcher to make his Major League debut as a starter since Felix Hernandez on 8/4/05.
- Earned his first Major League win on 4/12 vs. Toronto (7.1IP, 5H, 2R, 1ER, 2BB, 7K).
- Was named the April AL "Rookie of the Month," going 4-1 with a 2.01 ERA (31.1IP, 7ER) in five starts.
- Recorded his first Major League hit in 6/23 loss at Washington, a sixth-inning single off Jason Marquis.
- Reached the All-Star break with 113K, becoming the first rookie pitcher in Mariners history to record at least 100K prior to the All-Star Break...was just the fourth rookie pitcher in the Majors over the previous 25 years (1987-2011) to record at least 113K by the break: also Kerry Wood (139K in 1998), Daisuke Matsuzaka (123K in 2007) and Hideo Nomo (119K in 1995).
- Struck out a career-high 10 batters and allowed 1H in 6.1IP in 7/30 win vs. Tampa Bay...combined with Jeff Gray (1.2IP) and Brandon League (1.0IP) on the second team one-hitter in Mariners franchise history...became just the second Mariners starting pitcher to throw at least 6.0 innings, allow 1H or less and strike out at least 10 batters, joining Randy Johnson, who accomplished the feat six times (last: 7/16/98 vs. Minnesota).
- Went winless over his final seven starts of the season, despite posting quality starts in five of those contests and compiling a 3.60 ERA (30.0IP, 12ER) over his final five outings...each of his final seven starts was decided by three runs or less, with the Mariners getting shut out in two of the contests.

- Named the Mariners' minor league "Pitcher of the Year" and was a finalist for the USA Today "Minor League Player of the Year" after combining to go 11-4 with a 3.36 ERA (139.1IP, 52ER) and 154K in 25 starts with Double-A West Tenn and Triple-A Tacoma...tied for most strikeouts among all Mariners minor league pitchers...averaged 9.95K/9.0IP.
- Began the season with West Tenn, going 8-1 with a 2.22 ERA (77.0IP, 19ER) in 13 starts...was named to Baseball America's Double-A All-Star team.
- Was promoted to Tacoma on 6/21, going 3-3 with a 4.76 ERA (62.1IP, 33ER) in 12 starts...made his Rainiers debut on 6/23, tossing 6.0 shutout innings vs. Salt Lake City (1H, 3BB, 5K).
- Was named Pacific Coast League "Pitcher of the Week" after striking out 11 batters on 6/28 at Sacramento and 10 batters on 7/4 at Salt Lake.
- Following the season, was tabbed by Baseball America as the Mariners' top pitching prospect (second overall), as well possessing the organization's "Best Fastball" and "Best Slider"...was also named by the publication as the No. 3 prospect in the Southern League and Pacific Coast League...was selected as having the "Best Fastball" and as the "Best Pitching Prospect" in the Southern League.
- Was added to the Mariners' 40-man roster on 11/19/10.

- Went 4-2 with a 2.84 ERA (44.1IP, 14ER) in 10 appearances (eight starts) with Single-A High Desert.
- Struck out 48 batters in 44.1IP, including a season-high 8K in 4/19 win at Lancaster (7.0IP, 6H, 3ER, 0BB, 1HR).
- Missed a majority of the season enduring two stints on the disabled list (4/27-5/12 and 5/17-8/17) with a right elbow strain...made two rehab appearances with the AZL Mariners from 8/8-17, tossing 3.0 scoreless innings in two starts (2H, 4K).

- Spent the entire season with Single-A Wisconsin, going 8-6 with a 1.95 ERA (138.1IP, 30ER) in 26 appearances (21 starts)...named the Mariners' minor league "Pitcher of the Year" and Wisconsin's "Pitcher of the Year"...ranked second in the Midwest League in ERA, while leading all Mariners farmhands in ERA and strikeouts (128).
- Tossed his first career complete game—and struck out a career-high 14 batters—in a one-hit shutout on 9/1 at Quad Cities...was co-winner of the Midwest League's "Pitcher of the Week" for the period from 8/25-9/1.

- Went 6-1 with a 2.29 ERA (59.0IP, 15ER) in 15 games (12 starts) with the DSL Mariners and was named the club's "Pitcher of the Year."

2006

- Made his professional debut with the DSL Mariners, going 2-1 with a 0.44 ERA (20.1IP, 1ER) in eight appearances (three starts)...led the team in ERA.

Baseball Glossary

HOW TO FIGURE...

ERA: (ERx9/IP) Multiply earned runs by nine and divide the total by innings pitched.

On-Base Percentage: (H+BB+HBP)/(AB+BB+HBP+SF) Add hits, walks, hit by pitch and divide by the total of at-bats plus walks plus hit-by-pitch plus sacrifice flies.

Magic Number: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

QUALIFYING RULES

Batting Championship: To qualify for a batting title, a player must make 502 or more plate appearances (calculated by 3.1 plate appearances per team game scheduled, which is 162).

Pitching Championship: To qualify for the lowest ERA, a pitcher must throw at least 162.0 innings.

Fielding Championship: To qualify as the top fielder:
(a) a catcher must have played in at least 81 games at catcher.
(b) an infielder or outfielder must have played at his position in at least 108 games.
(c) a pitcher must have 162.0 innings pitched.

Rookie: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the Major Leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a Major League club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit.

Save: Credit a pitcher with a save when:
(1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by his club;

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS
A.L. All-Star Team
- 2011

STATUS

- Selected in the 17th round of the 2006 First-Year Player Draft…signed through the 2014 season.

CAREER NOTES

- Is the only pitcher in Baseball history to record at least 10K/9.0IP in each of his first six Major League seasons (2008-13)…the previous record was held by four pitchers, who each accomplished the feat in their first three Major League seasons—Dick Radatz, Troy Percival, Mark Prior and Takashi Saito.
- His 11.71K/9.0IP (428K, 329.0IP) career ratio is fourth-best in Major League history (min. 300.0IP) behind Rob Dibble (12.17), Billy Wagner (11.92) and Brad Lidge (11.92)…is the highest K/9.0IP ratio for any pitcher in Yankees history (min. 100.0IP).
- Ranks 15th on the Yankees' all-time games pitched list (339)…in 2013, surpassed Joe Page and Ramiro Mendoza (on 4/28), Fritz Peterson (on 5/21), Allie Reynolds (on 6/8), Steve Hamilton (on 7/21), Goose Gossage (on 8/9) and Jeff Nelson (on 9/12).
- Retired each of 25 consecutive batters faced with the bases loaded from 4/19/11-8/12/13…according to Elias, no pitcher had a longer such streak since Jeff Brantley retired 30 straight batters in bases loaded situations from 1989-91.

- Went 5-1 with a 2.04 ERA (329.0IP, 101ER) and three saves in 70 relief appearances with the Yankees…opponents batted .213 (51-for-239, 5HR); LH .175 (22-for-126, 1HR), RH .257 (29-for-113, 4HR)…retired 54-of-70 first batters faced (77.1%)…allowed 6-of-12 (50%) inherited runners to score.
- Made his fourth career Opening Day roster (2010-13).
- Held opponents scoreless over a 21-outing span from 6/19-8/9 (20.1IP, 12H, 4BB, 22K)…the 20.1-inning scoreless stretch was his single-season career high (credit: Elias)…allowed just 1ER over a 29-appearance stretch from 6/19-8/30 (29.1IP).
- Made his 300th career appearance in 6/19 Game 1 win vs. the Dodgers (0.2IP, 2BB).
- Earned his first save of the season in 8/12 win vs. Los Angeles-AL, stranding the bases loaded (0.2IP, 1H, 2BB/1IBB, 2K)…was his first save since 9/20/12 vs. Toronto…allowed a Josh Hamilton double to snap an 0-for-23 stretch by opponents with runners on base.
- Allowed a two-run single to Josh Phegley with the bases loaded in the eighth inning of 9/4 win vs. Chicago-AL…had retired each of his previous 25 batters faced with the bases loaded dating back to 4/19/11.
- Missed five games (9/6-10) with right shoulder tendinitis.
- Was 1-0 in nine spring training relief outings, tossing 8.1 scoreless innings (6H, 3BB, 9K).

2012

- Was 2-7 with two saves and a 2.67 ERA (60.2IP, 18ER) in 65 relief appearances...allowed just seven of his 22 inherited runners to score, retiring his first batter faced on 50 occasions...opponents combined to hit .229 (52-for-227) with 15 extra-base hits (8 doubles, 2 triples, 5HR) and 24RBI.
- Opponents batted .229 (52-for-227, 5HR); LH .208 (25-for-120, 1HR), RH .252 (27-for-107, 4HR).
- His seven losses were the most by a Yankees reliever since Jeff Nelson went 3-7 in 1997.
- Did not allow a run in his first 13 appearances of the season from 4/6-5/8 (13.0IP, 8H, 5BB, 23K)...going back to 2011, did not allow a run over a 26.1-inning stretch from 9/1/11-5/8/12, marking the longest scoreless stretch by a Yankees pitcher since Mariano Rivera tossed 30.2 consecutive shutout innings from 7/22-10/2/99.

- Struck out eight consecutive batters faced from 4/29-5/4...was 1K shy of the most by a Yankee in the Expansion Era (since 1961), trailing only Ron Davis (9K: 8K on 5/4/81 at California to end the game and 1K on 5/9/81 at Seattle with his only batter faced).
- Allowed 3H and 4ER in 0.2IP (1BB, 1K, 1HR) on 5/9 vs. Tampa Bay to record his first loss and blown save... marked his first runs allowed in 2012 and his most runs allowed since 7/2/10 vs. Toronto (also 4ER)...allowed a solo HR to Matt Joyce, just his second HR allowed over a 99-game span (96.0IP) that dated back to 8/31/10 (also 8/29/11 at Baltimore, J.J. Hardy)...also snapped a personal streak of 231 opponent at-bats at Yankee Stadium without allowing a home run, the longest such stretch by any pitcher in the current Yankee Stadium.
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list from 5/15 (retroactive to 5/14)–6/14 with a left oblique strain (missed 28 games).
- Struck out his 300th career batter (Vinny Rottino) in 6/24 win at the Mets...reached the mark in fewer innings (219.2) than all but two pitchers in Major League history—Billy Wagner (194.1) and Brad Lidge (210.2).
- Pitched on three straight days for the first time in his career from 8/26-28 (and five times in a six-game stretch overall from 8/22-28).
- Became a father for the first time with the birth of son Luke Joseph Robertson (8 lbs., 7 oz.) on 8/27...pitched in that night's loss vs. Toronto, tossing a scoreless eighth (1.0IP, 2H, 1K).
- Was 1-0 with a 1.42 ERA (6.1IP, 1ER) in six postseason relief appearances...earned the win in ALDS Game 3 vs. Baltimore after holding the Orioles scoreless in the 11th and 12th innings (2.0IP, 1H, 2K).

- Was 4-0 with one save and a 1.08 ERA in a team-high 70 relief appearances with the Yankees...led all American League relievers and ranked second in the Majors in ERA, trailing only Atlanta's Eric O'Flaherty (0.98).
- Opponents batted .170 (40-for-235, 1HR), marking the ninth-lowest average among ML relievers; LH .156 (19-for-122, 0 HR), RH .186 (21-for-113, 1HR)...appeared in consecutive games 13 times and three straight games twice (5/25-28 and 9/13-16).
- Led all AL relievers and ranked fourth among Major League relievers with 100K...marked the first time a Yankee led AL relievers in strikeouts and the most Ks by a Yankees reliever since Mariano Rivera had 130K in 1996...ranked fourth in the Majors (second in the AL) with 13.50K/9.0IP...marked the highest K/9.0IP ratio by a Yankees reliever in franchise history...became the third pitcher all time to fan at least 100 batters while throwing less than 70.0IP, joining Billy Wagner (1997 w/Houston and 2010 w/Atlanta) and Joel Hanrahan (2010 w/Pittsburgh).
- Opponents batted .053 (1-for-19) with 14K with the bases loaded...according to Elias, his 14K with the bases loaded matched the most by any pitcher in the last 35 seasons, joining Nolan Ryan (1977 Angels) and Mark Littell (1978 Cardinals)...held opponents hitless in their last 23AB with men on base to close out the season.
- Allowed just 1ER (J.J. Hardy solo HR on 8/29 at Baltimore) in 36 appearances on the road (0.25 ERA, 36.0IP, 18H, 18BB, 52K)...established a Major League record by holding opponents scoreless in his first 28 road outings (28.2IP, 15H, 12BB, 41K) from 4/8-8/28 (Game 2), surpassing Mariano Rivera (24 straight to open 2005).
- Held opponents homerless over a franchise-record 71 appearances (68.0IP) from 8/31/10-8/28/11 (Game 2), surpassing Rivera's 61-game homerless stretch from 8/19/05-7/17/06...had the streak snapped with Hardy's HR on 8/29 at Baltimore.
- Was named to his first career All-Star Game, tossing a scoreless second inning (1.0IP, 1H, 1K) for the AL in the 5-1 NL victory on 7/12.

- Held opponents scoreless in 26 of his final 27 outings of the season, starting on 7/26, allowing just 11H and 1ER over the 26.2IP stretch with 37K (9BB, .128 opp. BA)...the span was bookended by a pair of 13-game scoreless streaks from 7/26-8/28 and 9/1-28.
- Did not allow a run in 13 September outings, surrendering just 4H and striking out 19 batters over his final 13.1IP (6BB, 1HP).
- Earned the win and improved to 4-0 in the Yankees' AL East-clinching victory on 9/21 (Game 2) vs. Tampa Bay...entered the game with one out and the bases loaded and induced a Zobrist double play on his first pitch...was his third career one-pitch win (also 7/22/08 vs. Minnesota and 6/4/09 vs. Texas), tied with Brian Shouse for most in the Majors since the start of 2008.
- Appeared in two ALDS games vs. Detroit, tossing 2.0 scoreless IP.

HOUDINI

RHP David Robertson has faced 56 batters with the bases loaded in his career, with 28K in those situations, including 2K in 4PA in 2013...registered 14K and allowed just 1H in 19 such PA in 2011, matching the most bases-loaded strikeouts in a single season by any pitcher from 1977-2011 (also Nolan Ryan with the 1977 Angels and Mark Littell with the 1978 Cardinals) according to Elias.

Struck out 10 consecutive batters faced with the bases loaded during the 2011 season, becoming the only Major League pitcher since 1965 to register 10 straight bases-loaded strikeouts in a single season, according to Elias.

- Was 4-5 with one save and a 3.82 ERA in 64 relief appearances with the Yankees, striking out 71 batters in 61.1IP...appeared in consecutive games 10 times and three straight games twice...ranked seventh among all AL relievers with 10.42K/9.0IP.
- Allowed 11ER over his first 10 appearances from 4/4-5/7 (7.1IP)...in 54 appearances from 5/8 through the end of the season, posted a 2.50 ERA (54.0IP, 15ER)...held opponents scoreless in 45 of those 54 outings.
- Faced three batters before being removed from 5/29 loss vs. Cleveland with a mild lower back strain...did not pitch for six days.
- Earned his first win of the season on 7/4 vs. Toronto, tossing a scoreless 10th inning (1.0IP, 1H, 1BB, 1IBB, 1K)...was the first of 19 consecutive scoreless appearances from 7/4-8/21 (18.1IP, 9H, 8BB, 24K)...according to Elias, held opponents hitless in 23 consecutive at-bats prior to Willie Bloomquist's ninth-inning double on 8/12 at Kansas City, the longest such streak of his career.
- Appeared in six postseason games, allowing 6ER in 3.1IP...surrendered 5ER in 10/18 ALCS Game 3 loss at Texas.

- Was 2-1 with one save and a 3.30 ERA (43.2IP, 16ER) in 45 relief appearances over three stints with the Yankees (4/16; 4/24-5/9; 5/26-10/4).
- Had a 12.98K/9.0IP ratio (43.2IP, 63K)...among pitchers with at least 40.0IP, marked the second-best K/9.0IP ratio in the Majors behind the Dodgers' Jonathan Broxton (13.50).
- Was recalled from Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre prior to the Yankees' first-ever regular season game at Yankee Stadium on 4/16...made his first appearance of the season in the loss that day vs. Cleveland, striking out three batters in 2.0 scoreless innings (2H)...was optioned back to Scranton/WB the next day...recalled a second time on 4/24 when RHP Chien-Ming Wang was placed on the D.L...appeared in four games (2.2IP, 2H, 3R, 2ER, 4BB, 4K) before being optioned back to Scranton/WB.
- Was recalled a third time on 5/26 and pitched out of the Yankees bullpen for the remainder of the season...did not allow a run in any of his first seven appearances following his third recall (5.0IP, 2H, 2BB, 6K).
- Threw one pitch (Elvis Andrus flyout to LF) to earn his first win of the season on 6/4 vs. Texas...was his second career one-pitch win (also 7/22/08 vs. Minnesota).
- Struck out three batters in 0.2IP in 8/6 win vs. Boston, becoming the first Yankee to record at least three strikeouts without completing a full inning of work since Ron Davis on 9/17/80 vs. Toronto (0.2IP, 3K).
- Was shut down for three weeks from 9/6-28 with elbow stiffness...had an MRI on 9/7 and was seen by Dr. James Andrews in Pensacola, Fla., on 9/10.
- Began the year at Scranton/WB, going 0-3 with two saves and a 1.84 ERA (14.2IP, 3ER, 6BB, 25K) in eight outings.
- Did not allow a run in five appearances during the 2009 playoffs, tossing 5.1 scoreless innings (4H, 3BB, 3K)...earned the win in each of his first two postseason appearances (Game 2 of ALDS vs. Minnesota and Game 2 of ALCS vs. Los Angeles-AL), as the Yankees recorded "walk-off" wins in each contest.
- In his first career postseason appearance in Game 2 of ALDS vs. Minnesota, escaped a bases-loaded, no out jam in the top of the 11th inning without allowing any runs (Yankees won in the bottom of the frame on Mark Teixeira's "walk-off" HR).

- Was 4-0 with a 5.34 ERA in 25 relief appearances over two stints with the Yankees (6/28-8/28; 9/13-28)...pitched in three consecutive games twice (7/13-18 and 8/24-27)...tossed a season-high 2.0 innings on six occasions.
- Was signed to a Major League contract and selected to the Yankees' 25-man roster on 6/28...made his ML debut in 6/29 loss at the Mets, allowing 1ER in 2.0IP (4H, 1K)...struck out his first batter faced (Oliver Perez).
- Pitched a scoreless 12th inning and recorded his first Major League victory on 7/19 vs. Oakland (1.0IP, 1H, 1BB, 1K) after Jose Molina was hit by a pitch with the bases loaded, bringing in the game-winning run.
- Recorded his second Major League victory (within a four-game span) on 7/22 vs. Minnesota, stranding two inherited runners and getting the final out in the sixth on one pitch.
- In 7/28 loss vs. Baltimore, allowed a grand slam to Adam Jones and set a career high with 5ER...was his first HR allowed as a professional after 148.1 career IP (minors-136.0IP from 2007-08 and Majors-12.1IP).
- Allowed 16ER over 10 outings (13.1IP) from 7/28-8/27 and was optioned to Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre on 8/28...was recalled from Scranton/WB on 9/13...did not allow a run over four appearances in his second stint (4.2IP, 2H, 3BB, 7K).
- In 53.2 combined minor league innings with Scranton/WB and Double-A Trenton, went 4-0 with three saves and a 1.67 ERA over 30 relief appearances (28H, 13R, 10ER, 23BB, 77K).
- Made three playoff relief outings with IL-champion Scranton/WB, allowing 3ER in 4.1IP (6.23 ERA, 2H, 4BB, 6K).
- Named the International League's "Best Reliever" in Baseball America's 2008 Best Tools survey.

- In his first professional season, pitched at Single-A Charleston, Single-A Tampa and Double-A Trenton, combining to go 8-3 with four saves and a 0.96 ERA in 44 relief appearances (32BB, 113K).
- Ranked third among minor league relievers, with a .154 opponents batting average...was named to the South Atlantic League's midseason All-Star team (w/ Charleston)...39 of his 44 outings were at least 2.0 innings and all but two were more than 1.0 inning...converted on four of five save opportunities.
- Was 5-2 with three saves and a 0.77 ERA (47.0IP, 4ER) in 24 appearances with Charleston...began his career with 10 consecutive scoreless outings from 4/3-5/3, allowing just 7H in 18.1IP (6BB, 27K).
- Went 3-1 with one save and a 1.08 ERA with Tampa...did not allow an earned run in nine appearances at home (17.1IP, 8H, 2R, 9BB, 12K).
- Made two regular season appearances with Trenton, allowing 1ER in 4.0IP (2.25 ERA)...appeared in two postseason games for the Eastern League champion Thunder, surrendering 2ER in 5.0IP (3.60 ERA) and striking out five batters.

- Began a rehab assignment on 7/2...in 15 rehab games with Single-A Charleston (two games), Single-A Tampa (six games), Double-A Trenton (four games) and Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre (three games), combined to bat .214 (9-for-42) with 6R, 1 double, 3HR, 10RBI and 6BB...was diagnosed with a Grade 1 strain of his left quadriceps on 7/21 after undergoing an exam and MRI performed by Dr. Christopher Ahmad at New York-Presbyterian Hospital...returned to Tampa for rest and treatment before beginning a second rehab assignment on 8/2 with Trenton.
- Made his season debut in 8/5 loss at Chicago-AL, starting at 3B and going 1-for-4...was returned from rehab and reinstated from the 60-day disabled list prior to the game.
- Collected his first career pinch-hit in 8/25 win at Tampa Bay, pinch-hitting for Chris Stewart in the 10th inning...prior to the single, was 0-for-14 as a pinch-hitter in his career.
- Hit his 650th career home run in 8/26 loss at Toronto.
- Hit his 24th career grand slam in 9/20 win vs. San Francisco off George Kontos (his first since 6/12/12 at Atlanta), surpassing Lou Gehrig (23) for most in Baseball history...was his 14th grand slam as a Yankee, breaking a tie with Joe DiMaggio (13) for sole possession of second place on the Yankees' all-time list behind Gehrig.

- Hit .272 (126-for-463) with 74R, 17 doubles, 1 triple, 18HR, 57RBI and 51BB in 122 games (81 starts at 3B and 38 starts at DH) with the Yankees...was 13-for-14 in stolen base attempts, marking his most single-season steals since 2009 (14)...was successful in 13 straight stolen base attempts from 5/13/11-7/6/12.
- During the season surpassed Frank Robinson (1,830), Craig Biggio (1,844), Mel Ott (1,859), Tris Speaker (1,882) and Lou Gehrig (1,889) on Baseball's all-time runs scored list...surpassed Willie Mays (1,903), Eddie Murray (1,917) and Jimmie Foxx (1,925) on the all-time RBI list...also passed Ken Griffey, Jr. (630) for fifth place in home runs all time.
- Hit his 500th career double in 5/21 loss vs. Kansas City...snapped a career-high-tying 0-for-16 stretch with runners on base with his first-inning single with Cano on first base—credit: Elias.
- Reached base safely in 22 straight games from 5/21-6/16, his longest such stretch since 9/18/06-4/27/07 (31G).
- Recorded his 60th career multi-HR game (56th two-HR game) in 5/23 win vs. Kansas City.
- Hit game-tying grand slam in the eighth inning in 6/12 win at Atlanta...was his 23rd career grand slam, tying Lou Gehrig for the most in Baseball history...was his 13th grand slam as a Yankee, surpassing Babe Ruth (12) and tying Joe DiMaggio (13) for second place on the club's all-time list (behind Gehrig's 23).
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list from 7/25-9/3 with a left fifth metacarpal fracture (missed 36 team games)...suffered the injury after being hit by a Felix Hernandez pitch in the eighth inning on 7/24...made two rehab starts (1-3B/1-DH) with Single-A Tampa on 8/31 and 9/1, going 0-for-7 with 1R and 1BB.
- Reached his 37th birthday (on 7/27) with 644HR, the most ever for a player prior to their 37th birthday...his 1,928RBI were second-most prior to turning 37, trailing only Lou Gehrig (1,994).
- Played in his 2,500th career game in 9/6 loss at Baltimore...became the fourth then-active player to reach the mark, joining teammate Derek Jeter (who did so earlier in 2012), Omar Vizquel and Jim Thome...with 2,876 hits and 1,185 extra-base hits, only two other players tallied as many hits and extra-base hits through their first 2,500 games: Stan Musial (3,176H, 1,233 extra-base hits) and Hank Aaron (3,044H, 1,200 extra-base hits).
- Hit his 300th home run as a Yankee in 9/7 win at Baltimore.
- Went 11 games without driving in a run from 9/19 (Game 2)-9/30...tied the second-longest such streak of his career (also 11G from 7/2-15/97) behind only a 13-game stretch without an RBI from 6/3-17/03.
- Snapped a career-high 67AB stretch without an extra-base hit with his fifth-inning double in 10/3 win vs. Boston (credit: Elias)...was his first extra-base hit since a home run on 9/14 vs. Tampa Bay.
- Went 3-for-25 (.120) combined in postseason play (ALDS win vs. Baltimore and ALCS loss vs. Detroit).

- Hit .276 (103-for-373) with 67R, 21 doubles, 16HR, 62RBI and 47BB in 99 games (87 starts at 3B and 10 at DH) with the Yankees.
- Reached base safely (via hit, walk or HBP) in each of his first 16 games of the season (3/31-4/25).
- Was placed on the 15-day disabled list on 7/14 (retroactive to 7/8)...underwent arthroscopic surgery to repair a meniscus tear in his right knee at the University of Miami on 7/11...surgery was performed by Dr. Lee Kaplan.
- Participated in a simulated game on 8/14 at the Yankees' minor league complex in Tampa, Fla., collecting 4H in 13AB with 2 doubles and 3K...began a rehab assignment with Single-A Tampa, and made two appearances with the team on 8/12-13 at Dunedin, going 2-for-6 with 2R, 1 double, 1HR, 2RBI, 1BB and 3K in two starts as the DH...hit solo HR to left-center field on his first swing of his first rehab appearance on 8/12...was transferred to Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre from 8/16-17, combining to go 2-for-5 with 1RBI and 2BB (2GS at 3B).
- Was returned from rehab and reinstated from the 15-day D.L. on 8/21 (missed 38 team games)...batted .191 (13-for-68) with 14R, 2 doubles, 3HR and 10RBI in 19 games through the end of the season following his D.L. stint, also battling a sprained left thumb injury.
- Missed two games (8/23-24) with a sprained left thumb (injury occurred in 8/21 win at Minnesota, his first game back from the D.L.)...returned to play for three games from 8/25-28 (G1) before missing six more games from 8/28 (G2)-9/2 with the injury...missed another six games with lingering left thumb soreness from 9/10-16.
- Went 2-for-18 (.111) with 3RBI and 4BB in the Yankees' five-game ALDS loss vs. Detroit.

The Yankees lead the Majors in all-time Interleague wins and winning percentage (179-123, .593)...in 2013, went 9-11 vs. the NL, marking just their second all-time non-winning single-season Interleague record (went 5-10 vs. the NL in the first year of Interleague play in 1997)...snapped their Major League-record 15-year stretch of a .500-or-better record in Interleague games (1998-2012)–credit: Elias Sports Bureau.

SS Derek Jeter has recorded 346 hits and scored 195 runs in Interleague play, both most all time...LHP CC Sabathia ranks third with 24 wins and 274 strikeouts in Interleague games...Yankees pitchers have batted a combined .093 (32-for-345) all time in Interleague play with 8 doubles, 12RBI and 41 sacrifice hits...no Yankees pitcher has ever homered in an Interleague game.

STATUS

- Signed as a free agent on December 18, 2008, to a seven-year contract, extending through the 2015 season…agreed to a one-year extension for the 2016 season (with an additional vesting club option for 2017) on October 31, 2011.

CAREER NOTES

- Since his debut in 2001, has a 205-115 (.641) record with a 3.60 ERA and 2,389K in 415 starts, marking the most wins and strikeouts in the Majors over the stretch…is second in starts, IP (2,775.1) and complete games (37), and tied for second in shutouts (12) over the span.
- Has recorded at least 11 wins in each of his first 13 seasons to begin his Major League career (2001-13)…is one of just four pitchers in the Modern Era (since 1900) to accomplish the feat: also Don Sutton (first 17 seasons, 1966-82), Eddie Plank (first 16 seasons, 1901-16) and Tom Seaver (also first 13 seasons, 1967-79).
- Has compiled 13 consecutive seasons with a winning record and at least 180.0IP to start his career, one of three pitchers all time to reach the marks in 13 straight seasons at any point in their career, joining Cy Young (14, 1881-1904) and Greg Maddux (17, 1988-2004)—credit: Elias Sports Bureau.
- Earned at least 15 wins and tossed at least 200.0 innings in six straight seasons from 2007-12…was the only pitcher in the Majors to accomplish the feat in each of the six seasons over the stretch.
- Has recorded at least 139K in each of his first 13 Major League seasons…joins Don Sutton (first 14 seasons, 1966-79) as the only Major League pitchers in the Modern Era to record at least 13 such consecutive seasons from the start of their career.
- Elias notes that he is the only pitcher in Baseball history to win more than 10 games while posting a winning record in each of his first 13 Major League seasons.
- Owns 36 career games of at least 10K, second-most among active pitchers behind Johan Santana (50)…has recorded 17 games of 10-or-more strikeouts as a Yankee, tying for the third-most in the Live Ball Era (also Al Downing) behind Ron Guidry (23) and David Cone (21).
- Leads all active pitchers in career strikeouts (2,389) and complete games (37), is tied with Tim Hudson for first in wins (205), ranks third in innings pitched (2,775.1), is tied for third in shutouts (12) and ranks fourth in games started and 10th in ERA (3.60)-min. 1,500.0IP…among active left-handers, ranks first in wins and strikeouts, second in winning percentage (.641)-min. 140 decisions, third in games started and fourth in ERA-min. 1,500.0IP.
- Has gone 105-52 (.669) with a 3.37 ERA over the last six seasons (2008-13), leading the Majors in wins and winning pct. (min: 60 decisions), ranking second in IP (1,369.0), fourth in strikeouts (1,247) and tying for fourth in shutouts (7).

- Owns three seasons of at least 200K (2007-08, '11), trailing only Johan Santana (five) and Clayton Kershaw (four) for most among active LHPs.
- Owns the most career starts (415) among active pitchers who have never made a regular season relief appearance...has made one career postseason relief appearance on 10/6/11 in a 3-2 ALDS Game 5 loss vs. Detroit.
- Has thrown a Major League-high 43,418 pitches since his debut in 2001...has made at least 28 starts in each of his 13 Major League seasons.
- Has 88 wins since joining the Yankees prior to the 2009 season, second behind Detroit's Justin Verlander (91) for most in the Majors over the span...over the same stretch, has compiled 89 starts of at least 7.0IP and 3ER-or-less, fourth-best among all Major Leaguers...has posted a 3.52 ERA (1,116.0IP, 436ER) in 161GS since joining the Yankees, marking the sixth-best ERA among Yankees starters with at least 500.0 starting IP since 1973.
- Went 59-23 (.720) in his first 100 starts with the Yankees...according to Elias, tied for the second-most wins by a Yankee within his first 100 games with the club (Jack Chesbro-63, Russ Ford-59), and was the most wins through 100 starts as a Yankee since Ron Guidry (62-19)...Elias also notes that his 618K through his first 100GS as a Yankee were the third-most in franchise history behind David Cone (673) and Ron Guidry (660).
- Is 43-16 with a 3.21 ERA (539.0IP, 192ER) and a .230 opponents average (463-for-2,015) in 76 regular season starts at the current Yankee Stadium (since 2009), marking the most all-time wins at the venue...marks the third-most home wins by a Major League pitcher over the stretch (2009-13)...Elias notes that his .806 (29-7) winning percentage over his first 50 home starts at Yankee Stadium was the third-highest for any pitcher in franchise history, behind Ron Guidry (.854, 35-6) and David Cone (.833, 30-6).
- Was undefeated in 21 consecutive regular season starts at Yankee Stadium from 7/18/09-9/10/10 (16-0, 2.05 ERA)...according to Elias, tied Whitey Ford (8/8/64-8/18/65 at the original Yankee Stadium) for the longest undefeated streak of starts by a Yankee at any ballpark (home or away)...also tied Johnny Allen (1932-33) and Ron Guidry (1985-86) for the longest home winning streak in franchise history.
- Has started a game with his team on a losing streak of five-or-more games eight times in his career...his team has a 5-3 record in those eight starts, with Sabathia going 4-2 with a 2.76 ERA (58.2IP, 18ER).
- Has made 10 career Opening Day starts and five straight with the Yankees (2009-13)...is one of six pitchers in franchise history to make at least five Opening Day starts for the club and first since Ron Guidry, who made seven (1978-80, '82-84, '86)...is the first pitcher to start the Yankees' season opener in each of his first five years with the team (credit: Elias)...joins Lefty Gomez (six straight from 1932-37) as the only pitchers to make at least five consecutive Opening Day starts for the Yankees at any point in their career.
- Won at least 12 games prior to the All-Star break in 2010 and 2011, the second Yankee in franchise history to do so in consecutive years—also Tommy John (13-4 in 1979; 12-3 in 1980)...became just the fifth pitcher in the prior 20 seasons (1992-2011) to win 12-or-more games before to the break in consecutive seasons, joining Jack McDowell (1992-93 w/ Chicago-AL), Curt Schilling (2001-02 w/ Arizona), Mark Mulder (2003-04 w/ Oakland) and Roy Halladay (2005-06 w/ Toronto).

- Has made nine career Game 1 starts in the postseason, trailing only Greg Maddux (11) for most all time.
- As a Yankee in the postseason (since 2009), is 7-2 with a 3.50 ERA (82.1IP, 32ER) in 14 games (13 starts)...in home games at Yankee Stadium over the span, is 4-1 with a 2.03 ERA (40.0IP, 9ER) in seven games (6GS)...has never allowed more than 2R in a home postseason start.
- Went undefeated over eight straight postseason starts with the Yankees from 11/1/09 (World Series Game 4 at Philadelphia) through 10/12/12 (ALDS Game 5 vs. Baltimore)...was the fifth-longest stretch of undefeated playoff starts by a Yankee in franchise history (Roger Clemens-10 straight; and Andy Pettitte, Orlando Hernandez and David Cone-each nine straight).

- In 32 starts, went 14-13 with a 4.78 ERA (211.0IP, 112ER)...opponents batted .272 (224-for-823, 28HR); LH .242 (47-for-194, 5HR); RH .281 (177-for-629, 23HR).
- Allowed a career-high 28HR (15HR on the road, 13HR at home), surpassing his previous career high of 22HR in 2012...allowed six first-inning HRs after allowing just seven such homers from 2009-12.
- Went 4-2 with a 3.35 ERA (43.0IP, 16ER) in six April starts, marking his highest career April wins total.
- Threw just 51 pitches in a rain-shortened start on 5/9 at Colorado, snapping a 13-start stretch of throwing at least 100 pitches...had been the second-longest active streak in the Majors.
- Recorded the win in the Yankees' 4-1 victory over Boston on 5/31 (7.1IP, 6H, 1ER, 0BB, 10K)...was the fifth time in his career he had recorded at least 10K without walking a batter and first time as a Yankee (also 7/18/08 at San Francisco, 7/29/07 vs. Minnesota, 9/26/06 vs. Chicago-AL and 9/7/05 at Detroit).

- Recorded his 36th career complete game and 28th complete-game win on 6/5 vs. Cleveland (9.0IP, 7H, 4ER, 1HR, 1BB, 9K)...was his first complete game against the Indians—the team that drafted him in 1998.
- Earned his 200th career win on 7/3 vs. Minnesota at Target Field...according to the Elias Sports Bureau, became the 27th pitcher in Major League history, and just the eighth in the Expansion Era (since 1961), to win his 200th game before his 33rd birthday (also Don Drysdale, Catfish Hunter, Ferguson Jenkins, Greg Maddux, Juan Marichal, Jim Palmer and Tom Seaver)...Elias also notes that Sabathia became the 92nd pitcher to win 200 career games in the Modern Era and 111th hurler all-time to reach the plateau.
- Recorded his 37th career complete game on 7/9 vs. Kansas City...was his ninth career complete-game loss and first since 7/21/11 at Tampa Bay...was his 11th complete game as a Yankee.
- With 7K on 8/24 at Tampa Bay, surpassed Allie Reynolds for the 12th-most strikeouts in Yankees franchise history.
- Following his last start of the season on 9/20 vs. San Francisco, was placed on the 60-day disabled list with a Grade 2 left hamstring strain on September 25 (retroactive to September 21).
- Made two official spring training starts and did not record a decision, allowing 6ER in 10.0IP (5.40 ERA)...also made one minor league start vs. Triple-A Scranton/Wilkes-Barre players on 3/20 and allowed 1ER on 8H in 6.0IP (1BB, 6K).

- Was 15-6 with a 3.38 ERA (200.0IP, 75ER) and 197K in 28 starts for the Yankees…struck out 8.87 batters per 9.0IP, the second-best such mark of his career behind 2008 (8.93K/9.0IP).
- Among AL pitchers, finished third in winning percentage (.714), seventh in strikeouts and opponents batting average (.238) and tied for 10th in wins…led Yankees pitchers in strikeouts, was second in IP (Kuroda-219.2), and third in wins (Phil Hughes-16 and Kuroda-16) and ERA (Pettitte-2.87 and Kuroda-3.32).
- Ten of his 28 starts came following a Yankees' loss, with Sabathia combining to go 7-1 with a 2.66 ERA (74.1IP, 22ER) in those contests (15BB, 72K)…tossed at least 7.0IP in all but one of those starts (6.2IP on 8/8 at Detroit), allowing 3ER or less in each of those appearances and 2ER or less in five of the outings.
- Had two stints on the 15-day disabled list, missing 18 games with a left groin strain (6/28-7/16) and 14 games with left elbow inflammation (8/11-23)…were his first trips to the D.L. since 2006.
- Tossed at least 7.0 innings in 19 of his outings, and 8.0 innings a team-high nine times (fifth most in the Majors in 2012).
- Walked two or fewer batters in 25 of his 28 starts, including each of his final 19 outings beginning on 5/26…marked the second-longest such stretch in his career behind a 21-game span from 4/20-8/3/07.
- Won each of his first five decisions, matching the best start to a season in his career (also 5-0 in 2007 w/ Cleveland)…with no-decisions in his first two outings, was undefeated in first seven starts (5-0, 3.51 ERA).
- Recorded at least 8.0IP in four consecutive starts from 4/23-5/10, tying a career high (fourth time, first since 5/19-6/4/11).

BIRTHDAY BOY

Celebrated his 33rd birthday on 7/21/13…with a 200-110 (.645) career record prior to turning 33, marked the most such victories by a pitcher since Greg Maddux compiled 203 wins before his 33rd birthday in 1999…according to Elias, the last 10 pitchers with at least 200 wins before turning 33 are all in the Hall of Fame: Bob Feller (230, 1951), Hal Newhouser (201, 1954), Robin Roberts (221, 1959), Don Drysdale (208, 1969), Juan Marichal (203, 1970), Ferguson Jenkins (203, 1976), Tom Seaver (203, 1977), Jim Palmer (215, 1978), Catfish Hunter (222, 1978) and Maddux…Elias also notes that since 1900, only five other pitchers reached their 33rd birthday with as many wins and as high a career winning percentage as Sabathia: Christy Mathewson (333-152, .687), Grover Alexander (208-100, .675), Juan Marichal (203-98, .674), Jim Palmer (215-116, .650) and Chief Bender (200-109, .647).

- Recorded a season-high 12K in 6/7 loss vs. Tampa Bay, marking the first time that he took the loss in a game in which he struck out 10-or-more batters since 7/29/07 w/ Cleveland vs. Minnesota (11K).
- Recorded his 35th career complete game on 8/3 vs. Seattle, and second of the season (also 6/18 vs. Atlanta), earning the win in the 6-3 Yankees' victory (9.0IP, 3H, 3ER, 1BB, 10K, 2HR)…threw 103 pitches, the fewest by a Yankee in a complete game of at least 9.0IP since Bartolo Colon on 5/30/11 at Oakland (also 103 pitches).
- During his start on 8/8 at Detroit, surpassed the 2,500.0IP mark for his career, becoming the youngest pitcher (age 32) to reach that milestone since Greg Maddux did so at age 31 in 1997 (credit: Elias).
- Gave up a lead in five straight starts from 8/24-9/14, matching the longest such streak of his career (also 2007 w/ Cleveland)…was the longest such streak by a Yankee since Kei Igawa in 2007 (credit: Elias).
- Made his 125th regular season start with the Yankees on 9/8 at Baltimore, recording the loss…went 72-28 (.720) over his first 125 regular season starts with the team, marking the most wins in franchise history through 125 starts since Ron Guidry went 75-30 (.714) to that point in his career (credit: Elias)…also marked the highest such winning percentage in Yankees history since Whitey Ford went 73-22 (.768) over his first 125 starts.
- Combined to strike out 21 batters over his two starts on 9/21 vs. Oakland (11K) and 9/26 at Minnesota (10K)…marked the fourth time that he fanned at least 10 batters in back-to-back starts (third time as a Yankee, doing so twice in 2011).
- Went 2-0 with a 1.50 ERA (24.0IP, 13H, 4ER) over his final three regular season starts, tossing 8.0 innings and limiting opponents to 2R or less in each outing…tied the longest streak of at least 8.0IP and 2R or less in his career (fifth time, second of the season - also 4/29-5/10).
- Went 2-0 with a 1.53 ERA (17.2IP, 3ER) in two ALDS starts vs. Baltimore…tossed a complete game in "winner-take-all" ALDS Game 5 at Yankee Stadium (9.0IP, 4H, 1ER, 2BB, 9K), establishing postseason career highs in innings pitched, strikeouts and pitches thrown (121)…became just the second Yankee to throw a complete game in an ALDS contest (also David Wells on 10/4/97 in Game 3 at Cleveland)…his 17.2IP in the series were the most ever by a Yankee in a single ALDS, surpassing David Cone (15.2IP in the 1995 ALDS vs. Seattle)…made one ALCS start in Game 4 at Detroit, allowing 5ER in 3.2IP in the loss (11H, 6R, 2HR, 2BB, 3K).

- Was 19-8 (.704) with a 3.00 ERA (237.1IP, 79ER) and 230K in 33 starts with the Yankees, his third consecutive season with at least 19 wins…Sabathia's ERA to three decimals was 2.996, which the Elias Sports Bureau recognizes as a sub-3.00 ERA…was his second career sub-3.00 single-season ERA (also 2008, 2.70 in 35 starts)…became the first Yankee with as-many-or-more IP and a sub-3.00 ERA since Andy Pettitte in 1997 (240.1IP, 2.88 ERA)…finished fourth in AL Cy Young voting (63 total points), and received two sixth-place votes for AL MVP.
- Ranked among the leaders in wins (second in AL, tied for fourth in Majors), strikeouts (second in AL, fourth in Majors), winning pct. (fourth in AL, eighth in Majors), IP (fourth in AL, tied for fourth in Majors), starts (tied for sixth in AL, tied for ninth in Majors), K/BB (3.77 - sixth in AL, 13th in Majors) and ERA (ninth in AL, 17th in Majors).

DUELING LEFTIES

In 2010, CC Sabathia (21-7, .750) and Andy Pettitte (11-3, .786) became just the second set of Yankees left-handers each with at least a .750 winning percentage and a minimum 20 starts in the same season…the 1953 combo of Whitey Ford (18-6, .750) and Eddie Lopat (16-4, .800) are the only other pair of hurlers in franchise history to accomplish the feat.

- Led the Majors with seven multi-HR games, including a team-high four with the Yankees...only Arizona's Paul Goldschmidt and Toronto's Jose Bautista (four each) had more than three such games.
- After joining the Yankees on 7/26, led the Majors with 17HR and 50RBI (in 58 games)...became the fourth player in Baseball history to collect at least 15HR and 50RBI for each of two different teams in one season, joining David Justice (2000 Indians and Yankees), Carlos Beltran (2004 Royals and Astros) and Manny Ramirez (2008 Red Sox and Dodgers)—credit: Elias.
- In 7/26 loss vs. Tampa Bay, played in his first game with the Yankees since 2003, going 0-for-5 with 1R and 1RBI...was his first ever game with the Yankees in the outfield...was acquired by the Yankees from the Cubs with cash considerations in exchange for minor league RHP Corey Black prior to the game.
- Drove in the winning run with a ninth-inning "walk-off" single, hit a two-run HR in the third—his first HR as a Yankee since 9/28/03 vs. Baltimore—and was 4-for-5 with 2R and 3RBI on 7/28 vs. Tampa Bay...was his 13th career "walk-off" hit (fourth as a Yankee) and first since 8/30/12 vs. Milwaukee (w/ Chicago-NL)...was his first four-hit game since 7/13/12 vs. Arizona.
- Hit 11HR in 28 games in August for the Yankees, the first time he reached double digits in homers in a calendar month since September 2007 w/ Chicago-AL (14HR)...became the only Yankee ever to hit at least 11HR in a calendar month at age 37 or older...his 31RBI in August were his most ever in a calendar month...became the first Yankee with at least 11HR and 31RBI in a calendar month since Mark Teixeira (13HR, 34RBI in May 2009) and the first to reach those numbers in August since Joe DiMaggio (14HR, 53RBI in August 1939)—credit: Elias.
- Hit his 100th HR as a Yankee in 8/7 loss at Chicago-AL.
- Recorded his 2,000th career hit with a solo HR in 8/11 win vs. Detroit...became the fourth player in the last 60 years to make his Major League debut with the Yankees and record at least 2,000 career hits, joining Derek Jeter (3,308), Bernie Williams (2,336) and Don Mattingly (2,153)—credit: Elias.
- Hit .682 (15-for-22) with 9R, 1 double, 5HR and 18RBI over five games from 8/13-17...tied a Major League record with 18RBI in a four-game span (8/13-16), now done by six players (four Yankees)—Jim Bottomley (7/6-9/29), Lou Gehrig (7/29-31/30), Tony Lazzeri (5/21-24/36), Joe DiMaggio (8/28-9/1/39) and Sammy Sosa (8/8-11/02)—credit: Elias...became the fourth player with at least 3H and 1RBI in four straight games as a Yankee (last was Johnny Damon in 2006).
- Went 10-for-14 with 4HR and 14RBI over a three-game stretch from 8/13-15...the only other players ever to accumulate at least that many hits, homers and RBI over a three-game span were the Indians' Hal Trosky in 1936 (11H, 4HR, 15RBI) and the Dodgers' Shawn Green in 2002 (11H, 7HR, 14RBI).
- Drove in 14 runs in the Yankees' four-game series vs. the Angels from 8/12-15, marking the most RBI in a single series by any Major Leaguer since the Marlins' Cody Ross had 15RBI in a four-game series at Colorado from 7/3-6/08...the last Yankee to drive in at least 14 runs in a single series of any length was Joe DiMaggio in a six-game set vs. Cleveland from 8/25-27/38 (14RBI)...the last Yankee to accomplish the feat in a series of four-games-or-fewer was Tony Lazzeri from 5/23-25/36 at Philadelphia (16RBI in four games).
- Hit a grand slam—the fifth of his career and first since 7/27/09 w/ Chicago-NL vs. Houston—and a solo HR, going 3-for-3 with 3R, 1 double, 1BB and a career-high 7RBI in 8/14 win vs. Los Angeles-AL...set a career high in RBI for the second straight game (6RBI on 8/13)...is one of just three Major Leaguers since RBI became an official stat in 1920 with at least 6RBI in each of two straight games, joining Milwaukee's Geoff Jenkins from 4/28-29/01 (6RBI in each game) and Texas' Rusty Greer from 8/22-23/97 (6RBI in each game)...his 13RBI over the two-game span was the second-highest total by a single player in consecutive games in Yankees history, behind only Tony Lazzeri's 15RBI from 5/23 (G2)-5/24/36 at Philadelphia (4RBI and 11RBI, respectively)—credit: Elias...STATS LLC notes that his 13RBI in consecutive games is the most by any Major Leaguer since the Cubs' Sammy Sosa had 14RBI from 8/10-11/02 (9RBI and 5RBI, respectively)...his 7RBI on 8/14 marked the most RBI by a Yankee in a single game since Alex Rodriguez drove in seven runs in the final game of the 2009 season (10/4 at Tampa Bay)...became the first Yankee to homer multiple times in back-to-back games (hit 2HR in 8/13 win vs. Los Angeles-AL) since Jason Giambi from 8/28-29/05...collected multi-HR games in two straight contests for the third time in his career (also 5/16-17/08 w/ Chicago-NL and 5/6-7/05 w/ Texas).
- Was named AL "Player of the Week" for the period ending 8/18 after batting .484 (15-for-31) with 9R, 1 double, 5HR and 18RBI in seven games, leading the Majors in hits, home runs, RBI, slugging pct. (1.000) and total bases (31), while tying for first in runs over the stretch...was his seventh career weekly award (first since 5/18/08 w/ Chicago-NL) and fourth with the Yankees (first since 9/21/03).

- Hit his 400th career home run in the third inning of 8/27 win at Toronto off J.A. Happ...became the seventh Major Leaguer all time to hit his 400th career home run while playing for the Yankees (also Babe Ruth, Lou Gehrig, Mickey Mantle, Reggie Jackson, Gary Sheffield and Alex Rodriguez)...according to Elias, marks the most such players for any Major League team.
- Had an RBI in seven straight games from 9/1-7, matching the longest such streak of his career (4/27-5/3/04 with Texas)...marked the longest such streak by a Yankee since Robinson Cano drove in at least one run in nine straight games from 6/27-7/6/12.
- Was scratched from the lineup prior to 9/14 loss at Boston with a strained right thumb.

- Became just the third second baseman in Major League history to record at least three seasons of 35HR, joining Hall of Famer Rogers Hornsby (1922, '25 and '29) and Jeff Kent (1998, 2000 and '02).
- Became just the third second baseman in Major League history with four consecutive 20HR seasons, joining Jeff Kent and Ryne Sandberg.
- Was named AL "Player of the Week" for the period ending 5/9...recorded a pair of 15-game hitting streaks (5/24-6/13 and 7/31-8/16).
- Was traded to the Washington Nationals on 12/13/05 in exchange for OFs Terrmel Sledge and Brad Wilkerson and RHP Armando Galarraga.

- Hit .280 (170-for-608) with 77R, 32 doubles, 28HR and 91RBI in 145 games in his first season with Texas, earning his second career Silver Slugger Award.
- Played in the All-Star Game for the third straight season and was named the game's MVP, going 2-for-3 with 1HR and 3RBI on 7/13 at Minute Maid Park...his first-inning, three-run HR off Roger Clemens gave the AL a 6-0 lead...led fan balloting with 3,466,447 total votes and also led player balloting for AL second basemen with 572 votes...was the first player ever to win the ASG Top Vote-Getter and MVP awards in the same season and the second Ranger to be named MVP of the Midsummer Classic (also Julio Franco in 1990).
- Hit his 100th career home run in the eighth inning on 5/2 vs. Boston (off Alan Embree).
- Collected 6H on 5/8 vs. Detroit and was one of six AL players to record a six-hit game in 2004.
- Hit an 18th-inning "walk-off" two-run HR on 6/24 vs. Seattle.
- Sustained a strained left hamstring while stealing third base in the eighth inning on 9/16 at Oakland and did not play in the Rangers' final 16 games of the season.
- Was selected by Major League Baseball to play on an All-Star team that toured Japan in November, but did not participate due to injury.
- Was acquired by the Rangers from the Yankees on 2/16/04 with a player to be named later (INF Joaquin Arias) in exchange for INF Alex Rodriguez.

- Batted .290 (198-for-682) with 114R, 36 doubles, 38HR, 91RBI and 35SB in 156 games with the Yankees...hit a Major League single-season record 13 leadoff homers, surpassing Brady Anderson's mark (12 with Baltimore in 1996).
- Became only the third Major Leaguer to record consecutive seasons with at least 35HR and 35SB, joining Willie Mays (1956-57) and Barry Bonds (1996-97).
- Hit his first career grand slam on 3/31 at Toronto, becoming the third Yankee to hit a grand slam on Opening Day.
- Hit safely in 15 straight games from 4/13-27, batting .420 (29-for-69) with 6HR and 15RBI over the stretch.
- Was elected to the All-Star team as the AL's starting second baseman, going 0-for-3 at U.S. Cellular Field.
- Was named AL "Player of the Week" for the period ending 9/21 after posting 14H, 5HR and 9RBI over the span.
- Batted .225 (16-for-71) with 1HR and 9RBI in 17 postseason games...made his first professional appearance in the outfield, appearing in RF in the eighth inning of World Series Game 5 on 10/23 at Florida.

- Hit .300 (209-for-696) with 128R, 51 doubles, 39HR and 102RBI in 156 games with the Yankees, setting career highs in hits and doubles...led the AL in hits, runs, stolen bases (41), multi-hit games (69) and extra-base hits (92), ranked second in total bases (381) and third in doubles...hit eight leadoff home runs.
- Finished third in AL MVP balloting behind the A's Miguel Tejada and the Rangers' Alex Rodriguez...earned his first career Silver Slugger Award.
- Became the first second baseman in Major League history to reach 30HR and 30SB in the same season and only the third middle infielder to accomplish the feat (also Barry Larkin in 1996 and Alex Rodriguez in 1998).
- Established a single-season AL record for most home runs by a second baseman, surpassing Bret Boone's record (37HR for Seattle in 2001)...his 51 doubles set a Yankees single-season record for most by a right-handed batter.
- Finished the season with 99RBI from the leadoff position, the second-highest RBI total from a leadoff batter in Baseball history (Anaheim's Darin Erstad had 100 in 2000).
- Was named AL "Player of the Week" for the period ending 6/23 after batting .519 (14-for-27) and leading all AL batters in hits, doubles (6), slugging percentage (1.037) and total bases (28) over the stretch.
- Was elected to his first career All-Star Game on 7/9 at Milwaukee's Miller Park, starting at 2B and going 1-for-2 with a solo HR in the fifth inning off the Dodgers' Eric Gagne.
- Batted .118 (2-for-17) with 1HR and 2RBI in four ALDS games vs. the Angels.

- Was named to the Topps Rookie All-Star team after leading all AL rookies in HR, RBI and extra-base hits (55)...his 18HR and 43SB were only surpassed—at the time—by one rookie in Baseball history—Tommie Agee (22HR and 44SB in 1966).
- Was one of only two second basemen in Major League history to hit at least 18HR in his rookie season (also the Yankees' Joe Gordon, 24HR in 1938).
- His 43SB ranked third in the AL and established a Yankees single-season rookie record, surpassing Bert Daniels' mark of 41SB with the Highlanders in 1910.
- Had 11 steals of third base, the most by a Yankee since Steve Sax in 1990 (also 11).
- The Yankees went 16-2 when he homered (.889), the highest winning percentage for any team in the Majors in games in which a single player homered (minimum 15HR).
- Started each of the Yankees' 17 postseason games at second base...hit a two-run, ninth-inning "walk-off" HR in Game 4 of the ALCS vs. Seattle, becoming the first rookie to hit a "walk-off" HR in postseason history...posted a second "walk-off" hit with a 12th-inning RBI-single in Game 5 of the World Series vs. Arizona.
- Earned the James P. Dawson Award as the Yankees' most outstanding rookie (as selected by Yankees beat writers) after leading the Majors with 32H in spring training.

- Split time between the Yankees and Triple-A Columbus...in 22 games over three stints with the Yankees, batted .180 (9-for-50) with 5R, 3 doubles, 2HR and 3RBI.
- Was recalled from Columbus for the first time on 4/5 when Scott Brosius was placed on the 15-day disabled list...hit a solo HR in his first start of the season on 4/8 at Seattle...also homered on 4/9 at Seattle and 9/24/99 vs. Tampa Bay, becoming the first player since Mike Greenwell in 1985 to have home runs account for each of his first three Major League hits.
- Was optioned back to Columbus on 4/25 when Brosius was reinstated from the D.L., but was recalled again on 5/19 when Derek Jeter was placed on the 15-day disabled list...was again optioned to Columbus on 5/27 when Jeter was reinstated.
- Was recalled from Columbus for a final time on 9/5.
- In 111 games with the Clippers, batted .290 (133-for-459) with 90R, 32 doubles, 12HR and 66RBI...led the team in at-bats, runs, doubles and total bases (213), while tying for third in the International League in runs scored.
- Was selected to the International League All-Star team...entering the season, was ranked by Baseball America as the Yankees' second-best prospect.

STATUS

- Signed by the Yankees to a two-year contract on December 19, 2012…contract extends through the 2014 season…originally acquired by the Yankees from the Seattle Mariners in exchange for RHPs D.J. Mitchell and Danny Farquhar on July 23, 2012.

CAREER NOTES

- Owns 4,020 hits between his career in Japan and in the Major Leagues (1,278 in Japan, 2,742 with the Mariners and Yankees)…recorded his 4,000th career hit on 8/21/13 vs. Toronto, becoming the third player to reach the 4,000-hit plateau when considering hits from the highest levels in the U.S. and Japan—also Pete Rose (4,256) and Ty Cobb (4,191).
- Has 50 career games with four-or-more hits, the most of any active player (Derek Jeter is second with 44).
- Since 2001, has recorded the most hits (2,742) and multi-hit games (830) in the Majors…owns three of the top 17 single-season hit totals in the Modern Era (since 1900): 262H in 2004, 242H in 2001 and 238H in 2007…joins Fred Lindstrom (1928 and '30) and Rogers Hornsby (1921-22) as the only players with multiple seasons of 230-or-more hits.
- Had 2,696 career Major League hits through his 2,000th career game on 7/14/13…according to Elias, only five players who debuted since 1900 collected more hits through their first 2,000 career games: Ty Cobb (2,796), George Sisler (2,753), Al Simmons (2,743), Rogers Hornsby (2,715) and Paul Waner (2,707).
- Owns eight seasons with at least 200H and 100R (2001-08), joining Lou Gehrig as the only players in the Modern Era to reach the plateaus eight times in their careers…Willie Keeler (1894-1901) is the only other player to do so in eight consecutive seasons.
- His 37 career leadoff HRs rank sixth all-time.
- Recorded at least 150H in each of his first 12 Major League seasons (2001-12), joining Paul Waner (first 14 from 1926-39), Richie Ashburn (first 13 from 1948-60) and Albert Pujols (first 12 from 2001-12) as the only players to accomplish the feat in the Live Ball Era…had the streak snapped in 2013 (136H).
- Owns 43 hitting streaks of at least 10 games in his career, marking the sixth-most double-digit hitting streaks in the Majors since 1903 (Ty Cobb-66, Hank Aaron-48, Tris Speaker-47, Derek Jeter-46 and Al Simmons-44).
- Owns 11 seasons (2001-11) with at least 50 multi-hit games, fifth-most over the last 70 years behind Pete Rose (15), Stan Musial (14), Derek Jeter (14) and Tony Gwynn (13).
- With 20SB in 2013, became just the third player who debuted in the Majors since 1900 to record at least 20SB in each of his first 13 seasons, joining Rickey Henderson (first 23 seasons—1979-2001) and Ozzie Smith (first 16 seasons—1978-93).
- Has played in a Major League-high 2,061 games during his 13 seasons…combined to miss only 35 games in his first 12 Major League seasons (2001-12)…played in 1,749 of Seattle's 1,782 games from 2001-11, including 1,733 starts (97.3%).

- Recorded the highest home run total in Major League history by a switch-hitter age 24 years old or younger, surpassing Mickey Mantle's 37HR in 1955 at age 23...led the AL with 33HR after 6/1.
- All 112 of his RBI came as a first baseman, surpassing the club record set by Rafael Palmeiro (105) in 1993.
- Named AL "Player of the Month" for July, batting .300 (30-for-100) with 27R, 13HR and 30RBI...tied for the Major League lead in homers, RBI and runs scored for the month...homered 12 times in a span of 18 games from 6/28-7/19, including home runs in five consecutive games from 7/11-19 (5HR) to match a club record...also matched the second-longest home run streak ever by a switch-hitter.
- Homered from both sides of the plate for the first time in his career in 7/4 win at Houston, including a grand slam.

HITTING FOR THE CYCLE

On August 17, 2004 vs. Cleveland, Mark Teixeira recorded the 245th cycle in Baseball history, 223rd since 1900 and 110th in the American League. Teixeira became the 14th switch-hitter to hit for the cycle and just the sixth American League switch-hitter to accomplish the feat. He was the fifth player to hit for the cycle in 2004 and the first switch-hitter since 1970 to complete the cycle with a single. He also became the first player to hit for the cycle in Rangers Ballpark (formerly Ameriquest Field) and the third player to do it in the city of Arlington, joining Oddibe McDowell (7/23/85) and Baltimore's Cal Ripken, Jr. (5/6/84), who both accomplished the feat at Arlington Stadium.

First AB ..... Strikeout vs. Cliff Lee (first inning)
Second AB ..... Double off Lee (third inning)
Third AB ..... Home run off Rick White (fourth inning)
Fourth AB ..... Triple off White (fifth inning)
Fifth AB .....Single off Cliff Bartosh (seventh inning)

- Recorded his first career four-hit game in 8/17 win vs. Cleveland, hitting for the cycle (third-inning double, fourth-inning homer, fifth-inning triple, seventh-inning single)...became the second player in Rangers history to hit for the cycle in a game, joining Oddibe McDowell, who accomplished the feat on 7/23/85 vs. Cleveland...recorded 7RBI in the game, the most in a cycle game since Boston's Rich Gedman on 9/18/85...recorded two hits from each side of the plate in the cycle, becoming just the third known switch-hitter to accomplish the feat (also Mickey Mantle and Wes Parker).

- In his first Major League season, hit .259 (137-for-529) with 29 doubles, 5 triples, 26HR and 84RBI in 146 games with Texas...led all rookies in homers and extra-base hits (60), ranked second in RBI and walks (44), third in slugging percentage (.480), fourth in hits, total bases (254) and triples, and fifth in runs (66) and doubles...were the second-most homers ever for a Texas first-year player behind Pete Incaviglia (30) in 1986...the total also tied for the third-most ever by a rookie switch-hitter.
- Selected as the first baseman on the Baseball Digest and Topps Major League All-Star Rookie teams...named Rangers "Rookie of the Year" by local BBWAA chapter.
- Started 104 games at 1B and was also in the starting lineup at 3B (11), LF (10), RF (8) and DH (5)...had never played 1B prior to the 2003 season...ranked fifth among AL first basemen with a .996 fielding percentage (4E, 1,006TC)...did not commit an error in his final 36 games at 1B beginning 8/20.

- Made his first Opening Day roster having played in just 86 professional games, the fewest for a Ranger since Incaviglia went directly from college to the Majors in 1986.
- Started at DH in his Major League debut on 4/1 at Anaheim, going 1-for-3 with 1BB...went hitless in his first 16AB before doubling off Mark Mulder on 4/9 vs. Oakland...hit for his first homer off Ted Lilly the next day vs. Oakland...hit his first grand slam off Baltimore's Rick Helling on 5/25, marking the first slam for a Texas rookie since Mike Stanley on 7/3/87 at the Yankees.

New York Yankees Museum Presented by Bank of America

On the Main Level, near Gate 6, sits the New York Yankees Museum presented by Bank of America, telling the story of Baseball's most historic franchise through various displays of artifacts and memorabilia.

Items on display include a "Ball Wall" which contains nearly 900 autographed baseballs from Yankees past and present, Thurman Munson's locker from the original Yankee Stadium and a replica of a locker from the Yankees clubhouse in the current Stadium.

On game days, fans are welcome in the museum from the time the gates open until the end of the eighth inning. On non-game days, visitors may visit it as part of Yankee Stadium tours.

With rotating exhibits throughout the season, the museum offers fans the opportunity to explore different eras of New York Yankees history. In addition to permanent displays, the museum has featured specially designed exhibits including: "Sultan of Swat": The Legacy of Babe Ruth; "The Closest Tie": The New York Yankees and Negro Leagues Baseball; "Subway Series": New York City's Baseball Rivalries; "Iron Horse": The Life and Career of Lou Gehrig; and "Mickey Mantle": The Life and Legacy of a Baseball Hero.

Over the years, the museum has given fans the chance to closely view artifacts such as: all seven World Series trophies won by the Yankees since the Steinbrenner family assumed principal ownership; the bat used by Babe Ruth to hit Yankee Stadium's first home run; the bat used by Lou Gehrig to hit four home runs in one game on 6/3/1932 at Philadelphia; Mickey Mantle's first contract with the Yankees organization from 1949 and his 1956 Most Valuable Player Award; a catcher's mitt worn by Yogi Berra (c. 1952-1953), and a Joe DiMaggio game-used bat from 1938.

CENSUS BUREAU

With LHP Mike Zagurski making his Yankees debut on 9/15 at Boston, the club used their franchise-record 56th player in 2013 (23-P, 4-C, 18-INF, 10-OF, 1-DH). The total surpassed the Yankees' previous high of 51 players in 2005 and 2008. In 2012, the Yankees used 45 different players (22-P, 3-C, 10-INF, 10-OF).

Of the 56 Yankees players in 2013, 28 made their first-ever appearance with the club, including eight who made their Major League debuts (Adams, Almonte, Cabral, Claiborne, Joseph, Marshall, Murphy and Nuno).

Additionally of note, the Yankees used 33 position players in 2013, marking the most by a Major League team since the 2004 Royals also used 33.

SORI'S STORY

Alfonso Soriano set a career high and a Yankees individual player season high with 7RBI on 8/14 vs. Los Angeles-AL, hitting a grand slam in the first inning, a bases-loaded two-run double in the second and a solo-HR in the fifth. This followed a 6RBI game against the Angels the night before (two-run-HR in the fifth, run-scoring single in the sixth and three-run-HR in the seventh). He became one of just three Major Leaguers since RBI became an official statistic in 1920 to record at least 6RBI in each of two consecutive games, joining Milwaukee's Geoff Jenkins on 4/28-29/01 (6RBI each game) and Texas' Rusty Greer on 8/22-23/97 (6RBI each game). The 13RBI over the two-game stretch was the second-highest total in consecutive games in franchise history, trailing only Tony Lazzeri's 15RBI from 5/23G2-24/36 at Philadelphia. He became the first Yankee with back-to-back multi-HR games since Jason Giambi on 8/28-29/05.

The Yankees used 141 different batting orders in 2013, including their most-frequent combination (1-Gardner, 2-Cano, 3-Youkilis, 4-Hafner, 5-Wells, 6-Suzuki, 7-Nunez, 8-Overbay, 9-Cervelli), which was used just four times (on 4/4, 4/9, 4/12, 4/19).

Mariano Rivera Farewell Visits in 2013

On March 9, 2013, at a press conference at Steinbrenner Field in Tampa, Mariano Rivera announced that he would retire at the conclusion of the season. As part of his final year in the Majors, Rivera wanted to personally thank fans and employees of other Major League teams who do their part in supporting the game of baseball and the community.

Below are details of the special meet-and-greet events that were organized by the teams in each city the Yankees visited in 2013, during which Mariano expressed his appreciation.

Detroit: On April 6, Mariano met with Eddie Goward, a native Michigander who was the former groundskeeper at Tiger Stadium and the longest-serving member of the ballpark operations department (40-plus years); U.S. Navy Master at Arms First Class Steven Rollins of Gaylord, Michigan, who recently returned from his third combat deployment; and John O'Neil Sr., who was born in Detroit and is a season-ticket holder since 1991.

Cleveland: On April 10, Mariano sat down with 30 longtime employees from various departments within the Cleveland Indians front office, as well as longtime Cleveland fan John Adams, who has been banging a drum in the bleachers at each Indians home game since 1973.

Tampa Bay: On April 23, Mariano visited with wounded soldiers and their families from James A. Haley Veterans Hospital in Tampa. James A. Haley is unique to Tampa Bay as it is the busiest of four polytrauma facilities in the nation. The VA hospital serves over 116,000 veterans living in the four-county area, as well as those who have recently returned from the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan with life-threatening/altering injuries.

Colorado: On May 8, Mariano met with several longtime members of the Rockies front office prior to the game, most of whom have been with the organization during its entire 20-year existence. Included in the group were Mark Razum (Coors Field head groundskeeper since Day 1), Adele Armagost (Executive Asst. to GM), Jeff Benner (Sr. Dir. of Season Tickets), Kent Hakes (Sr. Dir. of Ticket Sales), Mike Kent (VP of Finance) and Steve Burke (Sr. Dir. of Guest Services, who also spent several years of his youth in Panama when his father was stationed there in the Air Force). Additionally, Jim Saccomano (Denver Broncos VP of Public Relations for more than 35 years) joined the group.

Kansas City: On May 11, Mariano met with longtime Royals employees and other outstanding community members. Among the attendees were the Borchert, Bressette and Pfannenstiel families, Rickey and Ricardo Hernandez (through the Dream Factory), Sam DiGiovani and Tony Ross of the Bishop Sullivan Center, Joe and Tom Giovagnoli, and Paulo Ramirez.

New York-NL: On May 27 in Citi Field's Jackie Robinson Rotunda directly in front of the No. 42 statue, Mariano met with approximately 15 longtime Mets season-ticket holders and stadium workers. Rivera answered questions about the Yankees-Mets rivalry and demonstrated how he grips a baseball to throw a cutter. The next night at Citi Field, he threw out the ceremonial first pitch to the Mets' all-time saves leader, John Franco,.

Seattle: On June 7, Mariano met with approximately one dozen high school and college students who are participating in the Seattle Mariners "Fielders Group." The program gives hands-on training to students looking to start careers in baseball and sports.

Oakland: On June 12, Mariano surprised Julie Vasconcellos, who has worked for the Athletics since 1989, serving as either the club's Office Services Coordinator or Mailroom Coordinator for each of the past 24 years.

Los Angeles-AL: On June 15, Mariano spent time with a number of longtime Angels employees who have deeply contributed to the success of their organization. Included in the group were former Yankees pitcher Jim Abbott (who threw a no-hitter for the Yankees on 9/4/93 vs. Cleveland) and Angels GM Jerry Dipoto.

Baltimore: On June 29, Mariano met with longtime Baltimore employees from throughout the Orioles organization. Among the group were members of the ticket office, grounds crew, scoreboard, technology, graphic design, ballpark operations, special events and baseball operations departments. Also included were an O's season ticket holder and two women who regularly volunteer and serve as Orioles Advocates.

Boston: On July 20, Mariano met with a diverse group of Boston-area natives. Included in the group were brothers J.P. and Paul Norden of Stoneham, Mass., who each shielded others at the finish line of the Boston Marathon and who each lost a leg. Among the other participants were a 13 year old and a 19 year old who receive support from the Jimmy Fund, a Fenway usher and ticket window representative each in their 46th year with the club, and four members of the Boston area RBI program.

Texas: On July 23, Mariano met with a number of Rangers employees to thank them for their years of service and unheralded work behind the scenes.

Los Angeles-NL: On July 31, Mariano fielded questions from a group of 18 Dodgers employees, including Bill DeLury, who joined the Dodgers organization 63 years ago in Brooklyn. In his time with the employees, he talked about playing on the 1998 Yankees team, the significance of wearing the same uniform number as Jackie Robinson and how he deals with success and failure.

San Diego: On August 3, Mariano met with nine current and former military members, discussing baseball and thanking them for their service.

Chicago-AL: On August 6, Mariano spoke with a group of 13 baseball fans and their families, ranging from White Sox employees to a member of the U.S. Air Force to a lifelong Yankees fan who has lived in Chicago for much of his life.

Toronto: On August 27, Mariano met with 20 longtime Blue Jays employees, ranging from the grounds crew to the finance department.

Houston: On September 28, Mariano met with a group of longtime Astros employees and season ticket holders.

In addition to meeting with individuals in each road city the Yankees traveled to in 2013, Mariano also took the time to get to know fans and employees at Yankee Stadium.

On April 30, Mariano met with 20 of the Yankees' longest season-ticket holders—including several who have held season tickets at the Yankees' home ballpark dating back as far as 1957. Following a Q&A session, each person took a photo with Mariano and received an autographed baseball.

On June 4, Mariano spent time with longtime Yankee Stadium employees, including 16 members of the janitorial staff and five security members who have each worked for the team since Mo has been in the Majors. He also met five ticket takers who have been with the organization for more than 40 years.

On July 26, Mariano met with three generations of the Fayle family from Lowville, N.Y. One of the three grandsons caught a baseball tossed to him by Mariano in Toronto's Rogers Centre several years ago and brought the baseball with him to share the story during their meet-and-greet.

On September 26, Mariano met with approximately 40 Yankees employees who had been working for the team for at least 10 years.

Gifts from Opposing Teams to Mariano Rivera

Detroit: At Comerica Park on April 7, the Tigers presented Mariano with framed photos of him in both Tiger Stadium and Comerica Park, along with dirt from the mound of both ballparks.

Colorado: At Coors Field on May 9, the Rockies presented a $5,000 check for the Mariano Rivera Foundation.

Cleveland: At Progressive Field on May 13, the Indians gave Rivera a framed gold record of Metallica's "Enter Sandman" from the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame.

New York-NL: At Citi Field on May 28, the Mets gave Mariano a mounted hose nozzle from a FDNY fire truck, as well as an authentic FDNY call box. Rivera also threw out the game's ceremonial first pitch for former Mets closer, John Franco.

Oakland: At O.co Coliseum on June 13, the Athletics gave Rivera a surfboard, a bottle of Napa Valley white wine and a $10,042 donation to his foundation.

Minnesota: At Target Field on July 4, the Twins presented Mariano with the "Chair of Broken Dreams," which was an idea of Minnesota Manager Ron Gardenhire. The gift is a custom-made rocking chair made from pieces of broken bats of former Minnesota players, symbolizing Mariano's propensity to break bats with his cutter.

Texas: At Rangers Ballpark on July 25, the Rangers gave Mariano a black Stetson Cowboy Hat compliments of Cavendars and a pair of custom-designed Lucchese Italian Goat Leather cowboy boots stitched with the Yankees interlocking NY logo and Rivera's name. They also presented him with a $5,000 check for the Mariano Rivera Foundation.

Los Angeles-NL: At Dodger Stadium on July 31, the Dodgers began a pregame ceremony with an introduction by Vin Scully, followed by a video tribute from Rachel Robinson in which she congratulated Rivera on his career and thanked him for wearing the No. 42 with "class and dignity." After the video, Dodgers manager Don Mattingly gave Mariano a $10,000 check for his foundation and Dodgers part-owner Magic Johnson gave him customized deep-sea fishing gear.

San Diego: At Petco Park on Aug. 2, former San Diego closer Trevor Hoffman presented Mariano with a set of customized beach cruiser bicycles on behalf of the Padres organization.

Chicago-AL: At U.S. Cellular Field on Aug. 6, the White Sox gave Mariano a framed scorecard from his first-ever appearance at Comiskey Park on July 4, 1995, and a photo collage from his save in Chicago on Sept. 19, 2001 (his first save after the September 11 terrorist attacks). In addition, they made a donation to the Jackie Robinson Foundation in Rivera's name.

Tampa Bay: On August 23, the Rays made Mariano a customized "Enter 'Sand' Man" sand sculpture, located in the rotunda at Tropicana Field. They also presented him with a check for $3,150 ($50 for each save he earned against Tampa Bay at that time) for the Mariano Rivera Foundation.

Baltimore: On Sept. 12, Buck Showalter and the Orioles gave Mariano a bronzed bat sculpture and a plaque that reads: "Mariano Rivera / Baseball's all-time saves leader who pitched 19 seasons for the New York Yankees. His numerous baseball records are surpassed only by his humility, respect and philanthropy. Presented by the Baltimore Orioles, in recognition of his tremendous career and the hundreds of bats he broke along the way."

Boston: On Sept. 12 at Fenway Park, the Boston Cello Quartet played "Enter Sandman" before the entire Red Sox team took the field to present Mariano with a painted portrait of himself from 2005 Opening Day in Boston, a No. 42 Green Monster placard signed by the 2013 Red Sox, an authentic 1934 blue Fenway Park seat with No. 42 on it, the pitching rubber from the visiting bullpen with an inscribed plaque saying "We tip our cap to the great Rivera, a real gentleman, a fierce competitor and a most worthy opponent," and a donation for his church from the Red Sox Foundation.

Toronto: On September 19 at Rogers Centre, the Blue Jays gave Mariano a $10,000 donation for his foundation and a Kiviuq's Journey fishing sculpture.

Houston: On September 29 at Minute Maid Park, Joe Torre, Roger Clemens, Astros GM Jeff Luhnow, and Team President Reid Ryan gave Rivera a painting depicting him in all stages of his Major League career.

Mariano Rivera Tribute - Sept. 22, 2013

On-field Hosts: John Sterling (WCBS) and Michael Kay (YES)
PA Announcer: Paul Olden

Proclamation from NYC Mayor Michael Bloomberg read to fans:
"Mariano Rivera will enter the Hall of Fame as the greatest relief pitcher in Major League Baseball history. Over the course of 19 spectacular seasons – all with the game's most storied franchise, the New York Yankees – Mo has saved more than 650 games and counting, an all-time record. Now, therefore, I, Michael R. Bloomberg, Mayor of the City of New York, do hereby proclaim Sunday, September 22nd, 2013 in the City of New York as 'Mariano Rivera Day.'"

Career Highlights Shown on Video Board

Gifts and Presentations

- The San Francisco Giants (Joe Lefebvre, Hensley "Bam Bam" Muelens, Roberto Kelly and Dave Righetti) presented a 16x20 inch pen-and-ink watercolor by Bay Area artist Saul Levy (commemorating Rivera's appearance at AT&T Park on June 22, 2007) and an ESP LTD Kirk Hammett KH-330 Electric Guitar that the Giants worked with Metallica to design in recognition of Mariano's entrance song. This guitar is the same one that Metallica guitarist Kirk Hammett uses for almost every song during Metallica's live shows. The guitar was hand painted with the interlocking NY logo, a No. 42, the Giants interlocking SF logo and an image of the Golden Gate Bridge. In addition, the guitar is autographed by Giants Hall of Famer Willie Mays. The Giants also made a donation to the Mariano Rivera Foundation.
- Metallica members James Hetfield, Lars Ulrich, Kirk Hammett and Robert Trujillo presented a customized touring guitar speaker cabinet.
- Yankees Foundation President and General Partner Jennifer Steinbrenner Swindal, Yankees President Randy Levine and Yankees Chief Operating Officer Lonn Trost—all on behalf of the New York Yankees Foundation—presented a $100,000 check to the Mariano Rivera Foundation, whose mission is to share with the community the blessings which God has bestowed on them and their family by providing scholarships to qualified youth and sponsoring youth centers and churches that implement educational programs which benefit underprivileged families in their communities.
- Derek Jeter and Manager Joe Girardi presented (on behalf of the Yankees) a baseball-bat rocking chair custom made by Supple Rockers—complete with the official Mariano Rivera Final Season Logo.
- Yankees General Partner Hank Steinbrenner and Yankees Executive Vice President and Chief International Officer Felix Lopez presented framed replicas of Rivera's number and retired-number placard from Monument Park.
- Yankees Managing General Partner Hal Steinbrenner and his wife, Christina, presented a custom-designed Waterford Crystal replica of Rivera's baseball glove from 2013, including a No. 42 on the back, Rivera's signature and the proverb "Phil 4:13" on the thumb. In addition, there is a crystal baseball in front of the mitt with the Final Season logo. On the base the inscription reads: "The Greatest Closer in Baseball History" / Franchise leader in games pitched / Baseball's all-time saves leader / Five-time World Series champion / Last active player to wear "42" / In recognition of your career in pinstripes / The New York Yankees / September 22, 2013.

Two-Stadium Doubleheaders

On three occasions, the Yankees and Mets have played two-stadium day-night doubleheaders. Each instance was precipitated by a rainout. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, the first occurrence in 2000 marked the first dual-venue doubleheader in the Majors since September 7, 1903, when the New York Giants and the Brooklyn Superbas (later called the Dodgers) faced off in Game 1 (Giants 6 - Brooklyn 4) at Washington Park in Brooklyn and Game 2 (Brooklyn 3 - Giants 0) at the Polo Grounds in Manhattan.

Played for or Managed Yankees and Mets

Through the 2013 season, there have been 117 players to appear in at least one game for both the Yankees and Mets. The first was "Marvelous" Marv Throneberry, who broke in with the Yankees (1955, '58-59) before joining the Mets via a May 9, 1962, trade with Baltimore. The only other Yankee to play on the Mets in their inaugural 1962 season was Gene Woodling, who played six seasons in the Bronx from 1949-54, winning World Series championships in each of his first five seasons with the club. He was purchased by the Mets from Washington on June 15, 1962.

There have been 34 players who have played on World Series-winning Yankees teams who have also appeared in at least one game for the Mets. Conversely, there have been nine World Series-winning Mets (1969-Swoboda; 1986-Elster, Gooden, Jefferson, Mazzilli, Ojeda, Orosco, Santana and Strawberry) to play for the Yankees at some point in their careers.

Dwight Gooden [L] and Darryl Strawberry [R] are the only players to be part of World Series-winning teams for both the Yankees and Mets. While each player won rings with the Mets in 1986, Gooden played on championship Yankees clubs in 1996 and 2000, and Strawberry was a member of Yankees World Series winners in 1996, '98 and '99.

Exhibition Games vs. Mets/Dodgers/Giants

Mayor's Trophy Game

In the majority of seasons from 1946-83, the Yankees played the Giants, Dodgers or Mets in an annual exhibition game. The Mayor's office sponsored each mid-season contest and awarded a trophy to the game's winner. The proceeds from each game supported sandlot baseball programs and other New York charities. The Yankees won 20 of the 32 Mayor's Trophy Games played, going 7-1 vs. the Giants, 3-2 vs. the Dodgers and 10-8-1 vs. the Mets.

Notable Exhibitions between the Yankees, Dodgers and Giants

The Yankees, Dodgers and Giants played a number of preseason games against each other over the years in Florida and on the East Coast (while heading north from spring training). The clubs also played games in New York just prior to the start of the season. Additionally, many in-season exhibitions were arranged, including the Mayor's Trophy Games (noted in left column) and other charitable endeavors. Some of the most notable games are listed below.

October 1910 - The Yankees and Giants faced each for the first time in a series of exhibition games following the 1910 regular season. Pitcher Christy Mathewson won three of the games as the Giants won the series, 4 games to 2. In an exhibition rematch after the 1914 regular season, the Giants again defeated the Yankees, 4 games to 1.

April 21, 1912 - At the Polo Grounds, the Yankees and Giants staged a benefit game for survivors of the Titanic. The Giants won, 11-2, as $9,425.25 was raised.

April 5, 1913 - The Yankees helped the Dodgers open Ebbets Field on April 5, 1913, with an exhibition game, which Brooklyn won, 3-2. The Dodgers' rookie outfielder Casey Stengel hit the first unofficial home run.

Sept. 9 and 24, 1931- The three local clubs played a two-day, round-robin with proceeds going to the Mayor's Unemployment Fund. In the first game on Sept. 9 in front of 60,549 fans at Yankee Stadium, the Yankees defeated the Giants, 7-3, netting $59,642 as Babe Ruth hit the game's only home run. On Sept. 24, the teams played a doubleheader at the Polo Grounds, bringing in $48,135 for the fund with 44,119 fans on hand. The Giants defeated Brooklyn, 3-1, in Game 1 and the Yankees defeated the Dodgers, 5-1, in Game 2 behind homers from Lyn Lary, Bill Dickey and Lou Gehrig. Contests among the players were held in between games, including Babe Ruth hitting the longest fungo (421 ft., 8 in.) and Ben Chapman making the longest throw (392 ft., 10 in.).

June 26, 1944 - The Yankees, Giants and Dodgers played a unique mid-season "three-cornered" exhibition game. Each team batted in six innings and played defense for six innings. The Dodgers won the contest, which generated over $6.5 million worth of war bond sales.

Inning	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	R	H	E

July 11, 1949 - The Yankees, Giants and Dodgers each played six innings at Yankee Stadium (three against each opposition) in a "Night of Champions" benefit for the N.Y. Heart Fund, Babe Ruth Foundation and Lou Gehrig Memorial Fund. Approximately $32,000 was raised as 26,120 saw Brooklyn win on total runs, 5 to 3 to 3.

Spring Training Games vs. the Mets

The Yankees and Mets used to meet on a regular basis in spring training, dating back to the Mets' inaugural season in 1962. The very first game between the clubs was a 4-3 Mets victory on March 22, 1962, at their spring facility in St. Petersburg. The most recent spring meetings occurred in 2012 during a home-and-home series on April 3, 2012, at Port St. Lucie (Mets 7 - Yankees 6) and April 4, 2012, at GMS Field (Yankees 8 - Mets 3). Prior to that, the most recent contests between the clubs were in 1996, when the teams split a pair of games at GMS Field in Tampa (on 3/29/96, Yankees 7 - Mets 3; and on 3/30/96, Mets 5 - Yankees 3).

History & Records

This year marks the 75th anniversary of "Lou Gehrig Appreciation Day" at Yankee Stadium, when on July 4, 1939, in between games of a doubleheader vs. Washington, the Yankees captain made his famous "Luckiest Man" speech.

History of the New York Yankees

The Yankees are baseball's most storied franchise. With 27 World Championships and 40 American League pennants, the club stands alone in both categories.

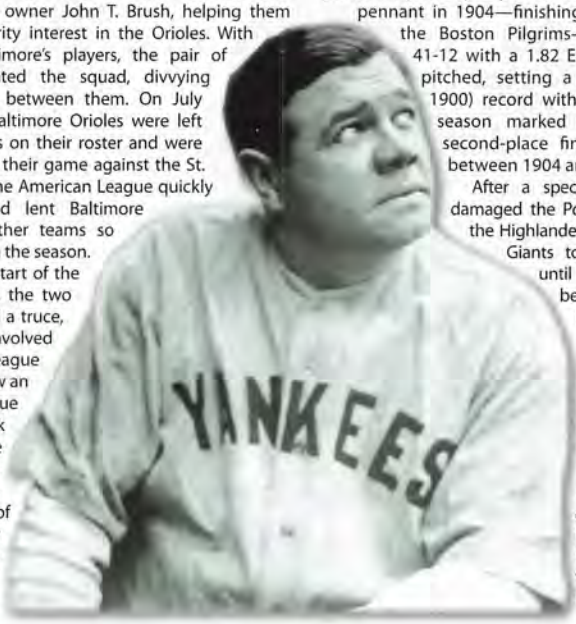
The team's glorious history has surprisingly humble origins at the start of the previous century, when the upstart American League declared itself a Major League following the 1900 season. At that time, the league sought to place a team in New York for the 1901 campaign. But due to the political strength of the National League's New York Giants, the American League instead put a team in Baltimore, calling it the Orioles, with the intent to move it to New York as soon as possible.

Managed by John McGraw, the 1901 Orioles finished 68-65 and failed to draw substantial crowds. The following season, McGraw, fearing the team would relocate to New York without him in 1903, precipitated a midseason release from his contract. He immediately teamed with Giants owner Andrew Freedman and Cincinnati Reds owner John T. Brush, helping them acquire a majority interest in the Orioles. With control of Baltimore's players, the pair of owners decimated the squad, divvying up the players between them. On July 17, 1902, the Baltimore Orioles were left with five players on their roster and were forced to forfeit their game against the St. Louis Browns. The American League quickly stepped in and lent Baltimore players from other teams so they could finish the season.

Prior to the start of the 1903 campaign, the two leagues reached a truce, part of which involved the National League agreeing to allow an American League team in New York City. Racehorse owner Frank Farrell and ex-New York chief of police Bill Devery purchased the remnants of the Baltimore franchise for $18,000 and reestablished it in Upper Manhattan with just five former Orioles returning to the roster (Ernie Courtney, Harry Howell, Herm McFarland, Jimmy Williams and Snake Wiltse).

New York's American League entry was the city's third Major League team, joining the Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers of the National League. They played their home games at American League Park, a hastily constructed all-wooden structure at 168th Street and Broadway. Because the site was one of the highest spots in Manhattan, the team was commonly called the "Hilltoppers" or "Highlanders" and their home field "Hilltop Park." The club played its inaugural game on April 22, 1903, at Washington, losing, 3-1, to the Senators. The next day, they defeated the Senators, 7-2, recording the very first win in franchise history.

Led by future Hall of Famers Jack Chesbro, Clark Griffith and Wee Willie Keeler, the Highlanders finished with a 72-62 record, 17.0 games out of first place. They nearly captured the American League pennant in 1904—finishing 1.5 games behind the Boston Pilgrims—as Chesbro went 41-12 with a 1.82 ERA in 454.2 innings pitched, setting a modern era (since 1900) record with his win total. That season marked the first of three second-place finishes for the club between 1904 and 1910.



After a spectacular fire severely damaged the Polo Grounds in 1911, the Highlanders' owners invited the Giants to share Hilltop Park until their home could be rebuilt. Two years later, the Giants returned the favor and allowed the Highlanders to become tenants in their new, vastly superior facility.

Following the move in 1913, newspapers and the public increasingly referred to the club as the "Yankees," a moniker that first appeared in the press in 1904. While no official announcement was ever made to formally change the team's nickname, 1913 is considered the year that "Yankees" became the team's principal nickname.

From 1911 to 1919, the Yankees won as many as 80 games in a season only twice. But three key moves—the January 11, 1915, purchase of the ballclub by Colonel Jacob Ruppert and Colonel Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston, the 1918 hiring of Manager Miller Huggins by Ruppert (without Huston's blessing) and the 1919 midseason trade for right-handed pitcher Carl Mays (26 wins in 1920 and 27 wins in 1921)—set the stage for the greatest course-altering transaction in baseball history, when on January 5, 1920, the Yankees completed the purchase of the contract of George Herman "Babe" Ruth from the Boston Red Sox for $100,000 plus interest along with a reported $350,000 personal loan against the mortgage on Fenway Park.

Ruth's impact was immediate. The Yankees won 95 games in 1920, their highest victory total up to that point, then captured their first AL pennant a year later. With the Babe hitting 54 home runs in 1920—more than any other team in the American League—Yankees attendance at the Polo Grounds doubled to 1,289,422. In 1921, the Giants, being outdrawn in their own park, asked the Yankees to vacate the Polo Grounds as soon as possible. Now bitter rivals, the two teams squared off in the World Series in 1921 and 1922 with the Giants winning on both occasions.

Though he came up on the wrong end in both Series, Yankees pitcher (and 1969 Hall of Fame inductee) Waite Hoyt allowed just one earned run over 35.0 combined innings over the two Fall Classics. Remarkably, he went 2-2 in his five appearances (four starts), including a 1-0, Series-clinching loss (on an unearned run) in Game 8 of the 1921 best-of-nine championship.

With their departure from the Polo Grounds inevitable, the Yankees' owners set out to build a ballpark of their own. Designed to be baseball's first triple-decked structure with an advertised capacity of 70,000, it would be the first baseball facility to be labeled a "stadium."

The team's upcoming success was masterminded by business manager and future Hall of Famer Ed Barrow, whose responsibilities from 1921 through 1944 included both player personnel and the club's finances. He developed a fantastic relationship with Huggins from the outset and brought in Paul Krichell, who not only developed the Yankees scouting department but personally signed Lou Gehrig, Phil Rizzuto and Whitey Ford to their first Yankees contracts.

Construction on the original Yankee Stadium began on May 5, 1922, and in only 284 working days, it was ready for its inaugural game on April 18, 1923, against the Boston Red Sox. An announced crowd of 74,200 fans packed the Stadium for a glimpse of Baseball's grandest facility while thousands milled around outside after the fire department finally ordered the gates closed. Appropriately, Ruth christened the Stadium with a three-run homer to cap a four-run third inning as the Yankees, behind starter Bob Shawkey, won, 4-1.

Playing in their new stadium, dubbed "The House that Ruth Built" by New York Telegram sportswriter Fred Lieb, the Yankees won the American League by 16.0 games in 1923, using just eight pitchers all season. Each of their five starting pitchers—Shawkey, Hoyt, Joe Bush, Sam Jones and Herb Pennock—won at least 16 games. In October, the Stadium hosted the first of 37 World Series at the structure, and the Yankees won the first World Championship in franchise history, defeating their former landlord, the Giants, in six games.

Less than two seasons later, one of the greatest players in franchise history was given his chance to crack the lineup. On June 1, 1925, in a 5-3 loss vs. Washington, Huggins called upon Gehrig, a 21-year-old first baseman with 34 career games to his name, to pinch-hit for light-hitting shortstop Paul "Pee Wee" Wanninger. It would mark the first of 2,130 consecutive games played by the "Iron Horse," who replaced Wally Pipp as the Yankees' starting first baseman the very next day. The story of Gehrig replacing Pipp because of a headache is a myth. Pipp, who led the AL in homers in 1916 and 1917 and was an integral part of the Yankees' World Series clubs from 1921-23, had a poor start to the season, and Manager Miller Huggins wanted to see what the younger and much-heralded Gehrig could do.

After the Yankees suffered a tough loss to the St. Louis Cardinals in the 1926 World Series (which famously ended with Babe Ruth making the final out in Game 7 while trying to steal second base), the Yankees rolled to World Championships in both 1927 and 1928, sweeping the Pittsburgh Pirates and St. Louis Cardinals, respectively. The 1927 club, known as the "Murderers' Row" Yankees, is often the yardstick by which team greatness is measured. During that season, Ruth broke his own single-season home run record (previously 59 in 1921) with his 60th on September 30, 1927, off Washington's Tom Zachary. Gehrig also added 47 homers and 173 RBI.

Lou Gehrig

In his 15 seasons in pinstripes from 1920-34, Ruth helped establish a winning tradition with seven American League pennants and four World Championships. He finished his unparalleled career with 714 home runs (including 49 with the Red Sox from 1914-19 and six with the Boston Braves in 1935), 12 American League home run titles and six RBI crowns, including five seasons with more than 150 RBI. A charter member of Baseball's Hall of Fame, he remains widely regarded as the greatest player of all time.

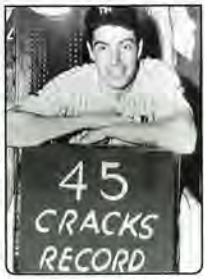
Throughout Ruth's time in pinstripes, he often overshadowed the soft-spoken, Manhattan-born Gehrig, who posted incredible numbers in his own right. From 1926 through 1938, Gehrig drove in at least 112 runs each season. A player on seven World Championship clubs (1927-28, 1932, 1936-39) and a major contributor to the first six, he finished with a .340 lifetime batting average and 493 career home runs in just 8,001 at-bats. He was the AL's starting first baseman in each of the first five Major League Baseball All-Star Games, and in 1934, became the first of two Yankees in franchise history (also Mickey Mantle in 1956) to win the Triple Crown, hitting .363 with a career-high-tying 49 homers and 166 RBI. He also still holds the American League record for RBI in a single season with 184 in 1931.

After the 1934 season, Ruth's last in New York, the Yankees purchased the contract of a budding star named Joe DiMaggio from the San Francisco Seals of the Pacific Coast League. Two years later, DiMaggio made his debut in pinstripes and helped the Yankees to an incredible string of four consecutive World Championships under Manager Joe McCarthy from 1936 through 1939. The 1930s also produced one of the game's greatest lefty-righty pitching combinations in future Hall of Famers Lefty Gomez and Red Ruffing. A four-time 20-game winner—including 24-7 in 1932 and 26-5 in 1934—Gomez posted a 6-0 record over five World Series. Ruffing, who was acquired on May 6, 1930, from Boston for outfielder Cedric Durst and $50,000, had been 39-96 with the Red Sox since his 1924 rookie season. After coming to the Yankees, however, he built his Cooperstown credentials, going 231-124 in pinstripes while posting 20, 20, 21 and 21 wins on the four World Championship clubs from 1936 through 1939. He was also an exceptionally good hitter for a pitcher, totaling 36 career home runs and a .269 lifetime batting average.

From 1931 through part of the 1946 season, the Yankees were led by McCarthy, who compiled a Yankees-record 1,460 wins in his time at the helm. Having also spent time leading the Chicago Cubs (1926-30) and the Boston Red Sox (1948-50), he is eighth on the all-time managerial wins list with 2,125 victories. With the Yankees, he reached eight World Series (1932, 1936-39, 1941-43), winning a World Championship in all but one—the 1942 Fall Classic against St. Louis.

Sadly, in 1939, Gehrig was diagnosed with a crippling disease, eventually determined to be amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS), and his streak of playing in 2,130 consecutive games came to an end on May 2, when he took himself out of the lineup prior to the Yankees' 22-2 win at Detroit. He never played in a Major League game again.

On July 4 of the same season, the Yankees honored their captain with an emotional Lou Gehrig Appreciation Day at Yankee Stadium, and on Jan. 6, 1940, team president Ed Barrow announced that his No. 4 would become the first-ever retired number in baseball. Gehrig passed away from the effects of ALS on June 2, 1941.



Joe DiMaggio

DiMaggio became the pillar of the next generation of Yankees champions. In his 13 seasons in pinstripes (1936-42 and '46-51), DiMaggio made the AL All-Star team every year, and his club played in the World Series in all but three years (1940, '46, '48), winning nine World Series titles. Along the way, he tallied three AL MVP Awards (1939, '41, '47) and batted .324 over his career, marking the third-highest average in franchise history. The legendary "Yankee Clipper" compiled one of the game's most remarkable—and unbreakable—records in 1941, when he hit safely in an all-time-best 56 consecutive games.

DiMaggio's retirement after the 1951 season at the age of 37 was made easier by the emergence of Mickey Mantle, who played side-by-side with DiMaggio in the outfield in the Yankee Clipper's final campaign. With contributions from future Hall of Famers Yogi Berra, Whitey Ford and Phil Rizzuto, the Yankees were nearly unstoppable from the late 1940s through the early 1960s. Manager Casey Stengel sublimely handled the Yankees juggernaut following his surprising appointment prior to the 1949 season, as the club marched to an all-time record five consecutive World Series titles from 1949 through 1953.

His emphasis on platooning players (often to their chagrin) allowed him to exploit matchups in a way not emphasized in his era. Nicknamed "The Old Perfessor," with a vernacular called "Stengelese," he remains one of the most colorful personalities in the game's history. In 12 seasons as manager of the Yankees, Stengel brought his club to the World Series 10 times, winning on seven occasions (also 1956 and 1958).

His staff during the remarkable five-year run of championships was anchored by a trio of starters who each pitched eight seasons with the Yankees and combined for 10 All-Star appearances while with the club. Allie Reynolds, known as "Superchief," went 131-60 with a 3.31 ERA in 295 games (209 starts) from 1947-54, after being acquired from Cleveland in exchange for fellow Hall of Famer Joe Gordon. Reynolds also finished 70 regular season games for the Yankees in an era before the save was an official statistic. The No. 2 starter, Vic Raschi, broke into the Majors at age 27 and didn't become a full member of the Yankees rotation until two years later in 1948. He won exactly 21 games in each of three consecutive years from 1949-51 and tallied a .706 winning percentage (120-50) and 3.47 ERA with the club from 1946-1953. The least-heralded of the three, "Steady" Eddie Lopat, went 113-59 with a 3.19 ERA with the Yankees from 1948-1955, including an AL-leading 2.43 ERA in 1953.

For all of the great players of the 1950s and early 60s, Mantle overshadowed everyone. He would achieve greatness despite suffering from osteomyelitis (a painful inflammatory bone disease) and numerous other injuries. The powerful switch-hitter belted 536 home runs, collected 2,415 hits and batted .300 or higher 10 times in an 18-year career. In his first 14 seasons in pinstripes (1951-64), the Yankees missed the World Series only twice (1954 and 1959) and won the Fall Classic seven times. With his .353 batting average, 52 homers and 130RBI in 1956, he remains the last Yankees player to win the Triple Crown.

Ford, who played his whole career in pinstripes, is the Yankees' all-time wins leader. His lifetime record of 236-106 gives him the second-best career winning percentage (.690) of any pitcher who began his career in the modern era (since 1900) with 100 or more decisions, trailing only career-Yankee Spud Chandler (.717, 109-43). Ford paced the American League in victories three times and in ERA and shutouts twice. He still holds many World Series records, including those for wins (10), consecutive scoreless innings (33.0) and strikeouts (94).

The heart of the Yankees for 18 seasons, Berra played on an incredible 14 pennant winners and 10 World Championship teams—a record number for any individual player in Baseball history. He is one of only 10 players in Major League history to win three MVP Awards and was selected to the All-Star team in every season from 1948 through 1962. Incredibly, he led the Yankees in RBI every season from 1949-55, had more career 100-RBI seasons (five) than Mantle (four), and hit at least 20 home runs in 11 different seasons. Known as much for his quotes ("It ain't over 'til it's over" and "I really didn't say everything I said," etc.) as he is for his accomplishments on the field, he remains one of the most beloved players to ever play the game.

Rizzuto played on 10 pennant winners and eight World Series championship teams from 1941 through 1956, capturing the league's MVP award in 1950, batting .324 with 200 hits and 125 runs scored. Eventually elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame in 1994, he gave one of the most memorable induction speeches in the history of the ceremony.

Not every notable Yankee was a future Hall of Famer. In Game 5 of the 1956 World Series vs. the Brooklyn Dodgers at Yankee Stadium, right-hander Don Larsen authored one of the game's greatest pitching performances when he retired all 27 Dodger batters for the only perfect game in World Series history.

The Yankees opened the 1960s winning pennants in the first five seasons (1960-64) and World Series titles in 1961 and 1962. Incredibly, in the 29 seasons from 1936 to 1964, the Yankees won 22 pennants and 16 World Championships. The 1961 club is still regarded as one of the best teams in Baseball history. With Mantle and Roger Maris embroiled in a season-long race to break Ruth's single-season home run record, the Yankees rolled to 109 wins en route to a World Championship. Maris broke Ruth's record when he belted his 61st home run on October 1 off Boston's Tracy Stallard at Yankee Stadium in the last game of the season.

Age finally caught up with the ballclub after a seven-game Series loss to the St. Louis Cardinals in 1964. The Yankees finished above fourth place just once in the next nine seasons, and they actually fell to last place in 1966 for the first time in 53 years.

The team's fall from grace ended on January 3, 1973, when it was sold by CBS to a group headed by George M. Steinbrenner III. With the addition of Catfish Hunter, baseball's first marquee free agent, shrewd trades that brought Ed Figueroa, Mickey Rivers, Chris Chambliss and Willie Randolph to the club, and a strong nucleus that included Thurman Munson, Graig Nettles, Roy White and Sparky Lyle, the Yankees returned to the postseason in 1976, ending an 11-year drought (1965-1975) by winning their first American League East title. Then on October 14,

1976, in the deciding Game 5 of the American League Championship Series vs. Kansas City, Chambliss launched a ninth-inning, pennant-winning home run to put the Yankees back in the World Series.

This newfound success took place in a remodeled Yankee Stadium. The 1974 and '75 Yankees played in Shea Stadium for two years while vast improvements were made to the original Yankee Stadium (for more details, see "History of Original Yankee Stadium").

After a disheartening four-game sweep by the Cincinnati Reds in the 1976 World Series, the Yankees introduced Reggie Jackson—the most prolific slugger of his era—as the club's newest free-agent acquisition. Jackson capped an exciting 1977 season with one of baseball's greatest individual performances. In the World Series-clinching win vs. Los Angeles in Game 6 at Yankee Stadium, "Mr. October" belted three home runs on three swings of the bat to join Babe Ruth (and now Albert Pujols and Pablo Sandoval) as the only players to hit three home runs in a single World Series game.

In 1978, the Yankees overcame a 14.0-game deficit in the American League East to force a one-game playoff with Boston at Fenway Park to decide the division. Shortstop Bucky Dent erased a 2-0, seventh-inning Red Sox lead with a dramatic three-run homer, and the Yankees went on to win, 5-4. The Yankees then defeated Kansas City for the third straight year in the ALCS, and took care of the Dodgers in six games for their first back-to-back World Series titles since 1961-62.

The 1978 season also saw the emergence of Ron Guidry as one the franchise's greatest pitchers. A four-time American League All-Star, Guidry compiled one of the most dominating seasons in baseball history while becoming known as "Louisiana Lightning." He went 25-3 with a 1.74 ERA in leading the Yankees to their dramatic comeback, compiling club-records with 248 strikeouts and nine shutouts and winning the AL Cy Young Award in unanimous fashion. On June 17 that season, Guidry set the single-game club record for strikeouts, fanning 18 California Angels at Yankee Stadium. A five-time Gold Glove Award winner, Guidry also racked up 20-win seasons in 1983 (21-9) and 1985 (22-6).

The 1970s ended with tragedy. Thurman Munson, the Yankees' first captain since Gehrig and 1976 AL MVP, was killed when his private jet crashed on August 2, 1979. Only 32 years old at the time of his death, Munson was the undisputed leader of the clubs that won three consecutive pennants and two World Championships. After the captain's death, the Yankees would make only one more World Series appearance (1981) in the next 17 years despite compiling the best record in the Major Leagues during the 1980s.

During this period, Don Mattingly became one of the most popular players in franchise history, batting .307 in a 14-year career (1982-95) played entirely in pinstripes. He compiled an incredible six-year stretch from 1984 through 1989, in which he batted .327 and topped 100 RBI five times, including a career-high 145 in 1985, when he captured the AL MVP Award. A year earlier, he outdueled teammate Dave Winfield for the 1984 AL batting crown (.343 to .340), going 4-for-5 on the final day of the season. His performance and loyalty were recognized when he was named the 10th captain in Yankees history from 1991-95.

Winfield, who came to the Yankees as the game's most sought-after free agent in 1981, compiled Hall of Fame credentials in his eight-plus seasons in pinstripes (1981-90). With the Yankees, he belted 205 home runs with 818 RBI and won five Gold Glove Awards.

After a 13-year absence (1982-94), the Yankees returned to postseason play in 1995 as the American League's first-ever "Wild Card" entry. A heart-wrenching five-game loss to the Seattle Mariners in the Division Series marked the start of a 13-year run of postseason appearances (1995-2007) — a record topped only by the Atlanta Braves' 14-season streak (1991-93, 1995-2005).

In 1996 under new skipper Joe Torre, the Yankees returned to the World Series against Atlanta, coming back from an 0-2 deficit to win four straight games, including Games 3, 4 and 5 on the road. Following a Division Series exit in 1997, the Yankees won three straight World titles from 1998 through 2000, giving them four championships in five years. Their 114 victories in 1998 shattered the 44-year-old AL mark of 111 wins set by the 1954 Cleveland Indians (since broken by Seattle in 2001) and their 125 total victories, including 11 postseason wins, remains the highest single-season total in baseball history.

Beginning in the early 90s, the Yankees made a concerted effort to draft and cultivate homegrown talent such as All-Stars Bernie Williams, Derek Jeter, Andy Pettitte, Jorge Posada and Mariano Rivera. In addition, trades and free-agent acquisitions brought All-Stars such as Wade Boggs, Scott Brosius, David Cone, Jimmy Key and Tino Martinez to the Bronx. Another of those players, Paul O'Neill, acquired in a November 3, 1992, trade with Cincinnati, became adored by Yankees fans for his intense and gritty approach. Winner of the 1994 batting title (.359) and often described as a "warrior," he is typically thought of as the heart and soul of the club's turn-of-the-century success.

In 2001, the Yankees fell just shy of becoming the second team in history to win four consecutive World Series titles, but they nevertheless captured the hearts of the nation in the aftermath of the terrorist attacks of September 11. The Yankees dropped the first two games of the Series at the Arizona Diamondbacks' Bank One Ballpark but rallied to win the next three at Yankee Stadium behind dramatic ninth-inning comebacks in Games 4 and 5. On consecutive nights, Martinez and Brosius erased two-run, ninth-inning Diamondbacks leads with two runs, and the Yankees won both games in extra innings. It was in Game 4 that Jeter earned his "Mr. November" nickname with a 10th-inning "walk-off" home run. The victories marked the first time in World Series history that a team won two games in the same Series when trailing by at least two runs in the ninth inning.

No one personifies the Yankees' success since 1996 more than Jeter, who was a rookie on that squad. He heads into the 2014 season ninth on the all-time hits list and tops among active players. During the 2011 season, he became the 28th member of the 3,000 hit club, reaching the plateau on July 9 at Yankee Stadium with a home run off Tampa Bay's David Price. Jeter's personal career winning percentage of .598 (1,556-1,044-2) is the best among active Major Leaguers who have played in a minimum of 1,000 games. Through the 2013 season, he tops the Yankees' all-time list in hits, games played (2,602), stolen bases (348), at-bats (10,614), singles (2,470) and hit-by-pitch (164). Jeter has also recorded eight 200-hit seasons and is one of two players in franchise history along with Gehrig (eight) with as many as four. In fact, according to the Elias Sports Bureau, no other player in Baseball history has had as many as four 200-hit seasons while playing at least 100 games at shortstop per year.

Posada and Rivera have also crafted special places for themselves in the annals of the franchise. Posada, a 24th-round selection in the 1990 First-Year Player Draft, was one of six catchers in Major League history to hit at least 20 home runs in eight seasons while playing a minimum of 50 percent of his games behind the plate. Known for his toughness and durability, the Puerto Rico-born backstop started at least 120 games in eight consecutive seasons from 2000-07, and retired a lifetime Yankee prior to the 2012 season.

Rivera, who retired at the conclusion of the 2013 season with 652 career saves, became Baseball's all-time saves leader in 2011, surpassing Trevor Hoffman (601). His reputation has been cemented by postseason excellence, which includes an 8-1 record and 0.70 ERA in 96 career postseason games (141.0 innings pitched) and an all-time record 33.1 consecutive scoreless postseason innings. His Major League-leading 42 career postseason saves is almost as many as the second, third and fourth place totals combined (44). Additionally, his 2.21 career ERA is the second-lowest all time among pitchers with at least 1,000.0IP since ERA was made an official statistic in 1912 in the NL and 1913 in the AL (Eddie Cicotte 2.20).

In 2004, the organization acquired Alex Rodriguez in a trade with Texas. Since his arrival in the Bronx, the 14-time All-Star transitioned to a new position at third base and was voted the AL MVP in 2005 and 2007, while becoming the seventh—and youngest—player in Baseball history to reach the 600-home run plateau in 2010.

Former Yankees catcher Joe Girardi was named the 32nd manager in franchise history on October 30, 2007, heading into the final year of the original Yankee Stadium. The 2008 season was full of nostalgia and notable events, including the third Papal Mass in Stadium history on April 20 and a 15-inning, 4-3 American League victory in the All-Star Game on July 15. Though the Yankees played their last-ever home game in the original Stadium on September 21, defeating the Baltimore Orioles, 7-3, the drama of the season didn't end until its final day as Mike Mussina earned a win in the first game of a doubleheader over Boston at Fenway Park to become the oldest first-time 20-game winner in Baseball history.

The 2009 season proved nothing short of storybook material as the club finished the inaugural season in the newly-constructed Yankee Stadium with the best regular season record in the Majors (103-59) and a six-game World Series win over the Phillies. Free-agent acquisitions CC Sabathia (19 wins) and Mark Teixeira (second in AL MVP voting, 39HR, 122RBI) each played major roles in the club's success.

Sadly, the 2010 season is remembered for the passings of Principal Owner George M. Steinbrenner III and longtime public address announcer Bob Sheppard.

In recent years, the Yankees have become a fixture in the postseason, having made the playoffs in 17 of the last 19 seasons since 1995, including 13 AL East titles in the last 18 years. The organization will continue to focus on nurturing homegrown talent such as outfielder Brett Gardner and pitchers Ivan Nova and David Robertson, while utilizing free agency to add talented players such as Jacoby Ellsbury, Brian McCann and Carlos Beltran. With the 2014 season at hand, the Yankees will strive toward the singular goal of bringing a 28th championship back to the Bronx.

History of the Yankees Uniform & NY Logo

When the Yankees (then "Highlanders") first took the field for their inaugural season in 1903, their uniforms did not resemble the iconic style for which they are known today. A large ornate "N" decorated one breast and a large ornate "Y" the other. Two years later for the 1905 season, the "N" and "Y" were merged side by side into a monogram on the left breast, creating a forerunner of the now legendary emblem.

It wasn't until 1909 that the most recognizable insignia in sports—the interlocking "NY"—made its first appearance on the caps and left sleeves of Highlanders uniforms. It is thought that the design was inspired by a similar one created in 1877 by Tiffany & Co. for a medal to be given by the New York City Police Department to Officer John McDowell, a policeman shot in the line of duty. Perhaps because one of the club's owners, Bill Devery, was a former New York City police chief, the design was adopted by the organization. The familiar "NY" eventually migrated from the left sleeve to the left breast of home uniforms from 1912-16, albeit in a larger version than is currently worn today.

In 1912, their final season at Hilltop Park, the Yankees (as they were frequently called by then) made a fashionable debut at their April 11 home opener by wearing pinstripes for the first time in their history. The club was not the first team to wear pinstripes (eight of baseball's other 15 teams had already worn them at some point), and they would actually abandon the look in the following two seasons (1913-14). By 1915, though, home pinstripes were back for good.

In 1917, the Yankees removed the "NY" monogram from the jersey and went with a plain, pinstripes-only look. The "NY" remained off the uniform—except for the cap—for the next 19 years until it was reinstated in 1936. Babe Ruth, whose Yankees career spanned 1920-34, played his entire Yankees career without ever wearing the club's now-legendary insignia on his jersey.

The Yankees utilized numerous cap designs from 1903 until 1921—including pinstripes in 1915, '16, '19 and '21—until they finally settled on a solid navy cap with the interlocking "NY" insignia in 1922.

The club's road uniforms have remained relatively unchanged since 1918—solid grey with "NEW YORK" in block letters across the chest. The notable exception was from 1927-30, when "NEW YORK" was replaced by "YANKEES." In 1973, with the introduction of more breathable double-knit uniforms, Yankees road jerseys added navy-and-white banded trim to the cuffs of the sleeves as well as white shadowing behind the jersey lettering.

The home uniform remains the Yankees' signature look. With the exception of minor alterations—including bolder pinstripes in the 1940s—it has remained mostly unchanged for more than 70 years.

In keeping with the team's reverence of tradition, the Yankees have worn "alternate" uniforms just twice in their history. On April 8, 1996, at Detroit, the team wore replicas uniforms of the Negro National League's New York Black Yankees, and on April 20, 2012, in Boston, on the 100th anniversary of the first game at Fenway Park, the Yankees wore polyester reproductions of their 1912 ensemble.

In the 2013 season, the Yankees joined other teams in Major League Baseball by adding camouflage elements to their uniforms, with a camo "NEW YORK" on their road jerseys on May 27 at Citi Field and a camo "NY" logo on their home uniforms on July 13. In both games, the Yankees wore camouflage uniform numbers and caps. Additionally, the Yankees wore their batting practice caps during a regular season home game on August 9 to honor New Era Cap Co.'s commitment to raise money for cancer research.

Derek Jeter sports the 1912 throwback uniform worn by the club on the 100th anniversary of Fenway Park on April 20, 2012, in Boston.

Origin of Numbered Uniforms

Numbers first appeared on Major League uniforms on June 26, 1916, when the Cleveland Indians wore large numerals on their left sleeves in an experiment that lasted just a few weeks. Another brief trial by Cleveland the next season and a similar sleeve trial by the St. Louis Cardinals in 1923 both proved temporary. It wasn't until the 1929 season that another attempt was made, as both Cleveland and the Yankees began their seasons with numbers as a permanent part of their respective uniforms. Though the Yankees are typically credited as being the team with the longest-standing such policy, it should be noted that the Indians began their season two days earlier than the Bombers, as the Yankees' April 16 Opening Day contest was rained out.

The initial distribution of numbers to the Yankees roster was made according to the player's respective position in the batting order. Therefore, in 1929, leadoff hitter Earle Combs wore No. 1, Mark Koenig No. 2, Babe Ruth No. 3, Lou Gehrig No. 4, Bob Meusel No. 5, Tony Lazzeri No. 6, Leo Durocher No. 7, Johnny Grabowski No. 8, Benny Bengough No. 9 and Bill Dickey No. 10 (Grabowski, Bengough and Dickey shared the catching duties). By the mid-1930s, other teams adopted the idea, and uniform numbers became standard for all teams.

Top Hat Logo Design

Origin of the Names "Highlanders" and "Yankees"

In the early 1900s, fans, the media and front office personnel did not see club nicknames as the defining elements they are today. People thought of clubs by the city they represented and the league in which they played. Anything beyond that was the work of clever newspapermen trying to freshen up the references to teams in their stories.

Much of the logo- and nickname-oriented items we have today, such as caps, T-shirts or jerseys simply didn't exist a century ago when games weren't televised and men uniformly wore jackets and ties to the park.

Prior to the 1903 season when the American League moved the Baltimore Orioles franchise to New York, the rivalry and enmity between the upstart AL, about to enter its third season, and the more traditional National League was just beginning to ebb. It was commonplace for clubs and the media to refer to AL teams as "Americans" and NL clubs as "Nationals," especially as half of the cities with Major League Baseball at the time had teams in both leagues (Boston, Chicago, New York, Philadelphia and St. Louis). The terminology served to differentiate the New York American League team from the two longstanding National League clubs, the Brooklyn Superbas (as the Dodgers were then known) and the New York Giants, with whom they were now battling for fans.

The club's first home in New York was a rickety wooden structure often referred to as "American League Park." It was located on 168th St. and Broadway, one of the highest spots in Manhattan. As a result, the team also became known as the "Hilltoppers" and their field "Hilltop Park."

The name "Highlanders," as the team of that era is most-popularly remembered today, also started in the club's formative years. It originated not only as a nod to their elevated Manhattan perch, but also as a reference to club president Joseph W. Gordon, whose last name conjured up thoughts of the famous Scottish army unit, the Gordon Highlanders.

Other nicknames for the team were the "Greater New Yorks" and "Griffiths," the latter of which was a reference to Clark Griffith, who managed the club from 1903-08.

As early as 1904, however, the name "Yankees" became common in the press. The earliest known use was in an April 7, 1904, article in the New York Evening Journal that bore the headline "YANKEES WILL START HOME FROM SOUTH TODAY," which was published following a successful spring training in the South. A week later, the same newspaper's coverage of Opening Day was headlined "YANKEES BEAT BOSTON," and the term also appeared in the article's lead sentence.

The name "Yankees" likely owes its success to newspaper typesetters and editors grateful for a team name with fewer letters than "Highlanders" or "Hilltoppers."

When the franchise moved from Hilltop Park to the low-lying Polo Grounds in 1913, the media and public dropped the other nicknames (which were no longer fitting) in favor of using "Yankees."

Patches & Armbands on the Yankees Uniform

Over the Yankees' 111-year history, temporary patches and armbands have been worn to commemorate special occasions and mourn the passings of members of the Yankees family. The list below represents the most thorough compilation of special additions to the uniform available at the time of the publication of this book. Annual alterations such as Major League Baseball's Mothers' Day and Fathers' Day ribbons, or permanent additions such as MLB logo patches on the backs of caps and jerseys are not included in the list below.

*Please note that all sleeve notations reflect game jerseys (GJ) unless otherwise noted to be batting practice jerseys (BPJ).

Important Dates in Yankees History

Jan. 9, 1903 - Frank Farrell and Bill Devery purchase the defunct Baltimore franchise of the American League for $18,000, then move the team to Manhattan.

March 12, 1903 - The New York franchise is approved as a member of the American League. The team will play in a hastily constructed, wooden ballpark at 168th Street and Broadway. Because the site is one of the highest spots in Manhattan, their home field is referred to as "Hilltop Park."

April 22, 1903 - The Highlanders (as the Yankees were commonly known then) play their first game, a 3-1 loss at Washington.

April 23, 1903 - Pitcher Harry Howell records the first victory in franchise history, a 7-2 win at Washington.

April 30, 1903 - The Highlanders notch a 6-2 win vs. Washington in their inaugural home opener at Hilltop Park.

May 11, 1903 - John Ganzel hits the first home run in franchise history - an inside-the-park homer at Detroit's Bennett Park off George Mullin in an 8-2 Highlanders victory.

April 11, 1912 - Pinstripes first appear on Highlanders uniforms, creating a look that would become the most famous uniform design in sports.

April 21, 1912 - At the Polo Grounds, the Highlanders and Giants stage a benefit game for survivors of the Titanic. The Giants win, 11-2, as $9,425.25 is raised.

May 3, 1912 - The Highlanders lose at Philadelphia, 18-15. The 33 total combined runs mark the highest total in franchise history, since equaled twice, both also at Philadelphia (5/22/30 Game 2 and 6/3/32, each in 20-13 Yankees wins).

April 1913 - The name "Yankees" becomes the predominant nickname of the club after the team moves to the Polo Grounds, home of the National League's New York Giants.

April 5, 1913 - The Yankees play an exhibition game against the Dodgers, losing, 3-2, in the first-ever game at Ebbets Field.

April 17, 1913 - The Yankees play their first home game at the Polo Grounds, losing to Washington, 9-3. It marks the beginning of 10 seasons as tenants of the National League's New York Giants.

Jan. 11, 1915 - Col. Jacob Ruppert and Col. Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston agree to purchase the Yankees for $460,000. The deal is formally completed on Jan. 30.

April 3, 1919 - Yankees outfielder Ping Bodie defeats an ostrich named Percy in a spaghetti-eating contest in Jacksonville, Fla., during spring training, after Percy passes out after his 11th plate of pasta (credit: SABR Biography Project).

Jan. 5, 1920 - After being announced two days earlier, the Yankees complete the purchase of the contract of Babe Ruth from the Boston Red Sox for $100,000 plus interest and a $350,000 loan against the mortgage on Fenway Park.

May 1, 1920 - Babe Ruth hits his first homer as a Yankee in a 6-0 win over the Red Sox at the Polo Grounds.

Feb. 5, 1921 - The Yankees issue press release announcing the purchase of 10 acres of land in the West Bronx that will become the site of the original Yankee Stadium. The land, purchased from the estate of William Waldorf Astor, cost $675,000.

Oct. 5, 1921 - The Yankees play the first postseason game in franchise history, as Carl Mays tosses a complete game shutout to defeat the New York Giants at the Polo Grounds in Game 1 of the World Series.

May 5, 1922 - The construction contract for Yankee Stadium is awarded to White Construction Company with the edict that the job is to be completed "at a definite price" of $2.5 million by Opening Day 1923.

Yankee Stadium on its first Opening Day in 1923

April 18, 1923 - Yankee Stadium hosts its first regular season game as the Yankees defeat Boston Red Sox, 4-1, before an announced crowd of 74,200. Babe Ruth hits the Stadium's first home run - a three-run shot in the third inning - and starter Bob Shawkey records a complete-game win.

April 30, 1923 - The Yankees sign 19-year-old Columbia pitcher and position player Lou Gehrig to a professional contract.

May 21, 1923 - Yankees announce that Col. Ruppert buys out Col. Huston for $1.5 million to become sole owner of the Yankees.

Sept. 28, 1923 - The Yankees record 30 hits in a 24-4 win over Boston at Fenway Park. The hit total remains the most in a nine-inning game in franchise history.

Oct. 15, 1923 - The Yankees defeat the New York Giants, 6-4, at the Polo Grounds in Game 6 of the World Series, clinching the first World Championship in franchise history.

June 1, 1925 - Lou Gehrig begins his record streak of 2,130 consecutive games played, pinch-hitting for "Pee Wee" Wanninger in a 5-3 loss to Washington at Yankee Stadium.

Oct. 6, 1926 - Babe Ruth becomes the first player to hit three home runs in a single World Series game in Game 4 at St. Louis.

June 23, 1927 - In an 11-4 Yankees win at Fenway Park, Lou Gehrig become the first (of two) players in franchise history to hit 3HR in a single game against the Red Sox (also see May 8, 2010).

Sept. 30, 1927 - Babe Ruth breaks his own single-season Major League record by hitting his 60th home run (off Tom Zachary) in a 4-2 win over Washington at Yankee Stadium.

April 20, 1928 - Yankee Stadium's left field stands are enlarged to three decks.

Oct. 9, 1928 - In Game 4 of the World Series vs. the Cardinals at St. Louis' Sportsman's Park, Babe Ruth hits three home runs, marking his second three-homer World Series game.

April 18, 1929 - The Yankees wear numbered uniforms for the first time in their history, two days after the Cleveland Indians permanently adopt them as well (Numbers would become standard for all teams by 1932).

Sept. 24, 1929 - The Yankees celebrate Babe Ruth Day at Fenway Park by winning, 5-3, over Boston. Ruth goes 2-for-3 with a double and Tom Zachary (pitching for the Yankees) records his final decision of the season, improving to 12-0, still a Major League record for most wins in a season without a loss.

June 4, 1933 - Starter Johnny Allen allows a first-inning single to Philadelphia's Ed Coleman, then holds the A's hitless the rest of the way, notching a one-hit shutout in a 6-0 home victory in the second game of a doubleheader.

July 6, 1933 - In the very first MLB All-Star Game, Babe Ruth hits the game's first HR – a two-run shot off the Cardinals' Bill Hallahan – leading the AL to a 4-2 victory at Comiskey Park. Lefty Gomez starts for the AL, tossing 3.0 scoreless IP to earn the win. He also records the first All-Star RBI with a second-inning single.

June 6, 1934 - Myril Hoag goes 6-for-6 in a 15-3, nine-inning win in Game 1 of a doubleheader at Boston, becoming the first of only two Yankees to go 6-for-6 in a single game (see June 7, 2008- Johnny Damon).

Nov. 21, 1934 - The Yankees purchase Joe DiMaggio from the San Francisco Seals of the Pacific Coast League for $50,000.

May 24, 1936 - The Yankees tally their single-game franchise-high in runs in a 25-2 win at Philadelphia. Tony Lazzeri is the star with three home runs (including two grand slams) and a triple. His 11 RBI set a still-standing AL single-game record.

April 20, 1937 - The Yankees' 15th season at Yankee Stadium opens with the right-field stands enlarged to three decks. Wooden bleachers are replaced by a concrete structure, and the distance to center field drops from 490 feet to 461 feet.

June 22, 1938 - In a rematch of their 1936 bout, Joe Louis KOs Max Schmeling in 124 seconds to avenge his prior loss to the German and retain the heavyweight title in front of 70,043 fans at Yankee Stadium and an estimated 70 million people listening on the radio.

April 30, 1939 - Lou Gehrig plays in the last of his 2,130 consecutive games, going 0-for-4 in a 3-2 loss vs. Washington at the Stadium.

May 2, 1939 - Lou Gehrig's playing streak of 2,130 consecutive games ends when he does not make an appearance in a 22-2 Yankees win at Detroit. Babe Dahlgren plays first base for the Yankees and contributes a double and a home run.

June 26, 1939 - At Philadelphia's Shibe Park, the Yankees play their first-ever night game, losing to the Athletics, 3-2.

July 4, 1939 - "Lou Gehrig Appreciation Day" is held at Yankee Stadium in between games of a doubleheader vs. Washington. Gehrig makes his famous "luckiest man on the face of the earth" speech.

May 15, 1941 - Joe DiMaggio's 56-game hitting streak begins with a single off Edgar Smith in a 13-1 loss vs. Chicago.

July 2, 1941 - In an 8-4 win vs. Boston, Joe DiMaggio goes 1-for-5 with a three-run home run, extending his hitting streak to 45 games and surpassing Wee Willie Keeler's single-season Major League record 44-game streak set in 1897.

July 17, 1941 - Joe DiMaggio's consecutive-game hitting streak ends at 56 when he goes 0-for-3 in a 4-3 Yankees win at Cleveland. Indians third baseman Ken Keltner twice robs DiMaggio of hits with great fielding plays. DiMaggio hits safely in his next 16 games, giving him hits in 72 of 73 games.

Aug. 14, 1942 - The Yankees set a still-standing Major League mark by recording seven double plays in an 11-2 win at Philadelphia.

June 26, 1944 - The Yankees, Dodgers and Giants play a three-way exhibition game at the Polo Grounds to promote the purchase of war bonds. Each team batted six times and played the field six times while a crowd of 50,000 fans bought $5.5 million in war bonds. Brooklyn wins by a score of 5 to 1 (Yankees) to 0 (Giants).

Jan. 25, 1945 - Dan Topping, Del Webb and Larry MacPhail purchase the Yankees for $2.8 million from the estate of the late Col. Jacob Ruppert. MacPhail replaces Ed Barrow as President and General Manager.

April 27, 1947 - "Babe Ruth Day" is celebrated at Yankee Stadium and throughout Major League Baseball.

June 29 - July 17, 1947 - The Yankees reel off a franchise-record 19 consecutive wins, outscoring their opposition 119-41.

Oct. 3, 1947 - Yankees pitcher Bill Bevens loses his no-hitter and the game with two outs in the bottom of the ninth as pinch-hitter Cookie Lavagetto doubles home two runs in a 3-2 Dodgers win in Game 4 of the World Series at Ebbets Field.

June 13, 1948 - Babe Ruth's uniform No. 3 is retired at Yankee Stadium's 25th Anniversary celebration. The visit marks the Babe's final Stadium appearance.

Aug. 16, 1948 - Babe Ruth dies of throat cancer in New York at age 53.

Oct. 12, 1948 - The Yankees announce that Casey Stengel will replace Bucky Harris as manager.

Oct. 1-2, 1949 - The Yankees come back from a one-game deficit with two games to play, defeating Boston in the final two games of the season at Yankee Stadium, 5-4 and 5-3, respectively, marking the first of five consecutive American League pennants.

Oct. 5, 1949 - In Game 1 of the World Series at Yankee Stadium, Tommy Henrich breaks up a scoreless pitchers' duel between the Yankees' Allie Reynolds and the Dodgers' Don Newcombe, hitting a game-winning solo HR in the bottom of the ninth.

April 17, 1951 - Mickey Mantle makes his Major League debut, going 1-for-4 in a 5-0 win vs. Boston at Yankee Stadium. The game also marks Bob Sheppard's first as Yankees public-address announcer. Boston's Dom DiMaggio is the first hitter announced.

Sept. 28, 1951 - In an 8-0 Game 1 win in a doubleheader vs. Boston at Yankee Stadium, Allie Reynolds becomes the second of four players in Baseball history to toss two no-hitters in the same season (also Johnny Vander Meer in 1938, Virgil Trucks in 1952 and Nolan Ryan in 1973). Reynolds had previously no-hit the Indians at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium on July 12 in a 1-0 win.

Dec. 11, 1951 - Joe DiMaggio officially announces his retirement.

Oct. 7, 1952 - Second baseman Billy Martin makes a running catch on a two-out, seventh-inning, based-loaded pop-up off the bat of Jackie Robinson to preserve the Yankees' lead in a 4-2 World Series-clinching Game 7 win at Brooklyn's Ebbets Field.

Oct. 5, 1953 - Billy Martin singles home the winning run in the ninth inning of a 4-3, Game 6 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers at Yankee Stadium. The win clinches the Yankees' all-time record fifth-consecutive World Championship.

Elston Howard

April 14, 1955 - Elston Howard becomes the first black player in Yankees history, making his Major League debut in an 8-4 loss at Boston. He records an RBI single in his only plate appearance.

Oct. 4, 1955 - Brooklyn's Johnny Podres outduels Yankees starter Tommy Byrne and two relievers, 2-0, clinching the Dodgers' first World Series Championship. The World Series loss snaps the Yankees' string of seven consecutive appearances in the Fall Classic without losing a Series (1943, '47, '49-53). It also marks the Yankees' first World Series loss to Brooklyn after wins in 1941, '47, '49, '52 and '53.

May 30, 1956 - Batting against Pedro Ramos in Game 1 of a doubleheader vs. Washington, Mickey Mantle nearly hits a home run out of Yankee Stadium, with the ball striking the upper deck frieze in right field.

Oct. 8, 1956 - Don Larsen hurls the only perfect game in World Series history, a 2-0, Game 5 win over Brooklyn at Yankee Stadium.

Oct. 10, 1956 - Johnny Kucks pitches a complete game shutout, defeating the Brooklyn Dodgers at Ebbets Field, 9-0, to win Game 7 of the World Series.

June 15, 1957 - In the wake of the "Copacabana incident," the Yankees trade Billy Martin to Kansas City along with Woodie Held, Bob Martyn and Ralph Terry for Ryne Duren, Jim Pisoni and Harry Simpson.

Oct. 8, 1960 - Second baseman Bobby Richardson sets an all-time World Series record (since tied by Hideki Matsui on 11/4/09 vs. Philadelphia and Albert Pujols on 10/22/11 w/ St. Louis at Texas) with 6RBI in Game 3 of the World Series vs. Pittsburgh, hitting a grand slam in the first inning and two-run single in the fourth inning of a 10-0 Yankees win.

Sept. 26, 1961 - Roger Maris hits his 60th home run of the season off Baltimore's Jack Fisher in a 3-2 Yankees win at Yankee Stadium, tying Babe Ruth's Major League record.

Oct. 1, 1961 - Roger Maris hits his 61st home run in the season's final game off Boston's Tracy Stallard at Yankee Stadium, establishing a then-Major League record and still-standing AL record. It was the only run in a 1-0 Yankees victory.

June 24, 1962 - Jack Reed's two-run, 22nd-inning home run ends the longest game in Yankees history, a 9-7 win at Detroit.

Oct. 16, 1962 - In Game 7 of the World Series, superb fielding from RF Roger Maris holds Matty Alou at third base after a two-out, ninth-inning Willie Mays double. Bobby Richardson then snares a screaming line drive off the bat of Willie McCovey for the game's final out, securing a 1-0, Series-clinching victory over the San Francisco Giants at Candlestick Park. New York scores the game's only run when Tony Kubek grounds into a fifth-inning double play. It would be the last championship for the Yankees until 1977.

May 22, 1963 - In an 8-7, 11-inning win vs. the Kansas City A's, Mickey Mantle hits the upper deck frieze in right field for the second time in his career, this time off righthander Bill Fischer.

June 20, 1963 - The Yankees lose to the Mets at Yankee Stadium, 6-2, in the first-ever Mayor's Trophy game.

Nov. 2, 1964 - CBS purchases 80 percent of the Yankees for $11.2 million. The network later buys the remaining 20 percent.

May 14, 1967 – Mickey Mantle becomes only the sixth player—and second Yankee—to reach the 500 home run plateau, when he connects off Baltimore's Stu Miller in a 6-5 win at Yankee Stadium.

Aug. 23, 1968 - The Yankees play the longest tied game in franchise history, matching Detroit, 3-3, in Game 2 of a doubleheader at Yankee Stadium. Yankees pitcher Lindy McDaniel tosses seven perfect innings in relief in the 19-inning affair.

June 8, 1969 - "Mickey Mantle Day" is celebrated at Yankee Stadium and his uniform No. 7 is retired.

June 24, 1970 - Bobby Murcer hits home runs in four consecutive ABs over two games of a doubleheader vs. Cleveland at Yankee Stadium.

Aug. 8, 1972 - The Yankees sign a 30-year lease to play in a remodeled Yankee Stadium. Completion is scheduled for 1976.

Jan. 3, 1973 - A limited partnership, headed by George M. Steinbrenner III as its managing general partner, purchases the Yankees for a net price of $8.7 million from CBS.

April 6, 1973 - At Fenway Park in Boston, the Yankees' Ron Blomberg becomes the Major League's first designated hitter. Batting in the top of the first inning, he walks with the bases loaded off Luis Tiant. He goes 1-for-3 with 1RBI as the Yankees lose to the Red Sox, 15-5.

Sept. 30, 1973 - The Yankees play their final game in Yankee Stadium before gets remodeled, losing 8-5 vs. Detroit. Tigers pitcher John Hiller gets Yankees first baseman Mike Hegan to fly out to centerfield for the game's final out.

April 6, 1974 - The Yankees begin the first of two seasons at Shea Stadium as Yankee Stadium is remodeled. The Yankees will go 90-69 at Shea over the two seasons (1974-75).

Jim "Catfish" Hunter

Dec. 31, 1974 - Free agent Catfish Hunter signs a then-record five-year contract with the Yankees.

Aug. 1, 1975 - Billy Martin replaces Bill Virdon for his first of five stints as manager.

April 15, 1976 - Remodeled Yankee Stadium opens with an 11-4 win over Minnesota. The Twins' Dan Ford hits the first home run.

April 17, 1976 - In a 10-0 win, catcher Thurman Munson homers off the Minnesota Twins' Jim Hughes, marking the first home run hit by a Yankee in remodeled Yankee Stadium.

Oct. 14, 1976 - Chris Chambliss' ninth-inning home run off Mark Littell in Game 5 of the ALCS vs. Kansas City at Yankee Stadium gives the Yankees their 30th AL pennant and first trip to the World Series since 1964.

Nov. 29, 1976 - Free agent Reggie Jackson signs a five-year contract.

June 30, 1977 - The Yankees set a franchise record (since tied on 6/21/05 vs. Tampa Bay) with four home runs in a single inning in an 11-5 at Toronto. Cliff Johnson hits three homers in the game, including two of the Yankees' four in the eighth inning.

Oct. 9, 1977 – The Yankees rally for one run in the eighth and three runs in the ninth for a 5-3, series-clinching win in the decisive Game 5 of the 1977 ALCS at Kansas City. Sparky Lyle earns the win for the second consecutive night, finishing the game with 1.1 scoreless innings on no rest following his scoreless 5.1-inning relief appearance at Kauffman Stadium in Game 4.

Sparky Lyle

Oct. 18, 1977 - Reggie Jackson hits 3HRs (on three consecutive pitches) in Game 6 of the World Series vs. the Los Angeles Dodgers at Yankee Stadium. Jackson, Babe Ruth, Albert Pujols and Pablo Sandoval are the only players to hit at least three homers in a single World Series game.

April 13, 1978 - The Yankees defeat the White Sox, 4-2, in the Yankee Stadium opener on "Reggie!" Candy Bar Day. When Jackson slugs a three-run HR in the first inning, the field is showered with the chocolate and peanut candy bars, which were given out free to fans at the game.

July 29, 1978 - On Old-Timers' Day, the Yankees announce that Billy Martin will return as Yankees manager in 1980 and Bob Lemon will become General Manager (also see June 18, 1979).

Oct. 2, 1978 - The Yankees, 14.0 games behind Boston as late as July 19, defeat the Red Sox, 5-4, at Fenway Park in only the second one-game playoff in AL history. Bucky Dent's three-run, seventh-inning home run becomes one of the most memorable in Baseball history.

Aug. 2, 1979 - Yankees Captain Thurman Munson dies in a plane crash in Canton, Ohio, at age 32. His No. 15 is immediately retired.

Aug. 6, 1979 - After delivering a eulogy at Thurman Munson's funeral earlier that morning in Canton, Ohio, Bobby Murcer hits a three-run seventh inning homer and a two-run ninth-inning single, accounting for all five of the Yankees' runs in an emotional 5-4 comeback win vs. Baltimore at Yankee Stadium.

Dec. 15, 1980 - Free agent Dave Winfield signs a then-record 10-year contract.

May 4, 1981 - Yankees reliever Ron Davis enters in the bottom of the seventh inning of a 4-2 Yankees win at California. After getting Don Baylor to pop out to the second baseman, he strikes out eight consecutive Angels to record the save. The performance ties the American League record for consecutive strikeouts in a single game, previously set by Nolan Ryan (twice) and later tied by Roger Clemens and Blake Stein. Davis remains the all-time Major League leader in consecutive strikeouts in a relief appearance.

Jan. 11, 1983 - Billy Martin is named Yankees manager for the third time, replacing Clyde King.

July 4, 1983 - Dave Righetti pitches the sixth regular season no-hitter in franchise history and the first since 1951 in a 4-0 win vs. Boston at Yankee Stadium. Righetti strikes out Wade Boggs for the final out.

July 24, 1983 - The Yankees and Kansas City play the infamous "Pine Tar" game at Yankee Stadium. George Brett hits a two-out, ninth-inning home run off Goose Gossage to give the Royals an apparent 5-4 lead. Manager Billy Martin points out that the pine tar on Brett's bat is above the allowable 18 inches and Brett is subsequently called out for using an illegal bat. The Yankees (temporarily) win 4-3 (see Aug. 18, 1983).

"The Pine Tar Game"

Aug. 18, 1983 - Kansas City's protest is upheld and play is resumed at Yankee Stadium from the point immediately after Brett's home run. Yankees pitcher Ron Guidry plays center field while lefthanded first baseman Don Mattingly plays second base. Royals' reliever Dan Quisenberry retires the Yankees in order in the bottom of the ninth for a 5-4 Royals win.

Dec. 16, 1983 - Yogi Berra is named manager for the second time, replacing Billy Martin.

April 8, 1985 - At 46 yrs., 7 days old, Phil Niekro becomes the oldest Opening Day starter in Yankees franchise history (and third-oldest all time), allowing 5ER in 4.0IP while picking up the loss in a 9-2 Yankees defeat at Boston.

Aug. 4, 1985 - The Yankees celebrate "Phil Rizzuto Day" at Yankee Stadium, dedicating a plaque in his honor and retiring his No. 10. The Yankees lose their scheduled game to the Chicago White Sox, 4-1, as Tom Seaver wins his 300th career game.

Oct. 6, 1985 - Phil Niekro tosses a four-hit complete game shutout in an 8-0 victory at Toronto's Exhibition Stadium for his 300th career win.

June 29, 1987 - At Toronto's Exhibition Stadium, the Yankees defeat the Blue Jays, 15-14, behind a pair of grand slams from Don Mattingly and Dave Winfield.

July 18, 1987 - Don Mattingly homers off Texas' Jose Guzman to tie Dale Long's Major League record of hitting a home run in eight consecutive games (Mattingly hits 10 HR during the streak).

Sept. 29, 1987 - Don Mattingly hits a grand slam off Boston's Bruce Hurst, setting a Major League record (tied by Travis Hafner in 2008) with six grand slams in a season.

June 23, 1988 - Lou Piniella is named manager for the second time. Billy Martin is replaced as manager of the Yankees for the fifth and final time.

July 27, 1988 - Tommy John commits three errors on one play during the fourth inning of a 16-3 Yankees victory vs. Milwaukee. John becomes the first pitcher in the Modern Era to commit three miscues in the same inning.

Oct. 7, 1988 - Dallas Green is named manager, replacing Lou Piniella.

Dec. 9, 1988 - The Yankees sign a 12-year television contract with the Madison Square Garden Network.

July 1, 1990 - With a no-hitter intact with two out in the bottom of the eighth at Comiskey Park, the Yankees make three errors behind starter Andy Hawkins, leading to four unearned runs as the Yankees go on to lose, 4-0. While initially ruled a "no-hitter", MLB removes the designation in 1991 after redefining a "no-hitter" as requiring a pitcher(s) to complete at least 9.0IP.

Sept. 6, 1995 - Lou Gehrig's Major League record of 2,130 consecutive games played is broken when Baltimore's Cal Ripken, Jr. plays in his 2,131st.

Oct. 4, 1995 - The Yankees play the longest postseason game in their history, a 15-inning, 7-5 win over Seattle at Yankee Stadium won on a two-run homer by Jim Leyritz. The contest was the final Yankee Stadium game for Don Mattingly.

Nov. 2, 1995 - Joe Torre is named the Yankees' 31st manager, replacing Buck Showalter.

Mar. 1, 1996 - The Yankees defeat the Cleveland Indians, 5-2, in the first ever game at Legends Field (renamed George M. Steinbrenner Field in 2008), the club's new spring training home.

April 9, 1996 - The Yankees defeat the Kansas City Royals, 7-3, in a snowy Bronx home opener. Starter Andy Pettitte earns the win as newcomers Joe Girardi (replacing Mike Stanley) and Tino Martinez (replacing Don Mattingly) get booed during pregame introductions. Hitting in the ninth spot, rookie shortstop Derek Jeter goes 1-for-3 with a single.

May 1, 1996 - Outfielder Gerald Williams goes 6-for-8 with 1HR and 3RBI in a 15-inning, 11-6 win at Baltimore. With Myril Hoag (6/6/1934 at Boston) and Johnny Damon (6/7/2008 vs. Kansas City), he is one of three Yankees in franchise history with six hits in a single game.

May 14, 1996 - Dwight Gooden hurls the eighth regular season no-hitter in Yankees history, a 2-0 blanking of the Seattle Mariners at Yankee Stadium.

Oct. 23, 1996 - In Game 4 of the World Series at Atlanta's Fulton County Stadium, Jim Leyritz hits a three-run eighth inning homer off the Braves' Mark Wohlers, knotting the game at 6-6. The Yankees went on to win, 8-6, in 10 innings.

Oct 24, 1996 - The Yankees' Andy Pettitte (8.1IP) outduels Atlanta's John Smoltz (8.0IP), 1-0, in Game 5 in Atlanta.

Oct. 26, 1996 - In Game 6 of the World Series at Yankee Stadium, John Wetteland closes out a 3-2 win vs. Atlanta, giving the Yankees their first World Championship in 18 years.

June 23, 1997 - With 16 strikeouts in a 5-2 Yankees win at Detroit, David Cone sets the Yankees' all-time single-game high for a right-handed pitcher.

May 17, 1998 - David Wells tosses the first regular-season perfect game by a Yankee (and 14th in Baseball history), defeating Minnesota 4-0 at Yankee Stadium.

Sept. 25, 1998 - The Yankees set a then-American League record with their 112th win of the season (a 6-1 win vs. Tampa Bay at Yankee Stadium), breaking the mark of 111 by the 1954 Cleveland Indians

Sept. 27, 1998 - The Yankees finish their regular season with a 114-48 (.704) mark, becoming the first team since the 1954 Indians (111-43, .721) to finish a season with a winning percentage above .700.

Oct. 21, 1998 - The Yankees complete an incredible season with a four-game World Series sweep of the San Diego Padres to capture the franchise's 24th World Championship. The 3-0 win gives the club a 125-50 record over the entire season (114-48 in the regular season, 11-2 in postseason).

July 18, 1999 - On "Yogi Berra Day," David Cone tosses the 15th regular season perfect game in Baseball history, one season after David Wells accomplishes the feat. Amazingly, Don Larsen—who tossed a perfect game in the 1956 World Series—throws out the ceremonial first pitch.

Oct. 27, 1999 - The Yankees play Baseball's last game of the century and complete a four-game sweep of the Atlanta Braves, capturing their 25th World Championship.

April 23, 2000 - In a 10-7 Yankees win at Toronto, Jorge Posada and Bernie Williams become the first (and only) pair of teammates in Major League history to each hit home runs from both sides of the plate in the same game.

July 8, 2000 - The Yankees and Mets play the first two-stadium, split doubleheader in nearly 100 years with the Yankees sweeping both games by the score of 4-2. Game 1 took place at Shea Stadium followed by Game 2 that night at Yankee Stadium. It marked the first day-night doubleheader to take place in different venues since the New York Giants and Brooklyn Superbas faced off on 9/7/1903.

Oct. 21, 2000 - The Yankees' World Series Game 1 win vs. the Mets at Yankee Stadium marks their 13th consecutive victory in World Series play, breaking the 12-game record of the 1927, 1928 and 1932 Yankees.

Oct. 26, 2000 - The Yankees win World Series Game 5 over the Mets at Shea Stadium, clinching their third consecutive World Championship in the first "Subway Series" since 1956. It marks the first time a club has won three consecutive World Series titles since the 1972-74 Oakland Athletics.

Sept. 2, 2001 - Mike Mussina comes within one out of a perfect game at Fenway Park, before Carl Everett singles with two outs in the ninth.

Sept. 23, 2001 - Yankee Stadium hosts "A Prayer for America" service for those lost on September 11. It was the first large-scale and formally staged program offered in memory of those killed or missing and presumed dead in the terrorist assault on the World Trade Center towers.

Oct. 13, 2001 - With a 1-0 lead and two out in the bottom of the seventh of Game 3 of the ALDS in Oakland, Derek Jeter picks up Shane Spencer's errant throw from the outfield and "flips" the ball in a backhand motion to Jorge Posada, who tags Jeremy Giambi for the final out of the inning. The Yankees go on to win the game, 1-0, and the series 3 games to 2. The play will be known as the "Flip Play."

Oct. 30, 2001 - President George W. Bush throws out the first pitch prior to the Yankees' 2-1 World Series Game 3 win vs. Arizona at Yankee Stadium.

Oct. 31, 2001 - In Game 4 of the World Series vs. Arizona at Yankee Stadium, Tino Martinez's two-out, bottom-of-the ninth, two-run home run off Byung-Hyun Kim sends the game into extra innings. Shortly after the stroke of midnight, Derek Jeter wins the game with a "walk-off" solo home run in the 10th, earning him the nickname "Mr. November."

Nov. 1, 2001 - In the late innings of Game 5 of the World Series vs. Arizona at Yankee Stadium, fans serenade Paul O'Neill, who is playing in his last game at Yankee Stadium. Scott Brosius' two-out, bottom-of-the ninth, two-run home run off Byung-Hyun Kim sends the game into extra innings, and Alfonso Soriano singles in the winning run in the 12th.

May 17, 2002 - Jason Giambi becomes only the 21st player—and second Yankee—to hit a "walk-off" grand slam with his team trailing by three runs (Babe Ruth did it on 9/24/25). His 14th-inning slam off Minnesota's Mike Trombley erases a 12-9 Twins lead, giving the Yankees a 13-12 win.

June 3, 2003 - Derek Jeter becomes the 11th captain in franchise history.

June 13, 2003 - In a 5-2 win vs. St. Louis at Yankee Stadium, Roger Clemens records both his 300th career win and 4,000th career strikeout (Edgar Renteria).

Oct. 16, 2003 - In Game 7 of the ALCS vs. Boston at Yankee Stadium, Aaron Boone becomes the fifth player—and second Yankee (also Chris Chambliss, 1976 ALCS vs. Kansas City)—to end a postseason series with a "walk-off" HR, when his 11th-inning leadoff solo shot off Tim Wakefield clinches the Yankees' 39th pennant.

March 30-31, 2004 - The Yankees play their first-ever regular season games outside of North America, splitting a pair against Tampa Bay at the Tokyo Dome, losing 8-3 and winning 12-1, respectively.

July 1, 2004 - Derek Jeter makes his most famous catch, diving into Yankee Stadium's third base stands to nab a 12th-inning popup off the bat of Boston's Trot Nixon. John Flaherty wins the game with a 13th-inning RBI single.

April 26, 2005 - Alex Rodriguez hits three home runs (all off Bartolo Colon) and becomes just the second Yankee in franchise history to record at least 10 RBI in a game (also Tony Lazzeri, 11 on 5/24/36) in a 12-4 win vs. the Angels at Yankee Stadium.

June 15, 2005 – The Yankees announce plans for a new Yankee Stadium to be constructed in Macombs Dam and John Mullaly Parks, which are located on the north side of 161st Street (adjacent to the site of the original Stadium).

April 29, 2006 - For the second time in franchise history, the Yankees score in each inning of a game during a 17-6 win vs. Toronto (also 7/26/39 vs. St. Louis).

May 11, 2006 - Hideki Matsui fractures his left wrist and is removed from the game in the top of the first inning vs. Boston. According to Rule 10.24 (c), his 1,768 consecutive-games-played streak as a professional (1,250 with the Yomiuri Giants and 518 with the Yankees) comes to an end as he did not play one half-inning in the field or complete a time at-bat by reaching base or making an out. His streak as a Yankee is the longest since Lou Gehrig's (2,130 games).

May 16, 2006 - The Yankees tie a franchise record by overcoming a nine-run deficit vs. Texas to win, 14-13, in nine innings. Jorge Posada hits a two-run "walk-off" home run off Akinori Otsuka.

Aug. 16, 2006 – The Yankees break ground for a new Yankee Stadium, scheduled to be ready for Opening Day 2009.

Aug. 4, 2007 - Alex Rodriguez becomes the 22nd and youngest (32 years, 8 days) player in Baseball history to reach the 500-home run mark in a 16-8 win vs. Kansas City at Yankee Stadium. He is the third player to hit his 500th career homer as a Yankee, joining Babe Ruth and Mickey Mantle.

Sept. 5, 2007 - Bob Sheppard works his final game as Yankees Public Address Announcer, a 3-2 win over Seattle.

Oct. 30, 2007 - Joe Girardi is named the 32nd manager in Yankees franchise history.

Mar. 18, 2008 - The Yankees visited Blacksburg, Va., to play an exhibition game vs. Virginia Tech to honor the victims and aid in the healing process following the tragic events on the college's campus on April 16, 2007. Prior to the game at English Field, Yankees players and staff visited the campus' memorial site.

March 27, 2008 - Prior to the Yankees' final home exhibition game of spring training, Legends Field is renamed George M. Steinbrenner Field.

June 7, 2008 - Johnny Damon goes 6-for-6 in the Yankees' 12-11 win vs. Kansas City, matching the franchise record for hits in a nine-inning game (see June 6, 1934 - Myril Hoag) and becoming the only Yankee in original Yankee Stadium history to record six hits in a game of any length. His final hit is a "walk-off" single.

Sept. 16, 2008 - Derek Jeter singles off Chicago's Gavin Floyd in the first inning for his 1,270th career hit at Yankee Stadium, surpassing Lou Gehrig for the most all-time hits at the ballpark. Jeter finishes the game 2-for-3 in the 6-2 loss.

Sept. 21, 2008 - The Yankees play their last ever game in the original Yankee Stadium. Julia Ruth Stevens, daughter of Babe Ruth, throws out the ceremonial first pitch, and Jose Molina hits the park's final home run in the fourth inning. Following the Yankees' 7-3 win over Baltimore, Derek Jeter thanks the fans over the Stadium public address system.

Sept. 28, 2008 - On the final day of the season in the first game of a doubleheader at Boston's Fenway Park, Mike Mussina records his 20th win of the year, becoming the oldest pitcher in Major League history to win 20 games for the first time.

Mike Mussina [R] smiles with Johnny Damon on Sept. 28, 2008, at Fenway Park in Boston after becoming the oldest pitcher to win 20 games for the first time.

Nov. 8, 2008 - Local Bronx high school youth groups are joined by Scott Brosius, David Cone, Jeff Nelson and Paul O'Neill of the Yankees' 1998 World Championship team and Yankees General Partner and Vice Chairperson Jennifer Steinbrenner Swindal in removing home plate, the pitcher's rubber and pails of dirt from the original Yankee Stadium, then installing them in the current Yankee Stadium.

April 3-4, 2009 – The Yankees play their first exhibition games in Yankee Stadium, defeating the Cubs, 7-4 and 10-1, respectively. Chien-Ming Wang tosses the first pitch in the April 3 contest.

April 16, 2009 – The Yankees play the first regular season game in Yankee Stadium history, falling to Cleveland, 10-2. CC Sabathia tosses the Stadium's first official pitch, Johnny Damon records the first hit (first-inning single off Cliff Lee) and Jorge Posada hits the first HR (fifth-inning off Lee).

May 14 – June 1, 2009 – The Yankees set an all-time Major League mark with 18 consecutive errorless games, safely handling 660 chances over the stretch.

Sept. 11, 2009 – Derek Jeter breaks Lou Gehrig's all-time franchise mark of 2,721 hits with a single off Baltimore's Chris Tillman at Yankee Stadium. Gehrig had held the mark since 9/6/37.

Oct. 4, 2009 – Alex Rodriguez hits a three-run HR and a grand slam in the sixth inning of the season finale at Tampa Bay in a 10-2 Yankees win, setting an all-time AL mark with 7RBI in an inning.

Nov. 4, 2009 – The Yankees win their 27th World Series, defeating Philadelphia in Game 6, 7-3. Hideki Matsui ties Bobby Richardson's World Series mark (1960 Game 3 vs. Pittsburgh) with 6RBI (since tied by Albert Pujols in 2011). Andy Pettitte records the win, becoming the first pitcher to start and record the win in the clinching game in all three rounds of a single postseason. Manager Joe Girardi joins Billy Martin and Ralph Houk as the only individuals in franchise history to win a World Series with the Yankees as a player and as a manager.

May 8, 2010 – Mark Teixeira becomes the second Yankee in franchise history to hit 3HR in a game against Boston (also see June 23, 1927), homering in the fifth, seventh and ninth innings of a 14-3 Yankees win at Fenway Park.

June 12-13, 2010 – Jorge Posada becomes the first Yankee since Bill Dickey (June 3, Game 2 - June 4, 1937) to hit grand slams in back-to-back games as he accomplishes the feat in 9-3 and 9-5 wins vs. Houston.

July 13, 2010 – Yankees Principal Owner George M. Steinbrenner III passes away in Tampa, Fla. at age 80.

Aug. 4, 2010 – Alex Rodriguez becomes the seventh (and youngest) player in Major League history to hit his 600th HR, accomplishing the feat at 35 years, 8 days old in a 5-1 win vs. Toronto off pitcher Shaun Marcum.

Sept. 20, 2010 - The Yankees dedicate a monument to Principal Owner George M. Steinbrenner III in Monument Park.

July 9, 2011 - Derek Jeter becomes the 28th player all time to record 3,000 hits, accomplishing the feat with a third-inning solo home run vs. Tampa Bay off David Price.

July 30, 2011 - In the second game of a doubleheader, the Yankees score 12 first-inning runs in a 17-3 win vs. Baltimore, sending 16 men to the plate with 13 reaching base on seven singles, two doubles, 1HR, 2BB and 1 error. All nine batters had at least one hit and one run. The club sets a franchise record for most runs scored in the first inning in any game.

Aug. 25, 2011 - Robinson Cano, Russell Martin and Curtis Granderson each hit grand slams as the club becomes the first team ever to hit three grand slams in a single game.

Sept. 19, 2011 - Mariano Rivera records his 602nd career save, closing out a 6-4 win vs. Minnesota at Yankee Stadium to surpass Trevor Hoffman and become the all-time Major League leader.

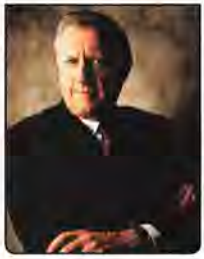
Oct. 3, 2012 - With a 4HR performance in the season finale vs. Boston, the Yanks set a single-season franchise record with 245HR.

Aug. 13-14, 2013 - Alfonso Soriano records 2HR and 6RBI then 2HR and 7RBI in consecutive games vs. Los Angeles-AL. He becomes just the third player all time since RBIs became official statistic in 1920 to record at least 6RBI in consecutive games.

Aug. 21, 2013 - Ichiro Suzuki records his 4,000th career hit (1,278 in Japan and 2,722 in Majors) with a first-inning single off Toronto's R.A. Dickey at Yankee Stadium.

Sept. 22 & 26, 2013 - The Yankees celebrate the career of Mariano Rivera with a 50-minute pregame ceremony, including the unveiling of his No. 42 in Monument Park and a live performance of "Enter Sandman" by Metallica. Four days later at Yankee Stadium, Rivera makes his final career appearance. He is removed from the game by longtime teammates Derek Jeter and Andy Pettitte, who come out of the dugout to make the pitching change.

George M. Steinbrenner III (1930-2010)



From 1973 until his passing on July 13, 2010, George M. Steinbrenner III created a legacy of winning unmatched by his peers. His foresight, drive and commitment permanently transformed not only the Yankees organization, but the game of Baseball.

On January 3, 1973, a group of businessmen formed and led by Mr. Steinbrenner purchased the New York Yankees from CBS for a net price of $8.7 million. It took just five years for his aggressive leadership to turn the organization back into World Champions. In his time as Principal Owner of the club, the Yankees won more pennants (11) and World Series (7) than any other team in baseball, while posting a Major League-best .566 winning percentage (3,364-2,583-3 record) over the stretch.

In addition to the team's on-field success under the direction of Mr. Steinbrenner, the New York Yankees consistently shattered franchise and league attendance records at home and on the road. In 2009, they drew 3,719,358 fans in their first season of play in the current Yankee Stadium, topping the American League in attendance for the seventh straight season (2003-09). The Yankees remain the only franchise in Baseball history to draw more than 4 million fans at home in four consecutive seasons (2005-08).

Most recently, Mr. Steinbrenner's foresight into both sports and business continued to build the value and prominence of the franchise, positioning it for the future. In 2002, Sporting News named him the No. 1 "Most Powerful Man in Sports," and Forbes magazine has continued to list the Yankees as the most valuable franchise in all of Baseball.

Mr. Steinbrenner's vision led to the creation of YankeeNets, which owned the New Jersey Nets and New Jersey Devils and ultimately led to the launch of the YES Network, a trailblazing enterprise that has been the nation's most watched regional sports network since 2003. Additionally, Mr. Steinbrenner teamed with long-time friend and Dallas Cowboys owner Jerry Jones, creating Legends Hospitality, LLC, a new concession and merchandising company which currently operates at the Yankees' and Cowboys' new stadiums.

In 2006, his participation in the groundbreaking ceremony for the new Yankee Stadium underscored his role as the principal impetus in moving the much-anticipated facility towards its opening in 2009.

Mr. Steinbrenner's tenure of over 37 years exceeded that of any other New York Yankees owner by 13 years (Colonel Jacob Ruppert purchased the Yankees with Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston in January 1915, bought out Huston in 1922, and maintained sole ownership in the club until his death in January 1939—a total of 24 years). During Mr. Steinbrenner's time as the sole Principal Owner of the Yankees, the other 29 Major League clubs had over 100 owners or ownership groups.

Mr. Steinbrenner's success in the sports world began at an early age. He was a multi-sport athlete at Culver Military Academy (where he is in the Athletic Hall of Fame) and at Williams College. He began his successful coaching career as an assistant football coach at two Big Ten universities, Northwestern and Purdue. Then he assembled championship basketball teams in the National Industrial and American Basketball Leagues. In 2002, he was honored with the prestigious Gold Medal Award from the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame for a lifetime of "outstanding commitment, dedication and dynamic leadership in his business, as well as his personal life."

Mr. Steinbrenner devoted as much time and effort to the U.S. Olympic Committee (USOC) as he did to his many other sporting endeavors. He was on the U.S. Olympic Foundation Board from 1986-2002 and served as Chairman over the last six years of his tenure. He also was Chairman of the 1989 Olympic Overview Commission, which was created to evaluate the structure and efforts of the U.S. Olympic program, and served as Vice President of the USOC from 1989 to 1992. As a result of his distinguished service, he was presented with the General Douglas MacArthur USOC Foremost Award and the F. Don Miller United States Olympic Award. In 2005, the U.S. Olympic Foundation created the George M. Steinbrenner Sports Leadership Award in his honor, which celebrates a member of the U.S. Olympic family who has made outstanding contributions to sport.

Additionally, Mr. Steinbrenner was a member of the Baseball Hall of Fame's Board of Directors and served on the NCAA Foundation Board of Trustees beginning in 1990.

Most of Mr. Steinbrenner's philanthropic endeavors were performed without fanfare. However, he was repeatedly recognized by the communities in which he immersed himself. In 1993, he earned the Tampa Civitan Club's "Outstanding Citizen" Award, and in 1998, Tampa Law Enforcement named him "Citizen of the Year" for founding a scholarship fund for the children of slain law enforcement officers. Mr. Steinbrenner was also honored as an "Outstanding New Yorker" by the N.Y. Society of Association Executives in 1997 and credited in 2009 by the Museum of the City of New York as one of the "New York City 400," recognizing "people who have helped create the world's greatest city since its founding in 1609."

In February 2008, the Tampa City Council and the Board of the Hillsborough County Commissioner's Office both passed resolutions endorsing the renaming of Legends Field in Tampa after Mr. Steinbrenner to pay tribute to his numerous contributions to the area. On March 27, 2008, Mr. Steinbrenner—joined by his family—pulled down a curtain draped above the outfield scoreboard to unveil the new name for the Yankees' spring training home: George M. Steinbrenner Field.

In the fall of 2009, George M. Steinbrenner High School opened in Lutz, Fla. The school was named after Mr. Steinbrenner by the Hillsborough County School Board in recognition of his philanthropic involvement in the community, particularly with the school system.

On September 20, 2010, prior to the team's game vs. Tampa Bay, the Yankees unveiled a monument in Mr. Steinbrenner's honor in Monument Park, reflecting the special connection, appreciation and responsibility that he felt toward Yankees fans.

GEORGE M. STEINBRENNER III

JULY 4, 1930 – JULY 13, 2010

New York Yankees Principal Owner
"The Boss"
1973 - 2010

Purchased the New York Yankees on January 3, 1973. A true visionary who changed the game of baseball forever, he was considered the most influential owner in all of sports. In his 37 years as Principal Owner, the Yankees posted a Major League-best .566 winning percentage, while winning 11 American League pennants and seven World Series titles, becoming the most recognizable sports brand in the world. A devoted sportsman, he was Vice President of the United States Olympic Committee, a member of the Baseball Hall of Fame's Board of Directors and a member of the NCAA Foundation Board of Trustees. A great philanthropist whose charitable efforts were mostly performed without fanfare, he followed a personal motto of the greatest form of charity is anonymity.

Chronology of Yankees Ownership

Jan. 9, 1903:	Frank Ferrell and Bill Devery purchase the rights to a new franchise of the American League for $18,000 and move the team to New York.
Jan. 11, 1915:	Col. Jacob Ruppert and Col. Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston agree to purchase the Yankees for $460,000. The transfer is formally completed on January 30.
May 21, 1923:	Col. Ruppert buys out Col. Huston for $1.5 million (transfer is completed on June 1).
Jan. 13, 1939:	Col. Ruppert passes away and his estate takes over ownership of the club.
Jan. 25, 1945:	Dan Topping, Del Webb and Larry MacPhail purchase the Yankees for $2.8 million from the estate of the late Col. Ruppert (Topping and Webb later buy out MacPhail's share following the 1947 season).
Nov. 2, 1964:	CBS purchases 80 pct. of the Yankees for $11.2 million and later buys the remaining 20 percent (Webb sells his 10 pct. share in March 1965 and Topping sells his 10 pct. share in September 1966).
Jan. 3, 1973:	A limited partnership, headed by George M. Steinbrenner as its Managing General Partner, purchases the Yankees from CBS for a net price of $8.7 million.
Nov. 20, 2008:	Hal Steinbrenner named Yankees Managing General Partner.

Bob Sheppard - "The Voice of Yankee Stadium"

Bob Sheppard will forever be the "The Voice of Yankee Stadium." With his instantly recognizable elocution — in which each syllable was given meticulous attention — Sheppard provided a soundtrack of irreproachable dignity to Yankee Stadium for 57 years.

Sadly, he passed away on July 11, 2010, at his home in Baldwin, N.Y., with his wife, Mary, by his side. He was 99 years old.

Born in Ridgewood, Queens, Sheppard began his tenure as Yankees public address announcer on April 17, 1951—Opening Day of Joe DiMaggio's final season and the day of Mickey Mantle's Major League debut. Among the approximately 4,500 baseball games he worked over his tenure with the Yankees were 121 consecutive postseason contests from 1951 to 2006, including 62 games in 22 World Series.

Sheppard's incredible career behind the microphone started when he volunteered his services for a charity football game in Freeport, Long Island, in the late 1940s. An executive from the Brooklyn Dodgers football team of the All-America Conference was at the game. He liked Sheppard's style ("clear, concise and correct") and hired him. The football Dodgers folded after just one season at Ebbets Field (1948), but one of their opponents—the New York football Yankees—heard Sheppard's booming voice and offered him their PA job at Yankee Stadium. Baseball's Yankees discovered him as a result and offered him their PA role for the 1950 season. Though he turned down their offer due to conflicts with his teaching schedule, he changed his mind the following year.

In addition to his baseball duties, Sheppard was the public address voice for the New York football Giants for 50 seasons—from their move to Yankee Stadium in 1956 until his retirement after the 2005 season. Sheppard also served the New York Titans of the American Football League at the Polo Grounds, the New York Stars of the World Football League at Downing Stadium, the New York Cosmos soccer team, and St. John's University's basketball and football teams. Sheppard also handled PA duties for five Army-Navy football games in Philadelphia.

Some of the events he listed as the most memorable of his incredible career were: Don Larsen's perfect game in Game 5 of the 1956 World Series on October 8, 1956; Roger Maris' 61st home run on October 1, 1961; Reggie Jackson's three home runs in Game 6 of the World Series on October 18, 1977; and the Giants-Colts overtime NFL Championship Game on December 28, 1958.

Sheppard attended St. John's College, which eventually became St. John's University. Always a talented athlete, he received a full athletic scholarship to the school, playing quarterback on the football team all four years. He later enrolled at Columbia University, where he received his master's degree in speech and worked his way up from teacher-in-training to substitute teacher to permanent teacher to department chairman. In order to supplement his teaching salary, Sheppard played semiprofessional football on Sundays in Long Island with the Valley Stream Red Riders and the Hempstead Monitors, earning $25 a game.

In 1998, Sheppard was presented with the prestigious William J. Slocum "Long and Meritorious Service" Award by the New York chapter of the BBWAA as well as the "Pride of the Yankees" award by the ballclub.

On May 7, 2000, a plaque was dedicated to Sheppard in Monument Park of the original Yankee Stadium to commemorate his 50th anniversary season. Additionally, the Yankee Stadium media dining room was named "Sheppard's Place" prior to the 2009 season to commemorate his legacy.

The native New Yorker was elected to the St. John's University Sports Hall of Fame, the Long Island Sports Hall of Fame and the New York Sports Hall of Fame. He was awarded honorary doctorates from St. John's University (Pedagogy) and Fordham University (Rhetoric), and in 2007, received St. John's' Medal of Honor, the highest award that the university can confer on a graduate.

Sheppard also made cameo appearances in numerous motion pictures and television shows, including 61, It's My Turn, It Could Happen to You, Anger Management, Seinfeld* and Mad About You.

Sheppard announced his final game at Yankee Stadium on September 5, 2007, a 3-2 Yankees victory over the Seattle Mariners.

On Sept. 21, 2008, Sheppard provided a valedictory in the bottom of the seventh inning of the final game at the original Yankee Stadium. Unable to say goodbye in person as he continued to recover from an illness that had kept him away from the Stadium since the final weeks of the 2007 season, Sheppard gave his tribute through a taped segment which played on the video board. He recited, "Farewell, old Yankee Stadium, farewell / What a wonderful story you can tell / DiMaggio, Mantle, Gehrig and Ruth / A baseball cathedral in truth."

When the Yankees moved into the current Yankee Stadium in 2009, the media dining room was named "Sheppard's Place" in his honor.

Voices Before Sheppard

Not even Bob Sheppard himself could remember who preceded him as Yankee Stadium's public address announcer. Surprisingly, the history of Sheppard's predecessors at the microphone — or, earlier, the megaphone — spanned four decades and three ballparks before Sheppard's first game on April 17, 1951.

The lineage extends to Hilltop Park in 1910, when the Yankees were commonly called the "Highlanders." On June 11, Sporting Life noted a new method of announcing the starting batteries. Writer E.H. Simmons described an unnamed scorecard vendor with a "deep, carrying voice" shouting the names through a megaphone at the start of each game.

In 1913, the Yankees began playing their home games at the Polo Grounds, which was also home to the New York Giants. Jack Lenz and George Levy debuted as announcers for both teams two years later. When Yankee Stadium opened in 1923, Levy continued working with the Giants while Lenz carried his megaphone to the Bronx. "I grabbed the offer," Lenz recalled in 1935. "Who wouldn't, with the old Bambino holding forth at the Stadium?"

Lenz's game-day duties began with receiving the starting lineups from the managers of both teams 15 minutes before the first pitch. After delivering a copy of each lineup to the umpire, Lenz relayed the "necessary dope" to writers in the press box via telephone. He then raised his megaphone and announced the batting orders and batteries — first toward the bleachers, then to the upper tiers of the grandstand, and finally to the lower stands. During games, Lenz occupied Field Box 133 adjacent to the Yankees dugout. He broadcasted each batter's name only once, prior to the first plate appearance by each respective player. Lenz also announced lineup changes made throughout the game.

Lenz became a fixture at Yankee Stadium. Fans chuckled at his occasional malapropisms, such as advertising a doubleheader as "two games for the price of one omission." The New York Evening Journal praised Lenz as "the mild-mannered megaphone man" upon announcing his 2,000th game in 1933. Lenz set aside his megaphone to inaugurate Yankee Stadium's public address system during Game 3 of the 1936 World Series.

Jack Lenz

George Levy occasionally joined Lenz at the Stadium. In 1927, Lenz and Levy announced the Opening Day lineups to 72,000 fans as part of a "two-ply announcer system." Levy replaced Lenz as Yankee Stadium's official announcer by 1939 and was likely responsible for a famous gaffe made on May 31, 1946.

"Will the spectators in the front row boxes please remove their clothing...," Levy began, only to have the second half of the request ("from the front railing") obscured by the crowd's laughter.

Research indicates that Yankees public relations director Arthur "Red" Patterson handled public address duties immediately prior to Bob Sheppard's debut in 1951. Patterson likely filled Al Frazin's vacated position through the 1950 World Series.

Current Yankees Public Address Announcer Paul Olden

On April 15, 2009, the Yankees announced that Paul Olden would assume full-time duties as Yankee Stadium public address announcer, replacing the iconic Bob Sheppard. Olden, a 12-time Super Bowl public address announcer (1994-2005), first manned the Yankees booth during the team's workout day on April 2. He also worked the team's first-ever Stadium exhibition games vs. Chicago-NL on April 3-4.

Sheppard, the Yankees PA announcer since 1951, had been suffering from a bronchial infection and was last able to perform his role on September 5, 2007. His longtime backup, Jim Hall, handled PA responsibilities in 2008.

Olden had a long broadcasting career prior to taking the Yankees PA position, including three seasons in the Yankees television broadcast booth from 1994-96 alongside Phil Rizzuto and Bobby Murcer. He also called games on the radio for the Tampa Bay Devil Rays (1998-2004), California Angels (1991), and Cleveland Indians (1988-89), as well as for the NFL's New York Jets (1993-96) and Los Angeles Rams (1991-92).

Previously, Olden did fill-in radio work with the NBA's New Jersey Nets (1995-96) and MLB's Angels (1989-90, '92). He was also a full-time radio broadcaster for UCLA's basketball and football teams (1989-1992) and worked for The Football Network (2003), FOX SportsNet LA (1997) and ESPN (1991-92), calling Major League Baseball and college football.

Olden's other prior PA work included the NCAA's Outback Bowl from 2002-05 and USC Trojans baseball from 1972-76. He also did on-air radio work for KPMC and KNX in Los Angeles.

Born in Chicago and raised in L.A., Olden attended Los Angeles City College and Los Angeles Valley College (2006-08). He was presented with a New York Emmy Award for best local sports coverage in 1994 for his work on Yankees telecasts.

Lou Gehrig Appreciation Day - July 4, 1939

Prior to the Yankees' May 2, 1939, game at Detroit's Briggs Stadium, captain Lou Gehrig gave the umpires his team's lineup card—which did not have his name on it. He watched the entire game from the bench, marking the end of his 2,130-consecutive-games-played streak. "The Iron Horse" was suffering the effects of amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS), a disease known since as Lou Gehrig's disease. He would never play again.

Just over two months later, on July 4, 1939, Lou Gehrig Appreciation Day was held in front of approximately 62,000 fans at Yankee Stadium. Ceremonies took place between games of a doubleheader against the Washington Senators. Gehrig and his teammates were joined by members of the 1927 Yankees. After speeches by Mayor Fiorello La Guardia and Postmaster James A. Farley, Manager Joe McCarthy said his public goodbye to Gehrig: "Lou, what can I say except that it was a sad day in the life of everybody who knew you when you came to my hotel room that day in Detroit and told me you were quitting as a ballplayer because you felt yourself a hindrance to the team. My God, man, you were never that."

Various gifts were presented to Gehrig from club employees and the rival New York Giants. His teammates gave him a trophy, which was inscribed with a poem by New York Times writer John Kieran. As the crowd chanted, "We want Lou; We want Lou...," Gehrig stepped to the microphone to deliver one of the most oft-quoted speeches in American history.

"For the past two weeks you've been reading about a bad break. Today I consider myself the luckiest man on the face of the Earth. I have been in ballparks for 17 years and have never received anything but kindness and encouragement from you fans.

"When you look around, wouldn't you consider it a privilege to associate yourself with such fine-looking men as are standing in uniform in this ballpark today? Sure, I'm lucky. Who wouldn't consider it an honor to have known Jacob Ruppert? Also, the builder of baseball's greatest empire, Ed Barrow? To have spent six years with such a grand little fellow as Miller Huggins? To have spent the next nine years with that smart student of psychology, the best manager in baseball today, Joe McCarthy? Who wouldn't feel honored to room with such a grand guy as Bill Dickey?

"When the New York Giants, a team you would give your right arm to beat, and vice versa, sends you a gift—that's something. When the groundskeepers and office staff and writers and old-timers and players and concessionaires all remember you with trophies—that's something. When you have a wonderful mother-in-law who takes sides with you in squabbles against her own daughter—that's something. When you have a father and a mother who work all their lives so that you can have an education and build your body—it's a blessing. When you have a wife who has been a tower of strength and shown more courage than you ever dreamed existed—that's the finest I know.

"So I close in saying that I might have been given a bad break, but I've got an awful lot to live for. Thank you."

On January 6, 1940, Yankees team president Ed Barrow announced that No. 4 would be retired from use. To this day, Gehrig remains the only Yankee ever to wear the number.

Gehrig died on June 2, 1941, at his home in the Riverdale section of the Bronx. He was 37.

Babe Ruth Day - April 27, 1947

On April 27, 1947, Babe Ruth Day was celebrated throughout Major League Baseball, as the Babe said goodbye in an on-field ceremony at Yankee Stadium. Dressed in a topcoat and hat, Ruth, weakened by throat cancer, made the following remarks:

"Thank you very much, ladies and gentlemen. You know how bad my voice sounds—well it feels just as bad.

"You know this baseball game of ours comes up from the youth. That means the boys. And after you're a boy and grow up to know how to play ball, then you come to the boys you see representing themselves today in your national pastime. The only real game—I think—in the world is baseball.

"As a rule, some people think if you give them a football, or a baseball, or something like that—naturally they're athletes right away. But you can't do that in baseball. You've gotta start from way down [at] the bottom, when you're 6 or 7 years of age. You can't wait until you're 15 or 16. You gotta let it grow up with you. And if you're successful, and you try hard enough, you're bound to come out on top—just like these boys have come to the top now.

"There's been so many lovely things said about me, and I'm glad that I've had the opportunity to thank everybody. Thank you."

Ruth memorably returned to Yankee Stadium on June 13, 1948, to celebrate the 25th anniversary of Yankee Stadium and have his uniform No. 3 retired.

The 1927 Yankees - "Murderers' Row"

Many baseball writers and historians consider the 1927 Yankees the greatest baseball team of all time. With a lineup known as Murderers' Row, the club marched to a 110-44 regular season record, leading the AL from wire-to-wire and finishing ahead of the second-place Philadelphia A's by 19.0 games. The club featured seven future Hall of Famers – outfielders Babe Ruth and Earle Combs, first baseman Lou Gehrig, second baseman Tony Lazzeri, pitchers Waite Hoyt and Herb Pennock, and manager Miller Huggins. Additionally, the team was constructed by an eighth Hall-of-Famer, general manager Ed Barrow.

Ruth had his signature season, hitting 60 home runs, including 17 in September. With his final blast of the year off the Washington Senators' Tom Zachary, he surpassed his own single-season record of 59 set in 1921. Ruth also led the Majors in on-base percentage (.486), slugging pct. (.772), runs (158), walks (137) and strikeouts (89).

Hitting behind Ruth in the clean-up spot, Gehrig won the AL MVP Award, batting .373 with 173 RBI, 117 extra-base hits and 447 total bases. While this marked Gehrig's breakout season, his winning the award had a lot to do with the rules of the time, which prohibited a repeat winner (Ruth had won in 1923). Nevertheless Gehrig's totals for extra-base hits, total bases and RBI are the second-highest, third-highest and tied for the fourth-highest, respectively, in a single season in Baseball history.

As a club, the Yankees led the Majors in almost every offensive category, including runs (975), triples (103), home runs (158), walks (642), batting avg. (.307), on-base pct. (.384) and slugging pct. (.488). Ruth and Gehrig alone tallied 107 combined homers, just two shy of the New York Giants, who had the second-most as a team in the Majors.

For all the attention that the hitters received, the pitchers were every bit as good. They led the Majors with a 3.20 combined ERA and allowed the third-fewest walks (409) and homers (42) among the Majors' 16 teams. They tossed 82 complete games (second in the AL) and led their league with 11 shutouts.

The group was paced by Hoyt, who had the best overall season of his career, going 22-7 with a 2.64 ERA and tying for the AL lead in wins. Urban Shocker, a four-time former 20-game winner with the St. Louis Browns, went 18-6 with a 2.84 ERA, while dealing with a mitral valve disorder that forced him to sleep sitting up and contributed to his death the following year.

The biggest surprise on the staff was Wilcy Moore—a player recommended to Barrow in 1926 by "bird dog" scout Jack Walsh (though popular legend holds that Barrow discovered Moore while reading minor league statistics in The Sporting News). Moore became a spot starter as well as the Yankees' principal all-purpose relief pitcher, tossing 213.0 innings (93.0 as a starter, 120.0 as a reliever), going 19-7 with a Major League-leading 2.28 ERA.

The Yankees capped off their season with a four-game World Series sweep of Pittsburgh, outscoring the Pirates 23-10. Ruth hit the only two homers of the Series and Moore tossed a complete game in the clincher.

The 1961 Yankees and Roger Maris' 61-Home Run Season

The 1961 Yankees are considered to be among the greatest teams of all time. Led by Roger Maris, who broke Babe Ruth's all-time single-season home run mark, the club powered their way to the 19th World Series championship in franchise history.

The Yankees finished the regular season with a 109-53 (.673) record, eight games ahead of the 101-61 (.623) Detroit Tigers. The clubs were just 1.5 games apart in the standings heading into the final full month of the season before the Yankees reeled off a 13-game winning streak from Sept. 1-12 to vault an insurmountable 11.5 games in front. Their massive win total was fueled by a 65-16 mark at Yankee Stadium, the best single-season home record in Major League history.

The Yankees had sluggers up and down the lineup, including Moose Skowron (28 HR), Yogi Berra (22 HR), Elston Howard (21 HR) and "Super-sub" Johnny Blanchard, who hit 21 homers in just 243 at-bats. Of the 240 home runs the Yankees hit, 10 were pinch-hit homers, setting a still-standing single-season franchise mark.

Roger Maris hits his 61st home run of the season on Oct. 1, 1961 at Yankee Stadium.

The pitching staff was paced by Whitey Ford, who had a career year, going 25-4 with a 3.21 ERA. Under first-year manager Ralph Houk, Ford took the ball every fourth day for the first time in his career and set career highs in wins, winning percentage (.862), starts (39) and innings pitched (283.0), earning the Cy Young Award as the best pitcher in both leagues. Bill Stafford (14-9, 2.68 ERA), Ralph Terry (16-3, 3.15 ERA) and Rollie Sheldon (11-5, 3.60 ERA) were the Yankees' other top starters, and Luis Arroyo picked up 15 wins in relief, the highest total by a reliever in franchise history.

In the World Series, the Yankees triumphed over Cincinnati, 4-games-to-1, as Ford tossed 14.0 combined scoreless innings, earning wins in Game 1 and 4. With the Series knotted at one game apiece, Game 3 proved pivotal. Down, 2-1, heading into the eighth, Blanchard tied the game with a solo homer before Maris hit a game-winning solo shot in the ninth. The Yankees then outscored the Reds 20-5 over the final two contests to win the first of two consecutive World Series titles.

Much of the season's drama centered on the chase by the M&M Boys – Roger Maris and Mickey Mantle – to break Ruth's seemingly untouchable single-season record of 60 home runs, which he set with the 1927 Murderers' Row Yankees. Maris, the American League MVP in 1960 and 1961, was joined in his pursuit by Mantle, who topped out at 54 home runs after sitting out seven of the club's final 10 games with an abscess in his right hip.

Maris tied Ruth's mark on Sept. 26 at Yankee Stadium with a home run off Baltimore's Jack Fisher in the team's 159th game of the season. Needing one homer to break the record with four games to go (the Yankees had played a tie earlier in the year), Maris was given a full game off prior to going homerless in the first two games of a three-game series against Boston at Yankee Stadium.

In the season's final game on Oct. 1, Maris connected in the fourth inning off Tracy Stallard, hitting a line-drive into the right-field stands for his 61st home run, which turned out to be the only run in a 1-0 Yankees victory. The quiet and humble Maris had to be pushed back onto the field by his teammates for his curtain call.

The chase was not without controversy as writers and fans loyal to Ruth clamored that the record should receive a special notation given that the American League was playing a 162-game schedule in 1961 due to the addition of two expansion teams. With the exceptions of 1901-03 and 1918-19, the AL had always played a 154-game format.

Ford Frick, a former sportswriter and New York City sportscaster who had previously ghostwritten Ruth's 1928 autobiography Babe Ruth's Own Book of Baseball, was the commissioner of baseball at the time. In the middle of the season, he issued the directive that baseball's official record book, The Little Red Book of Major League Baseball, compiled by the Elias Sports Bureau, should show two records — one for a 154-game schedule and another for a 162-game schedule. Contrary to popular lore, an asterisk was never used for the notation, and separate designations remained in the official record book until 1991, when Major League Baseball finally rescinded the distinction.

Maris' 61 in 1961 remains the highest single-season home run total in American League history and the seventh-highest single-season total all time, behind those of Barry Bonds (73), Mark McGwire (70, 65) and Sammy Sosa (66, 64 and 63).

The 1998 Yankees - "Most Wins in a Single Season"

The 1998 Yankees were one of the most dominant teams in Major League baseball history. Despite starting the season with a three-game losing streak and dropping four of their first five, they proceeded to go 64-16 dating from their sixth game of the year, marking the best single-season 80-game run in franchise history.

Ultimately, the Yankees finished the regular season 114-48 (.704) and won the AL East by 22.0 games, marking the third-largest margin of any league or division winner in Major League history, behind only Cleveland in 1995 (+30.0) and Pittsburgh in 1902 (+27.5). Their regular season winning percentage trailed only the 1927 Murderers' Row team (.714) for the best in franchise history, and their 125-50 overall record, including the postseason, marks the most single-season wins by any team all time.

The 1998 club was good at every facet of the game, leading the American League in runs scored (965), runs per game (5.96), on-base percentage (.364), fewest runs per game allowed (4.05) and ERA (3.82). They ranked second in stolen bases (153) and tallied the league's third-fewest errors (98). Five members of the club (Scott Brosius, Derek Jeter, Paul O'Neill, David Wells and Bernie Williams) were named to the AL All-Star team.

The club fielded a remarkably balanced lineup as 10 different batters hit at least 10 home runs, with no player hitting more than 28. Additionally, the 1998 club became the first team all time to have eight players hit at least 17 home runs in a single season.

Second baseman Chuck Knoblauch was the team's leadoff hitter (.265BA, 117R, 17HR, 64RBI), after being acquired from Minnesota for four players just before the start of spring training. He was followed in the second spot by Jeter, who batted .324 (203-for-626) in posting the first of his eight career 200-hit seasons. The future captain led the AL with 127 runs scored while making his first All-Star team.

O'Neill, Williams and Tino Martinez were the Yankees principal 3-4-5 hitters, though Martinez batted cleanup for stretches, including when Williams was on the disabled list with a sprained right knee from June 11 - July 18. O'Neill, in his sixth year with the club after parts of eight seasons with Cincinnati, batted .317 (191-for-602) with 40 doubles, 24HR and 116RBI, setting career highs in hits and runs scored (95). Williams won his only career batting title, posting a .339 (169-for-499) mark with 26HR, 97RBI and a .422 on-base percentage. He also won a Gold Glove for his play in centerfield.

Martinez led the club with 123RBI and solidified the defense at first base. On the opposite corner, Scott Brosius had a career year, batting .300 (159-for-530) with 19HR and 98RBI, making his only All-Star team. The catching duties were split between Jorge Posada (.268BA, 17HR and 63RBI in 111 games) in his first year as the first-string backstop and Joe Girardi (.276BA in 78 games).

One of the hallmarks of the club was its depth. Darryl Strawberry hit 24 home runs in just 295 at-bats and Tim Raines put up a .395 on-base percentage in 109 games. Rookie Shane Spencer lit up the Bronx with 10 homers in 67 at-bats, including eight after being called up in September and seven in the Yankees' last 11 games of the season. The bench was so strong that over the course of the season, the substitutes (.370) had a better on-base percentage than the starters (.364).

The pitching staff was anchored by David Cone (20-7, 3.55 ERA in 31GS), who tied for the AL and Major League lead in wins. Lefthander David Wells (18-4, 3.49 ERA in 30GS) led the AL with five shutouts and a 1.05 WHIP. Along with tossing a perfect game on May 17 vs. Minnesota, Wells also had eight complete games during the season, a total that no Yankee has equaled since.

Orlando Hernandez added a boost to the rotation following his June call-up. Signed in March as a free agent from Cuba, "El Duque" went 12-4 with a 3.13 ERA in 21 starts. Andy Pettitte (16-11, 4.24 ERA) and Hideki Irabu (13-9, 4.06 ERA) rounded out the rotation, which often got bailed out by utility pitcher Ramiro Mendoza, who went 10-2 with a 3.25 ERA in 41 appearances, including 14 starts. Mike Stanton (4-1, 5.47 ERA in 67G), Jeff Nelson (5-3, 3.79 ERA in 45G) and lefthanded specialist Graeme Lloyd (3-0, 1.67 ERA in 50G in his best career season) provided the bridge to Mariano Rivera (3-0, 1.91 ERA), who notched 36 saves and allowed just four of 24 inherited runners to score.

In the postseason, the Yankees swept Texas in three games in the ALDS, outscoring them 9-1 and outhitting them 23-13. The ALCS was trickier as Cleveland took a 2-games-to-1 series lead before the Yankees won in six games. David Wells earned MVP honors, winning both of his starts in Game 1 and Game 5.

The Yankees met San Diego in the World Series, and the turning point came early. Down 5-2 in the seventh inning of Game 1 at Yankee Stadium, Knoblauch tied the score with a three-run homer. Five batters later, Tino Martinez hit a two-out, full-count grand slam off Mark Langston into the upper deck in right field to cap a seven-run inning in a 9-6 Yankees win.

The Yankees never looked back. They won Game 2, 9-3, and they took Game 3 due to the heroics of World Series MVP Scott Brosius (.471 BA, 8-for-17, 2HR, 6RBI), who got the Yankees on the board in the seventh with a solo home run and then provided the margin of victory with a three-run homer in the eighth, propelling the Yankees to a 5-4 win.

Andy Pettitte held the Padres scoreless over 7.1 innings in Game 4, which was closed out by Mariano Rivera, who recorded his third save of the series and sixth of the postseason. Rivera tossed 13.1 scoreless innings in 10 appearances during the 1998 postseason, allowing just six hits.

The championship was the Yankees' second in three years (also 1996) and the first of three consecutive (1998-2000). It marked the highpoint of one of the greatest eras in club history, establishing the yardstick by which all of baseball's post-integration teams are measured.

Official Scoring at Yankee Stadium

The Yankees-Tigers contest at the Polo Grounds on May 15, 1922, might be the most significant game in the history of official scoring. In the second inning that wet day, Yankees shortstop Everett Scott failed to come up with a ground ball off the bat of Ty Cobb. Official scorer John Kieran (the first Sports of the Times columnist and founding editor of the Information Please Almanac) charged an error on Scott. Glancing over his shoulder as he fled the rain that was blowing into the press box, Fred Lieb (national president of the Baseball Writers Association of America and New York chapter chairman) scored it a hit. It was so reported by the Associated Press, for whom Lieb was compiling the box score. As was the custom, Kieran did not announce his call and Lieb, who was probably more interested at that moment in staying dry, did not ask.

The hit/error mattered — a lot. When official American League statistics were compiled (at the end of the season), the one-hit discrepancy was discovered. Cobb's season average was either .401 or .399. A predictable brouhaha ensued. Despite Lieb's willingness to cede to Kieran's official capacity, and despite the BBWAA's December vote that no hit be awarded, AL president Ban Johnson ordered the record to reflect that Cobb earned a hit and thus a .401 average. So it remains, officially, for all time.

As a result of "The Case of the Two-Point Base Hit" (as it was known), official scorers were instructed to contemporaneously communicate their calls to the press box, and the leagues assured the BBWAA that, in the future, a scorer's judgment would not be questioned.

Scorers' calls on close plays have also had a hand in Yankee Stadium no-hitters (and near misses). Had Lieb scored Whitey Witt's leadoff grounder to third on Sept. 11, 1923, an error and not a hit, Boston's Howard Ehmke would be remembered with Johnny Vander Meer as hurlers of consecutive no-hitters. And had John Drebinger of The Times not changed a hit (originally scored an error) back to an error after consulting during the game with Detroit's Johnny Pesky regarding Phil Rizzuto's fourth-inning grounder to short, Virgil Trucks would have thrown only one no-hitter in 1952.

Dan Daniel of the World-Telegram scored many Yankees home games during Joe DiMaggio's 56-game hitting streak in 1941, and according to Jerome Holtzman (later the official historian of Major League Baseball), he awarded at least two arguable hits to help keep the streak alive. Four years later, a reversed call on the last day of the season by Bert Gumpert of the Bronx Home News gave Yankees second baseman Snuffy Stirnweiss the hit he needed to edge the White Sox's Tony Cuccinello for the AL batting title by .000087.

The cavalcade of scorers who have worked at Yankee Stadium includes some of the giants of the baseball writers industry: Lieb, Daniel, Sid Mercer (an original BBWAA member in 1908), Frank Graham (Lou Gehrig's first biographer), John Drebinger (who covered 203 consecutive World Series games over 34 years), Dick Young (who covered New York baseball for the Daily News and New York Post for 44 years), Leonard Koppett (author of The Thinking Fan's Guide to Baseball), Jack Lang (BBWAA secretary-treasurer for 22 years), Maury Allen (author of over 30 sports books), Red Foley (senior scorer in New York for 15 years), and Bill Shannon (senior scorer in New York for nine seasons and author of Official Scoring in the Big Leagues).

2014 Hall of Fame Inductees

On December 9, 2013, the National Baseball Hall of Fame announced that former New York Yankees manager Joe Torre had been elected to the Baseball Hall of Fame based on voting results of the Expansion Era ballot. Torre piloted the Yankees to six World Series appearances (1996, '98-2001, '03), winning World Championships in his first four Fall Classics with the team.

Additionally, Bobby Cox, who spent his only two Major League playing seasons with the Yankees (1968-69) and was the club's first base coach in their 1977 World Championship season under manager Billy Martin, was also elected to the Hall of Fame via the same balloting process. Cox played in 220 career games with the club, batting .225 (141-for-628) with 50 runs, 22 doubles, two triples, nine home runs and 58 runs batted in.

Torre and Cox were unanimously elected by the 16 members of the Expansion Era Committee, which considered individuals whose most significant impact on Baseball occurred from 1973 to the present. Election required at least 75 percent of the vote.

Manager Joe Torre is carried off the field following the Yankees' series-clinching Game 5 win in the 2000 World Series. The victory marked the Yankees' fourth World Series championship in five years.

"On behalf of the Steinbrenner family and our entire organization, I'd like to congratulate Joe Torre on his induction today into the Hall of Fame," Managing General Partner Hal Steinbrenner said. "Joe led our team during one of the most successful runs in our storied history, and he did it with a quiet dignity that was true to the Yankee way. Joe's place in Yankees history has been secure for quite some time and it is appropriate that he now gets to take his place among the greats in Cooperstown."

There are now 50 Yankees enshrined in the Hall of Fame, including former players, managers, coaches, owners and general managers of the club. It marks the second consecutive year that at least one Yankee has been elected. On July 28, 2013, former Yankees owner Jacob Ruppert was inducted to the Hall after a vote of the Pre-Integration Committee last December.

Torre joins Miller Huggins (1918-29), Joe McCarthy (1931-46), Bucky Harris (1947-48), Casey Stengel (1949-60), Yogi Berra (1964, 1984-85) and Bob Lemon (1978-79, 81-82) as the seventh former Yankees Manager in the Hall of Fame.

Among all Cooperstown inductees, Torre and Cox are members of a group of 21 Hall of Famers whose "greatest contributions" have come as a manager. They are the first managers to be inducted since Whitey Herzog was enshrined in 2010.

Torre was named the 31st manager in club history on Nov. 2, 1995. In 12 seasons as manager of the Yankees from 1996-2007, he compiled a 1,173-767 (.605) regular season record and 76-47 (.618) postseason mark, leading the club to the playoffs every year. With the Yankees he went 21-11 in the World Series, 27-14 in the ALCS and 28-22 in the ALDS. His regular season wins total is second in club history to Joe McCarthy, who went 1,460-867 (.627) over 16 seasons.

The 1996 club snapped a 14-year stretch without appearing in a World Series (1982-95) and a 17-year stretch without winning one (1979-95). Torre became the fourth Yankees skipper to win the Fall Classic in his first year managing the club, joining Bucky Harris (1947), Casey Stengel (1949) and Ralph Houk (1961). Beginning with Game 3 of the 1996 World Series through Game 2 of the 2000 World Series, the Torre-led Yankees won an all-time record 14 consecutive games in the Fall Classic.

The 1998 club was one of the most dominant teams of all time, finishing the regular season 114-48 (.704) and winning the AL East by 22.0 games, marking the third-largest margin of any league or division winner in MLB history, behind only Cleveland in 1995 (+30.0) and Pittsburgh in 1902 (+27.5). Their regular season winning percentage trailed only the 1927 Murderers' Row team (.714) for the best in franchise history, and their 125-50 overall record including the postseason, marks the most single-season wins by any team all time.

Bobby Cox saw his only Major League action as a third baseman with the Yankees, playing in 220 games from 1968-69.

In 29 seasons as a Major League manager, Torre went 2,326-1,997 (.538). He also managed the New York Mets (1977-81; 286-420; .405), Atlanta Braves (1982-84; 257-229; .529), St. Louis Cardinals (1990-95; 351-354; .498) and Los Angeles Dodgers (2008-10; 259-227; .533). According to the Elias Sports Bureau, he ranks fifth all time in wins, trailing only Connie Mack (3,776-4,025), John McGraw (2,841-1,984), Tony La Russa (2,728-2,365) and Cox (2,504-2,001).

Torre also played 2,209 games over 18 Major League seasons as a catcher, first baseman and third baseman with the Milwaukee and Atlanta Braves (1960-68), St. Louis Cardinals (1969-74) and New York Mets (1975-77), batting .297 (2,342-for-7,874) with 996 runs, 344 doubles, 252 home runs and 1,185 runs batted in. He was a nine-time All-Star (1963-67, '70-73), one-time Gold Glove Award winner at catcher (1965) and captured the 1971 NL Most Valuable Player Award, leading the Majors with a .363 (230-for-634) batting average, 137 runs batted in and 352 total bases, while hitting 24 home runs.

Yankees in Cooperstown

Including 2014 inductees Joe Torre and Bobby Cox, there are 50 members of the Baseball Hall of Fame who have played, managed, coached, owned or been a general manager for the New York Yankees at one time or another. The Yankees' first inductee was Babe Ruth, who entered the Hall in its inaugural 1936 class along with Ty Cobb, Walter Johnson, Christy Mathewson and Honus Wagner. In the last 10 years (2005-14), seven Yankees have been inducted: Cox and Torre (2014), Jacob Ruppert (2013), Joe Gordon and Rickey Henderson (2009), Goose Gossage (2008) and Wade Boggs (2005).

In addition to the 50 individuals below, at least three Hall of Famers worked for the Yankees in other capacities, including Joe Kelley (HOF in 1971 / Yankees Scout from 1915-25), Dick Williams (HOF in 2008 / NYY adviser from 1995-2001) and Pat Gillick (HOF in 2011 / NYY scouting director from 1974-76).

Currently, the choice of which insignia appears on the cap of each Hall of Famer's plaque belongs to the Hall of Fame itself. The decision is based on the "historical accomplishments" of the player and "where that player makes his most indelible mark" (though the wishes of the inductee are always considered). It is important to remember that caps have not always had insignias and some players' images are cast as profiles without visible insignias.

Yankees Retired Uniform Numbers

The Yankees have 16 uniform numbers (honoring 17 Yankees players & managers) retired from use. The Yankees retired 15 of those numbers beginning with Lou Gehrig's No. 4 in 1940, and Major League Baseball retired No. 42 on April 15, 1997, in honor of the Dodgers' Jackie Robinson. While the number could never again be issued by an MLB team, players already assigned No. 42 could continue to wear it.

Mariano Rivera was grandfathered into that decision and was the last active player to use the number. During a pregame celebration for him on Sept. 22, 2013, the Yankees organization honored the closer by placing a Yankees-style "42" within the Yankees Retired Number Display in Monument Park. The Yankees also recognized Robinson by unveiling a new bronze plaque to replace the Dodgers-style "42" which had previously been on display.

1 Billy Martin (Number retired: August 10, 1986)

Height: 5-11 • Weight: 165 • B/T: R/R

Had as much "Yankee Pride" as any player or manager to wear pinstripes, and he implanted his own fierce desire to win in his teams. Played an integral part in four World Series in the 1950s as a player, and added another ring managing the Yankees in 1977. His .333 lifetime World Series batting average is sixth all time among players with at least 75 at-bats. Combative and daring, Martin was a brilliant baseball strategist and a legend in Yankees history.

3 Babe Ruth (Number retired: June 13, 1948)

Baseball's greatest slugger and the most colorful figure in the game's history. Debuted as a pitcher for the Boston Red Sox, winning 89 games over six seasons before being converted to the outfield because of his tremendous power. Was sold to the Yankees in 1920 and his 54 home runs that year were more than any other American League team. En route to 714 career home runs, won 12 home run titles, hitting 60 in 1927. Added 15 home runs in World Series competition as he led the Yankees to seven Series appearances and four World Championships. A member of the inaugural class of Hall of Fame inductees in 1936.

Durable, powerhitting first baseman who played in an amazing 2,130 consecutive games from 1925 to 1939. Drove in at least 100 runs for 13 straight seasons (1926-38) and established an American League record with 184 RBI in 1931. Compiled a .340 lifetime batting average and belted 493 home runs in a career shortened by terminal illness. Was honored at Yankee Stadium on July 4, 1939, making his memorable "Luckiest Man" speech. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1939. Announcement made on Jan. 6, 1940, by Yankees President Ed Barrow that No. 4 was being retired. Life was immortalized in classic 1942 film, The Pride of the Yankees, starring Gary Cooper.

The "Yankee Clipper" is considered by many experts as the best all-around baseball player in history. Was a sensational hitter for average and power, and a splendid, graceful, ball-hawking center fielder. Owned a powerful and accurate arm, and was a daring and alert baserunner. Compiled a .325 lifetime batting average from 1936 to 1951. A two-time batting champion and three-time MVP, he powered the Yankees to the first of four consecutive World Championships in his 1936 rookie season. Many rate his 56-consecutive-game batting streak in 1941 as the top baseball feat of all time. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1955.

7 Mickey Mantle (Number retired: June 8, 1969)

Height: 6-0 • Weight: 201 • B/T: S/R

"The Mick" was the most feared hitter on some of the most successful teams in history. Fast and powerful, his famous 565-foot home run in Washington in 1953 brought about the term "tape-measure home run." In the 14 seasons between 1951 and 1964, he led the Yanks to 12 Fall Classics and seven World Championships. He still owns records for most homers, RBI, runs and walks in World Series play. In 1956, Mantle had one of the greatest seasons ever at the plate, hitting 52 homers with 130 RBI and a .353 average to win the Triple Crown. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1974.

Height: 5-8 • Weight: 191 • B/T: L/R

Was mainstay behind the plate for some of the most dominating teams in history from the end of World War II until the early 1960s. Although he never led the league in a single major offensive category, he was just the third man to win three Most Valuable Player Awards. Was selected to play in the All-Star Game in 15 successive seasons (1948-62) and played on 14 pennant winners and 10 World Champions, more than anyone in history. Led the Yankees to the 1964 pennant as manager. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1972.

Height: 6-1 • Weight: 185 • B/T: L/R

Regarded as one of the greatest catchers of all time. A durable and tireless worker, he caught more than 100 games in 13 consecutive seasons (1929-41), an American League record. In 1931, he did not allow a single passed ball in 125 games behind the plate, another AL record. Dickey also excelled at the plate, batting over .300 in 10 of his first 11 full seasons, while hitting 202 homers during his career. He handled Yankees pitching staffs on eight World Series teams, winning seven championships.

Height: 6-0 • Weight: 197 • B/T: L/R

In one of the most dramatic assaults on a baseball record, Maris caught, then surpassed Babe Ruth's single-season record of 60 home runs on the final day of the 1961 season. Maris's 61 homers that season was a Major League record until 1998 and still remains the American League mark. A two-time American League MVP (1960-61), he is considered one of the best defensive right fielders in Yankees history.

10 Phil Rizzuto (Number retired: August 4, 1985)

Height: 5-6 • Weight: 150 • B/T: R/R

Playing 13 years for the Yankees, the "Scooter" went to nine World Series, winning seven. Diminutive yet tough, he was a skilled bunter and an enthusiastic baserunner with a solid .273 career batting average. In 1950, Rizzuto earned the AL MVP Award, batting .324 with 200 hits, 92 walks and 125 runs scored. One year later, he batted .320 in the 1951 World Series and was named Series MVP. He also spent 40 years as a Yankees broadcaster (1957-96) tossing around his signature phrase, "Holy cow!" and calling his partners "Huckleberry." He was elected to the Hall of Fame in 1994.

Was the undisputed leader and most respected man on Yankees teams that won three consecutive AL pennants (1976-78) and two World Championships. Munson was a tremendous defensive catcher, winning three straight Gold Glove Awards (1973-75) and the AL MVP in 1976. In each season from 1975-77, Thurman drove in more than 100 runs and hit better than .300. He also hit the first Yankees home run in remodeled Yankee Stadium. There is no more tragic date in Yankees history than August 2, 1979, when Munson passed away in a plane crash at age 32.

"The Chairman of the Board" was the ace pitcher on great Yankees teams of the 1950s and early '60s. The wily southpaw's lifetime record of 236-106 gives him the best winning percentage (.690) of any pitcher with 200-or-more decisions whose career began in the modern era (since 1900). He paced the American League in victories three times, and in ERA and shutouts twice. The 1961 Cy Young Award winner still holds many World Series records, including 10 wins, 33.0 consecutive scoreless innings and 94 strikeouts. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1974.

Height: 6-0 • Weight: 185 • B/T: L/L

"Donnie Baseball" was only the 10th captain named by the Yankees in their storied history. The premier first baseman of his era, Mattingly was a nine-time Gold Glove winner. The 1985 American League MVP set records for most grand slams in a season (6–since tied), most home runs in seven consecutive games (9) and most homers in eight consecutive games (10). A humble man of grace and dignity, Mattingly carried on the legacy of the pinstripe tradition and dedicated his career to the pursuit of excellence.

Became the first black player in Yankees history when he made the club in the spring of 1955. The versatile two-time Gold Glove catcher was an important member of AL pennant-winning Yankees teams in nine of his first 10 seasons with the club. The 1963 American League MVP, Howard was a clubhouse leader who was respected as both a player and a man. Howard's dignified manner off the field and competitive spirit on the field set a powerful example for his teammates.

Born: July 30, 1890 in Kansas City, Mo. • Died: Sept. 29, 1975 in Glendale, Calif.
Height: 5-11 • Weight: 175 • B/T: L/L

In a distinguished 54-year professional career, "The Old Perfessor" emerged as one of the game's greatest managers. His feat of guiding the Yankees to 10 pennants and seven world titles in a 12-year span ranks as one of the top managerial accomplishments of all time. Simply put, Casey Stengel was one of the best things to ever happen to the game of Baseball. He was an authentic baseball ambassador, making the game fun for millions of Americans. Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1966.

42 Mariano Rivera

Born: November 29, 1969 in Panama City, Panama.
Height: 6-2 • Weight: 195 • B/T: R/R

Considered by most as the greatest closer of all time, Rivera owns an MLB-best 652 career saves and a 2.21 career ERA, which is the second-lowest mark since ERA became an official statistic (1912 in the NL and 1913 in the AL, trailing only Eddie Cicotte's 2.20). The "Sandman" pitched 19 seasons with the Yankees, racking up an all-time best 15 seasons of at least 30 saves and totaling 1,115 career appearances to retire in fourth place on Baseball's all-time games pitched list. His postseason dominance was legendary, including MLB career bests with 42 saves (Brad Lidge is second with 18), a 0.70 ERA (min: 30.0IP) and 96 appearances. In 141.0 career postseason IP, he allowed just 86H, 11ER, 21BB and 2HR with 110K. He won five World Series with the Yankees (1996, '98-2000, '09) and appeared in two others (2001, '03).

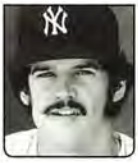
One of the game's premier power hitters, "Mr. October" blasted 563 career home runs. In Game 6 of the 1977 World Series, Jackson hit three home runs, all on the first pitch, as the Yankees beat the Dodgers to wrap up the club's first World Championship since 1962. Jackson was an exciting clutch player and an intimidating clean-up hitter with a .490 career slugging percentage. The 1973 American League MVP once said, "Some people call October a time of pressure. I call it a time of character." Elected to the Hall of Fame in 1993.



49 Ron Guidry (Number retired: August 23, 2003)

Height: 5-11 • Weight: 165 • B/T: L/L

Known as "Louisiana Lightning," Ron Guidry was a four-time American League All-Star and three-time 20-game winner. He compiled one of the most dominating seasons in Baseball history in 1978, going 25-3 with a 1.74 ERA in leading the Yankees to a dramatic comeback from 14.0 games behind the Boston Red Sox to capture their second straight World Championship. That season, he also compiled a club-record 248 strikeouts and nine shutouts en route to a unanimous selection as the American League's Cy Young Award winner. On June 17, 1978 at Yankee Stadium, Guidry struck out 18 California Angels, breaking the club's single-game record. With Willie Randolph, he served as Yankees co-captain from 1986 through his retirement in 1989. He remains in the Top 10 on the Yankees' all-time list in games pitched (368), innings pitched (2,392.0), wins (170), winning percentage (.651), strikeouts (1,778) and shutouts (26).

All-Time Roster

In the Yankees' 111 seasons since being established in New York in 1903, 1,548 players have appeared in at least one game.

World War I Service

Future Yankees who served in WWI included Carl Mays, Mike McNally, Herb Pennock, Urban Shocker, Ernie Shore and Casey Stengel. Former Yankees Les Nunamaker and Fritz Maisel also served in the "Great War."

Additional research shows that Tom Burr, a Chicago native who attended Choate Prep in Connecticut and Williams College, is the only Yankee to have been killed in military service. He was a defensive replacement for the Yankees in one game on April 21, 1914 vs. Washington in his only Major League appearance. He was killed in an air training accident on Oct. 12, 1918, in Cazaux, France at age 24.

All-Time Numerical Roster

In 1929, the New York Yankees and Cleveland Indians became the first teams to make numbers a permanent part of the uniform. Other teams quickly adopted the idea and, by 1932, uniform numbers became standard for all teams. The Yankees' initial distribution of numbers was made according to the player's spot in the batting order. Therefore, in 1929, leadoff hitter Earle Combs wore No. 1; Mark Koenig No. 2; Babe Ruth No. 3; Lou Gehrig No. 4; Bob Meusel No. 5; Tony Lazzeri No. 6; Leo Durocher No. 7; Johnny Grabowski No. 8; Benny Bengough No. 9; and Bill Dickey No. 10 (Grabowski, Bengough and Dickey shared catching duties). After some exhaustive research, the Yankees' Media Relations staff compiled the following list of Yankees uniform numbers.

The list represents uniform numbers worn by coaches (c), managers (m) and players who officially appeared in a regular season game. Yankees retired numbers are denoted in boldface text.

Yogi Berra (No. 8) congratulates Roger Maris on hitting his 61st home run on Oct. 1, 1961.

OPENING DAY HOME RUNS

The Yankees have hit 99 Opening Day home runs in franchise history by 60 different players, most recently in 2012 by Raul Ibanez. Babe Ruth hit a franchise-high five OD-HRs, and he is followed by Yogi Berra, Mickey Mantle and Jorge Posada, who each hit four. Derek Jeter (with 3OD-HRs) has the most of any active Yankee. In 2010 at Boston, Jorge Posada and Curtis Granderson hit back-to-back homers, marking the first Yankees to go back-to-back on Opening Day since Dave Winfield and Steve Kemp in 1983 at Seattle. Joe Pepitone (pictured above) was the last Yankee to homer twice on Opening Day.

Joe McCarthy [C] is the winningest manager in Yankees history, having compiled a 1,460-867 (.627) regular season record over 16 seasons. He won seven World Series (1932, '36-39, '41, '43) in eight appearances with the club and owns the best career winning percentage of any Yankees skipper who piloted the club for more than one season. In the photo above, he stands between sluggers Lou Gehrig [L] and Babe Ruth [R].

General Manger Bob Watson [R] celebrates with the 1996 World Series trophy after the Yankees defeated Atlanta in Game 6 at Yankee Stadium.

(1) Held title of Secretary and handled all business affairs.
(2) Served as Secretary through the end of 1914, however ceased control over all business matters after the arrival of Arthur Irwin on 12/6/1912.
(3) Held title of Business Manager.
(4) Held titles of Yankees Business Manager and Secretary until 1/17/1939 when he was named president, but performed GM duties throughout.
(5) Served as acting GM and frequently consulted Ralph Houk.
(6) Did not have title of general manager during points of his tenure but performed GM duties.
(8) Did not have title of general manager but together performed GM duties.
(9) Formally held title of "Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations" but performed the duties of a GM. Bob Quinn served as his assistant while maintaining the General Manager title he held previous to Thrift's arrival.

1923 World Series Champion Yankees

The first World Series-winning team in franchise history

Led by Manager Miller Huggins, the 1923 Yankees went 98-54 during the regular season before winning the first World Series in franchise history, 4-games-to-2 over the New York Giants. The season was a turning point for the Yankees in many ways, most notably because it marked the inaugural season of the original Yankee Stadium. The victory also established the Yankees as New York City's dominant team after losses to John McGraw's Giants in the prior two Fall Classics, 5-games-to-3 in 1921 and 4-games-to-0 (with one tie) in 1922.

1962 World Series MVP Ralph Terry is carried off the field following his complete-game, 1-0 win in Game 7 at Candlestick Park over the San Francisco Giants. During the Series he went 2-1 in three starts, allowing just 5ER in 25.0IP with two walks and 16 strikeouts. The title was the Yankees' second in a row and their 10th in a 16-year span dating to 1947. For Terry, his clutch Game 7 performance was a measure of redemption. Two years earlier he allowed Bill Mazeroski's Game 7, World Series-winning, "walk-off" home run, which gave Pittsburgh the 1960 championship even though they had been outscored by the Yankees 55-27 over the course of the seven-game Series.

Going Glass

On July 2, 2009, Seattle's Russell Branyan hit a two-run home run off Alfredo Aceves in an 8-4 Seattle victory, becoming the first and only player to hit a home run off the glass-facing of the Mohegan Sun Sports Bar, which also serves as the centerfield batter's eye. Branyan is also one of two players to hit a ball into the upper deck (300 Level) of the current Yankee Stadium, accomplishing the feat on Aug. 21, 2010, off Javier Vazquez. Brandon Allen of the A's became the second hitter to reach the 300 Level on Aug. 23, 2011 off Bartolo Colon.

Cody Ransom is the only player in franchise history to hit a HR in each of his first two plate appearances as a Yankee.

Grand Slams

Recent grand slam notes: The Yankees hit four grand slams in 2013 (Overbay, RODRIGUEZ, SORIANO, TEIXEIRA) after hitting exactly 10 grand slams in the three prior seasons from 2010-12…the 10GS in each year of that stretch tied the all-time single-season franchise high (also 1987)…the Yankees' 34GS over the last four seasons leads the Majors and is 12 more than the next-closest team (Boston-22)…Yankees pitchers allowed 6GS in 2013 (Logan-2, Hughes-2, SABATHIA, CLAIBORNE), tying Houston for most in the Majors and marking the most surrendered by the club since 2008 (7GS).

Hawkins allowed all four unearned runs in the bottom of the eighth inning. The White Sox' Sammy Sosa reached first base on a two-out fielding error by 3B Mike Blowers, then stole second. Hawkins then walked Ozzie Guillen and Lance Johnson, loading the bases. The next batter, Robin Ventura, hit a fly ball that LF Jim Leyritz dropped for an error, allowing all three runners to score and Ventura to reach second. RF Jesse Barfield then dropped a fly ball hit by Ivan Calderon, allowing Ventura to score and Calderon to reach second. Hawkins got out of the inning by getting Dan Pasqua to pop out to short. The total for the bottom of the eighth was four unearned runs on two walks and three errors. Also of note in this game, White Sox starter Greg Hibbard began the game perfect through his first 16 batters.

Over the first 9.0 innings of the game, Hughes allowed just one baserunner to reach (on a throwing error by 3B Jimmy Austin in the seventh). The no-hitter was broken up by a single by Harry Niles with one out in the 10th. Nap Lajoie also singled in the 10th, but Hughes did not allow any runs. However with two out the 11th, Hughes allowed five runs on five hits and a walk to take the loss. Cleveland's George Kahler allowed just 3H and 2BB in tossing a complete-game shutout.

Don Larsen - Oct. 8, 1956

With the 1956 World Series knotted at two games apiece, Don Larsen authored what many consider the greatest game ever pitched, a 2-0 perfect game over the Brooklyn Dodgers in front of 64,519 at Yankee Stadium.

Amazingly, Larsen didn't even know he was going to be pitching that day until he got to the Stadium. As was the Yankees' tradition at the time, he arrived in the clubhouse to find a brand new baseball placed in one of his shoes by coach Frank Crosetti, which was manager Casey Stengel's way of letting a pitcher know he was being tabbed to start.

Larsen's date with history came on the heels of a disastrous start in Game 2 in which he was pulled with a 6-1 lead with two out in the second inning. He faced just 10 batters in the outing, allowing four unearned runs on four walks and a single in a game that the Yankees ultimately lost, 13-8.

After realizing he was getting the Game 5 start, Larsen went into the training room and took a nap, only to be awakened less than an hour before the first pitch.

According to the 6-foot-4-inch righthander, he had the best control of his career on that October day, reaching three balls once in the entire game with a full count on Pee Wee Reese in the first inning.

The perfect game was preserved by three notable fielding plays. In the second inning, Jackie Robinson was retired on a groundout that ricocheted off 3B Andy Carey's glove to SS Gil McDougald, who threw out the speedy infielder at first. Additionally, Brooklyn's Gil Hodges was robbed twice, first on a fly to deep left center that was tracked down by CF Mickey Mantle and again in the eighth by Carey on a low liner.

Brooklyn starter Sal Maglie held the first 11 Yankees batters off the bases until Mantle's fourth-inning solo homer into the right-field stands. The balance of the scoring came on Hank Bauer's sixth-inning RBI single which brought in Carey, who had been advanced to second on a sac bunt by Larsen.

In the ninth, Larsen set down Carl Furillo on a fly to right before getting Roy Campanella on a grounder to 2B Billy Martin. As his last gasp, Dodgers manager Walter Alston sent pinch-hitter Dale Mitchell to bat but he was famously called out on strikes by National League umpire Babe Pinelli, who was calling his final game behind the plate after a distinguished career.

The momentum from the win did not carry over to Game 6 at Ebbets Field as Yankees starter Bob Turley lost a 10-inning duel with Brooklyn's Clem Labine, 1-0. Game 7, however, was a romp as sophomore pitcher Johnny Kucks tossed the game of his life, shutting out the Dodgers, 9-0, on three hits and three walks to give the Yankees' their 17th World Championship and avenge their seven-game Series loss to Brooklyn in 1955.

Larsen's performance was the sixth perfect game all time, fourth in the modern era and first since the White Sox's Charlie Robertson blanked Detroit, 2-0, on April 30, 1922, at Navin Field. It remains the only perfect game in postseason history.

Larsen played with seven franchises over his 14-year Major League career, finishing with an 81-91 record. He tallied a 45-24 mark in five seasons with the Yankees before being part of the Dec. 11, 1959, trade that brought Roger Maris to New York from the Kansas City Athletics.

The 1998 season was full of highlights for the Yankees, a team that went 114-48 on the way to a World Series title. But one of the season's signature moments came on "Beanie Baby Day" in front of 49,820 fans at Yankee Stadium when David Wells pitched the second perfect game in franchise history, matching the feat of Don Larsen, who, like Wells, attended Point Loma H.S. in San Diego.

By the time the game rolled around to the seventh, Wells and his teammates were well aware of what was taking place. The only player willing to talk to him was pitcher David Cone, who tried to ease the tension by saying, "I think it's time…to break out the knuckleball."

The 34-year-old lefthander struck out nine of his first 17 hitters and 11 over the game, including Twins C Javier Valentin three times. He reached three balls on just four batters.

The Yankees gave Wells an early lead, scoring runs on a wild pitch in the second and a Bernie Williams solo-HR in the fourth. They tacked on two more in the seventh on an RBI triple by Darryl Strawberry and an RBI single from Chad Curtis.

Fans arrived at Yankee Stadium on July 18, 1999, to celebrate Yogi Berra Day, but they left saluting David Cone. The righthander needed just 88 pitches to throw the third perfect game in Yankees history in front of 41,930 fans and a host of legendary Yankees, including Don Larsen, who threw out the game's ceremonial first pitch.

On a day in which the temperature hovered in the 90s, the Yankees gave Cone a 5-0 second-inning lead via a pair of two-run homers from Ricky Ledee and Derek Jeter sandwiched around an RBI-double by Joe Girardi.

Cone's masterpiece, just one season removed from David Wells' perfect game at Yankee Stadium, was a picture of economy. Of the last 20 regular season and postseason perfect games thrown since 1922, Cone required the fewest pitches. It also gave the Yankees a record three perfect games in their history, a mark since tied by the White Sox (Charlie Robertson, Mark Buehrle and Philip Humber). It was the third perfect game at the original Yankee Stadium—the most for any single venue.

Over the course of the game, Cone got 13 outs in the air, four on the ground and 10 via strikeout. The closest he came to allowing a baserunner was with one out in the eighth, when second baseman Chuck Knoblauch made a nice play ranging far to his right before throwing out Jose Vidro at first. The final out was a foul pop to third off the bat of Orlando Cabrera, which was snagged by the sure-handed Scott Brosius. Cone's gem remains the only perfect game in the history of regular season Interleague Play.

One-Hit Games

The most-recent Yankee to have a one-hit complete game was Ted Lilly on 4/27/02 in a 1-0 defeat at Seattle, becoming the first Yankee in franchise history to lose a one-hit CG in the regular season (allowed a walk, WP and RBI-single in 7th).

The Yankees' last one-hit complete-game win was by Mike Mussina on 9/2/01 at Boston in a 1-0 Yankees victory…he retired 26 consecutive batters before Carl Everett singled with two outs in the ninth to break up a perfect game…it was the first complete-game one-hit victory by a Yankee since Jimmy Key on 4/27/93 at California.

The Yankees have had two postseason one-hit complete games…Roger Clemens still holds the all-time record for fewest hits allowed in an AL or NL Championship Series complete game with his one-hit, 15K performance in the Yankees' 5-0 ALCS Game 4 win at Seattle on 10/14/00…Bill Bevens famously lost his one-hit CG in Game 4 of the 1947 World Series vs. Brooklyn…he was one out from a no-hitter when pinch-hitter Cookie Lavagetto doubled in two runs to give the Dodgers a 3-2 victory…Bevens walked 10 batters and had one wild pitch on the day…the World Series marked the last games Bevens and Lavagetto ever played in the Majors.

Yankees with multiple complete-game one-hitters are Whitey Ford (3), Bob Turley (3), Lefty Gomez (2), Rip Collins (2) and Vic Raschi (2), while Bill Bevens (see above paragraph) also threw a one-hit CG in the regular season.

Bob Turley tossed three complete game one-hitters as a Yankee, tying Whitey Ford for the most in franchise history.

One-hitters by opponents against the Yankees: The Yankees were last held to 1H on 6/30/07 at Yankee Stadium by Oakland's Chad Gaudin and Rich Harden… the last starter to throw a one-hitter against the Yankees was Mike Maroth on 7/16/04 at Detroit…Joe Wood, Earl Hamilton and Nolan Ryan are the only pitchers with a pair of one-hitters against the Yankees, with both of Hamilton's coming in 1913… Hoyt Wilhelm, who no-hit the Yankees in 1958, also tossed a one-hitter against them in 1959.

(1) Research has been unable to determine if the club had a trainer in 1903.
(2) Burke suffered health problems during the season and was replaced by McCormick.
(3) Alternately spelled "Mulcahy." Was released from duties midseason. Exact date unknown.
(4) Was also a trainer at Williams College and reportedly worked with the team during the summers of 1910 and 1911.
(5) Handled spring training operations in 1947.

Gene Monahan (R) tends to Bernie Williams in the Yankees training room at the original Yankee Stadium. "Geno" is the longest-serving head trainer in club history, having manned the post for 29 years from 1973-2011.

Yankees assistant trainers have included: Gus Mauch (1946), Joe Soares (1960-61), Don Seger (1962-68), Herman Schneider (1977-78), Barry Weinberg (1979-81), Mark Letendre (1982-85), Steve Donohue (1986-2011) and Mark Littlefield (2012-present).

Forfeited Games

Since establishing themselves in New York in 1903, the Yankees have played in four forfeited games (described below), winning them all. Player statistics from forfeited games count in the historical record, however the final score of each game is officially recorded as 9-0.

Interestingly, one of the most important forfeited games in baseball history took place before the franchise relocated to New York, when it played in Baltimore and was known as the Orioles from 1901-02. Prior to the Orioles' game vs. St. Louis on July 17, 1902, New York Giants owner, Andrew Freedman, and Cincinnati Reds owner, John T. Brush, gained a controlling interest in the team with the help of former Baltimore manager John McGraw. The two owners then sent almost all of the Orioles players to the Giants and Reds, leaving Baltimore unable to field a team. Though the Orioles were forced to forfeit that day, the American League soon stepped in by providing players from other teams so that Baltimore could finish the season. The next year, the franchise was reestablished in New York.

In their short time in Baltimore, the Orioles also participated in three other forfeits, all of which were losses (May 31, 1901 at Detroit, August 21, 1901 vs. Detroit and June 28,1902 vs. Boston).

July 2, 1906 at Philadelphia (Game 2): With two outs in the bottom of the ninth inning and the Highlanders leading, 5-1, Columbia Park spectators started swarming the field. According to The New York Times, "the three or four policemen on hand to handle the crowd of 11,000 spectators were powerless." After waiting 15 minutes, umpire Timothy C. Hurst forfeited the game to the Highlanders.

September 3, 1906 vs. Philadelphia (Game 2): With two outs in the bottom of the ninth and the Highlanders trailing, 3-1, with runners on second (Willie Keeler) and third (Wid Conroy), Jimmy Williams hit a grounder to A's shortstop Monte Cross. Keeler ran into Cross just as he was about to handle the ball, allowing the ball to roll into outfield and Conroy and Keeler to score, tying the game. After a heated argument from A's first baseman and captain Harry Davis, umpire Frank O'Loughlin awarded the game to New York.

June 13, 1924 at Detroit: At the start of the ninth inning at Navin Field with the Yankees leading, 10-6, Tigers pitcher Bert Cole threw a pitch that narrowly missed hitting Babe Ruth in the head. Cole immediately hit the next batter, Bob Meusel, with a pitch in the ribs. Meusel's protest incited a riot, leading to both benches becoming involved and the storming of the field by incensed fans. Umpire William G. Evans was forced to forfeit the game to the Yankees when the field could not be cleared. Ultimately, Meusel was fined $100 and suspended 10 days, Cole was fined $50 and suspended 10 days, and Ruth received a $50 fine but no suspension. AL President Ban Johnson said of the fights that day, "They must be staged in a vacant lot, far removed from the ball parks."

September 30, 1971 at Washington: At Robert F. Kennedy Stadium, unruly fans cascaded onto the field with two outs in the top of the ninth inning and the Senators winning, 7-5, in the last game before the Senators' relocation to Texas for the 1972 season. After three minutes of on-field chaos, including the bases literally being stolen, the umpires awarded the Yankees the victory.

1921 American League Champion Yankees
The first pennant-winning team in franchise history

The Yankees won their first American League pennant in 1921, finishing 98-55, 4.5 games ahead of Cleveland. The club was led by Babe Ruth, who batted .378 (204-for-540) with 59HR and a career-high 171RBI. Carl Mays (27-5), Waite Hoyt (19-13) and Bob Shawkey (18-12) fronted a pitching staff that allowed the fewest earned runs in the American League (579). In the World Series, the last of Baseball's three-year experiment with a nine-game format, the Yankees were defeated 5-games-to-3 by the Giants, with whom they shared the Polo Grounds. Hoyt, who lost Game 8, 1-0, on an unearned run in the first inning, went 2-1 (27.0IP) in three complete games. Injuries suffered by Ruth in Game 2 (cut arm while sliding, which later became infected) and Game 5 (wrenched knee) limited him to just one pinch-hitting plate appearance in the final three games of the Series.

First Home Runs in Franchise History
Courtesy of the Elias Sports Bureau

The first home run in franchise history was hit by John Ganzel on May 11, 1903. It was a fifth-inning, inside-the-park, solo homer at the Detroit Tigers' Bennett Park off George Mullin in an 8-2 Highlanders victory.

The first home run hit at home in franchise history was by Ernie Courtney on June 1, 1903, at Hilltop Park off Boston's Tom Hughes. The two-run, one-out homer in the bottom of the ninth accounted for the Highlanders' only runs in an 8-2 loss.

All-Star Selections and Starts by Player

The Yankees have had 408 all-time All-Star selections (50 pitchers with 125 selections; and 69 position players with 283 selections). Additionally, the AL team has been skippered by a Yankees manager on 32 occasions.

According to Major League Baseball, on three occasions Yankees elected to start the game were ultimately replaced in the starting lineup (OF Reggie Jackson by Fred Lynn in 1978, SS Derek Jeter by Asdrubal Cabrera in 2011, and 3B Alex Rodriguez by Adrian Beltre in 2011). Conversely, there have been five Yankees who have started the game after replacing the originally elected starters (Bobby Murcer replacing Tony Oliva in the OF in 1971, Thurman Munson replacing Carlton Fisk at C in 1974, Willie Randolph replacing Paul Molitor at 2B in 1980, Graig Nettles replacing George Brett at 3B in 1980, and Derek Jeter replacing Alex Rodriguez at SS in 2000).

Please note that two All-Star Games were played in each year from 1959-62. Game participated in are noted below with a "G1" and/or a "G2".

Formal balloting was not conducted by Major League Baseball in 1945, when the All-Star game was canceled due to WWII travel restrictions. The AP polled 13 of 16 AL managers who unofficially voted RHP Hank Borowy, 1B Nick Etten, 2B Snuffy Stirnweiss and 3B Oscar Grimes as All-Stars, with the former three as starters. However, the 1945 voting was unofficial and is not included in the totals below.

Yankees All-Time All-Star Batting Statistics

Data below includes all Yankees position players who have been selected for an All-Star Game along with the batting records of all pitchers who have made at least one plate appearance in the game. 3B Billy Johnson (1947) and OF Irv Noren (1954) made their only Yankees All-Star Game appearances as defensive replacements without ever receiving a PA. Additionally, there have been five Yankees position players named to an All-Star team who never entered the game at all in their only ASG as a Yankee (2B Tony Lazzeri-1933; C Buddy Rosar-1942 OF Johnny Lindell-1943; C Aaron Robinson-1947 and C Russell Martin-2011).

All-Star MVP

(Award given since 1962)

Derek Jeter and Mariano Rivera are the only Yankees to be named All-Star MVP. Jeter took home the honor at the 2000 All-Star Game at Turner Field in Atlanta with a 3-for-3 performance with 1R, 1 double and 2RBI. He doubled in the first inning off Randy Johnson, singled and scored in the third off Kevin Brown and had a two-run single in the fourth off Al Leiter in the American League's 6-3 win. Rivera received the honor at the 2013 Midsummer Classic at Citi Field, tossing a scoreless eighth inning (Jean Segura groundout to 2B, Allen Craig lineout to LF, Carlos Gomez groundout to SS) in the AL's 3-0 win.

All-Star Games at Yankee Stadium

The Yankees have hosted four All-Star Games, including the 2008 Midsummer Classic in Yankee Stadium's final season. The Stadium also hosted the All-Star Game in 1977 (48th), 1960 (29th) and 1939 (seventh). Only Cleveland's old Municipal Stadium hosted as many All-Star Games as Yankee Stadium. Overall, New York City has hosted eight MLB All-Star Games, the highest total in Major League history, with the Polo Grounds (1934 and 1942), Ebbets Field (1949) and Shea Stadium (1964) also serving as host sites. The 2008 game marked the first time the Midsummer Classic was held in the host team's final season at its ballpark.

Seventh All-Star Game

July 11, 1939, Yankee Stadium

Yankee Stadium was chosen to host the 1939 All-Star Game due to the World's Fair which was being held at Flushing-Meadows in Queens during the 1939 season. The Cubs' Gabby Hartnett managed the National League squad while Yankees skipper Joe McCarthy led the American League team, which featured 10 Yankees All-Stars, six of whom were starters. Yankees centerfielder Joe DiMaggio was 1-for-4 in the game, hitting a solo home run. Lou Gehrig, who announced his retirement in May of 1939, was an honorary member of the AL squad.

29th All-Star Game

National League 6, American League 0
July 13, 1960 (Game #2), Yankee Stadium

Yankee Stadium was the host site for baseball's second All-Star Game in three days in 1960. The National League completed the All-Star sweep with a 6-0 win, having won Game 1 on July 11 in Kansas City, marking the only year that both All-Star games were won by the same team. Yankees hurler Whitey Ford was the starting pitcher for the AL squad, while fellow Yankees Yogi Berra (catcher), Mickey Mantle (left field), Roger Maris (center field) and Bill Skowron (first base) all appeared in the starting lineup. The National League used six different pitchers to combine on the shutout effort and hit an All-Star record-tying four home runs, including one by Willie Mays. The 38,000 fans who attended the game witnessed Ted Williams in his final All-Star appearance.

48th All-Star Game

July 19, 1977, Yankee Stadium

79th All-Star Game

July 15, 2008, Yankee Stadium

In the final Midsummer Classic at the original Yankee Stadium, the American League emerged with a 4-3 win in 15 innings as Texas' Michael Young brought home Minnesota's Justin Morneau with a "walk-off" sacrifice fly. The 4-hour, 50-minute contest was the longest All-Star Game time-wise and tied for the longest ASG in innings (also 1967 at Anaheim, 2-1 NL win). It was the AL's 12th straight All-Star Game victory and ensured American League home-field advantage in the World Series. SS Derek Jeter started and recorded the game's first hit in the first inning. RHP Mariano Rivera pitched 1.2 scoreless innings. Yankees Manager Joe Girardi joined the AL coaching staff as did Yankees Head Athletic Trainer Gene Monahan, who made his fourth All-Star Game appearance (also 1977, '86 and '92). Pregame ceremonies included 49 Hall of Famers, marking one of the largest gatherings of living baseball HOFers ever. The festivities were highlighted by Yankees Principal Owner/Chairperson George Steinbrenner, who delivered baseballs to the ceremonial first pitch participants (Reggie Jackson, Whitey Ford, Yogi Berra and Goose Gossage).

Seattle Mariners (AL)	2

2000 WORLD SERIES

Marked the first "Subway Series" since the Yankees-Dodgers matchup in 1956…the Yankees were victorious in Games 1 and 5 in their last at-bat, winning on a 12th-inning single from Jose Vizcaino and a ninth-inning Luis Sojo single, respectively…Derek Jeter was named Series MVP, batting .409 (9-for-22) with 6R and 2 solo HR, including one on the first pitch of Game 4.

New York Mets (NL)	1

2001 DIVISION SERIES

The postseason began less than a month after the attacks of 9/11…after losing Games 1 and 2, the Yankees won three straight…were held to just two hits in Game 3 at Oakland but won, 1-0, behind Mike Mussina (7.0IP), Mariano Rivera (2.0IP) and Jorge Posada's fifth-inning solo home run…the game also featured Derek Jeter's famous "Flip Play," which nailed Jeremy Giambi at the plate in the seventh.

New York Yankees (AL)	3
Oakland Athletics (AL)	2

2001 CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The Yankees defeated a Seattle club that won an AL-record 116 games during the regular season…Andy Pettitte was named Series MVP, going 2-0 with a 2.51 ERA…Game 4 ended on Alfonso Soriano's two-run walk-off homer in the ninth…Bernie Williams homered in three consecutive games (Games 3-5).

New York Yankees (AL)	4

2001 WORLD SERIES

All games were won by the home team in one of the most thrilling World Series of all time…President George W. Bush threw out the ceremonial first pitch prior Game 3 at Yankee Stadium…the Yankees came back from two-run deficits with two outs in the ninth vs. Arizona's Byung-Hyun Kim in both Games 4 and 5…Tino Martinez tied Game 4 with a two-run home run and Derek Jeter earned the nickname, "Mr. November," with a solo HR to win it in the 10th…Scott Brosius hit a two-run homer to tie Game 5 before Alfonso Soriano won the game with an RBI-single in the 12th…despite taking a 2-1 lead on a Soriano solo homer in the eighth inning of Game 7, the Yankees lost the Series after Mariano Rivera allowed two runs in the ninth with the winning run scoring on a bloop single by Luis Gonzalez.

New York Yankees (AL)	3
Arizona Diamondbacks (NL)	4

Tino Martinez sets the stage for an improbable Yankees comeback with a game-tying, two-out, two-run, ninth-inning home run in Game 4 of the 2001 World Series.

2002 DIVISION SERIES

The Yankees had their Division Series winning streak snapped at four, losing their first DS since 1997 vs. Cleveland…Derek Jeter batted .500 (8-for-16) with 2HR and 3RBI.

Anaheim Angels (AL)	3
New York Yankees (AL)	1

2003 DIVISION SERIES

Minnesota Twins (AL)	1

2003 CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

Defined by the final game, the Series was won on Aaron Boone's first pitch leadoff home run off Tim Wakefield in the bottom of the 11th inning of Game 7…in the contest, the Yankees came back from a 5-2 deficit heading into the bottom of the eighth…Mike Mussina made his first-ever relief appearance, getting a strikeout and double play with two on and no outs in the fourth to keep the Yankees in the game…tossed 3.0 scoreless IP on two days' rest…Jason Giambi hit solo homers in the fifth and seventh…the Yankees scored three runs in the eighth off Pedro Martinez to tie the game, 5-5…Mariano Rivera tossed 3.0 scoreless innings, pitching the ninth, 10th and 11th, to earn the win.

Boston Red Sox (AL)	3
New York Yankees (AL)	4

2003 WORLD SERIES

The Yankees outscored Florida, 21-17, in defeat…Andy Pettitte allowed just 3R (1ER) in 15.2IP over two starts, including a win in Game 2 and a loss in the decisive Game 6…Bernie Williams batted .400 (10-for-25) with 5R, 2HR and 5RBI.

Florida Marlins (NL)	4

2004 DIVISION SERIES

The Yankees defeated Minnesota in the ALDS for the second straight season…won Game 2 scoring twice in the 12th inning and Game 4 with one run in the 11th…Alex Rodriguez batted .421 (8-for-19) with 1HR and 3RBI.

Minnesota Twins (AL)	1

2004 CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The Yankees lost their first-ever postseason series after being up 3-games-to-0…scored 19 runs in their Game 3 win, marking the most ever by one team in an ALCS game…Hideki Matsui batted .412 (14-for-34) with 6 doubles, 1 triple, 2HR and 10RBI in the series, establishing the all-time mark for extra-base hits in a postseason series and ALCS marks for hits (since tied by Boston's Kevin Youkilis in 2007), total bases and doubles.

Boston Red Sox (AL)	4

2005 DIVISION SERIES

Mariano Rivera saved both of the Yankees' victories…Derek Jeter tied for the team lead in both RBI (5) and runs scored (4).

New York Yankees (AL)	2
Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim (AL)	3

2006 DIVISION SERIES

Chien-Ming Wang recorded his first career postseason win in Game 1…Derek Jeter (8-for-16) and Jorge Posada (7-for-14) combined for 15 of the team's 33 overall hits.

Detroit Tigers (AL)	3

2007 DIVISION SERIES

The Yankees were outhit, .315 to .228, in the series…the Yankees' 2-1, 11-inning loss in Game 2 featured the unusual postseason debut of Joba Chamberlain, who allowed the go-ahead run in the eighth on 2BB, 2WP and 1HP while "midges" descended on the pitcher's mound.

New York Yankees (AL)	1
Cleveland Indians (AL)	3

2009 DIVISION SERIES

The Yankees recorded their third all-time ALDS sweep (also 1998-99 vs. Texas) and fourth "best-of-five" series sweep (also 1981 ALCS vs. Oakland)…came back from deficits in all three games…out-homered the Twins, 6-0…Yankees starters allowed just 3ER and three extra-base hits in 19.0IP with a 1.42 ERA…Alex Rodriguez batted a team-high .455 (5-for-11) with 2HR and 6RBI.

Minnesota Twins (AL)	0

2009 CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The Yankees won their 40th AL pennant…hit 8HR and drew 38BB over the six games, while holding the Majors' second-highest scoring team to an average of 3.2R/G…won Game 2 in 13 innings on a throwing error by Maicer Izturis…CC Sabathia earned ALCS MVP honors, going 2-0 with a 1.13 ERA (16.0IP, 2ER) in two starts…Alex Rodriguez batted a team-high .429 (9-for-21) with 6R, 3HR, 6RBI and 8BB.

Los Angeles Angels (AL)	2

2009 WORLD SERIES

The Yankees won their 27th World Championship and first since 2000…Hideki Matsui (.615 avg., 3HR, 8RBI) was the unanimous World Series MVP, marking the first time a Japanese player earned the honor…had 6RBI (single, double, HR) in the Game 6 clincher, tying Bobby Richardson's single-game World Series record (1960 Game 3)…Andy Pettitte became the third-oldest pitcher to win a World Series clinching game (behind Burleigh Grimes-1931 and Eddie Plank-1913) and the first pitcher in baseball history to start and win all three clinching games of a single postseason (DS, CS, WS).

Philadelphia Phillies (NL)	2
New York Yankees (AL)	4

The Yankees are presented the 2009 World Series trophy following their 4-games-to-2 victory over Philadelphia.

2010 DIVISION SERIES

The Yankees swept Minnesota for the second straight year in the ALDS…marked their first ALDS series win after qualifying for the postseason as a Wild Card…outscored the Twins 17-7 in the series…10 different Yankees drove in at least one run…Yankees relievers combined to allow just 1ER in 7.0IP…Phil Hughes won Game 3 with 7.0 shutout IP (4H, 1BB) in his first career postseason start.

Minnesota Twins (AL)	0

2010 CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The Yankees lost a postseason series to Texas for the first time after wins in the ALDS in 1996, '98 and '99...were outscored 38-19 in the series and outhit 63-38...their 8-0 loss in Game 3 marked the worst postseason shutout loss in franchise history...Robinson Cano batted .348 (8-for-23) with 4HR and 5RBI...Curtis Granderson reached base safely in 13 of his 25PA (.520).

New York Yankees (AL)	2
Texas Rangers (AL)	4

2011 DIVISION SERIES

The Yankees dropped to 10-7 all time in Division Series, losing an ALDS for the first time since 2007...Robinson Cano set a Yankees ALDS record with 9RBI...marked the most RBI by a Yankee in a postseason series of five-or-fewer games since Graig Nettles had 9RBI in the 1981 ALCS vs. Oakland...also had four extra-base hits (2 doubles, 2HR)...Jorge Posada posted a .579 OBP with 5 singles, 1 triple, 4BB and 1HP in 19PA...Brett Gardner batted .412 (7-for-17) with 5RBI.

Detroit Tigers (AL)	3

2012 DIVISION SERIES

The Yankees improved to 12-11 all time in winner-take-all postseason games, snapping a three-game losing streak in such contests with their 3-1 win in Game 5...Yankees starters went 2-1 with a 2.04 ERA (39.2IP, 9ER) over the five games and Yankees relievers allowed just 1ER in 11.1IP (0.79 ERA)...did not have a multi-run inning over the last four games...In Game 3 at Yankee Stadium, Raul Ibanez became the first player in MLB history to hit 2HR in a game he didn't start, tying the game with a solo HR in the ninth and winning it with a solo HR in the 12th...CC Sabathia tossed a complete game in Game 5 (4H, 1R, 2BB, 9K).

Baltimore Orioles (AL)	2

2012 CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES

The Yankees were swept by Detroit, falling to 0-3 all time in postseason series vs. the Tigers...did not lead at any point, marking just the second such postseason series in franchise history (also 1963 WS vs. Los Angeles)...Yankees batters hit just .157 (22-for-140) and scored six runs over the four games...lost Derek Jeter to injury for the series (fractured ankle) while fielding a grounder in the 12th inn. of Game 1 loss...Ichiro Suzuki collected four hits in Game 1, marking the most by a Yankee in the postseason since Derek Jeter had 5H in 2006 ALDS Game 1 vs. Detroit.

Yankee STADIUM

The New York Yankees began a new chapter in their storied history with the opening of Yankee Stadium in 2009. Located directly across the street from the site of the original, the new Stadium's architecture is a celebration of the spirit and tradition of the franchise. While firmly rooted in the past, the Stadium has a vision toward the future, incorporating the best in technology and state-of-the-art guest services.

All of the Stadium's modern amenities exist within the framework of classic elements of the original, most notably the instantly recognizable frieze that again circles the grandstand. Among the countless fan-friendly elements, massive video boards give Yankees fans more information than ever before, and concessions have been placed on concourses that allow for continuous viewing of the game.

HOMAGE TO THE ORIGINAL

The signature frieze once again outlines the top of the Stadium bowl. As in the past, it is attached to a roof that extends into the Stadium, covering the top rows of the Grandstand.

Monument Park has been relocated to its original position in center field, albeit behind the fence, unlike before the renovation when the monuments were on the playing field. All plaques, monuments and tribute displays for the 17 Yankees who have had their numbers retired are on display for fans, who may visit Monument Park prior to all home games.

On the Main Level, near Gate 6, the New York Yankees Museum presented by Bank of America—a museum within a museum—tells the story of baseball and the Yankees franchise through various displays of artifacts and memorabilia. Items include a "Ball Wall" with hundreds of signed baseballs from Yankees greats, Thurman Munson's locker from the original Yankee Stadium and a replica of a locker from the Yankees clubhouse in the current Stadium. On game days, fans are welcome in the museum from the time the gates open until the end of the eighth inning. On non-game days, visitors can enjoy the museum as part of Yankee Stadium tours.

Gate 4 at Yankee Stadium

Babe Ruth Plaza, located on the south side of the Stadium in between Gates 4 and 6, honors the man proverbially credited with building the original House that Ruth Built. Through a series of storyboards displayed on light posts, the Babe's life story is recounted throughout the plaza.

THE STADIUM SITE

The Yankees are proud to play in the Bronx, which is home to approximately 1.4 million residents and is one of the five boroughs that make up New York City.

The Stadium sits on former parkland from Macombs Dam Park and Mullaly Park, with the Stadium grounds bounded by Jerome Avenue to the west, River Avenue to the east, and 161st Street to the south. The northern edge of the site is located between 162nd Street and 164th Street. In a nod to tradition, the footprint of the original Stadium has been replicated in the new Stadium.

Yankee Stadium is the fourth permanent home of the New York Yankees, following Hilltop Park (1903-12), the Polo Grounds (1913-22), and the original Yankee Stadium (1923-73, '76-2008). The Yankees also played two full seasons at Shea Stadium (1974-75) in Queens when the original Stadium underwent remodeling.

INNOVATIVE ARCHITECTURE AND MODERN AMENITIES

One of the goals in building Yankee Stadium was to bring fans closer to the action in a facility more attuned to modern needs and expectations. The new building is 63 percent larger than the original Stadium with about 500,000 square feet of additional space.

Improved sight lines, wider concourses and the installation of nearly 1,400 high-definition video monitors throughout the Stadium all ensure guests won't miss a minute of on-field action while in their seats or at concession stands. In addition to the live game broadcast, these centrally controlled Internet protocol monitors can also provide up-to-the-moment news, scores, weather, traffic information and safety updates.

The Great Hall is a 31,000-square-foot space located between the Stadium's exterior wall and the interior of the Stadium. Spanning from Gate 4 to Gate 6, it is covered overhead but has massive open-air archways, which help support the Yankees' "green initiative." It is home to large banners bearing the images of past Yankees greats from Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig to more modern stars such as Don Mattingly and Paul O'Neill. A 24-foot-high-by-36-foot-wide 10mm true high-definition video board and a 5-foot-by-383-foot LED ribbon board immediately greet guests who enter through this portion of the Stadium.

Statue of Yogi Berra in the New York Yankees Museum presented by Bank of America

The audio/visual experience at Yankee Stadium is highlighted by a 59-foot-high-by-101-foot-long 16mm true high-definition centerfield video board, which is flanked by two smaller video boards that display day-of-game lineups and out-of-town scores. Additionally, the entire length of the Terrace Level is spanned by a 3-foot-high, 1,279-foot long full-color LED ribbon board. A distributed sound system optimizes speaker placement for audio quality vastly superior to that in the original Stadium. The entire Stadium is built with a future-proof infrastructure designed by Cisco Systems that is easily adaptable to new technologies.

A 7,000-square-foot state-of-the-art FedEx Banquet and Conference Center is designed to meet the needs of guests who wish to host business functions in the ballpark.

URBAN PLANNING

The site for Yankee Stadium was in part selected for its proximity to mass transit. Like the original Stadium, it is served at the 161st Street/Yankee Stadium subway stop by the No. 4, B and D trains.

Metro-North offers train service to Yankee Stadium from anywhere in its service territory, and Yankee Stadium is accessible by New York City Transit bus lines. For more information, call the MTA at 511 or visit www.mta.info.

Pedestrian access points are located at Yankee Stadium's four gates: Gate 2 on Jerome Ave. and 164th St.; Gate 4 at Jerome Ave. and 161st St.; Gate 6 at River Ave. and 161st St. and Gate 8 at River Ave., south of 164th St.

RETAIL & FOOD OPTIONS

There are many distinct retail stores in Yankee Stadium, including the Yankees Team Store behind home plate, which houses the largest selection of Yankees merchandise and memorabilia, and the Women's Team Store, which focuses on women's clothing and accessories and is located on the Field Level near Section 114A. Additionally, the Yankees Team Store at Gate 6 is open year-round. Please call (646) 977-8777 for store hours.

NYY Steak is located at Gate 6.

Yankee Stadium is also home to two premier dining establishments. The iconic Hard Rock Cafe Yankee Stadium at Gate 6 is open year-round and houses music memorabilia and Yankees-related pieces. NYY Steak Yankee Stadium, located above the Hard Rock Cafe, offers an upscale dining experience, including dry aged USDA prime steaks, fresh seafood and an impressive collection of premium wines.

More casual fare can be found at a food court located on the third-base side of the Field Level concourse and in other locations throughout the Stadium.

DISABLED SERVICES

The Yankees strive to provide an accessible environment for all their Guests at Yankee Stadium. Wheelchair accessible and designated aisle seats are available at various price points and locations and include Yankees Premium seat locations. The Stadium also offers enhanced accessibility for Guests with hearing loss or low vision and for Guests who are deaf or blind. For more information, please e-mail disabledservices@yankees.com or call (718) 579-4510 (voice) or (718) 579-4595 (TTY).

The Yankees extend their appreciation to those who participated in periodic outreach meetings led by the United Spinal Association, which helped build a Stadium that Lev Dassin, Acting U.S. Attorney for the Southern District of New York, called, "a model of accessibility to people with disabilities."

GREEN DESIGN

Sports Lighting: The Yankees take the field under the glow of some of the most advanced lighting technology in the world. Each fixture along the Yankee Stadium frieze uses high-efficiency reflectors which vastly decreases waste energy and "light-spill" onto adjacent property. Additionally, control systems increase the lifetime of the lighting system by some 3,000-5,000 lamp-hours. These lighting improvements save nearly 207,000 pounds of CO^2 emissions per night game—the equivalent of one tree being planted for every pitch.

Sustainability Facility Program: This program ensures the efficiency of all equipment while focusing on energy reduction. Beverage cups in the Stadium are made of biodegradable material instead of petroleum-based plastics. Waste generation is combated by composting and the recycling of cardboard, glass, metal, plastics and paper, which diverts approximately 40 percent of the Stadium's trash away from landfills.

Waste Cooking Oil: During the course of a typical season, more than 20,000 gallons of cooking oil from the Stadium are collected and recycled. This oil produces more than 18,600 gallons of biodiesel fuel, which when used in vehicles results in a carbon reduction of more than 30,000 pounds - the equivalent of removing approximately 27 cars from the road for a year.

Restrooms: Each year, Yankee Stadium's plumbing fixtures are projected to save 3.1 million gallons of water while reducing the Stadium's water consumption by 22 percent. Additionally, Yankee Stadium uses GoJo hand soap, which doesn't require water for use. If each guest takes advantage of this feature, close to 1 million gallons of water can be saved each season.

BRONX INCENTIVES

Yankee Stadium is one of the premier building projects to take place in the Bronx in the last 50 years. The hard work and dedication of engineers, architects and construction professionals in building and designing the Stadium made the facility one of the most impressive and fan-friendly venues in the Majors. Equally important was the project's dedication to support local community groups, institutions and residents as the Yankees remain devoted to the long-term development of the Bronx.

Building a new state-of-the-art facility required an army of talented and experienced professionals. As part of the Yankees' commitment to ensure the Stadium project created economic opportunities in the Bronx, the Yankees made a concerted effort to recruit a wide range of vendors and employees from the local community. Of the 190 contracts awarded, 63 were allotted to Bronx-based businesses (accounting for over 33 pct. of the contracts and resulting in $133 million in contracts to Bronx-based businesses). The Yankees also stayed committed to hiring at least 25 pct. of the total workforce from Bronx residents, again providing incentive to the surrounding community.

In conjunction with the construction of the Stadium, the Yankees also established a $1 million grant for professional skills training for Bronx residents. Among the supported initiatives was Project H.I.R.E. (Help In Re-entering Employment), which taught Bronx residents functional construction skills for practical use in local building projects.

YANKEE STADIUM TIMELINE

JUNE 15, 2005 – The Yankees announce plans for a new Yankee Stadium to be constructed on parkland north of 161st Street – adjacent to the original Stadium's longtime site.

OCTOBER 2006 – The first concrete is poured.

DECEMBER 2007 – The Stadium is considered 50 percent completed.

APRIL 2008 – Frieze installation is completed.

MAY 2008 – The foul poles are installed, along with the first seats.

JUNE 18, 2008 – The Yankees hold their first press conference at the new Yankee Stadium, announcing a long-term agreement with Seminole Hard Rock Entertainment to open a Hard Rock Cafe near Gate 6. In addition, the Yankees introduce the newly-branded NYY Steak, a prime steakhouse to be located in Yankee Stadium.

OCTOBER 15, 2008 – The first sections of sod are laid.

OCTOBER 2008 – Lighting in the interior bowl is tested for the first time.

NOVEMBER 8, 2008 – Yankees executives and former players, including Scott Brosius, David Cone, Paul O' Neill and Jeff Nelson, along with 60 local Bronx high school youth groups remove home plate, the pitcher's rubber and pails of dirt from the original Stadium and install them in the new Yankee Stadium. The participating Bronx youth groups—Youth Force 2020, led by Turner Construction Company, and the ACE Mentor Program at Yankee Stadium, guided by Tishman Speyer—took part in Yankees-sponsored after-school programs relating to the construction and engineering of the new Yankee Stadium.

JANUARY 23, 2009 – The front office moves in, bringing World Series trophies from 1977 and 2000 to the new building.

APRIL 3-4, 2009 – The first exhibition games are played vs. the Chicago Cubs.

APRIL 16, 2009 – The home opener is played vs. the Cleveland Indians.

History of the Original Yankee Stadium

One year after changing the course of Baseball history with the purchase of Babe Ruth from the Boston Red Sox, the Yankees made another acquisition that would forever alter the way the game was watched.

On February 5, 1921, the Yankees issued a press release announcing the purchase of 10 acres of property in the west Bronx. The land, purchased from the estate of William Waldorf Astor for $675,000, sat directly across the Harlem River from the Manhattan-situated Polo Grounds, which the Yankees had been unhappily sharing with their landlord, the New York Giants of the National League, since 1913.

The relationship between the clubs crumbled after the 1920 season when the Yankees' attendance—boosted by their new slugging sensation—doubled to almost 1.3 million, approximately 25 percent more than that of the Giants. In 1921, the Giants asked the Yankees to vacate the Polo Grounds as soon as possible. With their departure from the Polo Grounds now inevitable, Yankees co-owners Jacob Ruppert and Tillinghast l'Hommedieu Huston set out to build a spectacular ballpark of their own, Baseball's first triple-decked structure. With an advertised capacity of 70,000, it would also be the first to be labeled a "stadium."

Original plans by the architect—the Osborn Engineering Company of Cleveland, Ohio—had the Stadium triple-decked and roofed all the way around. An early press release, in fact, described the Yankees' new home as a field enclosed with towering embattlements rendering the events inside "impenetrable to all human eyes, save those of aviators." But the initial grand design was quickly scaled back with the triple-decked grandstand not reaching either foul pole. Contrary to the owners' wishes, the action would be visible from the elevated trains that passed by the outfield, as well as from the buildings that would spring up across River Avenue. Fortunately, a purely decorative element survived the project's early downsizing and would become the park's most recognizable feature. A 15-foot-high copper frieze adorned the front of the roof, which covered much of the Stadium's third deck. It would give Yankee Stadium a stately dignity that became its signature.

The construction contract was awarded to New York's White Construction Company on May 5, 1922, with the edict that the job be completed "at a definite price" of $2.5 million by Opening Day 1923. Incredibly, it was. In only 284 working days, Yankee Stadium was ready for its inaugural game on April 18, 1923 vs. the Boston Red Sox.

An announced crowd of 74,200 fans packed Yankee Stadium while thousands more milled around outside after the fire department finally ordered the gates closed. Before the game began, John Philip Sousa and the Seventh Regiment Band led both clubs to the flagpole in deep center field, where the American flag and the Yankees' 1922 pennant were raised. Appropriately, Ruth christened his new home with a three-run homer to cap a four-run third inning as the Yankees coasted to a 4-1 win over the Boston Red Sox.

Yankee Stadium in the 1920s

Because it was widely recognized that Ruth's tremendous drawing power made the new stadium possible, New York Evening Telegram sportswriter Fred Lieb dubbed it "The House That Ruth Built." Later that season, the Stadium hosted the first of 37 World Series, as the Yankees won their first World Championship by defeating their former landlord, the Giants. Of course, as the original Stadium became the stage for a staggering 26 world titles, it would also become known as "The Home of Champions."

In its early years, when wooden bleachers surrounded the outfield, a grass slope rose toward the outfield walls from foul pole to foul pole. Outfielders, especially Ruth in right, routinely backed up the small hill to pull down fly balls. Advertising signs lined the tops of the bleachers except in right-center, where a lone manually operated wooden scoreboard was large enough to record 12 innings for games played by every club in the two major leagues. Over the years, the board would be replaced by more modern models. The Yankees, in fact, would unveil Baseball's first electronic message board in 1959.

By 1928, the Stadium was ready for its first major face-lift. The triple-decked grandstand in left field was extended beyond the foul pole and several rows of box seats were removed in order to extend the left-field foul pole distance to 301 feet. The right-field grandstand was extended in 1937, allowing for "upper-deck" home runs in both directions. With the grandstand expansion, the remaining wooden bleachers were replaced with a concrete structure, and the distance to center field dropped from 490 feet to a still-distant 461 feet.

In 1932, the Yankees began their tradition of commemorating their heroes with monuments and plaques when they dedicated a monument to Manager Miller Huggins, who had died suddenly during the 1929 season. Five more monuments were added (one each for Lou Gehrig, Ruth, Mickey Mantle and Joe DiMaggio and one to honor the victims and heroes of the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001) along with numerous plaques. For years, existing monuments were in the field of play in deep center field, and outfielders occasionally had to work around them to retrieve baseballs hit to that part of the park.

Except for the addition of lights in 1946, the look of Yankee Stadium remained relatively unchanged until the winter of 1966-67. Then, under the direction of the Yankees' new owner, CBS, the 44-year-old facility received a $1.5 million modernization, most of which was spent on 90 tons of paint. The brown concrete exterior was painted white as was the timeworn greenish copper frieze. Also, all of the grandstand seats went from green to blue, a color scheme that would be retained when the Stadium was completely remodeled after the 1973 season.

On August 8, 1972, after years of debate about the future of the aging ballpark, the Yankees signed a 30-year lease with the City of New York, which called for Yankee Stadium to be completely modernized in time for the 1976 season. After completing the Stadium's 50th-anniversary in 1973, the Yankees moved to Shea Stadium for two seasons while the majority of Yankee Stadium was torn down and rebuilt.

The most striking change of the modernization was the removal of the numerous obstructive steel columns that supported the second and third decks, as well as the roof. By "cantilevering" the upper decks and lowering the playing field while increasing the slope of the lower stands, sight lines for fans were dramatically improved. Capacity was reduced from 65,010 in 1973 to 54,028 upon reopening as wider plastic seats replaced wooden seats.

Of course, with the removal of the original roof, the Stadium almost lost its most-recognizable feature: the copper frieze. However, an innovative design concept included an exact replica of the frieze atop the new 560-foot-long scoreboard wall, which stretched across the rear of the bleachers. The board also included Baseball's first "telescreen," which could provide instant replays of the action by employing a then-incredible "nine shades of gray."

rows of seats added to the upper deck, the already grand Stadium received an even more majestic look. A 138-foot Louisville Slugger-shaped smokestack, commonly called "The Bat," was added outside the Stadium near the home-plate entrance.

The renovated Stadium also saw the mammoth fence distances in left and center field greatly reduced as "Death Valley" in left-center was brought in from 457 feet to 430 feet, and straightaway center field was slimmed from 463 feet to 417 feet. Subsequent alterations prior to the 1985 and 1988 seasons brought fences in to the configuration that is now replicated in the current Yankee Stadium.

The remodeled original Yankee Stadium reopened on April 15, 1976—with the Yankees topping Minnesota, 11-4. Like its predecessor and successor, it hosted the World Series in its inaugural season. In fact, the remodeled Stadium hosted the Fall Classic in its first three seasons, as the Yankees followed their 1976 Series loss to Cincinnati by winning back-to-back World Series titles in 1977 and 1978 over the Dodgers.

As one of the world's most prestigious addresses, the original Yankee Stadium was also the home for scores of other sports, entertainment and cultural events. While the Yankees were on the road or in the offseason, the Stadium opened its gates to college and pro football, soccer, political assemblies, religious conventions, concerts and even the circus.

Boxing immediately found a home at Yankee Stadium with Benny Leonard winning a 15-round decision over Lou Tendler for the lightweight title just three months after the gates opened on July 23, 1923. When Muhammad Ali stopped Ken Norton on September 28, 1976, it marked the 30th championship fight at the Stadium. All previous title bouts had taken place between 1923 and 1959–perhaps none more memorable than the June 22, 1938, heavyweight championship rematch between Joe Louis and Germany's Max Schmeling. After suffering a knockout loss in the initial non-title encounter at the Stadium two years earlier, Louis—now the heavyweight champ—avenged his defeat with a stunning first-round KO.

Football also became an immediate fixture at Yankee Stadium with Syracuse and Pittsburgh inaugurating a rich history of collegiate and professional matchups on October 20, 1923. Five years later at Yankee Stadium, on November 12, 1928, during halftime of a scoreless Army-Notre Dame contest, legendary coach Knute Rockne made his famous "Win One for the Gipper" speech, spurring the Fighting Irish to a 12-6 victory.

The New York Football Giants also called Yankee Stadium home from 1956 through 1973 and on December 28, 1958, took part in what has since been dubbed "The Greatest Game Ever Played." With the NFL championship at stake, a crowd of 64,185 watched the Baltimore Colts tie the game, 17-17, on a Steve Myrha field goal with seven seconds left. Eight minutes into professional football's first-ever "sudden-death" overtime period, the Colts' Alan Ameche crashed into the end zone from the 1-yard line, ending a contest that would help establish pro football as a major sport.

The Stadium was also an important stop for religious conventions, especially those of the Jehovah's Witnesses. In 1950, the group began holding conventions at the Stadium, including one that drew 123,707 people on August 3, 1958—the largest single-day event in Stadium history. On October 4, 1965—with the Yankees out of the World Series for only the third time in 17 years—the Stadium held the first-ever Papal Mass in the United States as Pope Paul VI celebrated Mass before a crowd in excess of 80,000. Pope John Paul II also celebrated Mass at the original Yankee Stadium on October 2, 1979, during his tour of the United States.

On August 16, 2006, a groundbreaking ceremony was held for a new Yankee Stadium to be ready for the 2009 season. The location chosen for the new building was the north side of 161st Street and River Avenue in the Bronx, directly across the street from the site of the original.

As part of its final season in 2008, Yankee Stadium hosted a third papal visit on April 20 from Pope Benedict XVI, NYU's commencement ceremony on May 14 (believed to be the first-ever college commencement in Stadium history) and a 15-inning, 4-3, AL victory in the All-Star Game on July 15 (the fourth at Yankee Stadium, joining Midsummer Classics in 1939, 1960-Game 2, and 1977).

The building took its final bow on Sept. 21, 2008, when the Yankees played the last game in Stadium history. Gates opened at 1:00 p.m., allowing approximately 13,000 fans the opportunity to visit Monument Park and walk around the warning track. With a national Sunday night audience watching on television, all-time Yankees greats, along with the evening's starting lineup, took their positions in the field before Julia Ruth Stevens, daughter of Babe Ruth, tossed out the ceremonial first pitch. Fittingly, the game ended in a Yankees victory, this one over the Baltimore Orioles, 7-3. After the final out, the club assembled by the pitcher's mound at the side of captain Derek Jeter. Over the PA, he thanked the crowd for their years of support, while reminding everyone of the new memories soon to be made.

In the bottom of the seventh inning of the Yankees' final home game on September 21, 2008, a taped valedictory was given on the Yankee Stadium video board by longtime public address announcer Bob Sheppard, who was unable to say goodbye in person as he continued to recover at home from an illness that had kept him away from the Stadium for the entire season. His appearance on screen brought a reverential hush to the crowd as everyone recognized they were about to hear the most perfect of all couplings perhaps for the last time—Bob Sheppard's voice reverberating in the original Yankee Stadium. He said the following:

Negro Leagues at the Original Yankee Stadium

For almost 20 years in the 1930s and '40s, Yankee Stadium was a regular home to Negro Leagues baseball. During that time the greatest black stars of the day drew thousands of fans to watch players prohibited from playing in the Major Leagues at the time. Almost every Negro Leagues player of note over that two-decade stretch played at Yankee Stadium, including Hall of Famers Leroy "Satchel" Paige, John Henry "Pop" Lloyd, "Cool Papa" Bell, Oscar Charleston, Buck Leonard, Hilton Smith and Josh Gibson, who hit some of the longest home runs in the Stadium's history.

Yankee Stadium opened to black baseball on July 5, 1930, when Yankees owner Jacob Ruppert donated the free use of the facility to the New York Lincoln Giants and Baltimore Black Sox for a benefit doubleheader to raise money for the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters, one of America's most prominent black unions. The games raised approximately $3,500 and included the appearance of Bill "Bojangles" Robinson who entertained the crowd along with the 369th Hell Fighters marching band.

Black baseball games at Yankee Stadium usually took place on Sundays when the Yankees played on the road. Sometimes a pair of teams would play a doubleheader, while at other times four-team doubleheaders were scheduled in order to maximize attendance and profits. Bands often performed and celebrities such as Joe Louis and New York City Mayor Fiorello LaGuardia were common. Track races and other pregame contests also delighted fans.

In 1931, Lloyd organized an All-Star team of black players named the "Harlem Stars," which played several games at Yankee Stadium. Eventually, that team became the New York Black Yankees of the Negro National League. The club went on to use Yankee Stadium for a portion of their home schedule between 1936 and 1947, often wearing the used uniforms of the Major League Yankees. In the spring of 1941, Paige, black baseball's greatest pitcher, briefly joined the Black Yankees, pitching and winning his only game in a New York uniform at Yankee Stadium.

Yankee Stadium also served as the venue for black baseball All-Star games and championship contests. One of the most memorable Negro Leagues All-Star games took place on August 27, 1939, when the Negro National League defeated the Negro American League, 10-2, with the help of Gibson's bases-clearing triple.

Ruppert's death in 1939 did not put a stop to black baseball at the Stadium. In fact, the Yankees sponsored a Jacob Ruppert Memorial Cup tournament among Negro National League teams. Ten doubleheaders were held at Yankee Stadium that summer to determine a winner, and on September 24, 1939, the Baltimore Elite Giants were crowned champs in Ruppert's name.

In October 1946, Yankee Stadium was home to two noteworthy exhibition games between an African-American All-Star team managed by Paige and an American League All-Star team led by future Hall of Famer Bob Feller. Cleveland Indians pitcher Bob Lemon hit a home run to win the first game for the AL but Paige out-pitched Feller in the second game to earn a split.

When Jackie Robinson finally broke the color barrier with the Brooklyn Dodgers in 1947, it was a watershed moment in the history of civil rights in the United States. But it also precipitated the decline and eventual extinction of the Negro Leagues.

Black baseball's relationship with the New York Yankees came to a close on August 20, 1961, as stars of the Negro American League gathered for its All-Star Game at Yankee Stadium. Paige, reportedly 55 years old at the time, pitched three scoreless innings and claimed the game's Most Valuable Player honors.

Picture Perfect

The grandeur of the original Yankee Stadium was a much sought-out location for filming during its existence. Though no official list of which movies were shot at the House That Ruth Built exists, below is a list of films culled through research in which the Stadium was either prominently featured or used as a primary location for filming. The Stadium also appeared briefly in numerous other projects, as well as several episodes of the television series Seinfeld (1990-98).

Life's Greatest Game (1924)
The Cameraman (1928)
Fast Company (1929)
Pride of the Yankees (1942)
Woman of the Year (1942)
The Babe Ruth Story (1948)
It Happens Every Spring (1949)
The Stratton Story (1949)
Angels in the Outfield (1951)
The Winning Team (1952)
Beau James (1957)
Damn Yankees (1958)
The F.B.I. Story (1959)
Safe at Home! (1962)
Bang the Drum Slowly (1973)
It's My Turn (1980)
Major League (1989)
It Could Happen to You (1994)
For Love of the Game (1999)
Life (1999)
Anger Management (2003)
P.S. I Love You (2007)

The current Yankee Stadium has already been documented on film, appearing in The Adjustment Bureau (2011) as well as episodes of television's Extreme Makeover: Home Edition (2010), Entourage (2011) and White Collar (2012). The Stadium was also the site of Mariah Carey's music video for her 2009 song "I Want to Know What Love Is," and has been featured in a handful of commercials.

Previous Homes of the Yankees

Hilltop Park

American League Park (commonly known as Hilltop Park) was the Yankees' first home. Hastily constructed in just six weeks on one of the highest points in Upper Manhattan, the all-wooden ballpark sat on a block bounded by Broadway, 165th Street, Fort Washington Avenue and 168th Street, in close proximity to the New York Giants' 155th Street home, the Polo Grounds. The first game at Hilltop Park was played on April 30, 1903—a 6-2 win over Washington, started by Hall of Famer Jack Chesbro.

The ballpark had a covered grandstand ringing the infield from first base to third base and uncovered bleachers running up the foul lines. There was seating for approximately 15,000 people, but as was the case in many ballparks of that time, it could accommodate overflow crowds both in the outfield and along foul ground in the infield, occasionally bringing capacity up toward 25,000.

When a fire ravaged the Polo Grounds on April 14, 1911, the Yankees allowed the Giants to play their home games at Hilltop Park until the Polo Grounds could be rebuilt. From April 15 through May 30, the Giants put together a 20-8 record at their temporary home.

The Yankees were successful in their 10 years at Hilltop Park, compiling a 398-342-8 all-time record there. The club's final game at the structure came on October 5, 1912—an 8-6 win vs. Washington. After the Yankees' lease at Hilltop Park expired at the end of the season, they decided to leave the rickety ballpark to become renters at the Polo Grounds, where the Giants became their landlords. The move, unthinkable years earlier, was facilitated by the Yankees' post-fire hospitality.

In 1914, Hilltop Park was torn down. Currently, its former location is the site of Columbia-Presbyterian Medical Center.

Hilltop Park (above/below) served as the Yankees' first home. It was built in just six weeks and was located near Broadway and 168th Street in Upper Manhattan.

Polo Grounds

The Yankees called the Polo Grounds home from 1913 through 1922, sharing the park with the New York Giants. Located on West 157th Street and Eighth Avenue in Upper Manhattan, the Polo Grounds was overlooked by a promontory called Coogan's Bluff to the west. To the east was the Harlem River—on the other side of which Yankee Stadium was built in 1923.

The Polo Grounds was constructed with straight sides, and the outfield fences by the foul poles ran parallel to each other and away from home plate. The foul poles in left and right were approximately 277 and 258 feet away from the plate, respectively, while left-center, center and right fields were all in the range of 445-483 feet away from home.

The Yankees compiled a 416-338-10 all-time regular season record at the uniquely-shaped facility, winning the first two pennants in franchise history while tenants in 1921 and 1922. The club lost both of those World Series to the NL Champion Giants—5 games to 3 in 1921 and 4 games to none with one tie in 1922—in Fall Classics played entirely at the Polo Grounds.

The Polo Grounds, located on West 157th Street and Eighth Avenue in Upper Manhattan, served as the home of the Yankees from 1913-22.

The American Leaguers were welcome tenants as long as they remained less popular than the Giants. But with Babe Ruth's arrival in 1920 and the team's subsequent success, the dynamic quickly changed. After the Yankees started outdrawing the Giants in their own park in 1920 and 1921, the National Leaguers asked the Pinstripers to vacate to a new facility as soon as possible. The 1922 season marked their final season in Manhattan before their April 18, 1923, Yankee Stadium debut in the Bronx.

The Polo Grounds remained home to the Giants until they moved to San Francisco in 1958. It stood empty until 1962 when the Mets arrived to play two seasons there before moving into Shea Stadium. In 1964, the Polo Grounds was demolished. Apartment buildings called the Polo Grounds Towers occupy the site today.

Monument Park

Since 1932, the New York Yankees have honored their all-time greats with the dedication of monuments and plaques in Yankee Stadium. The tradition continues in the current Stadium in Monument Park, located behind the outfield fence in center field.

The first monument was dedicated on May 30, 1932, to the memory of Miller Huggins, who died suddenly in 1929. The diminutive manager guided the Yankees to six American League pennants and three World Championships in his 11-plus seasons.

The first plaque was placed on the center-field wall in April 1940, a tribute to Jacob Ruppert, the former owner who built Yankee Stadium and brought the tradition of winning to the Yankees.

Two additional monuments followed: in 1941 for Lou Gehrig and in 1949 for Babe Ruth. Later plaques were placed in center field for General Manager Ed Barrow (1954) and two great Yankees center fielders, Joe DiMaggio and Mickey Mantle (1969). After his death, Mantle's plaque was removed and replaced by a fourth monument on August 25, 1996. On April 25, 1999, DiMaggio—who passed away less than two months earlier—was honored with the Stadium's fifth monument. (The two plaques which previously honored DiMaggio and Mantle were donated by the Yankees to the Yogi Berra Museum and Learning Center in Montclair, N.J.).

Originally, the monuments and plaques were part of the playing field. The monuments and Stadium flagpole were located in straight-away center field on the warning track approximately 10 feet in front of the wall. Sometimes long hits and fly balls forced fielders to go behind the monuments to retrieve the baseball.

One tradition of Yankee Stadium before it was remodeled was to allow fans to exit through the center-field gates via the warning track, where they could pause and reflect on the achievements of these honored legends. After the Stadium was remodeled in 1974 and 1975, the monuments and plaques were relocated to an area off the field between the Yankees' and visitors' bullpens.

In 1976, two more plaques were added to memorialize managers Joe McCarthy and Casey Stengel. In the 1980s, plaques were dedicated to Yankees greats Thurman Munson (1980), Elston Howard and Roger Maris (1984), Phil Rizzuto (1985), Billy Martin (1986), Whitey Ford and Lefty Gomez (1987), Yogi Berra and Bill Dickey (1988), and Allie Reynolds (1989). The Yankees also dedicated two plaques to non-uniformed Yankees legends: the "Voice of the Yankees," Mel Allen (1998); and the "Voice of Yankee Stadium," public address announcer Bob Sheppard (2000). Yankees greats Don Mattingly (1997), Reggie Jackson (2002), Ron Guidry (2003) and Red Ruffing (2004) are the most recent Bombers to be honored with plaques in Monument Park.

Plaques commemorating the visits of Pope Paul VI in 1965 and Pope John Paul II in 1979 were dedicated by the Knights of Columbus, and a plaque commemorating the Yankees' interlocking "NY" insignia was added to the park in 2001. Additionally, a plaque was dedicated in 2008 following the visit of Pope Benedict XVI.

In 1985, after the left-center-field fence of the original Stadium was moved in, the Yankees were able to open Monument Park for up-close fan viewing. By 1988, long lines and increased fan interest caused the Yankees to move the fence in further and expand the area. A special walkway was added with an exhibit honoring those Yankees who have had their uniform numbers retired.

In a pregame ceremony on Sept. 11, 2002, the Yankees dedicated a monument in remembrance of the victims and heroes of the 9/11 tragedy. It was the sixth monument dedicated in Yankee Stadium and the first to non-Yankees personnel.

During a special pregame ceremony on Sept. 20, 2010, the entire Yankees team joined the Steinbrenner family and Yankees alumni in unveiling a monument for longtime Principal Owner George M. Steinbrenner III, who passed away on July 13 of that season.

Most recently in the current Yankee Stadium, a plaque commemorating the achievements of Jackie Robinson was added on Sept. 22, 2013—the same day the Yankees honored the career of Mariano Rivera.

In all, there are seven monuments (for four Yankees players, one manager, one owner and one to commemorate the tragedy of 9/11) and 25 plaques (for 14 Yankees players, two managers, one owner, one executive, one PA announcer, one broadcaster, three Papal visit commemorations, one celebrating the life of Jackie Robinson and one noting the history of the NY logo).

We Remember
On September 11, 2001, despicable acts of terrorism were perpetrated on our country.

In tribute to the eternal spirit of the innocent victims of these crimes and to the selfless courage shown by both public servants and private citizens, we dedicate this plaque.

These valiant souls, with unfettered resolve, exemplify the true character of this great nation. Their unity and resilience during this time of distress defined American heroism for future generations.

Yankees Around the Globe

As the game of Baseball continues to grow on a global scale, "America's Pastime" has become infused with talent from all four corners of the world.

The New York Yankees, as one of the most recognized brands in the world, are dedicated to making meaningful and lasting footprints throughout the international Baseball community.

The Yankees began the 2013 season with nine foreign-born players, hailing from four nations outside of the United States (Dominican Republic, Venezuela, Japan, Panama). Just over 28 percent of players on Major League rosters on Opening Day 2013 were born outside the U.S., which was the same percentage for the Yankees (nine of 32 players, including seven on the D.L.).

Signing and developing exceptional talent from around the globe has become a trademark of the Yankees organization. Some of the club's acquisitions include the American League's all-time saves leader and Panama native Mariano Rivera, five-time All-Star Jorge Posada of Puerto Rico, two-time All-Star Hideki Matsui from Japan, and 2006 Cy Young Award runner-up Chien-Ming Wang from Taiwan. Most recently, the Yankees signed Japanese pitcher Masahiro Tanaka via the posting system on Jan. 22, 2014.

At the minor league level in recent years, the organization has signed two Chinese minor leaguers, two players from the Israel Baseball League, and procured top minor league talent from Australia, Brazil, Canada, Cuba, the Czech Republic, Colombia, Mexico, Nicaragua, Taiwan and Venezuela. In addition, the Yankees field two Dominican Summer League teams and operate a state-of-the-art Latin Baseball Academy in the Dominican Republic.

The Latin Béisbol Academy

Constructed in Boca Chica, Dominican Republic, the Yankees built their academy from scratch, allowing player development personnel to manage every detail of the project, from the trainer's room to the clubhouses to the classrooms. The end result is a four-building, four-field complex with the capacity to house up to 110 players. There is also a small apartment building for coaches and instructors. The academy, which officially opened in June 2005 and was completed in the spring of 2006, has a campus feel to it that is not lost on the ballplayers, many of whom are spending time away from their families for the first time.

Previously, the Yankees had leased a variety of facilities in Latin America for scouting and player development use, but it became apparent that it was necessary to find and develop their own facility.

"We've never had as many fields or batting cages," said Mark Newman, Yankees Senior Vice President of Baseball Operations, at the time the academy opened. "We've never had this level of control over player nutrition or this kind of strength and conditioning facility. All of these things enhance our player development efforts. Already, we've seen the physical, mental, emotional and fundamental maturation of players at a more rapid rate, and we should see it to a greater degree in the future."

As a dedicated investor in Latin American talent, the Yankees make every effort to provide their players with a well-rounded education off the field. The complex is staffed with educators who teach players academic disciplines such as Spanish and English, along with broad-based life skills such as conflict resolution, financial literacy and American customs. Players are also given guidance on how to deal with the heavy travel incumbent in a baseball lifestyle. Throughout their time at the academy, the young Yankees hopefuls participate in clinics with local children, reminding them to always be mindful of their community.

The Yankees also arrange for past and present Major League stars, such as Mariano Rivera and Reggie Jackson, to be guest lecturers for the prospects. In November 2007, Yankees Manager Joe Girardi visited the Béisbol Academy. The players received a special visitor in January 2011 when professional boxing champion Miguel Cotto paid a visit.

The players and staff are also active in local community events, hosting annual instructional clinics in the Dominican Republic, Nicaragua and Venezuela. In addition, the Yankees' Latin complex has hosted R.B.I. (Reviving Baseball in the Inner City) tournament games, joined the Yankees organization in the 2007 donation of $65,000 in food and cash to hurricane-damaged areas in the D.R. and Nicaragua, and adopted an orphanage in La Romana, D.R., supplying it with food, money and clothing. In 2013, the Yankees donated a fire truck and an ambulance—along with firefighting and medical equipment—to the city of Boca Chica.

In July 2010, Dominican Summer League players delivered gifts to ailing children at a local hospital in Santo Domingo. The Latin Béisbol Academy also played host to a fundraiser game in 2010 against the Dominican National Police Department to raise money for local charities throughout the D.R. In 2011, select Yankees draft picks held a clinic in San Pedro de Macoris for more than 100 kids, handing out shoes, equipment and uniforms to participants.

"The Latin Béisbol Academy was built to instruct, enhance and further develop the inherent skills in young, aspiring baseball players from all parts of Central and South America."

~ Yankees Chief International Officer, Executive Vice President Felix Lopez

The Yankees field two DSL teams annually and won back-to-back titles in 2005-06. With the hard work and dedication of the Yankees Player Development staff, the organization looks forward to the future, when these young players can be a part of a World Championship in the Bronx.

Partners in Japan

During the 2002 season, the Yankees entered into a working agreement with the Yomiuri Giants, winners of 22 Japan Series Championships. Pursuant to the agreement, the teams consented to share baseball information, ideas and strategies. Also in 2002, the Yankees pursued and signed three-time Central League MVP Hideki Matsui. A nine-time Japanese League All-Star and three-time home run champion, Matsui became the first bona fide power hitter to make the transition from Japan to the Major Leagues.

In 2004, the Yankees traveled to Tokyo to open the regular season against the Tampa Bay Devil Rays. The historic trip marked the 70th anniversary of Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig's 1934 All-Star tour of Japan. It also recognized the anniversary of the founding of the Yomiuri Giants franchise, Japan's oldest professional baseball team. The two-game series was just the second-ever Major League season opener to take place in Japan. At the time, the two games were the highest-rated televised Major League games in Japan's history.

The 2012 Little League World Series championship team from Japan visited Yankee Stadium as the Yankees' guests on Aug. 28, 2012, after capturing the country's second LLWS title in three years and eighth overall. They are pictured above with Yankees outfielder Ichiro Suzuki.

Mariano Rivera poses with Uganda's 2012 Little League World Series Team, which became the first team from Africa to participate in the LLWS, and was the Yankees' guest on Aug. 29, 2012. The team also received a clubhouse tour from Manager Joe Girardi and participated in "roll call" with the Bleacher Creatures.

Yankees Teach in Taiwan

In January 2009, the Yankees joined the Chinese Taipei Baseball Association under the auspices of Major League Baseball in holding a clinic for high school pitchers, catchers and coaches at the National Taiwan Sport University's Taoyuan Campus in Taipei, Taiwan. It marked the Yankees' first-ever large-scale outreach in Taiwan and represented the club's initiative in cultivating baseball talent and increasing brand recognition in Asia and the greater international community. The five-day clinic focused on pitching and catching fundamentals and philosophy.

Yankees and Chinese Baseball Association Reach Memorandum of Understanding

The New York Yankees and the Chinese Baseball Association (CBA) held a press conference in Beijing, China, on Jan. 29, 2007, to announce a Memorandum of Understanding that for the first time formalized a strategic alliance between a Major League Baseball club and the CBA. During the Yankees' 2009 World Series trophy tour, club officials met with the CBA in Beijing to further the cooperation agreement between the two entities.

The agreement, subject to Major League Baseball's rules, regulations and agreements pertaining to the People's Republic of China, states that the Yankees will provide the CBA with guidance in training baseball players, including sending coaches, player development staff, scouting and training personnel to China to assist the CBA. The partnership also allows the CBA to send staff to the Yankees' facilities in the United States in furtherance of those goals.

Yankees Team President Randy Levine and GM Brian Cashman established a working agreement with the Chinese Baseball Association on Jan. 29, 2007.

The CBA was represented by Chairman Hu Jianguo, Secretary General Shen Wei and Deputy Secretary General Tian Yuan.

On June 16, 2007, the Yankees announced the signings of catcher Zhenwang Zhang and left-handed pitcher Kai Liu to minor league contracts, marking the first-ever acquisition by a Major League organization of Chinese baseball players. Both players were members of the Chinese National team that competed in the 2008 Olympics in Beijing.

Yankees Championship Trophy Tour of the Dominican Republic, Japan and China

Following their 2009 championship season, the Yankees embarked on a world tour with their 2009 World Series Trophy, traveling to the Dominican Republic and Asia.

Led by Chief International Officer and Executive Vice President Felix M. Lopez, Jr., a Yankees contingent took the championship trophy to the Dominican Republic for a three-day tour from Jan. 7-9, 2010. The D.R. leg of the trophy tour included stops at the National Palace for a ceremony with President Dr. Leonel Fernández, where Lopez was joined by bench coach Tony Pena, and players Robinson Cano, Damaso Marte, Francisco Cervelli and Edwar Ramirez as well as by several Yankees minor leaguers. The next day, the Yankees visited the U.S. Embassy and the National Police Headquarters. That evening, the Yankees displayed the trophy for fans at the Dominican Winter League playoff game between the Licey Tigers and Escogido Lions at Quisqueya Stadium in Santo Domingo, and Lopez threw out the ceremonial first pitch. On their final day in the D.R., the Yankees placed the trophy on display for residents of the town of Casa de Campo. In the evening, Lopez tossed the ceremonial first pitch at a game between La Romano and Escogido, and the Yankees again displayed the trophy for fans.

Three weeks later, a Yankees delegation consisting of team President Randy Levine, Senior Vice President and General Manager Brian Cashman, Vice President and Assistant General Manager Jean Afterman and Senior Vice President of Corporate Sales and Sponsorships Michael Tusiani took the trophy on a six-day tour to Tokyo, Beijing and Hong Kong from Jan. 31 through Feb. 5, 2010.

The Yankees' 2009 W.S. trophy visited the MLB Café in Tokyo, where it was displayed alongside the Yomiuri Giants' 2009 Championship trophy.

The contingent was met by fans and media at Tokyo's Narita Airport, marking this first-ever occasion of a Yankees World Series Trophy being brought to Asia. The next day, another historic moment took place at the MLB Café in Tokyo as the trophy was displayed alongside the Yomiuri Giants' 2009 Japan Series championship trophy.

From there, the trophy traveled to China, where fans in Beijing and Hong Kong had their first opportunity to gaze at Major League Baseball's grandest prize. The trophy tour in China was organized by QSL Sports, which has been active in the promotion of Baseball in the People's Republic of China and operates the China Youth Baseball League together with the Chinese Baseball Association. The events in China were hosted by QSL Sports, New World Department Stores (one of the largest owners and operators of department stores in China), and K11, the "World's First Art Mall," which integrates elements of art, culture and nature, while elevating the shopping experience.

On Feb. 3, 2010, Yankees officials met with the CBA in Beijing to further the cooperation agreement between the two entities, after which the groups held a joint press conference at the Kunlun Hotel. Later that evening, the championship trophy made its first public appearance in China at the New World Department Store, which included traditional Chinese performances and ceremonies. Joining the Yankees delegation were CBA officials, New World representatives and the Beijing Yankees youth baseball team, which is part of MLB's "Play Ball" youth baseball program in China.

Hong Kong marked the final stop on the Asian tour, with a Feb. 5, 2010, event at the Hyatt Regency hotel adjacent to the recently-opened K11 Mall. The next morning, the trophy was introduced to players and fans during the opening ceremony for the 2010 Phoenix Cup, Hong Kong's International Women's Baseball Tournament.

The Yankees thank their partner Delta Air Lines for ensuring the safe transportation of the World Series trophy and appreciate the efforts of Sportscorp China, led by president Marc Ganis.

Yankees in the World Baseball Classic

The Yankees have had 17 players participate in the World Baseball Classic, representing seven countries (see below for stats). Of their current active 40-man roster*, seven Yankees have appeared in the World Baseball Classic: OF Carlos Beltran, SS Derek Jeter, C Brian McCann, 2B Brian Roberts, OF Ichiro Suzuki, 1B Mark Teixeira and LHP Matt Thornton. Suzuki anchored Team Japan's first place finishes in both 2006 and 2009.

In the 2013 World Baseball Classic, Yankees bench coach Tony Pena managed the Dominican Republic to the title, becoming the first WBC manager to lead his team to an undefeated record (8-0). Pena's club outscored the opposition by a 36-14 margin during the tournament, defeating the Netherlands in the semifinals (4-1) and Puerto Rico in the championship game (3-0) at AT&T Park in San Francisco.

RailRiders Manager Dave Miley Elected to International League Hall of Fame Class of 2014

On January 28, 2014, the International League recognized the lifetime achievements of Scranton/Wilkes-Barre manager Dave Miley by electing him to the IL Hall of Fame as a Class of 2014 member.

Miley was elected by a vote of living Hall of Famers, longtime executives, broadcasters and media members. He has been added to the IL Hall of Fame plaque display and will be presented with "The Curtain Call" statue at an individual enshrinement ceremony on Saturday, June 7, when the RailRiders host the Toledo Mud Hens. The first 2,500 fans through the gates that day will receive a Dave Miley statue as part of the team's season-long celebration of 25 years of Scranton/Wilkes-Barre baseball.

PNC Field Named Best New Ballpark of 2013

In 2012, Scranton/Wilkes-Barre played its home games at six different venues, while PNC Field underwent a $43 million renovation. The RailRiders and their fans were rewarded handsomely for their patience, as PNC Field was named Best New Ballpark of 2013 by BallPark Digest.

"The easy path would have been to bulldoze PNC Field and build somewhere else," said Kevin Reichard, publisher of Ballpark Digest. "The PNC Field site is one of the most scenic—and challenging—in all of baseball. Keeping the ballpark in its present spot and reusing what was appropriate is a welcome trend in architecture, and PNC Field is a prime example of building new on top of the old in a cost-effective manner."

The RailRiders drew 435,839 fans to PNC Field in 2013, their best year at the gate since 2008.

Kevin Lawn Award

Each year, the Yankees present the Kevin Lawn Award to the organization's minor league "Pitcher of the Year" and "Player of the Year." The annual awards are dedicated to Kevin O'Brien Lawn—the son of longtime Yankees Vice President and Chief of Operations Jack Lawn—who passed away in 1999. The winners of the 2013 awards will be announced during 2014 spring training.

Media Services for Yankees Games

The New York Yankees Media Relations staff welcomes you to Yankee Stadium. Please see below for helpful information and guidelines for the 2014 season. Contact us with any questions or concerns you may have. We look forward to working with you.

ADMISSION TO STADIUM/CREDENTIAL PICK-UP: All media must enter Yankee Stadium via the Press Gate, adjacent to Gate 4. The Press Gate opens five hours prior to game time. BBWAA cards, MLB-issued passes or credentials issued by the New York Yankees are necessary for admittance. NO OTHER CREDENTIAL WILL BE HONORED. All bags are subject to search upon entry. Photo ID will be required.

ADMISSION TO FIELD AND DUGOUTS: On game days, the field and dugouts can be accessed from the Service Level (000) via the Field Access Tunnel (located on the outfield side of the Visitors Clubhouse) or through either team's clubhouse when open to the media during regular clubhouse hours. Take the press elevator or stairs from the Press Gate or Main Press Box down to the Service Level and follow the interior concourse to the right for the Yankees Clubhouse or to the left for the Field Access Tunnel and Visitors Clubhouse. Please note that the field is closed to media at the conclusion of the visiting team's batting practice.

CREDENTIAL QUESTIONS: Please direct questions to Alexandra Trochanowski in the Yankees Media Relations office at credentials@yankees.com or (718) 579-4460.

DAILY CREDENTIALS: All requests for single-game regular season media credentials for games played at Yankee Stadium may be made online at https://credentials.mlb.com. The online application is the only acceptable method for requesting single-game regular season media credentials for games played at Yankee Stadium. Applications must be completed by a Sports Assignment Editor and require at least 24 hours notice.

INTERNET: Wireless Internet is available throughout all working media areas. Please see a Yankees Media Relations representative for login instructions.

PARKING: Media are encouraged to park in the Ruppert Plaza Garage, located on the corner of Jerome Ave. and the Macombs Dam Bridge ramp, directly across the street from the Press Gate. The garage will open five hours prior to the start of the game and remain open at least three hours after the last pitch.

PRESS BOX: Take the press elevator or stairs to Main Level. Doors open by the TV and radio booths. The press box, working press room and media dining room will be to your left. Please sit in assigned seats. If no seat is assigned, please ask a Yankees Media Relations representative for assistance.

PRESS CONFERENCE ROOM: Take the press elevator or stairs down to the Service Level. The Press Conference Room is on the first base side, opposite the Yankees clubhouse.

PRESS DINING: Sheppard's Place is open to those with BBWAA cards, MLB-issued passes or applicable credentials issued by the New York Yankees. Entrance is through the Press Box, behind the working press box. Meals are served starting 2 hours and 30 minutes prior to game time and will remain available through the sixth inning.

El departamento de medios de comunicación de los Yankees de Nueva York quisiera darle la bienvenido al Yankee Stadium. Por favor vea abajo las pautas para la temporada del 2014. Por favor comuniquese con nuestra oficina para cualquier pregunta o preocupación que usted pueda tener. Deseamos tener el placer de trabajar con ustedes este año.

ADMISIÓN AL ESTADIO/ENTREGA DE CREDENCIALES: Todos los medios deben de entrar por la entrada de la prensa (Press Gate), adyacente a la entrada número 4 del estadio (Gate 4). La entrada de la prensa (Press Gate) abre cinco horas antes del inicio del juego. Las tarjetas BBWAA, los pases distribuidos por MLB o las credenciales repartidas por los Yankees de Nueva York son necesarios para entrar. NO SE HONRARÁ NINGUNO OTRO CREDENCIAL. Todas las bolsas están sujetas a ser revisadas a la entrada. Identificación de foto será requerida.

ENTRADA AL TERRENO Y LAS TRINCHERAS: Durante los juegos en casa, las entredas al terreno y a las trincheras son accessibles por el tunel (ubicado en el Service Level (000) al lado del clubhouse del equipo visitante con acceso al campo largo del terreno) o por medio al clubhouse de los equipos durante las horas designadas a los medios de comunicacion. Tome el acensor o escalera por la entrada de la prensa o desde el palco principal de prensa al Service Level y siga el corredor interior hacia la derecha en direction al Yankees Clubhouse o el tunel a la izquierda en direction al Clubhouse de los Visitantes con acceso al campo largo del terreno. Por favor tome encuenta que el terreno cierra para los medios de comunicacion a la conclusion de la practica del equipo visitante.

PREGUNTAS SOBRE CREDENCIALES: Por favor de dirigir cualquier pregunta a Alexandra Trochanowski o a Germania-Dolores Hernandez, del departamento de medios de comunicacion de los Yankees, vía correo electrónico a credentials@ yankees.com o al número de teléfono (718) 579-4460.

CREDENCIALES POR JUEGO INDIVIDUAL: Solicitudes de credenciales por juego individual en el Yankee Stadium deben ser sometidas vía la página web de Major League Baseball (MLB) en https://credentials.mlb.com. La solicitud vía el internet es el único método aceptable para el pedido de credenciales para juegos individuales durante la temporada 2011. Dichos pedidos solo pueden ser hechos por un director o editor de deportes y deben ser recibidas con un mínimo de 24-horas de aviso.

INTERNET: El internet inalámbrico está disponible en todas las areas de trabajo para los medios. Por favor comunicárselo a un representante del departamento de prensa de los Yankees de Nueva York para que lo atienda.

ESTACIONAMIENTO: Los medios de prensa deben de estacionarse en el garaje Ruppert Plaza, localizado en la esquina de la avenida Jerome y el Macombs Dam Bridge, al otro lado de la entrada número 4 del estadio. El garaje estará abierto cinco horas antes del principio del juego y hasta tres horas después del último lanzamiento.

PALCO PRINCIPAL DE PRENSA: Tome el ascensor de prensa o las escaleras hacia el Main Level. Las puertas del ascensor abren cerca de las salas de televisión y radio. El palco principal de la prensa y el comedor están localizados a la izquierda del ascensor. Por favor tomen los asientos asignados. Si no se le asigno un asiento, por favor pregunte a un representante del departamento de prensa de los Yankees.

SALA DE CONFERENCIAS DE PRENSA: Tome el elevador de prensa o las escaleras hacia abajo para el Service Level. Tome una derecha el salón laborar de prensa se encuentra al mismo lado de la primera base, y al otro lado del clubhouse de los Yankees.

TELEPHONE ASSISTANCE: For assistance with ordered telephone lines, please call a Yankee Global Technology representative at 646-977-TECH.

The Yankees Media Relations Department encourages our media to visit yankeespressbox.com, a one-stop resource for all Yankees media relations materials. Documents are posted to the site the moment they are available and include: pregame notes, lineups/scorecard (home games only), stat packs, milestones, minor league report, the most up-to-date Yankees roster and postgame notes.

All press releases, special packets and a PDF edition of the 2014 Yankees Media Guide & Record Book are also available on the site. Additionally, almost all items available at yankeespressbox.com are archived for access throughout the season.

When accessing the website (which is for media members only), you will be asked to sign in using an mlb.com ID, available only through Major League Baseball.

Yankees Television Broadcasters

Michael Kay

Now in his 13th season as the play-by-play announcer for the YES Network and WWOR-TV, Kay also serves as the host of YES' "CenterStage" series, hosts his own radio talk show on ESPN Radio in New York and is a frequent contributor to ESPN's Emmy Award-winning Sports Reporters. In 2008, he handled play-by-play duties for the ESPN Radio Network's coverage of the AL Division Series.

A 23-time Emmy Award nominee and seven-time Emmy winner, Kay was named by Radio Ink magazine the second-most influential local sports talk show host in America in 2012.

Before joining the YES Network, Kay worked at the MSG Network from 1989-2001 as a Yankees reporter. In 1992, he added the assignment of Knicks locker room reporter to his responsibilities and continued in that role through the 1998-99 season.

In addition to his television work, Kay also worked as a Yankees analyst on WABC Radio from 1992-2002. Kay was a winner with Bob Goldscholl (WBBR) for "Best Sports Reporter" at the 2000 New York Metro Achievement in Radio Awards. After the Yankees' World Series victories in 1996, 1998, 2000 and 2009, Kay and John Sterling were asked by New York City's Mayor to host the post-parade victory celebration at City Hall.

In 1998, Kay also began co-hosting Sports Talk with John Sterling and Michael Kay, an MSG-produced nightly sports radio call-in show which aired on WABC Radio during the winter months. During the baseball season, Kay and Sterling hosted Yankee Talk which aired 90 minutes prior to all weekend Yankees games.

Shortly after graduating from Fordham University in 1982 with a B.A. in Communications, the Bronx, N.Y., native became one of the hot sports reporters in New York City with a style that combined great reporting skills with quality writing. While at Fordham, he honed his skills working for the school newspaper and radio station, working at Sports Phone and as the public address announcer for the New York Pro Summer Basketball League.

In 1982, Kay landed a job as a general assignment writer for the New York Post. Two years later he began covering college basketball (1984-85) and then the New Jersey Nets, whom he covered for two seasons before becoming the newspaper's general basketball writer. In 1987, he moved to baseball where he served as his paper's Yankees beat reporter. While he was in that position, he got his first television job with MSG Network as host of the "Hot Stove League" segment of MSG's Sports Night. Kay moved from the Post to the New York Daily News in 1989, where he covered the Yankees until 1992, when he made the jump to radio. With the move, he became the first newspaper reporter in any sport to make the jump into the broadcast booth full-time, performing both play-by-play and analysis.

Kay was given the Dick Young Award for Excellence in Sports Media by the New York Pro Baseball Scouts in 1995. He was also a part of the Yankees/MSG Production team that was nominated for New York Emmy Awards for six consecutive years. In 1998, he was on the MSG team that won for "Outstanding Live Sports Coverage–Series." In 1996 and '97, he was a member of the MSG team that won New York Emmys for "Outstanding Live Sports Coverage–Single Program" for Dwight Gooden's no-hitter and "The Battle for New York: Yankees vs. Mets."

Kay resides in Manhattan, N.Y., and in 2005 had an honorary street sign in his name erected on the Grand Concourse in the Bronx. He is active with the Alzheimer's Association in memory of his mother, Rose, who passed away from the disease in 2006. Kay has also joined Joe Girardi for the "Remember When, Remember Now" banquet at the Grand Central Oyster Bar to benefit Girardi's Catch 25 Foundation and Alzheimer's research. He co-hosted the 2013 B.A.T. fundraising dinner in New York, and served as master of ceremonies at the 2013 Thurman Munson Awards fundraising dinner in New York.

He and his wife, Jodi, were married in February 2011 and have a daughter, Caledonia Rose, born in January 2013.

Ken Singleton

Former Major Leaguer Ken Singleton enters his 13th season as a game analyst and announcer for YES Network broadcasts of the New York Yankees, occasionally handling play-by-play duties as well.

Prior to joining YES, Singleton divided his time calling play-by-play and providing commentary at the MSG Network. In 1998, he was part of MSG's production team that won four New York Emmys for its Yankees coverage.

Singleton joined the MSG Network in 1997 from The Sports Network (TSN), where he served as analyst for the Montreal Expos from 1985-96. From 1991-96, he also called play-by-play and served as analyst for CIQ Radio, the Expos' flagship radio network. In 1996 and '97, he was named by FOX Sports as a lead analyst for Saturday afternoon baseball broadcasts. In 1997 and '98, he worked as an analyst for Major League Baseball International.

Singleton enjoyed a 15-year Major League career with the New York Mets, Montreal Expos and Baltimore Orioles, batting .282 with 317 doubles and 246HR. He is one of only 11 players in Baseball history to hit 35 or more home runs in a season as a switch-hitter. He also ranks among the all-time leaders in most Baltimore offensive categories, including homers, RBI and total bases. During his career, Singleton was named to the American League All-Star team in 1977, '79, and '81. He was named Most Valuable Oriole in 1975, '77, and '79 and was a member of the Orioles' 1983 World Championship team. In1982, he was the recipient of Major League Baseball's Roberto Clemente Award, honoring him for his contributions both on and off the field.

Born in Manhattan and raised in nearby Mount Vernon, N.Y., Singleton played both baseball and basketball in high school, and also played baseball in the Bronx Federation League at Macombs Dam Park on the current site of Yankee Stadium. After getting a basketball scholarship to Hofstra University and playing baseball as well for one year, Singleton was drafted by the Mets in 1967.

Singleton serves on the Board of Directors for the Cool Kids Campaign, a non-profit organization that helps children and their families who are dealing with cancer. He was honored with the "Denzel Lifetime Achievement Award in Sports" at the Boys & Girls Club of Mount Vernon's 100th Anniversary Gala in March 2012.

David Cone

David Cone returns to the YES Network for his seventh season as an analyst. Upon his retirement from the game, Cone joined the YES Network team during its inaugural year in 2002, again for 2008-09 and returned in 2011.

Cone compiled a 194-126 record, 3.46 ERA and 2,688 strikeouts in his 17-year Major League career with the Kansas City Royals (1986, 1993-94), New York Mets (1987-1992, 2003), Toronto Blue Jays (1992, '95), New York Yankees (1995-2000) and Boston Red Sox (2001). He was a five-time All-Star (1988, 1992, 1994, 1997 and 1999) and captured the American League Cy Young Award in 1994 after posting a 16-5 record with a 2.94 ERA. With the award, he became the first pitcher to win the Cy Young despite not leading the league in any category or pitching for a first-place club.

While with the Yankees, Cone was 64-40 with a 3.91 ERA and 888 strikeouts, and was part of four World Championship teams (1996, 1998, 1999 and 2000). He had arguably his finest season in pinstripes in 1998, when he was 20-7 with a 3.55 ERA and 209 strikeouts. A year later, on July 18, 1999, he hurled the 14th perfect game in modern Major League history (since 1900, including postseason) in a 6-0 win vs. the Montreal Expos at Yankee Stadium. The performance also marked the third perfect game ever thrown by a Yankees pitcher, following Don Larsen's in Game 5 of the 1956 World Series vs. Brooklyn and David Wells' vs. Minnesota in 1998. The Kansas City, Mo. native was selected by his hometown Kansas City Royals in the third round of the 1981 First-Year Player Draft.

He compiled an 8-3 career postseason record and also won a World Series title with the 1992 Blue Jays.

In 1996, Cone established the David Cone Charitable Gift Fund. He was honored with numerous awards for his community service as a player and still pursues his charitable endeavors, working with the Maria Fareri Children's Hospital at the Westchester Medical Center.

Jack Curry

Jack Curry joined the YES Network in 2010 as studio analyst, reporter and program contributor, following a 20-year career covering the Yankees for the New York Times. In addition, he contributes as a columnist on YESNetwork.com, is the host of JCTV: Jack Curry TV, the innovative YESNetwork.com original series which launched in 2013.

During his career with the Times, Curry authored more than 4,500 articles, covered 18 World Series, 11 All-Star Games and two World Baseball Classics. The New Jersey native also was nominated for a Pulitzer Prize in 1999, and won multiple Times Publisher Awards.

Curry's television experience extends back to 1991, when he began contributing to Madison Square Garden Network's Yankees pre-game show and weekly baseball magazine show. Since November 2005, Curry has been a regular contributor to YES' Yankees Hot Stove show and the last four seasons has appeared on YES' Yankees Access shows. In addition, he was a featured panelist on MSG's Angles roundtable show, was a frequent guest on WCBS-TV's Baseball Insider weekly studio show, and has also provided expert baseball analysis and commentary on television and radio programs such as ESPN's Outside The Lines, MSNBC's Countdown with Keith Olbermann, ESPN Radio's The Michael Kay Show and various WFAN Radio programs.

He also co-wrote a book with Derek Jeter entitled The Life You Imagine: Life Lessons for Achieving Your Dreams, which was a New York Times best-seller. In January 2013, Curry received the Broadcast Achievement Award from the New Jersey Sports Writers Association and was named "Top Sports Analyst" by the New Jersey-based 201 Magazine. A 1986 graduate of Fordham University, Curry resides with his wife, Pamela, in New Jersey.

John Flaherty

Former Yankees catcher John Flaherty enters his ninth season as a field reporter, studio analyst and game analyst for YES Network telecasts in 2014. He received New York Emmy Award nominations in 2010, 2011 and 2013 for his work at YES.

Drafted by Boston in 1988, Flaherty progressed through the Red Sox farm system before joining their Major League squad in 1992. He played 14 seasons in the Majors with Boston (1992-93), Detroit (1994-96), San Diego (1996-97), Tampa Bay (1998-2002) and the Yankees (2003-05), compiling a .252 average with 80HR in 1,047 games.

Flaherty brought his knowledge of the game and his veteran style of leadership to the Yankees clubhouse when he signed as a free agent in 2003. He played in 134 games with the Yankees across three seasons, and will be long remembered for his dramatic pinch-hit, "walk-off" single that defeated the Boston Red Sox in the 13th inning of a 5-4 victory on June 1, 2004, in the contest that featured Derek Jeter's famous dive into the third base stands.

Flaherty is a New York City native and a graduate of George Washington University. On May 15, 2009, he was awarded an honorary Doctorate of Humane Letters from St. Thomas Aquinas College in Sparkill, N.Y.

Al Leiter

Al Leiter enters his ninth year with the YES Network using insight gained from his 19 years as a player in the Major Leagues. He is also an analyst for the MLB Network, where he was nominated for National Emmy Awards in 2010 and 2012 for his work there.

Prior to signing with YES, Leiter had worked as a postseason game analyst for FOX Sports and ESPN.

Originally drafted by the Yankees in 1984, Leiter played parts of 19 professional seasons with the Yankees (1987-89, 2005), Toronto Blue Jays (1989-95), Florida Marlins (1996-97, 2005) and New York Mets (1998-2004). He was a two-time All-Star (1996, 2000), and was a part of two world championship teams (Toronto in 1993 and Florida in 1997). On May 11, 1996, Leiter tossed the first no-hitter in Marlins history in an 11-0 win vs. Colorado.

For his community work, he was honored by MLB with the Roberto Clemente Award in 2000, and the Bart Giamatti Award in 2002. Also in 2002, he was appointed to the board of directors of the Twin Towers Fund in NYC. He was named the March of Dimes "Sportsman of the Year" in 2003 and the John V. Mara "Sportsman of the Year" in 2004 by the Catholic Youth Organization. He also created "Leiter's Landing," a charitable organization committed to the betterment of youth through education, health care and social and community service.

A native of Bayville, N.J., Leiter was inducted into the New Jersey Sports Writers Association Hall of Fame in January 2012. He also served as master of ceremonies at New York City Mayor Michael Bloomberg's first induction ceremony at City Hall in 2002.

Bob Lorenz

Bob Lorenz returns for his 11th year with the YES Network, serving as primary studio anchor for Yankees pre- and postgame shows. Lorenz also serves as the host of the Brooklyn Nets pre- and post-game shows, as well as the network's Yankees Hot Stove and Emmy Award-winning Forbes SportsMoney programs. Lorenz has won 11 Emmy Awards during his time with the YES Network. In April 2011, he won his third consecutive New York Emmy Award recognizing him as the top sports anchor in New York.

Prior to joining the YES Network in 2003, Lorenz served as an anchor for CNN/Sports Illustrated, which he joined in April of 1991. He hosted CNN's signature weekly sports programming, including NFL Preview, College Football Preview, This Week in the NBA, SI Cover to Cover and Page One. He also hosted CNN's weekly baseball show from 1992 to 1996 and, from 1994 to 1996, hosted CNN's College Basketball Preview and College Coaches Corner. In addition to those duties, Lorenz also worked on a variety of programs for CNN's sister networks TBS and TNT, hosting Super Bowl specials and serving as back-up host on Inside the NBA on TNT.

Before joining CNN, Lorenz was a reporter and anchor at WPTV-TV in West Palm Beach, Fla. Having joined the station WPTV-TV in 1988, he wrote, produced and anchored four weekend sportscasts. Lorenz earlier served as sports director at KIEM-TV in Eureka, Calif. and was a writer at CBS Extravision in Los Angeles and an analyst/anchor for Citicable in Torrance, Calif.

Lorenz is on the Honorary Event Committee for the Connecticut chapter of Make-A-Wish and has emceed its annual Make-A-Wish Ball. He has also emceed the Annual Miracle Ball, which raises money and awareness for the Miracle League of Westchester County in New York.

He holds a degree in broadcast journalism from the University of Southern California.

Meredith Marakovits

Meredith Marakovits returns for her third season with the YES Network as the New York Yankees clubhouse reporter, reporting on the team within the network's Yankees game telecasts, pre- and postgame shows, and Yankees Batting Practice Today show. Marakovits also appears on YES' special Yankees programming and contributes to YESNetwork.com.

Previously, Marakovits served as the Philadelphia 76ers sideline reporter with Comcast SportsNet Philadelphia, also participating in several Comcast SportsNet regional sports network programs. She also covered the Yankees and Mets for 1050 ESPN radio, and contributed elsewhere to WFAN radio in New York.

Prior to her work in New York, she served as the Phillies reporter for 950 ESPN Radio/97.5 the Fanatic. This came after her stint as the pre- and postgame host and field reporter for the Triple-A Lehigh Valley Ironpigs Television Network.

A Northampton, Pa. native, Marakovits is a 2005 graduate of La Salle University in Philadelphia, where she played volleyball and received a degree in communications. She began her career for Service Electric 2's sports division as a sideline reporter for college football, basketball and indoor football broadcasts.

Paul O'Neill

Paul O'Neill returns for his 13th season in broadcast television, serving as a game analyst for the YES Network. He received New York Emmy Award nominations in 2011 and 2013 for his analyst work on YES.

The five-time All-Star outfielder played 17 years in the Majors, spending his final nine seasons in pinstripes. He appeared in six World Series, winning five titles, including four with the Yankees (1996, '98-2000).

Affectionately known as a "warrior" to most Yankees followers, O'Neill began his Major League career in 1985 with the Cincinnati Reds and earned the first of his five World Series championships in 1990. He joined the Yankees in 1993 after eight seasons with the Reds, and in 1994 claimed the American League batting title with a .359 average. From July 1995 to May 1997, he played in 235 consecutive games in right field without making an error. In 2001, at the age of 38, O'Neill became the oldest player in Major League history to steal 20 bases and hit 20 home runs in the same season.

He lives in his native Cincinnati with his wife, Nevalee, and their three children: Andrew, Aaron and Alexandra. He was named "Father of the Year" in June 2008 by the National Father's Day Council at its 67th Annual Father of the Year dinner in New York.

Yankees Radio Broadcasters

John Sterling

"Yankees win! Theeeeeee Yankees win!"

If anything has become synonymous with the Yankees' run of success over recent years, it is John Sterling's memorable conclusion to so many Yankees victories. As the radio voice to 162 games a year, plus preseason and postseason, he has called 4,147 official games (3,981 regular season/166 postseason) over the last 25 seasons, without missing even one, making him one of the most recognized—and imitated voices—in all of New York sports.

Sterling joined the Yankees broadcast team in 1989 from Atlanta's TBS and WSB Radio, where he called Hawks basketball (1981-89) and Braves games (1982-87). It marked a return to the town where he first achieved fame, hosting a talk show on WMCA from 1971-78, and calling the Nets (1975-80, and as a fill-in, in 1997) and Islanders (1975-78) for WMCA, WVNJ, WWOR-TV and SportsChannel.

Sterling also previously called Morgan State Football (eight years) and Washington Bullets basketball in 1981. In addition to his seven years at WMCA and a year at WSB in Atlanta, he has also hosted talk shows on WFAN and WABC in New York. He has not missed a broadcast of any kind since the fall of 1981.

As the host of the YES Network's acclaimed Yankeeography series, Sterling has won a total of 12 Emmy Awards since 2003. He has also been honored by the New Jersey Sportswriters Association with its Radio-TV Excellence Award (1999), and was the winner of the 2001 Whitney Radio Jimmy Cannon Award. In addition, his call of a Jason Giambi home run on WCBS radio in 2002 was voted the "Best Baseball Call of the Year" in a poll conducted by MLB.com. In 2002, Sterling was also honored by the NY Air Awards for being a part of the best play-by-play team on radio.

When he's not in the booth, Sterling serves as a master of on-field ceremonies for major Yankees events, and is well known for his emcee work at City Hall (with his former radio partner Michael Kay) at "Key to the City" ceremonies following Yankees World Series victories.

Sterling enjoys attending Broadway shows and boasts an extensive knowledge of the lyrics to many American pop standards. In 2007, he embarked on his own Broadway venture in a cabaret show titled "Baseball and Broadway" in which he both served as emcee and sang alongside broadway talent.

For the past 21 years, he has been a spokesman for the Leukemia Society of America. He enjoys reading, movies and swimming. He lives in Bergen County, N.J., and is the proud father of four children: daughter Abigail and triplets, Veronica, Bradford and Derek.

Suzyn Waldman

Award-winning journalist Suzyn Waldman begins her 28th season either covering or broadcasting the New York Yankees. She joined John Sterling in the radio booth in 2005 as the Yankees' color commentator on WCBS-AM radio, becoming the first woman to hold a full-time position as a Major League broadcaster.

Waldman has spent nearly three decades overcoming all the obstacles that go along with being a female sports broadcaster and has risen to the top of her profession. In 2006, she became a permanent part of the "Women in Baseball" exhibit at the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, and in 2009, her World Series Game 6 scorecard was added to the Hall of Fame's collection, commemorating her being the first female broadcaster to call game action in the World Series.

In 1987, Waldman became the first voice heard on WFAN-AM in New York, the first all-sports radio station in the country. She was a mainstay on that station for almost 15 years, creating the job of the radio beat reporter, covering both the New York Yankees and New York Knicks. Her news-breaking reports, exclusive interviews and always original and controversial opinions won her countless journalism awards. Her accolades include the "International Radio Award" for her live and emotional reporting from the upper deck of Candlestick Park during the 1989 San Francisco earthquake, the 1996 "NY Sportscaster of the Year" Award from the National Sportscasters & Sportswriters and the 1999 "Star Award" for radio from the American Women in Radio and TV. Waldman became a popular talk show host at WFAN and co-hosted the coveted midday slot until leaving WFAN in 2002 to join the YES Network.

The word "first" invariably precedes the name of Suzyn Waldman in every facet of her television and radio career. The first woman to work on a nationally-televised baseball broadcast, Waldman added another first, being the first woman to provide play-by-play for a Major League team, when she started broadcasting New York Yankees games for WPIX, MSG Network and WNYW/FOX5 in the mid 1990s. The first woman ever to host an NBA pre-and post-game show, Suzyn worked in that capacity for the New York Knicks on WFAN, provided play-by-play for the WNBA on Lifetime TV and was an analyst on St. John's basketball games for MSG and WFAN.

She has been honored by countless organizations, including the Thurman Munson Foundation, the March of Dimes, B'nai B'rith, the Jimmy Fund of Boston and the US Federal Women's Program. In 2006, she received the first Women's Global Health Award from the Albert Einstein College of Medicine at the United Nations. She is a tireless motivational speaker at schools and cancer centers around the country, encouraging young women to pursue their dreams despite any pitfalls they may encounter.

Waldman's life and accomplishments have been the subject of hundreds of magazine and newspaper articles, as well as chapters in children's and motivational books. She has been profiled on the Today Show, CBS Evening News with Dan Rather, ABC's 20/20 and NBC's Dateline. In 2013, Waldman was named one of Radio Ink Magazine's "Most Influential Women in Radio."

A native Bostonian with a degree in Economics from Boston's prestigious Simmons College, Suzyn spent 15 years on the Broadway Musical Stage and performed in countless night clubs around the world. She is proudest of her two years starring opposite Richard Kiley in Man of La Mancha. She lives in Westchester with her German Shepherds, A.J., Gatsby and Margo.

We Remember - Carlos Silva - Producer/Engineer

The Yankees mourn the loss of their friend Carlos Silva, who lost his battle with cancer on January 19, 2013, at age 50. Silva, a native of Caracas, Venezuela, was the producer and engineer for Yankees games on WCBS Radio 880 AM (Spanish and English) for eight seasons. The 2013 season marked his 13th year working on Yankees radio broadcasts and his 24th overall season in baseball. It also marked his third year producing and conducting interviews in Spanish for yesnetwork.com. Additionally, he was responsible for the translation and recording of Spanish broadcast spots throughout the season. Silva previously worked for ESPN Radio, Phillies Spanish radio, and the NBA's Orlando Magic and New Jersey Nets.

In the offseason, Silva resided in Lutz, Fla. He leaves behind his wife, Teresa, and their children, Leslie, Kimberly and Matthew. He will be dearly missed by all who knew him.

Yankees en Español

For the 18th consecutive season, the Yankees – in conjunction with WFAN radio – will provide Spanish radio and SAP (second audio programming) for game broadcasts.

WADO 1280 AM

Francisco Rivera

Since 1995, Francisco Rivera has been involved in baseball as a color commentator and play-by-play announcer, including eight years in the Yankees' broadcast booth. A native of Morovis, Puerto Rico, he covered the Philadelphia Phillies for "Radio Tropical" from 1995 to 1998 and worked the American League Championship Series in 2003 and 2004 for ESPN.

Rivera received his bachelor's degree in Spanish literature from Rutgers University and graduated from the Cambridge University-affiliated Miguel Angel Torres School of Communications in Manhattan in 1978. He began his communications career covering NBA basketball for WADO, and was later one of the pioneers of the talk show WADO Deportivo, where he worked until 2003. Francisco is married to Yvette Rodriguez and has two daughters, Melissa and Lorraine.

1978 World Series Champion Yankees

The Yankees' memorable 1978 World Championship club came back from a 14.0-game deficit in the AL East standings at the close of play on July 19 to take the division with a dramatic 5-4, one-game playoff victory over the Boston Red Sox at Fenway Park on Oct. 2. The team went on to defeat Kansas City 3-games-to-1 in the ALCS before winning their second straight Fall Classic over Los Angeles, 4-games-to-2. The club was piloted to the title by Bob Lemon, who led the Yankees to a 48-20 record after taking over following Billy Martin's midseason resignation.

George M. Steinbrenner Field

This year marks the 19th season the Yankees will play their spring training games at George M. Steinbrenner Field in Tampa, Fla. Since opening in 1996, the complex has also served as the home of the Single-A Tampa Yankees of the Florida State League. The field's dimensions are an exact replica of Yankee Stadium in the Bronx, measuring 318 feet down the left line, 408 feet to center field and 314 feet down the right field line. In 2008, the addition of the Walgreens Deck in right field expanded the Stadium's capacity to 11,076, making it the largest spring training facility in the Grapefruit League.

Fans will also notice another link to the Bronx with replicas of the Yankees' retired numbers placards from Yankee Stadium greeting them as they enter the complex.

The facility originally opened in 1996 as Legends Field. However on February 14, 2008, Hal and Hank Steinbrenner announced that it would be renamed George M. Steinbrenner Field. The name change followed two unanimous resolutions recommending and supporting the change from the Hillsborough County Commission and the Tampa City Council. In a pregame ceremony prior to the Yankees' March 27, 2008, spring training game against the Pittsburgh Pirates the complex was formally renamed in honor of the late Yankees' Principal Owner and Chairman

"I am humbled and flattered to have this outstanding and totally unexpected honor conferred on me," said George M. Steinbrenner at the time the resolution was passed. "I extend my thanks to the Tampa City Council and to the Hillsborough County Commissioners for passing resolutions suggesting and recommending the change. I also thank my family for supporting the renaming of the stadium and for everything they have done for so many years that helped bring about this great day."

The resolution passed by the Tampa City Council on February 7, 2008, cited Mr. Steinbrenner's many charitable donations on behalf of youth activities, hospitals and the arts. The resolution passed by the Board of the Hillsborough County Commissioners on February 6, 2008, recognized Mr. Steinbrenner's numerous extraordinary contributions to the area.

James P. Dawson Award

Each spring training, the Yankees present the James P. Dawson Award to the outstanding Yankees rookie in spring training, as voted on by the New York Yankees beat writers. The award was established in honor of James P. Dawson (1896-1953), who began a 45-year career with The New York Times as a copy boy in 1908. Eight years later, he became boxing editor and covered boxing and baseball until his death during spring training in 1953.

Two winners of the honor, Tony Kubek in 1957 and Tom Tresh in 1962, went on to win the American League "Rookie of the Year" Award. Prior winners are listed below:

We are a true baseball family. Within the Minor Leagues, my daughter works in promotions, my husband was a groundskeeper and I am a merchandise manager. My husband experienced a life changing medical event that has left him with little hope to ever return to his job. The Baseball Assistance Team kept us from losing our home. I honestly don't know what I would have done without them!

FOR YANKEES TICKET INFORMATION, PLEASE VISIT YANKEES.COM OR CALL (212)-YANKEES

The term "Premium Game(s)" is defined as the Opening Day game, the Old-Timers' Day game, the games scheduled for April 12, May 17, June 27–29, July 18–20, Sept. 2–4 and Sept. 18–25, and such other games as may be designated, on no less than seven (7) days notice, as Premium Games, no later than the first day of each month during the regular season, with respect to all future games during the regular season.

Game times listed as TBA are subject to determination by, among others, Major League Baseball and its television partners.

All seat locations are subject to availability.

Time, opponent, date and team rosters and lineups, including the New York Yankees' roster and lineup, are subject to change.

In no event will the New York Yankees be liable to the ticket holder and/or ticket purchaser for any direct, indirect, consequential, exemplary, incidental, special or punitive damages or for lost profits, revenues or business opportunities even if the Yankees have been advised of the possibility of such damages.

Be advised that the New York Yankees reserve the right to take appropriate action against individuals who fraudulently obtain wheelchair accessible and/or companion seats, including, without limitation, ejection and legal action.

NOTICE: For the safety of every Guest, all persons specifically consent to and are subject to metal detector and physical pat-down inspections prior to entry. Any person or property that could affect the safety of Yankee Stadium, its occupants or its property shall be denied entry. Guests may bring into the Stadium one soft-sided bag no larger than 16 inches by 16 inches by 8 inches.

WARNING: For the safety of everyone in Yankee Stadium, all Guests must stay alert and be aware of their surroundings at all times, as during all batting practices, fielding practices, warm-ups and throughout the course of all baseball games and the baseball game experiences, hard hit baseballs and bats and fragments thereof may be thrown or hit into the stands, concourses, walkways, concessions areas, Monument Park and all other publicly accessible areas within the Stadium. Further, Guests concerned with their original ticketed location by reason of the foregoing, at any time before or during the baseball game or the baseball game experiences, should contact a New York Yankees ticket representative; however, please remember that: (a) any requested relocation is subject to availability; (b) any alternate seat or standing location may be in a section and/or level of the Stadium and/or within a price category that is not in the same section and/or level and/or price category of the Guests' original ticketed location, regardless of their original ticketed location; and (c) any Guest requesting relocation is responsible for paying the incremental price increase, if any, of the ticket price for the available alternate location. Relocation to a seat or standing location at a lower price than the price of the original ticketed location will not result in a refund or credit.

NOTICE: The New York Yankees reserve the right, with or without refunding any amount paid by the ticket holder, to refuse admission to and/or eject any person who: (a) is or appears to be impaired; (b) deliberately conceals alcohol, illegal substances or other prohibited items while attempting to enter Yankee Stadium; (c) uses foul or abusive language; or (d) wears or fails to cover obscene or indecent clothing. Ticket holders acknowledge and agree that the Yankees' ban on foul/abusive language and obscene/indecent clothing does not violate their right to free speech and/or expression and that such time, place and manner of the restrictions are reasonable to ensure the safety of all Guests and game or event participants and to preserve the enjoyment of the game or event for all Guests. In addition, ticket holders further acknowledge and agree that by entering the Stadium, they hereby consent to the ban on foul/abusive language and obscene/indecent clothing and waive, to the fullest extent they may legally and effectively do so, any objection they may now or hereafter have to such ban and the penalties that the Yankees may impose for any violation of the same.

Life's better when we're connected

to each other

The transition from military to civilian life can be difficult for many of our troops. That's why it's critical for all of us to come together and support our service members and veterans.

For over 90 years, Bank of America has been proud to support service members and veterans as employees, customers and important members of our communities.
